1 Elisha prophesieth incredible plenty in Samaria. 3 Four lepers, venturing on the host of the Syrians, bring tidings of their flight. 12 The king, finding by spies the news to be true, spoileth the tents of the Syrians. 17 The lord, who would not believe the prophecy of plenty, having the charge of the gate, is trodden to death in the press.

THEN Elisha <sup>a</sup> said, Hear ye the word of the LORD: Thus saith the LORD, <sup>b</sup> To-morrow, about this time, shall a measure of fine flour be sold for a <sup>c</sup> shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, in the gate of Samaria.

2 Then a lord, on whose hand the king <sup>d</sup> leaned, answered the man of God, and said, Behold, if the LORD would make <sup>e</sup> windows in heaven, might <sup>f</sup> this thing be? And he said, Behold, thou shalt <sup>g</sup> see it with thine eyes, but shalt not eat thereof.

3 And there were four leprous men <sup>h</sup> at the entering in of the gate: and they <sup>i</sup> said one to another, Why sit we here until we die?

4 If we say, We will enter into the city, then the famine is in the city, and we shall die there: and <sup>k</sup> if we sit still here, we die also. Now therefore come, and let us fall unto the host of the Syrians: if they save us alive, we shall live; and if they kill us, we shall but die.

5 And they rose up in the <sup>l</sup> twilight, to go unto the camp of the Syrians: and when they were come to the uttermost part of the camp of Syria, behold, there was no man there.

6 For the LORD had made the host of the Syrians <sup>m</sup> to hear a noise of chariots, and a noise of horses, even the noise of a great host; and they said one to another, Lo, the king of Israel hath hired against us the kings of the <sup>n</sup> Hittites, and the kings of the Egyptians, to come upon us.

7 Wherefore they arose, and <sup>o</sup> fled in the twilight, and left their tents, and their horses, and their asses, even the camp as it was, and fled for their life.

8 And when these lepers came to the uttermost part of the camp, they went into one tent, and did eat and drink, and carried thence silver, and gold, and raiment, and went and <sup>p</sup> hid it; and came again, and entered into another tent, and carried thence also, and went and hid it.

9 Then they said <sup>q</sup> one to another, We do not well: this day is <sup>r</sup> a day of good tidings, and we hold our peace: if we tarry till the morning light, some <sup>s</sup> mischief will come upon us: now therefore come, that we may go and tell the king's household.

10 So they came, and called unto the porter of the city; and they told them, saying, We came to the camp of the Syrians, and, behold, there was no man there, neither voice of man, but horses tied, and asses tied, and the tents as they were.

11 And he called the porters; and they told it to the king's house within.

12 And the king arose in the night, and said unto his <sup>t</sup> servants, I will now shew you what the Syrians have done to us: They know that we be hungry, therefore are they gone out of the camp to hide themselves in the field, saying, When they come out of the city, we shall catch them alive, and get into the city.

13 And <sup>u</sup> one of his servants answered and said, Let some take, I pray thee, five of the horses that remain, which are left in the city, (behold, they are as all the multitude of Israel that are left in it; behold, I say, they are even as all the multitude of the Israelites that are consumed,) and let us send and see.

14 They took therefore <sup>v</sup> two chariot horses; and the king sent after the host of the Syrians, saying, Go and see.

15 And they went after them unto Jordan; and, lo, all the way was full of garments and vessels, which the Syrians had cast away in their haste: and the messengers returned, and told the king.

16 And the people went out, and spoiled the tents of the Syrians. So a measure of fine flour was sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, according to the word of the LORD.

17 And the king appointed the lord on whose hand he leaned to have the charge of the gate: and the people trode upon him in the gate, and he died, as the man of God had said, who spake when the king came down to him.

18 And it came to pass, as the man of God had spoken to the king, saying, Two measures of barley for a shekel, and a measure of fine flour for a shekel, shall be to-morrow, about this time, in the gate of Samaria:

19 And that lord answered the man of God, and said, Now, behold, if the LORD should make windows in heaven, might such a thing be? And he said, Behold, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, but shalt not eat thereof.

20 And so it fell out unto him: for the people trode upon him in the gate, and he died.

Philistines: and she went forth to cry unto the king for her house and for her land.

4 And the king || talked with Gehazi, the servant of the man of God, saying, Tell me, I pray thee, all the great things that Elisha hath done.

5 And it came to pass, as he was telling the king how he had restored a dead body to life, that, behold, the woman, whose son he had restored to life, cried to the king for her house and for her land. And Gehazi said, My lord, O king, <sup>h</sup> this is the woman, and this is her son whom Elisha restored to life.

6 And when the king asked the woman, she told him. So the king appointed unto her a certain officer, saying, Restore all that was hers, and all the fruits of the field, since the day that she left the land, even until now.

7 ¶ And Elisha came to Damascus; and Ben-hadad the king of Syria was sick: and it was told him, saying, The <sup>i</sup> man of God is come hither.

8 And the king said unto <sup>k</sup> Hazael, <sup>l</sup> Take a present in thine hand, and go, meet the man of God, and <sup>m</sup> inquire of the LORD by him, saying, Shall I † recover of this disease?

9 So Hazael went to meet him, and took a present with him, even of every good thing of Damascus, forty camels' burden, and came and stood before him, and said, <sup>n</sup> Thy son Ben-hadad king of Syria hath sent me to thee, saying, Shall I recover of this disease?

10 And Elisha said unto him, Go, say unto him, Thou mayest certainly recover: howbeit, the LORD hath shewed me that he shall surely die.

11 And he settled his countenance stedfastly, until he was ashamed: and the man of God <sup>o</sup> wept.

12 And Hazael said, Why weepeth my lord? And he answered, Because I know <sup>p</sup> the evil that thou wilt do unto the children of Israel: <sup>q</sup> their strong holds wilt thou set on fire, and their young men wilt thou slay with the sword, and wilt dash their children, and rip up their women with child.

13 And Hazael said, But what! <sup>r</sup> is thy servant <sup>s</sup> a dog, that he should <sup>t</sup> do this great thing? And Elisha answered, <sup>u</sup> The LORD hath shewed me that thou shalt be king over Syria.

14 So he departed from Elisha, and came to his master; who said to him, What said Elisha to thee? And he answered, He told me that thou shouldst surely recover.

15 And it came to pass <sup>u</sup> on the morrow, that he took a thick cloth, and dipped it in water, and <sup>x</sup> spread it on his face, so that he died; and Hazael reigned in his stead.

16 ¶ And in the <sup>y</sup> fifth year of Joram, the son of Ahab king of Israel, Jehoshaphat <sup>z</sup> being then king of Judah, Jehoram, the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, began to reign.

17 Thirty and two years old was he when he began to reign; and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

18 And he walked in the <sup>z</sup> way of the kings of Israel, as did the house of Ahab; for the daughter of Ahab was his wife: and he did <sup>b</sup> evil in the sight of the LORD.

19 Yet the LORD would not destroy Judah <sup>c</sup> for David his servant's sake, <sup>d</sup> as he promised to give to him alway a light, and to his children.

20 In his days Edom <sup>e</sup> revolted from under the hand of Judah, and made a king over themselves.

21 So Joram went over to Zair, and all the chariots with him: and he rose <sup>f</sup> by night, and <sup>g</sup> smote the Edomites which compassed him about, and the captains of the chariots: and the people fled into their tents.

22 <sup>h</sup> Yet Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah unto this day. Then <sup>i</sup> Libnah revolted at the same time.

23 And the rest of the acts of Joram, and all that he did, <sup>j</sup> are they not written in the <sup>k</sup> book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

25 In the twelfth year of Joram, the son of Ahab king of Israel, did Ahaziah, the son of Jehoram king of Judah, begin to reign.

26 <sup>o</sup> Two and twenty years old was Ahaziah when he began to reign, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Athaliah, the <sup>p</sup> daughter of Omri king of Israel.

27 And he walked in the way of the <sup>q</sup> house of Ahab, and did <sup>r</sup> evil in the sight of the LORD, as <sup>s</sup> did the house of Ahab: <sup>t</sup> for he was the son-in-law of the house of Ahab.

28 And he went with Joram the son of Ahab to the war against Hazael king of Syria in <sup>u</sup> Ramoth-gilead; and the Syrians wounded Joram.

29 And king Joram went back to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Syrians had given him at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria. And Ahaziah, the son of Jehoram king of Judah, went down to see Joram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was <sup>v</sup> sick.

CHAP. IX.

1 Elisha sendeth a young prophet with instructions to anoint Jehu at Ramoth-gilead. 4 The prophet having done his message, fleeth. 11 Jehu, being made king by the soldiers, killeth Joram in the field of Naboth. 27 Ahaziah is slain at Gur, and buried at Jerusalem. 30 Proud Jezebel is thrown down out of a window, and eaten by dogs.

AND Elisha the prophet called one of the † children of the prophets, and said unto him, <sup>a</sup> Gird up thy loins, and take this box of oil in thine hand, and go to Ramoth-gilead:

2 And when thou comest thither, look out there Jehu the <sup>b</sup> son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi, and go in, and make him arise up from among his brethren, and carry him to an † inner chamber:

3 Then take the box of oil, and pour it on his head, and say, Thus saith the LORD, I have <sup>c</sup> anointed thee king over Israel. Then open the door, and <sup>d</sup> flee, and tarry not.

4 So the young man, even the young man the prophet, went to Ramoth-gilead.

5 And when he came, behold, the captains of the host were sitting: and he said, I have an errand to thee, O captain. And Jehu said, Unto which of all us? And he said, To thee, O captain.

6 And he arose, and went into the house; and he poured the oil on his head, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, I have anointed thee king over the people of the LORD, even over Israel.

7 And thou shalt <sup>e</sup> smite the house of Ahab thy master, that I may <sup>f</sup> avenge the blood of my servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of the LORD, <sup>g</sup> at the hand of Jezebel.

8 For the whole house of Ahab shall perish; and I will cut off from Ahab him that <sup>h</sup> pisseth against the wall, and him that is <sup>i</sup> shut up and left in Israel:

9 And I will make the house of Ahab like the house of <sup>k</sup> Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of <sup>l</sup> Baasha the son of Ahijah:

10 And the <sup>m</sup> dogs shall eat Jezebel in the <sup>n</sup> portion of Jezreel, and there shall be none to bury her. And he opened the door and fled.

11 Then Jehu came forth to the servants of his lord: and one said unto him, Is all well? wherefore came this <sup>o</sup> mad fellow to thee? And he said unto them, Ye know the man, and his communication.

12 And they said, It is false; tell us now. And he said, Thus and thus spake he to me, saying, Thus saith the LORD, I have anointed thee king over Israel.

13 Then they hastened, and took every man his garment, and <sup>p</sup> put it under him on the top of the stairs, and blew with trumpets, saying, Jehu is king.

14 So Jehu, the son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi, conspired against Joram. (Now Joram had kept Ramoth-gilead, he and all Israel, because of Hazael king of Syria.)

15 But king Joram was returned to be <sup>q</sup> healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Syrians had given him, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria.) And Jehu said, If it be your minds, then <sup>r</sup> let none go forth nor escape out of the city, to go to tell it in Jezreel.

16 So Jehu rode in a chariot, and went to Jezreel; for Joram lay there. And <sup>s</sup> Ahaziah king of Judah was come down to see Joram.

17 And there stood <sup>t</sup> a watchman on the tower in Jezreel, and he spied the company of Jehu as he came, and said, I see a company. And Joram said, Take an horseman, and send to meet them, and let him say, Is it peace?

18 So there went one on horseback to meet him, and said, Thus saith the king, Is it peace? And Jehu said, <sup>u</sup> What hast thou to do with peace? turn thee behind me. And the watchman told, saying, The messenger came to them, but he cometh not again.

19 Then he sent out a second on horseback, which came to them, and said, Thus saith the king, Is it peace? And Jehu answered, What hast thou to do with peace? turn thee behind me.

20 And the watchman told, saying, He came even unto them, and cometh not again: and the driving is like the driving of Jehu the son of Nimshi; for he driveth <sup>v</sup> furiously.

21 And Joram said, Make ready. And his chariot was made ready. And Joram king of Israel, and Ahaziah king of Judah, went out, each in his chariot, and they went out against Jehu, and met him in the portion of Naboth the Jezreelite.

22 And it came to pass, when Joram saw Jehu, that he said, Is it peace, Jehu? And he answered, <sup>w</sup> What peace, so long as the <sup>x</sup> whoredoms of thy mother Jezebel, and her <sup>y</sup> witchcrafts, are so many?

23 And Joram <sup>z</sup> turned his hands, and <sup>a</sup> fled, and said to Ahaziah, There is treachery, O Ahaziah!

24 And Jehu <sup>b</sup> drew a bow with his full strength, and smote Jehoram between his arms; and the arrow went out at his heart, and he sunk down in his chariot.

25 Then said Jehu to Bidkar his captain, Take up, and cast him in the portion of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite: for remember how that, when I and thou rode together after Ahab his father, the LORD laid this <sup>c</sup> burden upon him;

26 Surely I have seen <sup>d</sup> yesterday the <sup>e</sup> blood of Naboth, and the blood of his <sup>f</sup> sons, saith the LORD; and I will requite thee in this plat, saith the LORD. Now therefore take and cast him into the plat of ground, according to the word of the LORD.

27 But when Ahaziah the king of Judah saw this, he fled by the way of the garden-house: and Jehu followed after him, and said, Smite <sup>g</sup> him also in the chariot. And they did so at the going up to <sup>h</sup> Gur, which is by <sup>i</sup> Ibleam. And he fled to <sup>j</sup> Megiddo, and died there.

28 And his servants carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem, and buried him in his sepulchre with his fathers in the <sup>k</sup> city of David.

29 And in the <sup>l</sup> eleventh year of Joram the son of Ahab began Ahaziah to reign over Judah.

30 ¶ And when Jehu was come to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it; and she <sup>m</sup> painted her face, and tired her head, and looked out at a window.

31 And as Jehu entered in at the gate, she said, Had <sup>n</sup> Zimri peace, who slew his master?

32 And he lift up his face to the window, and said, Who is on my side? who? And there looked out to him two or three eunuchs.

33 And he said, Throw her down. So they threw her down: and some of her blood was sprinkled on the wall, and on the horses: and he <sup>o</sup> trode her under foot.

34 And when he was come in, he did eat and drink, and said, Go, see now this <sup>p</sup> cursed woman, and <sup>q</sup> bury her: for she is a <sup>r</sup> king's daughter.

35 And they went to bury her; but they found no more of her than the scull, and the feet, and the palms of her hands.

11 So Jehu slew all that remained of the house of Ahab in Jezreel, and all his great men, and his kinsfolks, and his priests, until he left him none remaining.

12 And he arose and departed, and came to Samaria. And as he was at the shearing-house in the way, 13 Jehu met with the brethren of Ahaziah king of Judah, and said, Who are ye? And they answered, We are the brethren of Ahaziah; and we go down to salute the children of the king, and the children of the queen.

14 And he said, Take them alive. And they took them alive, and slew them at the pit of the shearing-house, even two and forty men: neither left he any of them.

15 And when he was departed thence, he lighted on Jehonadab the son of Rechab, coming to meet him: and he saluted him, and said to him, Is thine heart right, as my heart is with thy heart? And Jehonadab answered, It is. If it be, give me thine hand. And he gave him his hand; and he took him up to him into the chariot.

16 And he said, Come with me, and see my zeal for the LORD. So they made him ride in his chariot.

17 And when he came to Samaria, he slew all that remained unto Ahab in Samaria, till he had destroyed him, according to the saying of the LORD, which he spake to Elijah.

18 And Jehu gathered all the people together, and said unto them, Ahab served Baal a little, but Jehu shall serve him much.

19 Now therefore call unto me all the prophets of Baal, all his servants, and all his priests; let none be wanting: for I have a great sacrifice to do to Baal: whosoever shall be wanting, he shall not live. But Jehu did it in subtilty, to the intent that he might destroy the worshippers of Baal.

20 And Jehu said, Proclaim a solemn assembly for Baal. And they proclaimed it.

21 And Jehu sent through all Israel; and all the worshippers of Baal came, so that there was not a man left that came not: and they came into the house of Baal; and the house of Baal was full from one end to another.

22 And he said unto him that was over the vestry, Bring forth vestments for all the worshippers of Baal. And he brought them forth vestments.

23 And Jehu went, and Jehonadab the son of Rechab, into the house of Baal, and said unto the worshippers of Baal, Search, and look that there be here with you none of the servants of the LORD, but the worshippers of Baal only.

24 And when they went in to offer sacrifices and burnt-offerings, Jehu appointed fourscore men without, and said, If any of the men whom I have brought into your hands escape, he that letteth him go, his life shall be for the life of him.

25 And it came to pass, as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt-offering, that Jehu said to the guard and to the captains, Go in, and slay them; let none come forth. And they smote them with the edge of the sword; and the 29 <sup>l</sup> Howbeit, from the <sup>m</sup> sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, Jehu departed not from after them, to wit, the <sup>n</sup> golden calves that were in Beth-el, and that were in Dan.

31 But Jehu <sup>r</sup> took no heed to walk in the law of the LORD God of Israel with all his heart: for he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam, which made Israel to sin.

32 <sup>t</sup> In those days the LORD began <sup>u</sup> to cut Israel short: and Hazael smote them in all the coasts of Israel;

33 From Jordan eastward, all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, and the Reubenites, and the Manassites, from Aroer, (which is by the river Arnon,) even Gilead and Bashan.

1 Jehoash, being saved by Jehosheba his aunt from Athaliah's massacre of the seed royal, is hid six years in the house of God. 4 Jehoiada, giving order to the captains, in the seventh year anointeth him king. 13 Athaliah is slain. 17 Jehoiada restoreth the worship of God.

AND when <sup>y</sup> Athaliah, the mother of Ahaziah, saw that her son was <sup>z</sup> dead, she arose, and destroyed all the seed <sup>a</sup> royal.

2 But <sup>b</sup> Jehosheba the daughter of king Joram, sister of Ahaziah, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him from among the king's sons which were slain; and they hid him, even him and his nurse, in the bed-chamber <sup>c</sup> from Athaliah, so that he was not slain.

3 And he was with her hid in the house of the LORD six years. And Athaliah <sup>d</sup> did reign over the land.

4 And the seventh year <sup>e</sup> Jehoiada sent and fetched the <sup>f</sup> rulers over hundreds, with the captains and the guard, and brought them to him into the house of the LORD, and <sup>g</sup> made a covenant with them, and took an oath of them in the house of the LORD, and shewed them the king's son.

5 And he commanded them, saying, This is the thing that ye shall do: <sup>h</sup> A third part of you that enter in on the <sup>i</sup> sabbath shall even be keepers of the watch of the king's house;

6 And a third part shall be at the gate of <sup>j</sup> Sur; and a third part at the gate <sup>k</sup> behind the guard: so shall ye keep the watch of the house, that it be not broken down.

7 And two parts of all you that go forth on the sabbath, even they shall keep the watch of the house of the LORD about the king.

8 And ye shall compass the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand: and he that cometh within the ranges, let him be <sup>l</sup> slain: and be ye with the king as he goeth out, and as he cometh in.

9 And the captains over the hundreds did according to all things that Jehoiada the priest commanded: and they took every man his men that were to come in on the sabbath, with them that should go out on the sabbath, and came to Jehoiada the priest.

10 And to the captains over hundreds did the priest give king <sup>m</sup> David's spears and shields, that were in the temple.

11 And the guard stood, every man with his weapons in his hand, round about the king, from the right corner of the temple to the left corner of the temple, along by the <sup>n</sup> altar and the temple.

12 And he brought forth the king's son, and put the crown upon him, and gave him the <sup>o</sup> testimony: and they <sup>p</sup> made him king, and anointed him; and they <sup>q</sup> clapped their hands, and said, God <sup>r</sup> save the king.

13 And when Athaliah heard the noise of the guard and of the people, she came to the people into the <sup>s</sup> temple of the LORD.

14 And when she looked, behold, the king stood by a <sup>t</sup> pillar, as the manner was, and the princes and the trumpeters by the king; and all the people of the land rejoiced, and blew with trumpets: and Athaliah rent her clothes, and cried, <sup>u</sup> Treason, treason!

15 But Jehoiada the priest commanded the captains of the <sup>v</sup> hundreds, the officers of the host, and said unto them, Have her forth without the ranges; and him that <sup>w</sup> followeth her kill with the sword. For the priest had said, Let her not be slain in the house of the LORD.

16 And they laid hands on her: and she went by the way by the which the horses came into the king's house: and there was she <sup>x</sup> slain.

17 And Jehoiada made a covenant between the LORD and the <sup>y</sup> king and the people, that they should be the LORD's people; <sup>z</sup> between the king also and the people, 18 And all the <sup>a</sup> people of the land went into the <sup>b</sup> house of Baal, and brake it down; his altars and his images brake they in pieces thoroughly, and slew Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. And the priest appointed officers over the house of the LORD.

21 Seven years old was Jehoash when he began to reign.

C H A P. XII.

1 Jehoash reigneth well all the days of Jehoiada.

4 He giveth order for the repair of the temple. 17 Hazael is diverted from Jerusalem by a present of the hallowed treasures. 19 Jehoash being slain by his servants, Amaziah succeedeth him.

IN the <sup>a</sup> seventh year of Jehu, Jehoash began to reign; and forty years reigned he in Jerusalem: and his <sup>b</sup> mother's name was Zibiah of Beer-sheba.

2 And Jehoash did that which was <sup>a</sup> right in the sight of the LORD all his days wherein Jehoiada the priest instructed him.

3 But the <sup>a</sup> high places were not taken away: the people still <sup>f</sup> sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places.

4 And Jehoash said to the priests, All the money of the <sup>f</sup> dedicated things that is brought into the house of the LORD, even the money <sup>a</sup> of every one that passeth the account, the money that every man is <sup>b</sup> set at, and all the money that <sup>i</sup> cometh into any man's heart to bring into the house of the LORD,

5 Let the <sup>k</sup> priests take it to them, every man of his <sup>i</sup> acquaintance; and let them repair the breaches of the house, wheresoever any breach shall be found.

6 But it was so, that, in the three and twentieth year of king Jehoash, the priests had not repaired the breaches of the house.

7 Then king Jehoash called for Jehoiada the priest, and the other priests, and said unto them, Why repair ye not the breaches of the house? Now, therefore, <sup>m</sup> receive no more money of your acquaintance, but deliver it for the breaches of the house.

8 And the priests consented to receive no more money of the people, neither to repair the breaches of the house.

9 But Jehoiada the priest took <sup>a</sup> a chest, and bored a hole in the lid of it, and set it <sup>a</sup> beside the altar, on the right side as one cometh into the house of the LORD: and the priests that kept the <sup>f</sup> door put therein all the money that was brought into the house of the LORD.

10 And it was so, when they saw that there was much money in the <sup>h</sup> chest, that the king's <sup>p</sup> scribe and the <sup>a</sup> high priest came up, and they put up in bags, and told the money that was found in the house of the LORD.

11 And they gave the money, being <sup>r</sup> told, into the hands of them that did the work, that had the oversight of the house of the LORD: and they laid it out to the carpenters and builders that wrought upon the house of the LORD,

12 And to <sup>a</sup> masons, and hewers of stone, and to buy timber and hewed stone to repair the breaches of the house of the LORD, and for all that was laid out for the house to repair it.

13 Howbeit, there were <sup>t</sup> not made for the house of the LORD <sup>u</sup> bowls of silver, snuffers, <sup>14.</sup> basons, <sup>u</sup> trumpets, any vessels of gold, or vessels of silver, of the money that was brought into the house of the LORD:

14 But they gave that to the workmen, and repaired therewith the house of the LORD.

15 Moreover, they reckoned not with the men, into whose hand they delivered the money to be bestowed on workmen: for they dealt <sup>f</sup> faithfully.

16 The <sup>v</sup> trespass-money and sin-money was not brought into the house of the LORD: it was the priests'.

17 † Then <sup>a</sup> Hazael king of Syria <sup>a</sup> went up, and fought against Gath, and took it: and Hazael <sup>b</sup> set his face to go up to Jerusalem.

18 And Jehoash king of Judah took all the hallowed things that Jehoshaphat, and Jehoram, and Ahaziah, his fathers, kings of Judah, had dedicated, and his own hallowed things, and all the gold that was found in the treasures of the house of the LORD, and in the king's house, and <sup>c</sup> sent it to Hazael king of Syria: and he went away from Jerusalem.

19 And the rest of the acts of Jehoash, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

20 And his servants arose, and made † a conspiracy, and slew Jehoash in the house of <sup>d</sup> Milo, which goeth down to <sup>a</sup> Silla.

21 For † Jozachar the son of Shimeath, and Jehozabab the son of Shomer, his servants, smote him, and he died; and they buried him with his fathers in the <sup>s</sup> city of David: and Amaziah his son reigned in his stead.

C H A P. XIII.

1 Jehoahaz's wicked reign. 3 Jehoahaz, oppressed by Hazael, is relieved by prayer. 8 Joash succeedeth him: 10 His wicked reign. 12 Jeroboam succeedeth him. 14 Elisha dying, prophesieth to Joash three victories over the Syrians. 20 The Moabites invading the land, Elisha's bones raise up a dead man. 22 Hazael dying, Joash getteth three victories over Ben-hadad.

IN the <sup>a</sup> three and twentieth year of Joash, the son of Ahaziah king of Judah, Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned seventeen years.

2 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, and followed the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which made Israel to sin; he departed not therefrom.

3 And the anger of the LORD was <sup>b</sup> kindled against Israel; and he <sup>c</sup> delivered them into the hand of <sup>d</sup> Hazael king of Syria, and into the hand of <sup>e</sup> Ben-hadad the son of Hazael, all their days.

4 And Jehoahaz <sup>f</sup> besought the LORD, and the LORD hearkened unto him; for <sup>g</sup> he saw the oppression of Israel, because the king of Syria <sup>h</sup> oppressed them.

12 And Judah was put to the worse before Israel; and they fled every man to their tents.

IN the seventeenth year of Pekah the son of Remaliah, <sup>a</sup> Ahaz the son of Jotham king of Judah began to reign.

2 Twenty years old was Ahaz when he began to reign, and reigned <sup>b</sup> sixteen years in Jerusalem, and did not that which was right in the sight of the LORD his God, like David his father.

3 But he walked in the <sup>c</sup> way of the kings of Israel; yea, and made <sup>d</sup> his son to pass through the fire, according to the abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD cast out from before the children of Israel.

4 And he sacrificed and burnt incense in the <sup>e</sup> high places, and on the <sup>f</sup> hills, and <sup>g</sup> under every green tree.

5 Then Rezin king of Syria, and Pekah son of Remaliah king of Israel, came up to Jerusalem to war: and they besieged Ahaz, but <sup>h</sup> could not overcome him.

6 At that time Rezin king of Syria recovered Elath to Syria, and drove the Jews from <sup>i</sup> Elath: and the <sup>j</sup> Syrians came to Elath, and dwelt there unto this day.

14 And he brought also the <sup>a</sup> brasen altar, which was <sup>b</sup> before the LORD, from the fore-front of the house, from between the altar and the house of the LORD, and put it on the north side of the altar.

15 And king Ahaz commanded Urijah the priest, saying, Upon the great altar burn the morning burnt-offering, and the evening meat-offering, and the king's burnt-sacrifice, and his meat-offering, with the burnt-offering of all the people of the land, and their meat offering, and their drink-offerings; and sprinkle upon it all the blood of the burnt-offering, and all the blood of the sacrifice: and the brasen altar shall be for me to inquire by.

16 <sup>c</sup> Thus did Urijah the priest, according to all that king Ahaz commanded.

17 And king Ahaz cut off the † borders of the bases, and removed the laver from off them; and took down the sea from off the brasen oxen that were under it, and put it upon a pavement of stones:

18 And the <sup>d</sup> covert for the sabbath that they had built in the house, and the king's entry without, turned he from the house of the LORD <sup>e</sup> for the king of Assyria.

19 Now the rest of the acts of Ahaz which he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

20 And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in <sup>f</sup> the city of David: and Hezekiah his son reigned in his stead.

4 And the king of Assyria found conspiracy <sup>725.</sup> <sup>d</sup> in Hoshea: for he had sent messengers to So king of Egypt, and brought no present to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year: therefore the king of Assyria shut him up, and bound him in † prison. <sup>d</sup> ch. 24, 20.

5 Then the king of Assyria came up <sup>e</sup> through-out all the land, and went up to Samaria, and besieged it three years. † Heb. an house of shut-

11 And there they burnt <sup>s</sup> incense in all the high places, as † did the heathen whom the LORD carried away <sup>t</sup> before them; and wrought wicked things to provoke the LORD to anger:

12 For they served idols, whereof the LORD had said unto them, Ye shall not do this thing. <sup>t</sup> Lev. 18, 27. <sup>28.</sup>

13 Yet the LORD testified against Israel, and against Judah, by all <sup>u</sup> the prophets, and by all the seers, saying, Turn ye <sup>x</sup> from your evil ways, and keep my commandments and my statutes, according to all the law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you by my servants the prophets. <sup>u</sup> Jer. 25, 3. <sup>x</sup> Jer. 14, 11. & 25, 5.

14 Notwithstanding, they would not hear, but <sup>y</sup> hardened their necks, like to the neck of their fathers, that did not believe in the LORD their God. <sup>y</sup> Prov. 29, 1.

30 And the men of Babylon made Succoth-

31 And the Avites made Nibhaz and Tartak, and the Sepharvites burnt their children in fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim.

32 So they feared the LORD, and made unto themselves of the lowest of them priests of the high places, which sacrificed for them in the houses of the high places.

33 They feared the LORD, and served their own gods, after the manner of the nations whom they carried away from thence.

34 Unto this day they do after the former manners: they fear not the LORD, neither do they after their statutes, or after their ordinances, or after the law and commandment which the LORD commanded the children of Jacob, whom he named Israel;

35 With whom the LORD had made a covenant, and charged them, saying, Ye shall not fear other gods, nor bow yourselves to them, nor serve them, nor sacrifice to them:

36 But the LORD, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt with great power and a stretched-out arm, him shall ye fear, and him shall ye worship, and to him shall ye do sacrifice.

37 And the statutes, and the ordinances, and the law, and the commandment, which he wrote for you, ye shall observe to do for evermore; and ye shall not fear other gods.

38 And the covenant that I have made with you ye shall not forget, neither shall ye fear other gods.

39 But the LORD your God ye shall fear; and he shall deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies.

40 Howbeit they did not hearken, but they did after their former manner.

41 So these nations feared the LORD, and served their graven images, both their children and their children's children: as did their fathers, so do they unto this day.

5 He trusted <sup>b</sup> in the LORD God of Israel; so that after him <sup>i</sup> was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor <sup>any</sup> that were before him.

6 For he <sup>k</sup> clave to the LORD, and departed not from following him, but kept his commandments, which the LORD commanded Moses.

7 And the LORD was <sup>l</sup> with him; and he || prospered whithersoever he went forth: and he <sup>m</sup> rebelled against the king of Assyria, and served him not.

8 He smote <sup>n</sup> the Philistines, even unto Gaza, and the borders thereof, from the tower of the watchmen to the fenced city.

9 And it came to pass in the <sup>o</sup> fourth year of king Hezekiah; which <sup>was</sup> the seventh year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, that Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against Samaria, and besieged it.

10 And at the end of three years they <sup>p</sup> took it, even in the sixth year of Hezekiah (that is, the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel) Samaria was taken.

11 And the king of Assyria did carry away Israel unto Assyria, and put them in <sup>q</sup> Halah and in Habor <sup>by</sup> the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes:

13 ¶ Now, in the <sup>s</sup> fourteenth year of king Hezekiah did Sennacherib king of Assyria come up against all the fenced cities of Judah, and <sup>t</sup> took them.

14 And Hezekiah king of Judah sent to the king of Assyria to <sup>u</sup> Lachish, saying, I have <sup>x</sup> offended; return from me: that which thou puttest on me will I bear. And the king of Assyria appointed unto Hezekiah king of Judah three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents of gold.

15 And Hezekiah gave <sup>him</sup> all <sup>y</sup> the silver that was found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king's house.

16 At that time did Hezekiah cut off <sup>the</sup> <sup>z</sup> gold from the doors of the temple of the LORD, and from the pillars which Hezekiah king of Judah had overlaid, and gave it to the king of Assyria.

17 ¶ And the king of Assyria <sup>a</sup> sent Tartan, and Rabsaris, and Rab-shakeh, from Lachish to king Hezekiah, with a great host against Jerusalem: and they went up, and came to Jerusalem. And when they were come up, they came and stood by the <sup>b</sup> conduit of the upper pool, which <sup>is</sup> in the highway of the fuller's field.

18 And when they had called to the king, there came out to <sup>c</sup> them Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, which <sup>was</sup> over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder.

20 Thou sayest, (but <sup>they are but</sup> vain † words,) I have <sup>g</sup> counsel and strength for the war. Now, on whom dost thou trust, that thou rebellest against me?

21 Now, behold, thou trustest upon the <sup>h</sup> staff of this bruised reed, even upon Egypt, on which if a man lean it will go into his hand and pierce it: so <sup>is</sup> Pharaoh king of Egypt unto all that trust on him.

22 But if ye say unto me, We trust in the LORD our God: <sup>is</sup> not that he whose high places and <sup>i</sup> whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away; and hath said to Judah and Jerusalem, Ye shall worship <sup>k</sup> before this altar in Jerusalem?

23 Now therefore, I pray thee, give pledges to my lord the king of Assyria, and I will deliver thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them.

24 How then wilt thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put thy trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?

25 Am I now come up without the LORD against this place to destroy it? The <sup>l</sup> LORD said to me, Go up against this land, and destroy it.

26 Then said Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, and Shebna, and Joah, unto Rab-shakeh, Speak, I pray thee, to thy servants in the Syrian language; for we † understand <sup>it</sup>: and talk not with us in the Jews' language, in the ears of the people that <sup>are</sup> on the wall.

27 But Rab-shakeh said unto them, Hath my master sent me to thy master, and to thee, to speak these words? <sup>hath he not sent me</sup> to the men which sit on the wall, that they may <sup>m</sup> eat their own dung, and drink their † own piss, with you?

28 Then Rab-shakeh stood, and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and spake, saying, Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria:

29 Thus saith the king, Let not Hezekiah deceive you; for <sup>n</sup> he shall not be able to deliver you out of his hand:

30 Neither let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, The LORD will surely deliver us, and this city shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria.

31 Harken not to Hezekiah: for thus saith the king of Assyria, † Make an agreement with me by a present, and come out to me, and <sup>then</sup> eat ye every man of his own vine, and every one of his fig-tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his cistern;

32 Until I come and take you away to a land like your own land; a land of corn <sup>o</sup> and wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of oil-olive and of honey, that ye may live and not die: and hearken not unto Hezekiah, when he persuadeth you, saying, The LORD will deliver us.

34 Where are the gods of <sup>a</sup> Hamath, and of Arpad? where are the gods of <sup>a</sup> Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah? have they delivered Samaria out of mine hand?

36 But the people <sup>a</sup> held their peace, and <sup>a</sup> answered him not a word: for the king's commandment was, saying, Answer him not.

37 Then came Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, which was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder, to Hezekiah, with their clothes † rent, and told him the words of Rab-shakeh.

AND it came to pass, when king Hezekiah <sup>a</sup> heard it, that he rent his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went <sup>b</sup> into the house of the LORD.

2 And he sent Eliakim, which was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to <sup>c</sup> Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz.

3 And they said unto him, Thus saith Hezekiah, This day is a day of <sup>a</sup> trouble, and of <sup>a</sup> rebuke, and <sup>a</sup> blasphemy: for the children are come to the birth, and there is not <sup>a</sup> strength to bring forth.

8 So Rab-shakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah: for he had heard that he was departed from <sup>a</sup> Lachish.

9 And when he heard say of Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, Behold, he is come out to fight, <sup>a</sup> against thee; † he sent messengers again unto Hezekiah, saying,

10 Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Let not <sup>a</sup> thy God in whom thou trustest deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria.

11 Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by destroying them utterly; and shalt thou be delivered?

12 Have the gods of the nations delivered them which <sup>a</sup> my fathers have destroyed; as <sup>a</sup> Gozan, and <sup>a</sup> Haran, and Rezep, and the children of <sup>a</sup> Eden which were in Thelasar?

13 Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivah?

14 And Hezekiah received the letter of the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up into the house of the LORD, and spread it before <sup>a</sup> the LORD.

15 And Hezekiah prayed before the LORD, and said, O LORD God of Israel, which <sup>a</sup> dwellest between the cherubims, thou art the God, even thou <sup>a</sup> alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; thou hast <sup>a</sup> made heaven and earth.

16 LORD, bow down <sup>b</sup> thine ear, and hear: <sup>b</sup> open, LORD, thine eyes, and see; and hear the words of Sennacherib, which hath sent him to reproach the living God.

17 Of a truth, LORD, the kings of Assyria have <sup>a</sup> destroyed the nations and their lands, 18 And have † cast their gods into the fire: for they were no gods, but <sup>a</sup> the work of men's hands, wood and stone; therefore they have destroyed them.

19 Now therefore, O LORD <sup>a</sup> our God, I beseech thee, save thou us out of his hand, that <sup>a</sup> all the kingdoms of the earth may know that thou art the LORD God, even thou only.

20 Then <sup>b</sup> Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, That <sup>a</sup> which thou hast prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria I have heard.

22 Whom hast thou reproached and blasphemed? and against whom hast thou exalted thy voice, and lift up <sup>a</sup> thine eyes on high? even against the Holy <sup>a</sup> One of Israel.

23 By thy <sup>a</sup> messengers thou hast reproached the LORD, and hast said, With the <sup>a</sup> multitude of my chariots I am come up to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon, and will cut down the <sup>a</sup> tall cedar-trees thereof, and the choice fir-trees thereof: and I will enter into the lodgings of his borders, and into the forest of his <sup>a</sup> Carmel.

24 I have digged and drunk strange <sup>a</sup> waters, and with the sole of my feet have I dried up all the rivers of besieged places.

25 Hast thou not heard long ago how I have done it, and of ancient times that I have formed it? now have I brought it to pass, that <sup>a</sup> thou shouldst be to lay waste fenced cities into ruinous heaps.

26 Therefore their inhabitants were of † small power, they were dismayed and confounded; they were as the <sup>u</sup> grass of the field, and as the green herb, as the grass on the house-tops, and as <sup>as</sup> corn blasted before it be grown up.

27 But I know thy <sup>a</sup> abode, and thy going out, and thy coming in, and thy rage <sup>y</sup> against me.

28 Because thy rage against me and thy tumult is come up into mine ears, therefore I will put my <sup>a</sup> hook in thy nose, and my <sup>a</sup> bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back by the way by which thou camest.

29 And this shall be a sign unto thee, Ye shall eat <sup>b</sup> this year such things as grow of <sup>c</sup> themselves, and in the second year that which springeth of the same; and in the third year sow ye and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat the fruits thereof.

30 And the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah shall yet again take <sup>d</sup> root downward, and bear fruit upward.

31 For out of <sup>e</sup> Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and they that escape out of mount Zion: the <sup>f</sup> zeal of the LORD of hosts shall do this.

32 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the king of Assyria, He shall <sup>g</sup> not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shield, nor cast a bank against it.

33 By the way <sup>h</sup> that he came, by the same shall he return, and shall not come into this city, saith the LORD.

34 For I will defend this city to save it, for mine own sake, and for my servant <sup>k</sup> David's sake.

35 And it came to pass <sup>l</sup> that night, that the <sup>m</sup> angel of the LORD went out, and smote in the <sup>n</sup> camp of the Assyrians an hundred fourscore and five thousand: and when they arose early in the morning, behold, they were all dead corpses.

36 So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, and went and returned, and dwelt at <sup>o</sup> Nineveh.

37 And it came to pass, as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch <sup>p</sup> his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer his <sup>q</sup> sons smote him with the sword: and they escaped into the land of Armenia. And <sup>r</sup> Esarhaddon his son reigned in his stead.

C H A P. XX.

1 Hezekiah having received a message of death, by prayer hath his life lengthened. 8 The sun goeth ten degrees backward, for a sign of that promise. 12 Berodach-baladan sending to visit Hezekiah, because of the wonder, hath notice of his treasures. 14 Isaiah understanding thereof, foretelleth the Babylonian captivity. 20 Manasseh succeedeth Hezekiah.

IN those days <sup>a</sup> was Hezekiah sick unto death. And the prophet Isaiah the son of Amos came to him, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Set thine <sup>b</sup> house in order; for thou shalt die, and not live.

2 Then he <sup>c</sup> turned his face to the wall, and prayed unto the LORD, saying,

3 I beseech thee, O LORD, remember <sup>d</sup> now how I have walked before thee in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in thy <sup>e</sup> sight. And Hezekiah <sup>f</sup> wept sore.

4 And it came to pass, afore Isaiah was gone out into the <sup>g</sup> middle court, that the word of the LORD came to him, saying,

5 Turn again, and tell Hezekiah, the captain of my people, Thus saith the LORD, the God of David thy father, I have <sup>h</sup> heard thy prayer, I have seen <sup>i</sup> thy tears: behold, I will <sup>k</sup> heal thee; on the third day thou shalt go up unto the house of the LORD.

6 And I will <sup>l</sup> add unto thy days fifteen years; and I will <sup>m</sup> deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria; and I will defend this city for mine own sake, and for my servant David's sake.

7 And Isaiah said, Take <sup>n</sup> a lump of figs. And they took and laid it on the boil, and he <sup>o</sup> recovered.

8 And Hezekiah said unto Isaiah, What shall be the <sup>p</sup> sign that the LORD will heal me, and that I shall go up into the house of the LORD the third day?

9 And Isaiah said, This sign shalt thou have of the LORD, that the LORD will do the thing that he hath spoken: Shall the <sup>q</sup> shadow go forward ten degrees, or go back ten degrees?

10 And Hezekiah answered, It is a light <sup>r</sup> thing: for the shadow to go down ten degrees: nay, but let the shadow return backward ten degrees.

11 And Isaiah the prophet <sup>s</sup> cried unto the LORD; and he brought the shadow ten degrees backward, by which it had gone down in the dial of Ahaz.

12 ¶ At that time <sup>t</sup> Berodach-baladan, the son of Baladan king of Babylon, sent <sup>u</sup> letters and a present unto Hezekiah: for he had heard that Hezekiah had been sick.

13 And Hezekiah <sup>v</sup> hearkened unto them, and <sup>w</sup> shewed them the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his armour, and all that was found in his treasures: there was <sup>x</sup> nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah shewed them not.

14 Then came Isaiah the prophet unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him, What said these men? and from <sup>y</sup> whence came they unto thee? And Hezekiah said, They are come from a far country, even from Babylon.

15 And he said, What have they seen in thine house? And Hezekiah answered, All <sup>z</sup> the things that are in mine house have they seen; there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shewed them.

16 And Isaiah said unto Hezekiah, Hear the word of the LORD.

17 Behold, the days come, that all that <sup>a</sup> is in thine house, and that which thy fathers have laid up in store unto this day, shall be <sup>b</sup> carried unto Babylon: nothing shall be left, saith the LORD.

18 And of thy sons that shall issue <sup>c</sup> from thee, which thou shalt beget, shall they take away; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.

19 Then said Hezekiah unto Isaiah, Good <sup>d</sup> is the word of the LORD which thou hast spoken.

of Azaliah, the son of Meshullam the scribe to the house of the LORD, saying,
 4 Go up to <sup>c</sup> Hilkiah the high priest, that he may sum the silver which is brought into the house of the LORD, which the <sup>f</sup> keepers of the † door have gathered of the people;
 5 And let them deliver it into the hand of the doers of the work, that have the <sup>s</sup> oversight of the house of the LORD: and let them give it to the doers of the work which is in the house of the LORD, to repair the breaches of the house,
 6 Unto <sup>b</sup> carpenters, and builders, and masons, and to buy timber and hewn stone to repair the house.
 7 Howbeit there was no reckoning made <sup>i</sup> with them of the money that was delivered into their hand, because they dealt † faithfully.
 8 And Hilkiah the high priest said unto Shaphan the scribe, I have found <sup>k</sup> the book of the law in the house of the LORD. And Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan, and he read it.
 9 And Shaphan the scribe came to the king, and brought the king word again, and said, Thy servants have gathered the money that was found in the house, and have delivered it into the hand of them that do the work, that have the oversight of the house of the LORD.
 10 And Shaphan the scribe shewed the king, saying, Hilkiah the priest hath delivered me <sup>1</sup> a book. And Shaphan <sup>m</sup> read it before the king.
 11 And it came to pass, when the king had heard the <sup>n</sup> words of the book of the law, that he <sup>o</sup> rent his clothes.
 12 And the king commanded Hilkiah the priest, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and <sup>p</sup> Achbor the son of Michaiah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah a servant of the king's, saying,
 13 Go ye, inquire of the LORD for me, and for the people, and for all Judah, concerning the words of this book that is found: for great is the wrath of the LORD that is kindled <sup>q</sup> against us, because our fathers have not hearkened unto the words of this book, to do according unto all that which is written concerning us.
 14 So Hilkiah the priest, and Ahikam, and Achbor, and Shaphan, and Asaiah, went unto Huldah the <sup>r</sup> prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvah, the son of <sup>s</sup> Harhas, keeper of the † wardrobe; (now she dwelt in Jerusalem in the || college;) and they communed with her.
 15 And she said unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Tell <sup>t</sup> the man that sent you to me, 16 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, even <sup>u</sup> all the words of the book which the king of Judah hath read:

AND the king <sup>a</sup> sent, and they gathered unto him all the elders of Judah and of Jerusalem.
 2 And the king went up into the house of the LORD, and <sup>b</sup> all the men of Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him, and the priests, and the <sup>c</sup> prophets, and all the people, both small and great: and he read in their ears all the words of the <sup>d</sup> book of the covenant which was found in the house of the LORD.

3 And the king stood by <sup>e</sup> a pillar, and made <sup>f</sup> a covenant <sup>g</sup> before the LORD, to <sup>h</sup> walk after the LORD, and to keep his commandments and his testimonies and his statutes, with all their heart and all their soul, to perform the words of this covenant that were written in this book: and all the people <sup>i</sup> stood to the covenant.

4 And the king commanded Hilkiah the high priest, and the priests of the second order, and the keepers of the door, to bring forth out of the temple of the LORD all the <sup>k</sup> vessels that were made for Baal, and for the <sup>l</sup> grove, and for all the host of heaven; and he burnt them without Jerusalem in the fields of Kidron, and carried the ashes of them unto <sup>m</sup> Beth-el.

5 And he put down the <sup>n</sup> idolatrous priests, whom the kings of Judah had ordained to burn incense in the high places in the cities of Judah, and in the places round about Jerusalem; them also that burnt incense unto Baal, to the sun, and to the moon, and to the planets, and to all the <sup>o</sup> host of heaven.

6 And he brought out the <sup>p</sup> grove from the house of the LORD, without Jerusalem, unto the brook Kidron, and burnt it at the brook Kidron, and stamped it small to powder, and cast the powder thereof upon the <sup>q</sup> graves of the children of the people.

7 And he brake down the houses of the <sup>r</sup> So-domites, that were by the house of the LORD, where the women wove || hangings for the grove.

8 And he brought all the priests out of the cities

 cities of Judah, and defiled the † high places where the priests had burnt incense, from <sup>s</sup> Geba to Beer-sheba, and brake down the high places of the gates that were in the entering in of the gate of Joshua the governor of the city, which were on a man's left hand at the gate of the city.

9 Nevertheless the priests of the high places came not up to the altar of the LORD in Jerusalem, but they <sup>u</sup> did eat of the unleavened bread among their brethren.

10 And he defiled <sup>s</sup> Topheth, which is in the valley of the children <sup>y</sup> of Hinnom; that no man might make his son or his daughter to pass through the fire to <sup>z</sup> Molech.

11 And he took away the <sup>a</sup> horses that the kings of Judah had given to the sun, at the entering in of the house of the LORD, by the chamber of Nathan-melech the chamberlain, which was in the suburbs, and burnt the chariots of the sun with fire.

12 And the altars that were on the <sup>b</sup> top of the upper chamber of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars which <sup>c</sup> Manasseh had made in the two courts of the house of the LORD, did the king beat down, and brake them down from thence, and cast the dust of them into the brook Kidron.

14 And he brake in pieces the images, and cut down the groves, and filled their places with the <sup>f</sup> bones of men.

15 Moreover, the <sup>g</sup> altar that was at Beth-el, and the high place which Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, had made, both that altar and the high place he brake down, and burnt the high place, and stamped it small to powder, and burnt the grove.

16 And as Josiah turned himself, he spied the sepulchres that were there in the mount, and sent, and took the bones out of the sepulchres, and burnt them upon the altar, and polluted it, according to the word of the LORD, which the man of God proclaimed, who <sup>h</sup> proclaimed these words.

17 Then he said, What title is that that I see? And the men of the city told him, It is the <sup>i</sup> sepulchre of the man of God which came from Judah, and proclaimed <sup>j</sup> these things that thou hast done against the altar of Beth-el.

18 And he said, Let him alone; let no man move his bones. So they let his bones alone, with the bones of the <sup>k</sup> prophet that came out of Samaria.

19 And all the houses also of the high places that were in the <sup>l</sup> cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to provoke the LORD to anger, Josiah took away, and did to them according to all the acts that he had done in Beth-el.

20 And he <sup>m</sup> slew <sup>n</sup> all the priests of the high places that were there upon the altars, and burnt men's bones upon them, and returned to Jerusalem.

21 And the king commanded all the people, saying, Keep the <sup>o</sup> passover unto the LORD your God, as it is written in the <sup>p</sup> book of the covenant.

22 Surely there was not holden such a passover <sup>q</sup> from the days of the judges that judged Israel, nor in all the days of the kings of Israel, nor of the kings of Judah;

23 But in the eighteenth year of king Josiah, wherein this passover was holden to the LORD in <sup>r</sup> Jerusalem.

24 Moreover, the <sup>s</sup> workers with <sup>t</sup> familiar spirits, and the wizards, and the images, and the idols, and all the abominations that were spied in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, did Josiah put away, that he might perform the words of the <sup>u</sup> law which were written in the book that <sup>v</sup> Hilkiah the priest found in the house of the LORD.

25 And <sup>w</sup> like unto him was there no king before him, that turned to the LORD <sup>x</sup> with all his heart, and with all his soul, and with all his might, according to all the law of Moses; neither after him arose there any like him.

26 <sup>y</sup> Notwithstanding the LORD turned not from the fierceness of his great wrath, wherewith his anger was kindled against Judah, because of all the <sup>z</sup> provocations that Manasseh had provoked him withal.

27 And the LORD said, I will remove <sup>a</sup> Judah also out of my sight, as I have removed <sup>b</sup> Israel, and will cast off this city Jerusalem which I have chosen, and the house of which I said, <sup>c</sup> My name shall be there.

28 Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

29 In <sup>d</sup> his days Pharaoh-nechoh king of Egypt went up against the king of Assyria to the river Euphrates: and king Josiah went against him; and he <sup>e</sup> slew him at Megiddo, when he had <sup>f</sup> seen him.

30 And his servants carried him in a chariot dead from Megiddo, and brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his own sepulchre. And the people of the land took <sup>g</sup> Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and anointed him, and made him king in his father's stead.

31 <sup>h</sup> Jehoahaz was twenty and three years old when he began to reign; and he reigned <sup>i</sup> three months in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah of <sup>j</sup> Libnah.

32 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that <sup>k</sup> his fathers had done.

33 And Pharaoh-nechoh put him in <sup>l</sup> bands at <sup>m</sup> Riblah, in the land of Hamath, that he might not reign in Jerusalem; and put the land to a tribute of an hundred talents of silver, and a talent of gold.

13 And their brethren of the house of their fathers were Michael, and Meshullam, and Sheba, and Jorai, and Jachan, and Zia, and Heber, seven.

14 These are the children of Abihail the son of Huri, the son of Jaroah, the son of Gilead, the son of Michael, the son of Jeshishai, the son of Jahdo, the son of Buz;

15 Ahi the son of Abdiel, the son of Guni, chief of the house of their fathers.

16 And they dwelt in Gilead in <sup>o</sup> Bashan, and in her towns, and in all the suburbs of <sup>p</sup> Sharon, upon their borders.

17 All these were reckoned by genealogies in the days of <sup>q</sup> Jotham king of Judah, and in the days of <sup>r</sup> Jeroboam king of Israel.

18 The sons of Reuben, and the Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh, of valiant men, menable to bear buckler and sword, and to shoot with bow, and skilful in war, were <sup>s</sup> four and forty thousand seven hundred and threescore, that went out to the war.

19 And they made war with the Hagarites, with <sup>t</sup> Jetur, and Nephish, and Nodab.

20 And they were <sup>u</sup> helped against them, and the Hagarites were delivered into their hand, and all that were with them: for they <sup>x</sup> cried to God in the battle, and he was entreated of them; because they <sup>y</sup> put their trust in him.

21 And they took away their cattle; of their camels fifty thousand, and of sheep two hundred and fifty thousand, and of <sup>z</sup> asses two thousand, and of men an hundred thousand.

22 For there fell down many slain, because the <sup>a</sup> war was of God. And they dwelt <sup>b</sup> in their steads <sup>c</sup> until the captivity.

23 ¶ And the children of the half-tribe of Manasse dwelt in the land: they increased from Bashan unto Baal-hermon, and <sup>d</sup> Senir, and unto mount Hermon.

24 And these were the heads of the house of their fathers, even Ephraim, and Ishi, and Eliel, and Azriel, and Jeremiah, and Hodaviah, and Jahdiel, mighty men of valour, <sup>e</sup> famous men, and heads of the house of their fathers.

25 And they transgressed against the God of their fathers, and went <sup>f</sup> a whoring after the gods of the people of the land, whom God destroyed before them.

26 And the God of Israel <sup>g</sup> stirred up the spirit of <sup>h</sup> Pul king of Assyria, and the spirit of Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria, and he carried them away, (even the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh,) and brought them unto <sup>i</sup> Halah, and Habor, and Hara, and to the river Gozan, unto this day.

48 Their brethren also the Levites were appointed unto all manner of service of the tabernacle of the house of God.

16 And Obadiah the son of Shemaiah, the son of Galal, the son of <sup>m</sup> Jeduthun; and Berechiah the son of Asa, the son of Elkanah, that dwelt in the villages of the <sup>n</sup> Netophathites.

17 And the <sup>o</sup> porters were, Shallum, and Akkub, and Talmon, and Ahiman, and their brethren: Shallum was the chief;

18 (Who hitherto waited in <sup>p</sup> the king's gate eastward;) they were porters in the companies of the children of Levi.

19 And Shallum the son of Kore, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, and his brethren, (of the house of his father,) the Korahites, were over the work of the service, keepers of the gates of the tabernacle: and their <sup>q</sup> fathers, being over the host of the Lord, were keepers of the entry.

20 And Phinehas the son of Eleazar was the ruler over them in time past, and the Lord was with him.

21 And Zechariah the son of Meshelemiah was porter of the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

22 All these, which were chosen to be porters in the gates, were two hundred and twelve. These were reckoned by their genealogy in their villages; whom <sup>r</sup> David and <sup>s</sup> Samuel the seer <sup>t</sup> did ordain in their set office.

23 So they and their children had the oversight of the gates of the house of the Lord, namely, the house of the <sup>u</sup> tabernacle, by wards.

25 And their brethren, which were in their villages, were to come after seven days from time to time with them.

28 And certain of them had the charge of the <sup>w</sup> ministering vessels, that they should bring them in and out by tale.

29 Some of them also were appointed to oversee the vessels, and all the instruments of the 30 And some of the sons of the priests made the ointment of the spices.

31 And Mattithiah, one of the Levites, who was the first-born of Shallum the Korahite, had the set office over the things that were made in the <sup>a</sup> pans.

32 And other of their brethren, of the sons of the Kohathites, were over the <sup>b</sup> shew-bread, to prepare it every <sup>c</sup> sabbath.

1 The companies that came to David at Ziklag.

23 The armies that came to him at Hebron.

2 They were armed with bows, and could use both the <sup>c</sup> right hand and the left in <sup>d</sup> hurling stones and shooting arrows out of a bow, even of Saul's brethren of Benjamin.

3 The chief was Ahiezer, then Joash, the sons of Shemaah the <sup>e</sup> Gibeathite; and Jeziel and Pelet, the sons of Azmaveth; and Berachab, and Jehu the Antiothite,

4 And Ismaiah the <sup>f</sup> Gibeonite, a mighty man among the thirty, and over the thirty; and Jeremiah, and Jahaziel, and Johanan, and Josabad the <sup>g</sup> Gederathite,

5 Eluzai, and Jerimoth, and Bealiah, and Shemariah, and Shephatiah the Haruphite,

6 Elkanah, and Jesiah, and Azareel, and Jo-ezer, and Jashobeam, the Korhites,

7 And Joelah, and Zebadiah, the sons of <sup>h</sup> Jeroham of Gedor.

8 And of the Gadites there separated themselves unto David, into the <sup>i</sup> hold to the wilderness, men of might, and men of war fit for the battle, that could handle shield and buckler, whose <sup>j</sup> faces were like the faces of lions, and were as <sup>k</sup> swift as the roes upon the mountains;

9 Ezer the first, Obadiah the second, Eliab the third,

10 Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth,

11 Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh,

12 Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth,

13 Jeremiah the tenth, Machbanai the eleventh.

14 These were of the sons of Gad, captains of the host: one <sup>l</sup> of the least was over an hundred, and the greatest over a thousand.

15 These are they that went over Jordan in the <sup>m</sup> first month, when it had overflowed <sup>n</sup> all his banks; and they put to flight all them of the valleys, both toward the east and toward the west.

16 And there came of the children of Benjamin and Judah to the hold unto David.

17 And David went out to meet them, and answered and said unto them, If ye be come <sup>o</sup> peaceably unto me to help me, <sup>p</sup> mine heart shall be knit unto you: but if ye be come to betray me to mine enemies, seeing there is no wrong <sup>q</sup> in mine hands, the God of our fathers look <sup>r</sup> thereon, and rebuke it.

18 Then the spirit <sup>s</sup> came upon Amasai, who was chief <sup>t</sup> of the captains, and he said, Thine <sup>u</sup> are we, David, and on thy side, thou son of Jesse: peace, peace be unto thee, and peace be to <sup>v</sup> thine helpers; for thy God helpeth thee. Then David received them, and made them <sup>w</sup> captains of the band.

19 And there fell some of Manasseh to David, when he came with the Philistines against Saul to battle; but they helped them not; for the lords of the Philistines, upon advisement, sent him away, saying, He will fall <sup>x</sup> to his master Saul, to the jeopardy of our heads.

20 As he went to <sup>y</sup> Ziklag, there fell to him of Manasseh, Adnah, and Jozabad, and Jedaiel, and Michael, and Jozabad, and Elihu, and Zilthai, captains of the thousands that were of Manasseh.

21 And they helped David <sup>z</sup> against the band of the rovers: for they were all mighty <sup>a</sup> men of valour, and were captains in the host.

22 For at that time, day by day, there came to David to help him, until it was a <sup>b</sup> great host, like the host of God.

23 And these are the numbers of the bands that were ready armed to the war, and came to David to Hebron, to turn <sup>c</sup> the kingdom of Saul to him, according to the word of the Lord.

24 The children of Judah that bare shield and spear were six <sup>d</sup> thousand and eight hundred, ready armed to the war.

C H A P. XV.

1 David having prepared a place for the ark, ordereth the priests and Levites to bring it from Obed-edom: 25 He performeth the solemnity thereof with great joy: 29 Michal despiseth him.

AND David made him houses in the <sup>u</sup> city of David, and prepared a place for the ark of God, and pitched for it a <sup>v</sup> tent.

2 Then David said, None ought to carry the ark of God but the <sup>w</sup> Levites: for them hath the Lord chosen to carry the ark of God, and to minister unto him for ever.

3 And David <sup>x</sup> gathered all Israel together to Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the Lord unto his place which he had prepared for it.

4 And David assembled the <sup>y</sup> children of Aaron, and the Levites:

5 Of the sons of <sup>z</sup> Kohath; Uriel the chief, and his brethren, an hundred and twenty.

6 Of the sons of <sup>aa</sup> Merari; Asaiah the chief, and his brethren, two hundred and twenty.

7 Of the sons of <sup>ab</sup> Gershon; Joel the chief, and his brethren, an hundred and thirty.

8 Of the sons of <sup>ac</sup> Elizaphan; Shemaiah the chief, and his brethren, two hundred.

9 Of the sons of <sup>ad</sup> Hebron; Eliel the chief, and his brethren, fourscore.

10 Of the sons of <sup>ae</sup> Uzziel; Amminadab the chief, and his brethren, an hundred and twelve.

11 And David called for <sup>af</sup> Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites, for Uriel, Asaiah, and Joel, Shemaiah, and Eliel, and Amminadab, 12 And said unto them, Ye are the chief of the fathers of the Levites; <sup>ag</sup> sanctify yourselves, both ye and your brethren, that you may bring up the ark of the Lord God of Israel unto the place that I have prepared for it.

13 For because ye <sup>ah</sup> did it not at the first, the Lord our God made <sup>ai</sup> a breach upon us, for that we sought him not <sup>aj</sup> after the due order.

14 So the priests and the Levites <sup>ak</sup> sanctified themselves to bring up the ark of the Lord God of Israel.

15 And the children of the <sup>al</sup> Levites bare the ark of God upon their shoulders, with the staves thereon, <sup>am</sup> as Moses commanded, according to the word of the Lord.

17 So the Levites appointed <sup>ao</sup> Heman the son of Joel; and of his brethren, <sup>ap</sup> Asaph the son of Berechiah; and of the sons of Merari their brethren, <sup>aq</sup> Ethan the son of Kushaiah;

18 And with them their brethren of the second degree, Zechariah, Ben, and Jaaziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, Eliab, and Benaiah, and Maaseiah, and Mattithiah, and Elipheleh, and Mikneiah; and Obed-edom and Jeiel the porters.

19 So the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, were appointed to sound with cymbals of brass;

20 And Zechariah, and Aziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, and Eliab, and Maaseiah, and Benaiah, with psalteries on || Alamoth;

21 And Mattithiah, and Elipheleh, and Mikneiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, and Azaziah, with harps on the <sup>ar</sup> Sheminith to excel.

22 And Chenaniah, chief of the Levites, was <sup>as</sup> for song: he instructed about the song, because he was skilful.

23 And Berechiah and Elkanah were door-keepers for the ark.

24 And Shebaniah, and Jehoshaphat, and Nethaneel, and Amasai, and Zechariah, and Benaiah, and Eliezer, the priests, did blow with the <sup>at</sup> trumpets before the ark of God; and Obed-edom and Jehiah were door-keepers for the ark.

25 ¶ So David, and the elders of Israel, and the captains over thousands, went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the Lord out of the house of Obed-edom <sup>au</sup> with joy.

26 And it came to pass, when God helped <sup>av</sup> the Levites that bare the ark of the covenant of the Lord, that they offered <sup>aw</sup> seven bullocks and seven rams.

29 And it came to pass, as the ark of the covenant of the LORD came to the city of David, that Michal, the daughter of Saul, looking out at a window, saw king David dancing and playing: and she despised him in her heart.

C H A P. XVI.

1 David's festival sacrifice: 4 He ordereth a choir to sing thanksgiving. 7 The psalm of thanksgiving. 37 He appointeth ministers, porters, priests, and musicians, to attend continually on the ark.

SO they a brought the ark of God, and set it in the midst of the tent that David had pitched for it: and they offered b burnt-sacrifices and peace-offerings before God.

2 And when David had made an end of offering the burnt-offerings and the peace-offerings, he c blessed the people in the name of the LORD.

3 And he d dealt to every one of Israel, both man and e woman, to every one a loaf of bread, and a good piece of flesh, and a flagon of wine.

4 And he appointed certain of the Levites to minister before the ark of the LORD, and to record, and to thank and praise the s LORD God of Israel:

5 Asaph the chief, and next to him Zechariah, Jeiel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Mattithiah, and Eliab, and Benaiah, and Obed-edom; and Jeiel with psalteries and with harps; but Asaph made a sound with cymbals;

6 Benaiah also and Jahaziel the priests with trumpets h continually before the ark of the covenant of God.

7 ¶ Then on that day i David delivered k first this psalm, to thank the LORD, into the hand of Asaph and his brethren.

8 Give l thanks unto the LORD, call upon his name, m make known his deeds among the people.

9 Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him, talk n ye of all his wondrous works.

10 Glory ye in his holy name: let the heart of them rejoice that seek the LORD.

11 Seek the LORD and o his strength, seek his p face continually.

12 Remember q his marvellous works that he hath done, his wonders, and the r judgments of his mouth;

13 O ye seed of s Israel his servant, ye children of Jacob his t chosen ones.

14 He is the LORD our God; his judgments u are in all the u earth.

15 Be ye x mindful always of his covenant, the word which he commanded to a thousand generations;

16 Even of the <sup>v</sup> covenant which he made with Abraham, and of his oath unto Isaac;

17 And hath z confirmed the same to Jacob for a law, and to Israel for an everlasting covenant,

18 Saying, Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan, the lot of your inheritance;

19 When ye were but few, even a few, and a strangers in it.

20 And when they went from b nation to nation, and from one kingdom to another people;

21 He suffered c no man to do them wrong; yea, he d reprov'd kings for their sakes, 22 Saying, Touch not mine e anointed, and do my prophets no harm.

23 Sing unto the LORD, a.l the earth; shew forth from day to day his salvation.

24 Declare his glory among the heathen; his marvellous works among all nations.

25 For great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised: he also is to be feared f above all gods.

26 For all the gods of the people are idols: but the LORD g made the heavens.

27 Glory h and honour are in his presence; strength and gladness are in his place.

28 Give unto the LORD, ye kindreds of the people, give unto the LORD i glory and strength.

29 Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his name: bring an offering, and come before him; worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness.

30 Fear before him, all the earth: the world also shall be k stable, that it be not moved.

31 Let the l heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice: and let men say among the nations, The LORD m reigneth.

32 Let the sea † roar, and the fulness thereof; let the fields rejoice, and all that is therein.

33 Then shall the trees of the wood sing out at the presence of the LORD, because he cometh to judge the earth.

34 O give n thanks unto the LORD; for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.

35 And o say ye, Save us, O God of our salvation, and p gather us together, and deliver us from the heathen, that we may give thanks to thy holy name, and glory in thy praise.

36 Blessed q be the LORD God of Israel for ever and ever. And all the people said, r Amen, and praised the LORD.

37 ¶ So he left there, before the ark of the covenant of the LORD, Asaph and his brethren, to minister before the ark continually, as † every day's work required:

38 And Obed-edom, with their brethren, threescore and eight; Obed-edom also, the son of Jeduthun, and Hosah, to be porters:

39 And Zadok the priest, and his brethren the priests, before the tabernacle of the LORD in the s high place that was at Gibeon,

40 To offer burnt-offerings unto the LORD upon the altar of the burnt-offering † continually, morning and evening, and to do according to all that is written in the law of the LORD, which he commanded Israel:

C H A P. XVII.

1 Nathan first approving the purpose of David to build God an house, 3 after by the word of God forbiddeth him: 11 He promiseth him blessings and benefits in his seed. 16 David's prayer and thanksgiving.

NOW it came to pass, as David sat in his <sup>a</sup> house, that David said to Nathan <sup>b</sup> the prophet, Lo, <sup>c</sup> I dwell in an house of cedars, but the <sup>d</sup> ark of the covenant of the LORD remaineth under curtains.

2 Then Nathan said unto David, Do <sup>e</sup> all that is in thine heart; for <sup>f</sup> God is with thee.

3 And it <sup>g</sup> came to pass the same night, that the word of God came to Nathan, saying,

4 Go and tell David my servant, Thus saith the LORD, Thou <sup>h</sup> shalt not build me an house to dwell in:

5 For I have not dwelt in an house since the day that I brought up Israel unto this day; but have gone <sup>i</sup> from tent to tent, and from one tabernacle to another.

6 Wheresoever I have walked with all Israel, spake I a word to any of the <sup>k</sup> judges of Israel, whom I commanded to feed my people, saying, Why have ye not built me an house of cedars?

7 Now therefore thus shalt thou say unto my servant David, Thus saith the <sup>l</sup> LORD of hosts, I took thee from the sheepcote, even from <sup>m</sup> following the sheep, that thou shouldest be ruler over my people Israel;

8 And <sup>n</sup> I have been with thee whithersoever thou hast walked, and have <sup>o</sup> cut off all thine enemies from before thee, and have made thee a name like the name of the great men that are in the earth.

9 Also I will ordain a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, and they shall dwell in their place, and shall be moved no more; neither shall the children of wickedness waste them <sup>p</sup> any more, <sup>q</sup> as at the beginning,

10 And since the time that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel. Moreover, I will <sup>r</sup> subdue all thine enemies. Furthermore I tell thee, that the <sup>s</sup> LORD will build thee an house. 11 And it shall come to pass, when thy days be expired, that thou must <sup>t</sup> go to be with thy fathers, that I will raise up thy seed <sup>u</sup> after thee, which shall be of thy sons; and I will stablish <sup>v</sup> his kingdom.

12 He <sup>w</sup> shall build me an house, and I will stablish his throne <sup>x</sup> for ever.

13 I will be his <sup>y</sup> father, and he shall be my son; and I will not take my mercy away from him, as I took it from him that was before thee:

11 But I will settle him in <sup>b</sup> mine house and in my kingdom for ever; and his throne shall be established for <sup>c</sup> evermore.

15 According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speak unto David.

16 And David the king came and sat before the LORD, and said, <sup>d</sup> Who am I, O LORD God, and what is mine house, that thou hast brought me hitherto?

17 And yet this was a small thing in thine eyes, O God; for thou hast also spoken of thy servant's house for a great while to come, and hast <sup>e</sup> regarded me according to the estate of a man of high degree, O LORD God.

18 What can David speak more to thee for the honour of thy servant? for <sup>f</sup> thou knowest thy servant.

19 O LORD, for thy <sup>g</sup> servant's sake, and <sup>h</sup> according to thine own heart, hast thou done all this greatness, in making known all these great things.

20 O LORD, there is <sup>i</sup> none like thee, neither is there any God besides thee, according to all that we have <sup>k</sup> heard with our ears.

21 And what one nation in the earth <sup>l</sup> is like thy people Israel, whom God <sup>m</sup> went to redeem to be his own people, to make thee a name of greatness and terribleness, by driving out nations from before thy people, whom thou hast redeemed out of Egypt?

22 For thy people Israel didst thou make <sup>n</sup> thine own people for ever; and thou, LORD, becamest their God.

23 Therefore now, LORD, <sup>o</sup> let the thing that thou hast spoken concerning thy servant, and concerning his house, be established for ever, and do as thou hast said.

24 Let it even be established, that thy name may be magnified for ever, saying, The LORD of hosts is the God of Israel, even a God to Israel: and let the house of David thy servant be established before thee.

25 For thou, <sup>p</sup> O my God, <sup>q</sup> hast told thy servant that thou wilt build him an house; therefore thy servant hath found in his heart to pray before thee.

26 And now, LORD, thou art God, and hast <sup>r</sup> promised this goodness unto thy servant;

27 Now, therefore, let it please thee to bless the house of thy servant, that it may be before thee for ever: for thou blessest, O LORD; and it shall be blessed <sup>s</sup> for ever.

3 And David smote <sup>e</sup> Hadarezer king of Zobah unto Hamath, as he went to stablish his dominion by the river <sup>d</sup> Euphrates.

4 And David took from him a thousand <sup>e</sup> chariots, and <sup>f</sup> seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen: David also houghed all the chariot-horses, but <sup>g</sup> reserved of them an hundred chariots.

5 And when the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadarezer king of Zobah, David <sup>h</sup> slew of the Syrians two and twenty thousand men.

6 Then David put garrisons in <sup>i</sup> Syria-damascus; and the Syrians became David's servants, and brought gifts. Thus the LORD <sup>k</sup> preserved David whithersoever he went.

7 And David took the <sup>l</sup> shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadarezer, and brought them to <sup>m</sup> Jerusalem.

8 Likewise from Tibhath, and from Chun, cities of Hadarezer, brought David very much brass, wherewith <sup>n</sup> Solomon made the brasen sea, and the pillars, and the vessels of brass.

9 ¶ Now when Tou king of Hamath heard how David had smitten all the host of Hadarezer king of Zobah, 10 He sent Hadoram his son to king David, <sup>o</sup> to inquire of his welfare, and <sup>p</sup> to congratulate him, because he had fought against Hadarezer, and smitten him; (for Hadarezer had war with Tou;) and <sup>q</sup> with him all manner of vessels of gold and silver and brass.

12 Moreover Abishai the son of Zeruiah slew of the Edomites, in the <sup>u</sup> valley of Salt, eighteen thousand.

13 And he put garrisons in Edom; and all the Edomites became David's servants. Thus the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went.

14 So David reigned over all Israel, and <sup>v</sup> executed judgment and justice among all his people.

15 And <sup>w</sup> Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the host; and <sup>x</sup> Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud, recorder.

16 And Zadok the son of Ahitub, and Abimelech the son of Abiathar, were the <sup>y</sup> priests; and Shavsha was scribe;

17 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and the sons of David were chief about the king.

C H A P. XIX.

1 David's messengers sent to comfort Hanun the son of Nahash, are villainously entreated. 6 The Ammonites strengthened by the Syrians, are overcome by Joab and Abishai. 16 Shophach, making a new supply of the Syrians, is slain by David.

NOW <sup>a</sup> it came to pass after this, that <sup>b</sup> Nahash the king of the children of Ammon died, and his <sup>c</sup> son reigned in his stead.

2 And David said, I will shew kindness unto Hanun the son of Nahash, <sup>d</sup> because his father shewed kindness to me. And David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. So the servants of David came into the land of the children of Ammon to Hanun, <sup>e</sup> to comfort him.

3 But the princes of the children of Ammon said to Hanun, <sup>f</sup> Thinkest thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee? are not his servants come unto thee for to search, and to overthrow, and <sup>g</sup> to spy out the land?

4 Wherefore Hanun took David's servants, and <sup>h</sup> shaved them, and cut off their garments in the midst, hard by their <sup>i</sup> buttocks, and sent them away.

5 Then there went <sup>j</sup> certain, and told David how the men were served. And he sent to meet them; (for the men were greatly ashamed.) And the king said, Tarry at <sup>k</sup> Jericho until your beards be grown, and <sup>l</sup> then return.

6 And when the children of Ammon saw that they had made themselves <sup>m</sup> odious to David, Hanun and the children of Ammon sent a thousand talents of silver to hire them chariots and horsemen out of Mesopotamia, and out of Syria-maachah, and out of Zobah.

7 So they hired <sup>n</sup> thirty and two thousand chariots, and the king of Maachah and his people, who came and pitched before <sup>o</sup> Medeba. And the children of Ammon gathered themselves together from their cities, and came to battle.

8 And when David heard of it, he sent <sup>p</sup> Joab, and all the host of the <sup>q</sup> mighty men.

9 And the children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array before the gate of the <sup>r</sup> city; and <sup>s</sup> the kings that were come were by themselves in the field.

10 Now when Joab saw that the <sup>t</sup> battle was set against him before and behind, he chose out of all the choice of Israel, and put <sup>u</sup> them in array against the Syrians.

11 And the rest of the people he delivered unto the hand of <sup>v</sup> Abishai his brother, and they set themselves in array against the children of Ammon.

12 And he said, If the Syrians be too strong for me, then thou shalt <sup>w</sup> help me: but if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, then I will help thee.

13 <sup>x</sup> Be of good courage, and <sup>y</sup> let us behave ourselves valiantly for our people, and for the cities of our God; and let the LORD do that which is good in his sight.

14 So Joab, and the people that were with him, drew nigh before the Syrians unto the battle; and they fled before him.

15 And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, they likewise <sup>z</sup> fled before Abishai his brother, and entered into the city. Then Joab came to Jerusalem.

16 And when the Syrians saw that they were <sup>a</sup> put to the worse before Israel, they sent messengers, and drew forth the Syrians that were beyond the river; and <sup>b</sup> Shophach, the captain of the host of Hadarezer, went before them.

17 And it was told David; and he gathered

1 Rabbah is besieged by Joab, spoiled by David, and the people thereof tortured. 4 Three giants are slain in three several overthrowes of the Philistines.

AND it came to pass, that † after the year was expired, at the time that <sup>a</sup> kings go out to battle, Joab led forth the power of the army, and wasted the country of the children of Ammon, and came and besieged Rabbah; (but David <sup>b</sup> tarried at Jerusalem.) And Joab smote Rabbah, and destroyed it.

2 And David took the <sup>c</sup> crown of their king from off his head, and found it to weigh a talent of gold, and there were precious stones in it: and it was set upon David's head: and he brought also exceeding much spoil out of the city.

3 And he brought out the people that were in it, and cut them with <sup>d</sup> saws, and with harrows of iron, and with axes: even so dealt David with all the cities of the children of Ammon. And David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

4 ¶ And it came to pass <sup>e</sup> after this, that there arose war at <sup>f</sup> Gezer with the Philistines, at which time Sibbecai the Hushathite slew Sippai, that was of the children of the giant: and they were <sup>g</sup> subdued.

5 And there was war again with the Philistines; and Elhanan the son of <sup>h</sup> Jair slew Lahmi, the brother of Goliath the Gittite, whose spear's staff was like a weaver's beam.

6 And yet again <sup>i</sup> there was war at Gath, where was † a man of great stature, whose fingers and toes were four and twenty, six on each hand, and six on each foot: and he also was the son of the giant.

7 But when he <sup>k</sup> defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimea, David's brother, slew him.

8 These were born unto the giant in Gath; and they <sup>l</sup> fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

C H A P. XXI.

1 David tempted by Satan, forceth Joab to number the people. 5 The number of the people being brought, David repenteth of it. 9 David having three plagues propounded by Gad, chooseth the pestilence. 14 After the death of seventy thousand, David by repentance preventeth the destruction of Jerusalem. 18 David by Gad's direction, purchaseth Ornan's threshing-floor: where having built an altar, God giveth a sign of his favour by fire, and stayeth the plague. 28 David sacrificeth there, being restrained from Gibeon by fear of the angel.

AND <sup>a</sup> Satan stood up against Israel, and <sup>b</sup> provoked David to number Israel.

2 And David said to Joab, and to the rulers of the people, Go, number Israel, from <sup>c</sup> Beer-sheba even to Dan; and bring the number of them to me, that I may know it.

3 And Joab answered, The LORD † make his people an hundred times so many more as they be: but, my lord the king, are they not all my lord's servants? why then doth my lord require this thing? why will he be a cause of trespass to Israel?

4 <sup>d</sup> Nevertheless the king's word prevailed against Joab: wherefore Joab departed, and went <sup>e</sup> throughout all Israel, and came to Jerusalem.

5 ¶ And Joab gave the sum of the number of the people unto David. And all they of Israel were <sup>f</sup> a thousand thousand and an hundred thousand men that drew sword: and Judah was four hundred threescore and ten thousand men that drew sword.

6 But Levi and Benjamin counted he not among them; for the king's word was <sup>g</sup> abominable to Joab.

7 And God was displeased with this thing; therefore he <sup>h</sup> smote Israel.

8 And David said unto God, I have <sup>i</sup> sinned greatly, because I have done this thing: but now, I beseech thee, do away the iniquity of thy servant; for I have done very foolishly.

9 And the LORD spake unto Gad, David's <sup>k</sup> seer, saying,

10 Go and tell David, saying, <sup>l</sup> Thus saith the LORD, I offer thee three things: <sup>m</sup> choose thee one of them, that I may do it unto thee.

11 So Gad <sup>n</sup> came to David, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Choose thee

12 Either three <sup>o</sup> years: <sup>p</sup> or famine; or <sup>q</sup> three months to <sup>r</sup> be destroyed before thy foes, while that the sword of thine enemies overtaketh thee; or else three days the sword of the LORD, even the pestilence, in the land, and the angel of the LORD destroying throughout all the coasts of Israel. Now, therefore, advise thyself what word I shall bring again to him that sent me.

13 And David said unto Gad, I am in a great strait: let me fall now into the hand of the LORD; for <sup>s</sup> very great are his mercies: but let me <sup>t</sup> not fall into the hand of man.

14 So the LORD sent pestilence upon Israel: and there fell of Israel <sup>u</sup> seventy thousand men.

1 David in his old age maketh Solomon king. 2 The number and distribution of the Levites. 7 The families of the Gershonites. 12 The sons of Kohath.

21 The sons of Merari. 24 The office of the Levites. SO when David was <sup>a</sup> old and full of days, he <sup>b</sup> made Solomon his son king over Israel.

2 And he <sup>c</sup> gathered together all the princes of Israel, with the priests and the Levites.

3 Now the Levites were numbered from the age of <sup>d</sup> thirty years and upward; and their number by their polls, man by man, was thirty and eight thousand.

4 Of which, twenty and four thousand were to set forward the work of the house of the LORD; and six thousand were <sup>e</sup> officers and judges.

5 Moreover, four thousand were porters: and four thousand <sup>f</sup> praised the LORD with the instruments which I made (said David) to praise therewith.

6 And David <sup>g</sup> divided them into <sup>h</sup> courses among the sons of Levi, namely, <sup>i</sup> Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

8 The <sup>l</sup> sons of Laadan; the chief was Jechiel, and Zetham, and Joel, three.

9 The sons of Shimei; Shelomith, and Haziel, and Haran, three. These were the chief of the fathers of Laadan.

10 And the sons of Shimei were, Jahath, Zina, and Jeush, and Beriah. These four were the sons of Shimei.

11 And Jahath was the chief, and Zizah the second; but Jeush and Beriah <sup>m</sup> had not many sons; therefore they were in one reckoning, according to their father's house.

12 ¶ The sons of <sup>n</sup> Kohath; Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel, four.

14 Now concerning Moses the <sup>s</sup> man of God, <sup>t</sup> his sons were named of the tribe of Levi.

15 The sons of Moses were Gershom and Eliezer.

16 Of the <sup>u</sup> sons of Gershom, Shebuel was the chief.

17 And the sons of <sup>v</sup> Eliezer were, Rehabiah the chief. And Eliezer had none other sons; but the sons of Rehabiah <sup>w</sup> were very many.

19 Of the sons of Hebron; Jariah the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth.

20 Of the sons of Uzziel; Micah the first, and Jesiah the second.

21 ¶ The sons of Merari; Mahli and Mushi. The sons of Mahli; Eleazar and Kish.

22 And Eleazar died, and had no sons, but <sup>z</sup> daughters: and their brethren the sons of Kish <sup>a</sup> took them.

23 The sons of Mushi; Mahli, and Eder, and Jerimoth, three.

24 ¶ These were the sons of <sup>b</sup> Levi, after the house of their fathers; even the chief of the fathers, as they were counted by number of names by their polls, that did the <sup>c</sup> work for the service of the house of the LORD, from the age of <sup>d</sup> twenty years and upward.

25 For David said, The LORD God of Israel hath given <sup>e</sup> rest unto his people, that they may dwell <sup>f</sup> in Jerusalem for ever:

26 And also unto the Levites; they shall <sup>g</sup> no more carry the tabernacle, nor any vessels of it for the service thereof.

27 For by the last words of David, the Levites were numbered from twenty years old and above:

28 Because <sup>h</sup> their office was to wait on the sons of Aaron, for the <sup>i</sup> service of the house of the LORD, in the <sup>j</sup> courts, and in the chambers, and in the purifying of all holy things, and the work of the service of the house of God;

29 Both for the <sup>k</sup> shew-bread, and for the <sup>l</sup> fine flour for meat-offering, and for the unleavened cakes, and for that which is baked in the pan, and for that which is fried, and for all manner of measure and size;

30 And to stand every <sup>m</sup> morning to thank and praise the LORD, and likewise <sup>n</sup> at even;

31 And to offer all <sup>o</sup> burnt-sacrifices unto the LORD, in the sabbaths, in the <sup>p</sup> new moons, and on the set <sup>q</sup> feasts, by number, according to the order commanded unto them, continually before the LORD:

6 And Shemaiah the son of Nethaneel the scribe, one of the Levites, wrote them before the king, and the princes, and Zadok the priest, and Abimelech the son of Abiathar, and before the chief of the fathers of the priests and Levites: one principal household being taken for Eleazar, and one taken for Ithamar.

7 Now the first lot came forth to Jehoiarib, the second to Jedaiah,

8 The third to Harim, the fourth to Seorim,

9 The fifth to Malchijah, the sixth to Mijamin,

10 The seventh to Hakkoz, the eighth to Abijah,

11 The ninth to Jeshuah, the tenth to Shecaniah,

12 The eleventh to Eliashib, the twelfth to Jakim,

13 The thirteenth to Huppah, the fourteenth to Jeshebeab,

14 The fifteenth to Bilgah, the sixteenth to Immer,

15 The seventeenth to Hezir, the eighteenth to Aphas,

16 The nineteenth to Pethahiah, the twentieth to Jehezekel,

17 The one and twentieth to Jachin, the two and twentieth to Gamul, 18 The three and twentieth to Delaiah, the four and twentieth to Mazaiah.

19 These were the orderings of them in their service, to come into the house of the LORD, according to their manner, under Aaron their father, as the LORD God of Israel had commanded him.

20 ¶ And the rest of the sons of Levi were these: Of the sons of Amram; Shubael: of the sons of Shubael; Jehdeiah.

21 Concerning Rehabiah; of the sons of Rehabiah, the first was Isshiah.

22 Of the Izharites; Shelomoth: of the sons of Shelomoth; Jahath.

23 And the sons of Hebron; Jeriah the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, Jekameam the fourth.

24 Of the sons of Uzziel; Michah: of the sons of Michah; Shamir.

25 The brother of Michah was Isshiah: of the sons of Isshiah; Zechariah.

26 ¶ The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi: the sons of Jaaziah; Beno.

27 The sons of Merari by Jaaziah; Beno, and Shoham, and Zaccur, and Ibri.

28 Of Mahli came Eleazar, who had no sons.

29 Concerning Kish; the son of Kish was Jerahmeel.

30 The sons also of Mushi; Mahli, and Eder, and Jerimoth. These were the sons of the Levites, after the house of their fathers.

31 These likewise cast lots over against their brethren the sons of Aaron, in the presence of

C H A P: XXV.

1 The number and offices of the singers. 8 Their division by lot into four and twenty orders.

MOREOVER, David, and the captains of the host, separated to the service of the sons of Asaph, and of Heman, and of Jeduthun, who should prophesy with harps, with psalteries, and with cymbals: and the number of the workmen, according to their service, was;

2 Of the sons of Asaph; Zaccur, and Joseph, and Nethaniah, and Asarelah, the sons of Asaph, under the hands of Asaph, which prophesied according to the order of the king.

3 Of Jeduthun: the sons of Jeduthun; Gedaliah, and Zeri, and Jesaiah, Hashabiah, and Mattithiah, six, under the hands of their father Jeduthun, who prophesied with a harp, to give thanks and to praise the LORD.

4 Of Heman: the sons of Heman; Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shebuel, and Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, and Romamti-ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallathi, Hothir, and Mahazioth:

5 All these were the sons of Heman the king's seer in the words of God, to lift up the horn. And God gave to Heman fourteen sons and three daughters.

6 All these were under the hands of their father for song in the house of the LORD, with cymbals, psalteries, and harps, for the service of the house of God, according to the king's order to Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman.

7 So the number of them with their brethren, that were instructed in the songs of the LORD, even all that were cunning, was two hundred fourscore and eight.

8 And they cast lots, ward against ward, as well the small as the great, the teacher as the scholar.

9 Now, the first lot came forth for Asaph to Joseph; the second to Gedaliah, who with his brethren and sons were twelve:

10 The third to Zaccur, he, his sons and his brethren, were twelve:

11 The fourth to Izri, he, his sons and his brethren, were twelve:

12 The fifth to Nethaniah, he, his sons and his brethren, were twelve:

13 The sixth to Bukkiah, he, his sons and his brethren, were twelve:

14 The seventh to Jesharelah, he, his sons and his brethren, were twelve:

15 The eighth to Jesaiah, he, his sons and his brethren, were twelve:

16 The ninth to Mattaniah, he, his sons and his brethren, were twelve:

17 The tenth to Shimei, he, his sons and his brethren, were twelve:

1 The divisions of the porters. 13 The gates assigned by lot. 20 The Levites that had charge of the treasures. 29 Officers and judges.

CONCERNING the <sup>a</sup> divisions of the <sup>b</sup> porters : Of the Korhites was Meshelemiah the son of Kore, of the sons of Asaph.

2 And the sons of Meshelemiah were Zechariah the <sup>c</sup> first-born, Jedaiel the second, Zebadiah the third, Jathniel the fourth,

3 Elam the fifth, Jehohanan the sixth, Elioenai the seventh.

4 Moreover, the sons of <sup>d</sup> Obed-edom were Shemaiah the first-born, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, and Sacar the fourth, and Nethaneel the fifth.

5 Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, Peulthai the eighth ; for God <sup>e</sup> blessed || him.

6 Also unto Shemaiah his son were sons born, that ruled throughout the house of their father : for they were <sup>f</sup> mighty men of valour.

7 The sons of Shemaiah ; Othni, and Rephael, and Obed, <sup>g</sup> Elzabad, whose brethren were strong men ; Elihu, and Semachiah.

8 All these of the sons of Obed-edom ; they, and their sons, and their brethren, able men for strength for the service, were threescore and two of Obed-edom.

9 And Meshelemiah had sons and brethren, strong men, eighteen.

10 Also <sup>h</sup> Hosah, of the children of Merari, had sons ; Simri the chief, (for though he was not the first-born, yet <sup>k</sup> his father made him the chief.)

11 Hilkiah the second, Tebaliah the third, Zechariah the fourth : all the sons and brethren of Hosah were thirteen.

12 Among these were the <sup>l</sup> divisions of the porters, even among the chief men, having wards <sup>m</sup> one against another, to minister in the house of the Lord.

13 And they cast lots, as well the <sup>n</sup> small as the great, according to the house of their fathers, for every gate.

14 And the lot eastward fell to Shelemiah. Then for Zechariah his son (a wise counsellor) they cast lots, and his lot came out northward.

15 To Obed-edom southward ; and to his sons the house of Asuphim :

17 <sup>s</sup> Eastward were six Levites, northward four a day, southward four a day, and toward Asuphim two and two.

18 At || Parbar westward, four at the causeway, and two at Parbar.

19 These are the divisions of the porters among the sons of Kore, and among the sons of Merari.

20 ¶ And of the Levites, Ahijah was over the <sup>t</sup> treasures of the house of God, and over the treasures of the <sup>u</sup> dedicated things.

21 As concerning the sons of Laadan : the sons of the Gershonite Laadan, chief fathers, even of Laadan the Gershonite, were Jehieli.

22 The sons of Jehieli ; Zetham, and Joel his brother, which were over the treasures of the house of the Lord.

23 Of the <sup>x</sup> Amramites, and the Izharites, the Hebronites, and the Uzzielites :

24 And <sup>y</sup> Shebuel the son of Gershon, the son of Moses, was ruler of the treasures.

25 And his brethren by Eliezer ; Rehabiah his son, and Jeshaiah his son, and Joram his son, and Zichri his son, and Shelomith his son.

26 Which Shelomith and his brethren were over all the treasures of the dedicated things, which <sup>z</sup> David the king, and the chief fathers, the captains over thousands and hundreds, and the captains of the host, had dedicated.

27 Out of the <sup>a</sup> spoils won in battles did they dedicate to maintain the house of the Lord.

28 And all that <sup>b</sup> Samuel the seer, and <sup>c</sup> Saul the son of Kish, and <sup>d</sup> Abner the son of Ner, and Joab the son of Zeruiah, had dedicated ; and whosoever had dedicated any thing, it was under the hand of Shelomith, and of his brethren.

29 Of the Izharites, Chenaniah and his sons were for the <sup>e</sup> outward business over Israel, for <sup>f</sup> officers and <sup>g</sup> judges.

30 And of the Hebronites, Hashabiah and his brethren, men of valour, a thousand and seven hundred, were officers among them of Israel on this side Jordan westward, <sup>h</sup> in all business of the Lord, and in the service of the king.

31 Among the Hebronites was Jerijah the chief, even among the Hebronites, according to the generations of his fathers. In the <sup>i</sup> fortieth year of the reign of David they were sought for, and there were found among them mighty men of valour at <sup>k</sup> Jazer of Gilead.

32 And his brethren, men of valour, were two thousand and seven hundred chief fathers, whom king David made rulers over the <sup>l</sup> Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh,

NOW the children of Israel after their number, to wit, the chief fathers and captains of thousands and hundreds, and their officers that <sup>a</sup> served the king in any matter of the courses, which came in and went out month by month, throughout all the months of the year, of every course were twenty and four thousand.

2 Over the first course, for the first month, was Jashobeam the son of Zabdiel: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

3 Of the <sup>c</sup> children of Perez was the chief of all the captains of the host for the first month.

4 And over the course of the second month was || Dodai an Ahohite, and of his course was Mikloth also the ruler: in his course likewise were twenty and four thousand.

5 The third captain of the host, for the third month, was <sup>d</sup> Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, a || chief priest: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

6 This is that Benaiah who was mighty among the <sup>e</sup> thirty, and above the thirty: and in his course was <sup>f</sup> Ammizabad his son.

7 The fourth captain, for the fourth month, was <sup>g</sup> Asabel the brother of Joab, and Zebadiah his son after him: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

8 The fifth captain, for the fifth month, was <sup>h</sup> Shamhuth the Izrahite: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

9 The sixth captain, for the sixth month, was <sup>i</sup> Ira the son of Ikkeish the Tekoite: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

10 The seventh captain, for the seventh month, was Helez the || Pelonite, of the children of Ephraim: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

11 The eighth captain, for the eighth month, was <sup>k</sup> Sibbecai the Hushathite, of the <sup>l</sup> Zarhites: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

12 The ninth captain, for the ninth month, was <sup>m</sup> Abiezer the Anetothite, of the Benjamites: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

13 The tenth captain, for the tenth month, was <sup>n</sup> Maharai the Netophathite, of the <sup>o</sup> Zarhites: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

14 The eleventh captain, for the eleventh month, was <sup>p</sup> Benaiah the Pirathonite, of the children of Ephraim: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

15 The twelfth captain, for the twelfth month, was || Heldai the Netophathite, of <sup>q</sup> Othniel: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

16 Furthermore, over the tribes of Israel; the ruler of the Reubenites was Eliezer the son of Zichri: of the Simeonites, Shephatiah the son of Maachah:

18 Of Judah, || Elihu, one of the brethren of David: of Issachar, Omri the son of Michael.

19 Of Zebulun, <sup>u</sup> Ishmaiah the son of Obadiah: of <sup>v</sup> Naphtali, Jerimoth the son of Azriel:

20 Of the children of Ephraim, Hoshea the son of Azaziah: of the half tribe of Manasseh, Joel the son of Pedaiah:

22 Of Dan, Azareel the son of Jeroham. These were the princes of the tribes of Israel.

23 But David took not the number of them from <sup>z</sup> twenty years old and under: because the Lord had said he would increase Israel like to the <sup>a</sup> stars of the heavens.

24 <sup>b</sup> Joab the son of Zeruiah began to number, but he <sup>c</sup> finished not, because there <sup>d</sup> fell wrath for it against Israel; neither was the number put in the account of the Chronicles of king David.

25 And over the <sup>e</sup> king's treasures was Azmaveth the son of Adiel: and over the storehouses in the fields, in the cities, and in the villages, and in the castles, was Jehonathan the son of Uzziah:

26 And over them that did the work of the field, for tillage of the ground, was Ezri the son of Chelub:

27 And <sup>f</sup> over the vineyards was Shimei the Ramathite: over the increase of the vineyards for the wine-cellars was Zabdi the Shiphmite:

28 And over the olive-trees, and the <sup>g</sup> sycamore-trees that were in the low plains, was Baalhanan the Gederite: and over the cellars of oil was Joash:

33 And <sup>m</sup> Ahithophel was the king's counsellor: and Hushai the Archite was the king's <sup>n</sup> companion:

34 And <sup>o</sup> after Ahithophel was Jehoiada the son of Benaiah, and <sup>p</sup> Abiathar: and the <sup>q</sup> general of the king's army was Joab.

He giveth him patterns for the form, and gold and silver for the materials.

AND David<sup>a</sup> assembled all the princes of Israel, the princes of the tribes, and the captains of the companies that ministered to the king by course, and the captains over the thousands, and captains over the hundreds, and the<sup>b</sup> stewards over all the substance and possession of the king, and of his<sup>c</sup> sons, with the officers, and with the mighty men, and with all the valiant men, unto Jerusalem.

2 Then David the king<sup>d</sup> stood up upon his feet, and said, Hear me, <sup>e</sup> my brethren, and my people: As for me, I had in <sup>f</sup> mine heart to build an house of <sup>g</sup> rest for the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and for the <sup>h</sup> footstool of our God, and had made ready for the building:

3 But God said unto me, Thou shalt not build an house for my name; because thou hast been a man of war, and hast shed † blood.

4 Howbeit the LORD God of Israel chose me <sup>i</sup> before all the house of my father to be king over Israel <sup>k</sup> for ever: for he hath chosen Judah to be the ruler; and of the house of <sup>l</sup> Judah, the house of my father; and among the sons of my father he liked me, to make me king over all Israel:

5 And <sup>m</sup> of all my sons (for the LORD hath given me many sons) he hath chosen Solomon my son to sit upon the throne of the kingdom of the LORD over Israel.

6 And he said unto me, <sup>n</sup> Solomon thy son, he shall build my house and my <sup>o</sup> courts: for I have chosen him to be my son, and I will be his father.

7 Moreover, I will establish his kingdom for ever, if he be constant to do my <sup>p</sup> commandments and my judgments, as at this day.

8 Now therefore, in the sight of all Israel, the congregation of the LORD, and in the audience of our God, keep and seek for all the commandments of the LORD your God, that ye may possess this good land, and leave it for an inheritance for your children after you for ever.

9 And thou, Solomon my son, <sup>q</sup> know thou the God of thy father, and serve him with <sup>r</sup> a perfect heart, and with a willing mind: for the LORD <sup>s</sup> searcheth all hearts, and understandeth all the imaginations of the thoughts: if thou seek him, he will be found of thee; but if thou forsake him, he will cast thee off for ever.

10 Take heed now; for the LORD hath chosen thee to build an house for the <sup>t</sup> sanctuary: be strong, and do it.

11 ¶ Then David gave to Solomon his son the <sup>u</sup> pattern of the porch, and of the <sup>x</sup> houses thereof, and of the treasuries thereof, and of the upper chambers thereof, and of the inner parlours thereof, and of the place of the <sup>y</sup> mercy seat,

12 And the pattern of all that he had by the Spirit, of the courts of the house of the LORD, and of all the chambers round about, of the <sup>z</sup> treasuries of the house of God, and of the treasuries of the <sup>aa</sup> dedicated things:

13 Also for the courses of the priests and the Levites, and for all the work of the service of the house of the LORD, and for all the vessels of service in the house of the LORD.

14 He gave of <sup>b</sup> gold by weight for things of gold, for all instruments of all manner of service; <sup>c</sup> silver also for all instruments of silver by weight, for all instruments of every kind of service:

15 Even the weight for the <sup>d</sup> candlesticks of gold, and for their lamps of gold, by weight for every candlestick, and for the lamps thereof; and for the candlesticks of silver by weight, both for the candlestick, and also for the lamps thereof, according to the use of every candlestick.

16 And by weight he gave gold for the tables of <sup>e</sup> shew-bread, for every table; and likewise silver for the tables of silver:

17 Also pure gold for the <sup>f</sup> flesh-hooks, and the bowls, and the cups; and for the <sup>g</sup> golden basons he gave gold by weight for every bason; and likewise silver by weight for every bason of silver:

18 And for the altar of incense refined gold by weight; and gold for the pattern of the <sup>h</sup> chariot of the cherubims, that spread out their wings, and covered the ark of the covenant of the LORD.

19 All this, said David, the LORD made me understand <sup>i</sup> in writing by his hand upon me, even all the works of this pattern.

20 And David said to Solomon his son, Be strong, and of good courage, and do it: fear not, nor be dismayed; for the LORD God, even my God will be with thee: he will not <sup>k</sup> fail thee, nor forsake thee, until thou hast finished all the work for the service of the house of the LORD.

21 And, behold, the <sup>ll</sup> courses of the priests and the Levites, even they shall be with thee for all the service of the house of God: and there shall be with thee, for all manner of workmanship, every willing skilful man, for any manner of service; also the princes and all the people will be wholly at thy commandment.

C H A P. XXIX.

FURTHERMORE, David the king said unto <sup>a</sup> all the congregation, Solomon my son, whom alone God hath chosen, is yet <sup>b</sup> young and tender, and the work is great: for the palace is not <sup>c</sup> for man, but <sup>d</sup> for the LORD God.

2 Now I have prepared with all my might for the house of my God the gold for things to be made of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and the brass for things of brass, the iron for things of iron, and wood for things of wood; <sup>e</sup> onyx-stones, and stones to be set, <sup>f</sup> glistening stones, and of divers colours, and all manner of <sup>g</sup> precious stones, and marble stones in abundance.

9 Then the people rejoiced, for that they offered <sup>m</sup>willingly, because with <sup>n</sup>perfect heart they offered willingly to the LORD : and David the king also rejoiced with great joy.

10 Wherefore David blessed the LORD before all the congregation : and David said, Blessed be thou, LORD God of Israel our Father, for ever and ever.

11 ° Thine, O LORD, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty : for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine ; thine is the kingdom, O LORD, and thou art exalted as head above all.

12 Both riches and honour come <sup>p</sup>of thee, and thou <sup>q</sup>reignest over all; and in thine hand is power and might, and in thine hand it is to make great, and to give strength unto all.

13 Now therefore, our God, we thank thee, and praise thy glorious name.

14 But <sup>r</sup>who am I, and what is my people, that we should be <sup>s</sup>able to offer so willingly after this sort ? for all things come of thee, and <sup>t</sup>of thine own have we given thee.

15 For we are <sup>u</sup>strangers before thee, and sojourners, as were all our fathers : our days on the earth are as <sup>v</sup>a shadow, and there is none abiding.

16 O LORD our God, all this store that we have prepared, to build thee an house for thine holy name, cometh of thine hand, and is all thine own.

17 I know also, my God, that thou <sup>w</sup>triest the heart, and hast <sup>x</sup>pleasure in uprightness. As for me, in the uprightness of mine heart I have willingly offered all these things : and now have I seen with joy thy people, which are present here, to offer willingly unto thee.

18 O LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, our fathers, <sup>a</sup>keep this for ever in the <sup>b</sup>imagination of the thoughts of the heart of thy people, and <sup>c</sup>prepare their heart unto thee :

19 And <sup>d</sup>give unto Solomon my son a perfect heart, to keep thy commandments, thy testimonies, and thy statutes, and to do all these things, and to build the palace for the which I have <sup>e</sup>made provision.

20 ¶ And David said to all the congregation, Now <sup>f</sup>bless the LORD your God. And all the congregation blessed the LORD God of their fathers, and bowed down their heads, and worshipped the LORD and the king.

21 And they sacrificed sacrifices unto the LORD; and offered burnt-offerings unto the LORD, on the morrow after that day, even <sup>g</sup>a thousand bullocks, a thousand rams; and a thousand lambs, with their drink-offerings, and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel :

22 And did eat and drink before the LORD on that day with great gladness : and they made Solomon, the son of David, king : the <sup>h</sup>second time, and anointed him unto the LORD to be the chief governor, and Zadok to be priest.

23 Then Solomon sat on the <sup>i</sup>throne of the LORD as king instead of David his father, and prospered ; and all Israel obeyed him.

24 And all the princes, and the mighty men, and all the sons likewise of king David, †submitted themselves unto Solomon the king.

25 And the LORD magnified Solomon exceedingly in the sight of all Israel, and bestowed upon him such †royal majesty, as had not been on any king before him in Israel.

26 ¶ Thus David the son of Jesse <sup>k</sup>reigned over all Israel.

27 And the <sup>1</sup>time that he reigned over Israel was forty years ; <sup>m</sup>seven years reigned he in Hebron, and thirty and three years reigned he in Jerusalem.

28 And he died in a good old age, <sup>n</sup>full of days, riches, and honour : and Solomon his son reigned in his stead.

29 Now the acts of David the king, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of Samuel the seer, and in the book of Nathan the prophet, and in the book of Gad the <sup>o</sup>seer, 30 With all his reign and his might, and the times that went over him, and over Israel, and over all the kingdoms of the countries.

¶ The SECOND Book of the CHRONICLES.

CHAP. I.

Before
1015.

1 The solemn offering of Solomon at Gibeon. 7 Solomon's choice of wisdom is blessed by God. 13 Solomon's strength and wealth.

AND Solomon the son of David <sup>a</sup> was strengthened in his kingdom, and the LORD his God <sup>b</sup> was with him, <sup>c</sup> and magnified him exceedingly.

2 Then Solomon <sup>a</sup> spake unto all Israel, to the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and to the judges, and to every governor in all Israel, the chief of the fathers.

3 So Solomon, and all the congregation with him, went to the <sup>a</sup> high place that was at Gibeon; for there was the <sup>a</sup> tabernacle of the congregation of God, which Moses, the servant of the LORD, had made in the wilderness.

4 But the ark of God had David brought up from <sup>a</sup> Kirjath-jearim to the place which David had prepared for it: for he had pitched a tent for it at Jerusalem.

5 Moreover, the <sup>b</sup> brasen altar that Bezaleel, the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made, he put before the tabernacle of the LORD; and Solomon and the congregation <sup>i</sup> sought unto it.

6 And Solomon went up thither to the brasen altar <sup>k</sup> before the LORD, which was at the tabernacle of the congregation, and offered a thousand burnt-offerings upon it.

7 In that <sup>i</sup> night did God appear unto Solomon, and said unto him, Ask what I shall give thee.

8 And Solomon said unto God, Thou hast shewed great mercy unto David my father, and hast made me to reign <sup>m</sup> in his stead.

9 Now, O LORD God, let thy promise unto David my father be established: for thou hast made me king over a people like the dust of the earth in <sup>a</sup> multitude.

10 <sup>o</sup> Give me now wisdom and knowledge, that I may <sup>p</sup> go out and come in before this people: for who can <sup>q</sup> judge this thy people that is so great?

11 And God said to Solomon, Because this was <sup>r</sup> in thine heart, and thou hast not asked riches, wealth, or honour, nor the life of thine enemies; neither yet hast asked long life; but hast asked wisdom and knowledge for thyself, that thou mayest judge my people, over whom I have made thee king:

12 <sup>s</sup> Wisdom and knowledge is granted unto thee; and I will give thee riches, and wealth, and honour, such as <sup>t</sup> none of the kings have had that have been before thee, neither shall there any after thee have the like.

13 ¶ Then Solomon came from his journey to the high place that was at Gibeon to Jerusalem, from before the tabernacle of the congregation, and <sup>u</sup> reigned over Israel.

14 And Solomon <sup>x</sup> gathered chariots and horsemen: and he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, which he placed in the chariot-cities, and with the king at Jerusalem.

15 And the <sup>y</sup> king made silver and gold at Jerusalem as plenteous as stones, and cedar-trees made he as the sycamore-trees that are in the vale for abundance.

16 And Solomon had <sup>z</sup> horses brought out of Egypt, and linen yarn; the king's merchants received the linen yarn at a price.

17 And they fetched up, and brought forth out of Egypt, a chariot for six hundred shekels of silver, and an horse for an hundred and fifty: and so brought they out horses for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria, † by their means.

CHAP. II.

1, 17 Solomon's labourers for the building of the temple. 3 His ambassage to Hiram for workmen and provision of stuff. 11 Hiram sendeth him a kind answer.

AND Solomon determined to build an house for the <sup>a</sup> name of the LORD, and an house <sup>b</sup> for his kingdom.

2 And Solomon told out threescore and <sup>c</sup> ten thousand men to bear burdens, and fourscore thousand to hew in the <sup>d</sup> mountain, and <sup>e</sup> three thousand and six hundred to oversee them.

3 And Solomon sent to <sup>f</sup> Hiram the king of Tyre, saying, As thou didst deal with David my father, and didst send him cedars to build him an house to dwell therein, even so deal with me.

4 Behold, I build an house to the <sup>g</sup> name of the LORD my God, to dedicate it to him, and to burn before him sweet incense, and for the <sup>h</sup> continual shew-bread, and for the burnt-offerings morning and evening, on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the solemn feasts of the LORD our God. This is an ordinance for ever to Israel.

5 And the house which I build is great: for great is our God <sup>i</sup> above all gods.

6 But <sup>k</sup> who is able to build him an house, seeing the heaven and <sup>l</sup> heaven of heavens cannot contain him? who am I then, that I should build him an house, save only to burn sacrifice before him?

7 Send me now, therefore, <sup>m</sup> a man cunning to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, and in iron, and in purple, and crimson, and blue, and that can skill <sup>n</sup> to grave with the cunning men that are with me in Judah and in Jerusalem, whom David my father did <sup>o</sup> provide.

8 Send me also <sup>p</sup> cedar-trees, fir-trees, and <sup>q</sup> al-gum-trees, out of Lebanon; (for I know that thy servants can skill to cut timber in Lebanon;) and, behold, <sup>r</sup> my servants shall be with thy servants, 9 Even to prepare me timber in abundance: for the house which I am about to build shall be † wonderful great.

10 And, behold, I will give to thy servants, the hewers that cut timber, twenty thousand † measures of beaten wheat, and twenty thousand measures of barley, and twenty thousand † baths of wine, and twenty thousand baths of oil.

11 Then Hiram the king of Tyre † answered in writing, which he sent to Solomon, Because the LORD hath <sup>t</sup> loved his people, he hath made thee king over them.

12 Hiram said moreover, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, that <sup>u</sup> made heaven and earth, who hath given to David the king a wise son, † endued with prudence and understanding, that might build an house for the LORD, and an house for his kingdom.

13 And now I have sent a cunning man, endued with understanding, of <sup>x</sup> Hiram my father's, 14 The <sup>y</sup> son of a woman of the daughters of Dan, and his father was a man of Tyre, skilful to work in gold, and in silver, in brass, in iron, in stone, and in timber, in purple, in blue, and in fine linen, and in crimson; also to grave any manner of graving, and to find out every device which shall be put to him, with thy cunning men, and with the cunning men of my lord David thy father.

15 Now therefore the wheat, and the barley, the oil, and the wine, which my lord hath spoken of, let him send unto his servants:

16 And we will cut wood out of Lebanon, † as much as thou shalt need; and we will bring it to thee in floats by sea to <sup>z</sup> Joppa, and thou shalt carry it up to Jerusalem.

17 ¶ And Solomon numbered all the <sup>a</sup> strangers that were in the land of Israel, after the numbering wherewith David his father had numbered them; and they were found an hundred and fifty thousand and three thousand and six hundred.

18 And he set threescore and <sup>b</sup> ten thousand of them to be <sup>b</sup> bearers of burdens, and fourscore thousand to be hewers in the mountain, and three thousand and six hundred overseers to set the people a work.

C H A P. III.

1 The place and time of building the temple. 3 The measure and ornaments of the house. 11 The cherubims. 14 The vail of pillars.

2 And he began to build in the <sup>e</sup> second day of the second month, in the fourth year of his reign.

3 ¶ Now these are the things wherein Solomon <sup>f</sup> was instructed for the building of the house of God. The <sup>g</sup> length by cubits, after the <sup>h</sup> first measure, was threescore cubits, and the breadth twenty cubits.

4 And the <sup>i</sup> porch that was in the front of the house, the length of it was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the height was an hundred and twenty: and he overlaid it within with pure gold.

5 And the <sup>j</sup> greater house he ceiled with <sup>k</sup> fir-tree, which he overlaid with fine gold, and set thereon <sup>l</sup> palm-trees and chains.

6 And he garnished the house with <sup>m</sup> precious stones for beauty: and the gold was gold of <sup>n</sup> Parvaim.

7 He overlaid also the house, the beams, the posts, and the walls thereof, and the doors thereof, with gold; and graven <sup>o</sup> cherubims on the walls.

8 And he made <sup>p</sup> the most holy house, the length whereof was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof twenty cubits: and he overlaid it with fine gold, amounting to six hundred talents.

9 And the weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold. And he overlaid the <sup>q</sup> upper chambers with gold.

10 And in the most holy place he made two <sup>r</sup> cherubims of image work, and overlaid them with gold.

11 And the <sup>s</sup> wings of the cherubims were twenty cubits long: one wing of the one cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house; and the other wing was likewise five cubits, reaching to the wing of the other cherub.

12 And one wing of the other cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house; and the other wing was five cubits also, joining to the wing of the other cherub.

13 The wings of these cherubims spread themselves forth twenty cubits: and they stood on their feet, and their faces were || inward.

14 And he made the <sup>t</sup> vail of blue, and purple, and crimson, and fine linen, and wrought cherubims thereon.

15 Also he made before the house two <sup>u</sup> pillars of thirty and five cubits high, and the chapter that was on the top of each of them was five cubits.

16 And he made chains, as in the oracle, and put them on the heads of the pillars; and made an hundred pomegranates, and put them on the chains.

17 And he <sup>v</sup> reared up the pillars before the temple, one on the right hand, and the other on the left; and called the name of that on the right hand Jachin, and the name of that on the left Boaz.

MOREOVER, he made an <sup>a</sup> altar of brass, twenty cubits the length thereof, and twenty cubits the breadth thereof, and <sup>b</sup> ten cubits the height thereof.

2 Also he made a <sup>c</sup> molten sea of ten cubits from brim to brim, round in compass, and five cubits the height thereof; and a line of thirty cubits did compass it round about.

3 And under it was the similitude of <sup>d</sup> oxen, which did compass it round about; ten in a cubit, compassing the sea round about. Two rows of oxen were cast when it was cast.

4 It stood upon twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east; and the sea was set above upon them, and all their hinder parts were inward.

5 And the thickness of it was an hand-breadth, and the brim of it like the work of the brim of a cup, with flowers of lilies; and it received and held <sup>a</sup> three thousand baths.

6 He made also <sup>t</sup> ten lavers, and put five on the right hand, and five on the left, to wash in them: such things as they offered for the burnt-offering they <sup>s</sup> washed in them; but the sea was for the <sup>b</sup> priests to wash in.

7 And he made ten <sup>i</sup> candlesticks of gold according to their <sup>k</sup> form, and set them in the temple, five on the right hand, and five on the left.

8 He made also <sup>i</sup> ten tables, and placed them in the temple, five on the right side, and five on the left: and he made an hundred basons of gold.

9 Furthermore, he made <sup>m</sup> the court of the priests, and the <sup>a</sup> great court, and doors for the court, and overlaid the doors of them with <sup>o</sup> brass.

10 And he set the <sup>p</sup> sea on the right side of the east end, over against the south.

11 And <sup>q</sup> Hiram made the pots, and the shovels, and the basons. And Hiram finished the work that he was to make for king Solomon for the house of God;

12 To wit, the two pillars, and the pommels, and the chapters which were on the top of the two pillars, and the two wreaths to cover the two pommels of the chapters which were on the top of the pillars:

13 And four hundred <sup>r</sup> pomegranates on the two wreaths; two rows of pomegranates on each wreath, to cover the two pommels of the chapters which were upon the pillars.

14 He made also <sup>a</sup> bases; and lavers made he upon the bases;

15 One sea, and twelve oxen under it:

16 The <sup>t</sup> pots also, and the shovels, and the <sup>u</sup> flesh-hooks, and all their instruments, did Hiram his father make to king Solomon, for the house of the LORD, of bright brass.

17 In the plain of Jordan did the king cast them, in the † clay-ground between Succoth and Zeredathah.

18 Thus Solomon made all these vessels in great abundance: for the weight of the brass could † not be found out.

19 And Solomon made all the vessels that were for the house of God, the <sup>z</sup> golden altar also, and the tables whereon the shew-bread was set;

20 Moreover the candlesticks with their lamps, that they should burn after <sup>v</sup> the manner, before <sup>z</sup> the oracle, of pure gold;

21 And the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs, made he of gold, and that † perfect gold;

22 And the <sup>a</sup> snuffers, and the basons, and the spoons, and the censers, of pure gold: and the <sup>b</sup> entry of the house, the inner doors thereof for the most holy place, and the doors of the house of the temple, were of gold.

CH A P. V.

1 The dedicated treasures. 2 The solemn induction of the ark into the oracle. 11 God being praised, giveth a visible sign of his favour.

THUS all the work that Solomon made for the house of the LORD was finished: and Solomon brought in all the † things that David his father had dedicated; and the silver, and the gold, and all the instruments, put he among the treasures of the house of God.

2 Then Solomon <sup>a</sup> assembled the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the chief of the fathers of the children of Israel, unto Jerusalem, to bring up the <sup>b</sup> ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the city of David, which is Zion.

3 Wherefore all the men of Israel assembled themselves unto the king, in the feast which was in the <sup>c</sup> seventh month.

4 And all the elders of Israel came; and the <sup>d</sup> Levites took up the ark.

5 And they brought up the ark, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and all the † holy vessels that were in the tabernacle, these did the <sup>e</sup> priests and the Levites bring up.

6 Also king Solomon, and all the congregation of Israel that were assembled unto him before the ark, sacrificed <sup>f</sup> sheep and oxen, which could not be told nor numbered for multitude.

7 And the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the LORD unto his place, to the <sup>g</sup> oracle of the house, into the <sup>h</sup> most holy place, even under the wings of the cherubims:

8 For the cherubims spread forth their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubims covered the ark and the <sup>i</sup> staves thereof above.

9 And they drew out the staves of the ark, that the <sup>k</sup> ends of the staves were seen from the ark before the oracle; but they were not seen without. And there it is unto this day.

10 There was <sup>l</sup> nothing in the ark save the two tables which Moses put therein at <sup>m</sup> Horeb, when the LORD made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of Egypt.

11 And it came to pass, when the priests were come out of the <sup>n</sup> holy place; (for all the priests that were present were <sup>o</sup> sanctified, and did not then <sup>p</sup> wait by course;

12 Also the Levites, which were the <sup>q</sup> singers, all of them of Asaph, of Heman, of Jeduthun, with their sons and their brethren, being <sup>r</sup> arrayed in white linen, having cymbals and psalteries and harps, stood at the east end of the altar, and with them an hundred and twenty priests sounding with trumpets;)

13 It came even to pass, as the trumpeters and singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking the LORD, and when they lift up their voice with the trumpets and cymbals and instruments of music, and praised the LORD, saying, For he is <sup>s</sup> good; for his mercy endureth for ever: that then the house was filled with <sup>t</sup> a cloud, even the house of the LORD;

14 So that the priests could not stand to minister by reason of the cloud; for <sup>u</sup> the glory of the LORD had filled the house of God.

<sup>5</sup> Since the day that I brought forth my people out of the land of Egypt, I <sup>g</sup> chose no city among all the tribes of Israel to build an house in, that my name might be there; neither chose I any man to be a ruler over my people Israel:

<sup>8</sup> But the LORD said to David my father, Forasmuch as it was in thine heart to build an house for my name, thou didst <sup>l</sup> well in that it was in thine heart:

<sup>9</sup> Notwithstanding, thou shalt not build the house; but thy son which shall come forth out of thy <sup>m</sup> loins, he shall build the house for my name.

<sup>10</sup> The LORD therefore hath performed his word that he hath spoken; for I am risen up in the room of David my father, and am set on <sup>n</sup> the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised, and have built the house for the name of the LORD God of Israel:

<sup>16</sup> Now therefore, O LORD God of Israel, keep with thy servant David my father that which thou hast promised him, saying, <sup>w</sup> There shall not fail thee a man in my sight to sit upon the throne of Israel; yet so that thy children take heed to <sup>x</sup> their way to walk in <sup>y</sup> my law, as thou hast walked before me.

<sup>19</sup> Have respect, therefore, to the prayer of thy servant, and to his supplication, O LORD my God, to hearken unto the cry and the prayer which thy servant prayeth † before thee:

<sup>20</sup> That thine eyes may be open upon this house day and night, upon the place whereof thou hast said that thou wouldest put thy name there; to hearken unto the prayer which thy servant prayeth towards this place.

<sup>22</sup> If a man sin against his neighbour, and an oath be laid upon him to make him swear, and the oath come before thine altar in this house;

<sup>27</sup> Then hear thou from heaven, and forgive the sin of thy servants, and of thy people Israel, when thou hast <sup>i</sup> taught them the good way where- in they should walk; and send rain upon the land, which thou hast given unto thy people for an inheritance.

<sup>28</sup> If there be <sup>k</sup> dearth in the land; if there be pestilence, if there be blasting, or mildew, locusts, or caterpillars; if their enemies besiege them † in the cities of their land; whatsoever sore or whatsoever sickness there be;

<sup>29</sup> Then what prayer or what supplication soever shall be made of any man, or of all thy people Israel, when every one shall know his own sore and his own grief, and shall spread forth his hands in this house;

8 But he forsook the counsel which the old men gave him, and took counsel with the <sup>s</sup> young men that were brought up with him, that stood before him.

9 And he said unto them, What advice give ye, that we may return answer to this people, which have spoken to me, saying, Ease somewhat the yoke that thy father did put upon us?

10 And the young men that were brought up with him spake unto him, saying, Thus shalt thou answer the people that spake unto thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it somewhat lighter for us; thus shalt thou say unto them, <sup>h</sup> My little finger shall be thicker than my father's loins.

11 For whereas my father put a heavy yoke upon you, I will put more to your yoke: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

12 So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king bade, saying, Come again to me on the third day.

13 And the king answered them roughly: and king Rehoboam forsook the counsel of the old men, 14 And answered them after the <sup>i</sup> advice of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add thereto: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

15 So the king hearkened not unto the people; for the † cause was of God, that the LORD might perform his word, which he <sup>j</sup> spake by the hand of Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

16 And when all Israel saw that the king would not hearken unto them, the people answered the king, saying, What portion have we in David? and we have none inheritance in the son of Jesse: every man to your tents, O Israel: and now, David, see to thine own house. So all Israel went to their tents.

17 But as for the children of Israel that dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.

18 Then king Rehoboam sent <sup>k</sup> Hadoram, that was over the <sup>l</sup> tribute; and the children of Israel stoned him with stones that he died: but king Rehoboam made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem.

19 And Israel <sup>m</sup> rebelled against the house of David unto this day.

1 Rehoboam raising an army to subdue Israel, is forbidden by Shemaiah: 5 He strengtheneth his kingdom with forts and provision. 13 The priests and Levites, and such as feared God, forsaken by Jeroboam, strengthen the kingdom of Judah. 18 The wives and children of Rehoboam.

AND when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he gathered of the <sup>n</sup> house of Judah and Benjamin an hundred and fourscore thou-

2 But the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah the <sup>c</sup> man of God, saying,

3 Speak unto Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel <sup>d</sup> in Judah, and Benjamin, saying,

4 Thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not go up nor fight against <sup>e</sup> your brethren: return every man to his house; for this <sup>f</sup> thing is done of me. And they obeyed the words of the LORD, and returned from going against Jeroboam.

5 And Rehoboam dwelt in Jerusalem, and <sup>g</sup> built cities for defence in Judah.

11 And he fortified the strong holds, and put captains in them, and store of victual, and of oil and wine.

12 And in every several city he put shields and spears, and made them exceeding strong, having Judah and Benjamin on his side.

13 And the priests and the Levites that were in all Israel resorted to him out of all their coasts.

14 (For the Levites left their suburbs, and their possession, and came to Judah and Jerusalem: for <sup>t</sup> Jeroboam and his sons had cast them off from <sup>u</sup> executing the priest's office unto the LORD:

16 And <sup>y</sup> after them, out of all the tribes of Israel, such as <sup>z</sup> set their hearts to seek the LORD God of Israel, came to Jerusalem to sacrifice unto the LORD God of their fathers.

17 So they strengthened the kingdom of Judah, and made Rehoboam the son of Solomon strong, three years: for <sup>a</sup> three years they <sup>b</sup> walked in the way of David and <sup>c</sup> Solomon.

18 And Rehoboam took him Mahalath the daughter of Jerimoth the son of David to wife, and Abihail the daughter of Eliab the son of Jesse;

20 And after her he took <sup>d</sup> Maachah the daughter of Absalom, which bare him Abijah, and Attai, and Ziza, and Shelomith.

21 And Rehoboam loved Maachah the daughter of Absalom above all his wives and his <sup>e</sup> concubines: (for he took eighteen wives, and threescore concubines; and begat twenty and eight sons, and threescore daughters.)

C H A P. XII.

1 Rehoboam, forsaking the Lord, is punished by Shishak: 5 He and the princes repenting at the preaching of Shemaiah, are delivered from destruction, but not from spoil. 13 The reign and death of Rehoboam.

AND it came to pass, when Rehoboam had established the kingdom, and had strengthened himself, he forsook the law of the Lord, and all Israel with him.

2 And it came to pass, that, in the fifth year of Rehoboam, Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, because they had transgressed against the Lord,

3 With twelve hundred chariots, and three-score thousand horsemen: and the people were without number that came with him out of Egypt; the Lubims, the Sukkiims, and the Ethiopians.

4 And he took the fenced cities which pertained to Judah, and came to Jerusalem.

5 Then came Shemaiah the prophet to Rehoboam, and to the princes of Judah that were gathered together to Jerusalem because of Shishak, and said unto them, Thus saith the Lord, Ye have forsaken me, and therefore have I also left you in the hand of Shishak.

6 Whereupon the princes of Israel and the king humbled themselves; and they said, The Lord is righteous.

7 And when the Lord saw that they humbled themselves, the word of the Lord came to Shemaiah, saying, They have humbled themselves, therefore I will not destroy them, but I will grant them some deliverance; and my wrath shall not be poured out upon Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak.

8 Nevertheless they shall be his servants; that they may know my service, and the service of the kingdoms of the countries.

9 So Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, and took away the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the treasures of the king's house; he took all: he carried away also the shields of gold which Solomon had made.

10 Instead of which king Rehoboam made shields of brass, and committed them to the hands of the chief of the guard, that kept the entrance of the king's house.

11 And when the king entered into the house of the Lord, the guard came and fetched them, and brought them again into the guard chamber.

12 And when he humbled himself, the wrath of the Lord turned from him, that he would not destroy him altogether: and also in Judah things went well.

13 So king Rehoboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem, and reigned: for Rehoboam was one and forty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the Lord had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel to put his name there. And his mother's name was Naamah, an Ammonitess.

14 And he did evil, because he prepared not his heart to seek the Lord.

15 Now the acts of Rehoboam, first and last, are they not written in the book of Shemaiah the prophet, and of Iddo the seer, concerning genealogies? And there were wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually.

16 And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David: and Abijah his son reigned in his stead.

C H A P. XIII.

1 Abijah succeeding, maketh war against Jeroboam.

4 He declareth the right of his cause; 13 Trusting in God, he overcometh Jeroboam. 21 The wives and children of Abijah.

NOW in the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam began Abijah to reign over Judah.

2 He reigned three years in Jerusalem: (his mother's name also was Michaiah, the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah:) and there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam.

3 And Abijah set the battle in array with an army of valiant men of war, even four hundred thousand chosen men: Jeroboam also set the battle in array against him with eight hundred thousand chosen men, being mighty men of valour.

4 And Abijah stood up upon mount Zemaraim, which is in mount Ephraim, and said, Hear me, thou Jeroboam, and all Israel;

5 Ought you not to know, that the Lord God of Israel gave the kingdom over Israel to David for ever, even to him and to his sons by covenant of salt?

6 Yet Jeroboam the son of Nebat, the servant of Solomon, the son of David, is risen up, and hath rebelled against his lord.

7 And there are gathered unto him vain men, the children of Belial, and have strengthened themselves against Rehoboam the son of Solomon, when Rehoboam was young and tenderhearted, and could not withstand them.

8 And now ye think to withstand the kingdom of the Lord in the hand of the sons of David; and ye be a great multitude, and there are with you golden calves, which Jeroboam made you for gods.

9 Have ye not cast out the priests of the Lord, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and have made you priests after the manner of the nations of other lands? so that whosoever cometh to consecrate himself with a young bullock and seven rams, the same may be a priest of them that are no gods.

10 But as for us, the Lord is our God, and we have not forsaken him; and the priests which minister unto the Lord, are the sons of Aaron, and the Levites wait upon their business:

11 And they burn unto the Lord, every morning and every evening, burnt-sacrifices and sweet incense: the shew-bread also set they in order upon the pure table; and the candlestick of gold with the lamps thereof, to burn every evening: for we keep the charge of the Lord our God; but ye have forsaken him.

12 And, behold, God himself is with us for our captain, and his priests with sounding trumpets to cry alarm against you. O children of Israel, fight ye not against the Lord God of your fathers; for you shall not prosper.

13 But Jeroboam caused an ambushment to come about behind them: so they were before Judah, and the ambushment was behind them.

14 And when Judah looked back, behold, the battle was before and behind: and they cried unto the Lord; and the priests sounded with the trumpets.

15 Then the men of Judah gave a shout: and as the men of Judah shouted, it came to pass, that God smote Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah.

16 And the children of Israel fled before Judah; and God delivered them into their hand.

17 And Abijah and his people slew them with a great slaughter: so there fell down slain of Israel five hundred thousand chosen men.

18 Thus the children of Israel were brought under at that time, and the children of Judah prevailed, because they relied upon the Lord God of their fathers.

19 And Abijah pursued after Jeroboam, and took cities from him; Beth-el with the towns thereof, and Jeshanah with the towns thereof, and Ephraim with the towns thereof.

20 Neither did Jeroboam recover strength again in the days of Abijah: and the Lord struck him, and he died.

21 But Abijah waxed mighty, and married fourteen wives, and begat twenty and two sons, and sixteen daughters.

22 And the rest of the acts of Abijah, and his ways, and his sayings, are written in the story of the prophet Iddo.

C H A P. XIV.

1 Asa succeeding, destroyeth idolatry: 6 Having peace, he strengtheneth his kingdom with forts and armies. 9 Calling on God, he overthroweth Zerah, and spoileth the Ethiopians.

SO Abijah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David; and Asa his son reigned in his stead. In his days the land was quiet ten years.

2 And Asa did that which was good and right in the eyes of the Lord his God:

3 For he took away the altars of the strange gods, and the high places, and brake down the images, and cut down the groves;

4 And commanded Judah to seek the Lord God of their fathers, and to do the law and the commandment.

5 Also he took away, out of all the cities of Judah, the high places and the images: and the kingdom was quiet before him.

6 And he built fenced cities in Judah: for the land had rest, and he had no war in those years; because the Lord had given him rest.

7 Therefore he said unto Judah, Let us build these cities, and make about them walls and towers, gates and bars, while the land is yet before us; because we have sought the Lord our God, we have sought him, and he hath given us rest on every side. So they built, and prospered.

8 And Asa had an army of men that bare targets and spears, out of Judah three hundred thousand, and out of Benjamin, that bare shields and drew bows, two hundred and fourscore thousand: all these were mighty men of valour.

9 And there came out against them Zerah the Ethiopian, with an host of a thousand thousand, and three hundred chariots, and came unto Mareshah.

10 Then Asa went out against him, and they set the battle in array in the valley of Zephath at Mareshah.

11 And Asa cried unto the Lord his God, and said, Lord, it is nothing with thee to help, whether with many, or with them that have no power: help us, O Lord our God; for we rest on thee, and in thy name we go against this multitude. O Lord, thou art our God; let not man prevail against thee.

12 So the Lord smote the Ethiopians before Asa, and before Judah; and the Ethiopians fled.

13 And Asa, and the people that were with him, pursued them unto Gerar: and the Ethiopians were overthrown, that they could not recover themselves; for they were destroyed before the Lord, and before his host: and they carried away very much spoil.

14 And they smote all the cities round about Gerar: for the fear of the Lord came upon them: and they spoiled all the cities; for there was exceeding much spoil in them.

15 They smote also the tents of cattle, and carried away sheep and camels in abundance, and returned to Jerusalem.

C H A P. XV.

1 Asa with Judah and many of Israel, moved by the prophecy of Azariah the son of Oded, make a solemn covenant with God: 16 He putteth down Maachah his mother for her idolatry: 18 He bringeth dedicated things into the house of God, and enjoyeth a long peace.

AND the Spirit of God came upon Azariah the son of Oded:

2 And he went out to meet Asa, and said unto him, Hear ye me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin: The Lord is with you while ye be with him: and if ye seek him, he will be found of you; but if ye forsake him, he will forsake you.

3 Now for a long season Israel hath been without the true God, and without a teaching priest, and without law:

4 But when they in their trouble did turn unto the Lord God of Israel, and sought him, he was found of them.

5 And in those times there was no peace to him that went out, nor to him that came in, but great vexations were upon all the inhabitants of the countries.

6 And nation was destroyed of nation, and city of city: for God did vex them with all adversity.

7 Be ye strong, therefore, and let not your hands be weak: for your work shall be rewarded.

8 ¶ And when Asa heard these words, and the prophecy of Oded the prophet, he took courage, and put away † the abominable idols out of all the land of Judah and Benjamin, and out of the ° cities which he had taken from mount Ephraim, and renewed the ° altar of the LORD that was before the ° porch of the LORD.

9 And he gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and the ° strangers with them out of Ephraim and Manasseh, and out of Simeon: (for they fell to him out of Israel in abundance, when they saw that the LORD his God was with him:)

10 So they gathered themselves together at Jerusalem in ° the third month, in the fifteenth year of the reign of Asa.

11 And they offered unto the LORD the same time, of the spoil which they had brought, seven hundred oxen, and seven thousand sheep.

12 And they ° entered into a covenant to seek the LORD God of their fathers with all their heart and with all their soul;

13 That whosoever would not seek the LORD God of Israel should be ° put to death, whether small or great, whether ° man or woman.

14 And they ° swear unto the LORD with a loud voice, and with shouting, and with trumpets, and with cornets.

15 And all Judah rejoiced at the oath; for they had sworn ° with all their heart, and sought him with their whole desire; and he was found of them; and the LORD gave them rest round about.

16 And also concerning Maachah the mother of Asa the king, he removed her from being queen, because she had made an idol in a grove: and Asa cut down her idol, and stamped it, and burnt it at the brook Kidron.

17 But the high places were not taken away out of ° Israel: nevertheless the heart of Asa was perfect all his days.

18 And he brought into the house of God the things that his father had dedicated, and that he himself had dedicated, silver, and gold, and vessels.

19 And there was no more war unto the ° five and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa.

1 Asa, by the aid of the Syrians, diverteth Baasha from building of Ramah: 7 Being reproved thereof by Hanani, he putteth him in prison: 11 Among his other acts, in his disease he seeketh not to God, but to the physicians: 13 His death and burial.

I N the ° six and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa, Baasha king of Israel came up against Judah, and ° built Ramah, to the intent that he might let none ° go out or come in to Asa king of Judah.

2 Then Asa brought out silver and gold out of the treasures of the house of the LORD and of the king's house, and ° sent to Ben-hadad king of Syria, that dwelt at Damascus, saying,

3 There is a league between me and thee, as there was between my father and thy father: behold, I have sent thee silver and gold; go, break thy league with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me.

4 And Ben-hadad hearkened unto king Asa.

and sent the captains of his armies against the cities of Israel; and they smote ° Ijon, and Dan, and Abel-maim, and all the ° store-cities of Naphtali.

5 And it came to pass, when Baasha heard it, that he left off building of Ramah, and let his work cease.

6 Then Asa the king ° took all Judah; and they carried away the stones of Ramah, and the timber thereof, wherewith Baasha was a building; and he built therewith Geba and Mizpah.

7 And at that time ° Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Judah, and said unto him, Because thou ° hast relied on the king of Syria, and not relied on the LORD thy God, therefore is the host of the king of Syria escaped out of thine hand.

8 Were not the Ethiopians and the Lubims a ° huge host, with very many chariots and horsemen? yet, because thou didst rely on the LORD, he delivered them into thine hand.

9 For the ° eyes of the LORD run to and fro throughout the whole earth, to shew himself ° strong in the behalf of them whose heart is perfect towards him: Herein ° thou hast done foolishly; therefore from henceforth thou shalt have wars.

10 Then Asa was ° wroth with the seer, and put him in a ° prison-house; for he was in a rage with him because of this thing. And Asa ° oppressed some of the people the same time.

11 And, behold, the acts of Asa, first and last, lo, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

12 And Asa, in the thirty and ninth year of his reign, was diseased in his feet, until his disease was exceeding great: yet in his disease he ° sought not to the LORD, but to the physicians.

13 And ¶ Asa slept with his fathers, and died in the one and fortieth year of his reign.

14 And they buried him in his own sepulchres, which he had made for himself in the city of David, and laid him in the bed which was filled with ° sweet odours and divers kinds of spices prepared by the apothecaries' art; and they made ° a very great burning for him.

1 Jehoshaphat succeeding Asa, reigneth well, and prospereth: 7 He sendeth Levites with the princes to teach Judah: 10 His enemies being terrified by God, some of them bring him presents and tribute: 12 His greatness, captains, and armies.

A ND ¶ Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his stead, and strengthened himself against Israel.

2 And he placed forces in all the fenced ° cities of Judah, and set garrisons in the land of Judah, and in the cities of Ephraim, which Asa his father had taken.

3 And the LORD was ° with Jehoshaphat, because he walked in the ° first ways of his father David, and sought not unto Baalim;

4 But sought to the LORD God of his father, and walked in his commandments, and ° not after the doings of Israel:

5 Therefore ° the LORD stablished the kingdom in his hand; and all Judah brought ° to Jehoshaphat presents; and he had riches and honour in abundance.

1 Jehoshaphat, joined in affinity with Ahab, is persuaded to go with him against Ramoth-gilead. 4 Ahab seduced by false prophets, according to the word of Micaiah, is slain there.

NOW Jehoshaphat had <sup>a</sup>riches and honour in abundance, and <sup>b</sup>joined affinity with Ahab.

2 And after certain years he went down to Ahab to Samaria: and Ahab killed sheep and oxen for him in abundance, and for the people that he had with him, and persuaded him to go up with him to <sup>c</sup>Ramoth-gilead.

3 And Ahab king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat king of Judah, <sup>d</sup>Wilt thou go with me to Ramoth-gilead? And he answered him, <sup>e</sup>I am as thou art, and my people as thy people; and we will be with thee in the war.

4 And Jehoshaphat said unto the king of Israel, <sup>f</sup>Inquire, I pray thee, at the word of the LORD to-day.

5 Therefore the king of Israel gathered together of prophets <sup>g</sup>four hundred men, and said unto them, Shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And they said, Go up; <sup>h</sup>for God will deliver it into the king's hand.

6 But Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of the LORD besides, that we might inquire of him?

7 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man by whom we may inquire of the LORD: but I hate him; for he never prophesied good unto me, but <sup>i</sup>always evil: the same is Micaiah the son of Imla. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king say so.

8 And the king of Israel called for one of his officers, and said, Fetch quickly Micaiah the son of Imla.

9 And the king of Israel, and Jehoshaphat king of Judah, sat either of them on his throne, clothed in their robes, and they sat in a void place at the entering in of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets prophesied +before them.

10 And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah had made him <sup>j</sup>horns of iron, and said, Thus saith the LORD, With these thou shalt push Syria until they be consumed.

11 And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, <sup>k</sup>Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and prosper; for the LORD shall deliver it into the hand of the king.

12 And the messenger that went to call Micaiah spake to him, saying, Behold, the words of the prophets declare good to the king with +one assent: let thy word therefore, I pray thee, be like one of theirs, and speak thou good.

13 And Micaiah said, As the LORD liveth, even what my God saith, <sup>l</sup>that will I speak.

14 And when he was come to the king, the king said unto him, Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? and he said, <sup>m</sup>Go ye up, and prosper, and they shall be delivered into your hand.

15 And the king said to him, How many times shall I adjure thee, that thou say nothing but the truth to me in the name of the LORD?

16 Then he said, I did <sup>n</sup>see all Israel scattered upon the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd: and the LORD said, These have no master; let them return, therefore, every man to his house in peace.

17 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee that he would not prophesy good unto me, but evil?

18 Again he said, Therefore, hear the word of the LORD; I saw the LORD sitting upon his throne, and all the <sup>o</sup>host of heaven standing on his right hand, and on his left.

19 And the LORD said, Who shall entice Ahab king of Israel, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead? And one spake, saying after this manner, and another saying after that manner.

20 Then there came out <sup>p</sup> a spirit, and stood before the LORD, and said, I will entice him. And the LORD said unto him, Wherewith?

21 And he said, I will go out, and be <sup>f</sup> a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And the LORD said, Thou shalt entice him, and <sup>a</sup> thou shalt also prevail: go out, and do even so.

22 Now therefore, behold, <sup>r</sup> the LORD hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of these thy prophets, and the LORD hath spoken evil against thee.

23 Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near, and smote Micaiah <sup>s</sup> upon the cheek, and said, Which way went the Spirit of the LORD from me to speak unto thee?

24 And Micaiah said, Behold, thou shalt <sup>t</sup> see on that day when thou shalt go into an inner chamber to hide thyself.

25 Then the king of Israel said, Take ye Micaiah, and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son;

26 And say, Thus saith the king, Put this fellow in the <sup>u</sup> prison, and feed him with <sup>x</sup> bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I return in peace.

27 And Micaiah said, If thou certainly return in peace, <sup>y</sup> then hath not the LORD <sup>y</sup> spoken by me. And he said, Hearken, all ye people.

28 So the king of Israel, and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, went up to Ramoth-gilead.

29 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, I will <sup>z</sup> disguise myself, and will go to the battle; but put thou on thy robes. So the king of Israel disguised himself, and they went to the battle.

30 Now the king of Syria had commanded the captains of the chariots that <sup>z</sup> were with him, saying, Fight ye not with small or great, save only with the king of Israel.

31 And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, It <sup>a</sup> is the king of Israel: therefore they <sup>a</sup> compassed about him to fight: but <sup>b</sup> Jehoshaphat cried out, and the LORD helped him; and God moved <sup>b</sup> them to depart from him.

32 For it came to pass, that, when the captains of the chariots perceived that it was not the king of Israel, they turned back again from pursuing him.

33 And a certain man drew a bow at a venture, and smote the king of Israel † between the joints of the harness: therefore he said to his chariot-man, Turn thine hand, that thou mayest carry me out of the host; for I am wounded.

34 And the battle increased that day: howbeit the king of Israel stayed <sup>c</sup> himself up in his chariot against the Syrians until the even; and about the time of the sun going down he <sup>c</sup> died.

2 Then there came some that told Jehoshaphat, saying, There cometh a great multitude against thee from beyond the sea, on this side Syria: and, behold, they be in <sup>d</sup> Hazazon-tamar, which is <sup>e</sup> En-gedi.

3 And Jehoshaphat feared, and set himself to seek the LORD, and proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah.

4 And Judah gathered themselves together to ask help of the LORD; even out of all the cities of Judah they came to seek the LORD.

5 And Jehoshaphat stood in the congregation of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of the LORD, before the new court,

6 And said, O LORD God of our fathers, art not thou God in heaven? and rulest not thou over all the kingdoms of the heathen? and in thine hand is there not power and might, so that none is able to withstand thee?

7 Art not thou our God, who didst drive out the inhabitants of this land before thy people Israel, and gavest it to the seed of Abraham thy friend for ever?

8 And they dwell therein, and have built thee a sanctuary therein for thy name, saying,

9 If, when evil cometh upon us, as the sword, judgment, or pestilence, or famine, we stand before this house, and in thy presence, (for thy name is in this house,) and cry unto thee in our affliction, then thou wilt hear and help.

10 And now, behold, the children of Ammon, and Moab, and mount Seir, whom thou wouldst not let Israel invade, when they came out of the land of Egypt, but they turned from them, and destroyed them not;

11 Behold, I say, how they reward us, to come to cast us out of thy possession, which thou hast given us to inherit.

12 O our God, wilt thou not judge them? for we have no might against this great company that cometh against us; neither know we what to do: but our eyes are upon thee.

13 And all Judah stood before the LORD, with their little ones, their wives, and their children.

14 Then upon Jahaziel, the son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, a Levite, of the sons of Asaph, came the Spirit of the LORD in the midst of the congregation;

15 And he said, Harken ye, all Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem, and thou king Jehoshaphat; Thus saith the LORD unto you, Be not afraid nor dismayed by reason of this great multitude; for the battle is not yours, but God's.

16 To-morrow go ye down against them: behold, they come up by the cliff of Ziz; and ye shall find them at the end of the brook, before the wilderness of Jeruel.

17 Ye shall not need to fight in this battle; set yourselves, stand ye still, and see the salvation of the LORD with you, O Judah and Jerusalem: fear not, nor be dismayed; to-morrow go out against them; for the LORD will be with you.

18 And Jehoshaphat bowed his head, with his face to the ground: and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell before the LORD, worshipping the LORD.

19 And the Levites of the children of the Kohathites, and of the children of the Korhites, stood up to praise the LORD God of Israel with a loud voice on high.

20 And they rose early in the morning, and went forth into the wilderness of Tekoa: and as they went forth, Jehoshaphat stood and said, Hear me, O Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem; Believe in the LORD your God, so shall you be established; believe his prophets, so shall ye prosper.

21 And when he had consulted with the people, he appointed singers unto the LORD, and that should praise the beauty of holiness as they went out before the army, and to say, Praise the LORD; for his mercy endureth for ever.

22 And when they began to sing and to praise, the LORD set ambushments against the children of Ammon, Moab, and mount Seir, which were come against Judah; and they were smitten.

23 For the children of Ammon and Moab stood up against the inhabitants of mount Seir, utterly to slay and destroy them: and when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, every one helped to destroy another.

24 And when Judah came toward the watchtower in the wilderness, they looked unto the multitude, and, behold, they were dead bodies fallen to the earth, and none escaped.

25 And when Jehoshaphat and his people came to take away the spoil of them, they found among them in abundance, both riches with the dead bodies, and precious jewels, (which they stripped off for themselves,) more than they could carry away: and they were three days in gathering of the spoil, it was so much.

26 And on the fourth day, they assembled themselves in the valley of Berachah; for there they blessed the LORD: therefore the name of the same place was called, The valley of Berachah, unto this day.

27 Then they returned every man of Judah and Jerusalem, and Jehoshaphat in the forefront of them, to go again to Jerusalem with joy: for the LORD had made them to rejoice over their enemies.

28 And they came to Jerusalem with psalteries and harps and trumpets, unto the house of the LORD.

29 And the fear of God was on all the kingdoms of those countries, when they had heard that the LORD fought against the enemies of Israel.

30 So the realm of Jehoshaphat was quiet; for his God gave him rest round about.

31 And Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah. He was thirty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and five years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.

35 And after this did Jehoshaphat king of Judah <sup>b</sup> join himself with Ahaziah king of Israel, who did very wickedly.

37 Then Eliezer, the son of Dodavah of Maresah, prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, Because thou hast <sup>1</sup> joined thyself with Ahaziah, the LORD hath <sup>m</sup> broken thy works. And the ships were broken, that they were not able to go to Tarshish.

1 Jehoram succeeding Jehoshaphat, slayeth his brethren : 5 His wicked reign. 8 Edom and Libnah revolt : 12 The prophecy of Elijah against him in writing : 16 The Philistines and Arabians oppress him : 18 His incurable disease, infamous death, and burial.

NOW Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David : and || Jehoram his son reigned in his stead.

2 And he had brethren, the sons of Jehoshaphat, Azariah, and Jehiel, and Zechariah, and Azariah, and Michael, and Shephatiah : all these were the sons of Jehoshaphat king of Judah.

3 And their father gave them great <sup>a</sup> gifts of silver, and of gold, and of precious things, with fenced cities in Judah : but the kingdom gave he to Jehoram, because he was <sup>b</sup> the first-born.

4 Now when Jehoram was <sup>c</sup> risen up to the kingdom of his father, he strengthened himself, and <sup>d</sup> slew all his brethren with the sword, and divers also of the princes of Israel.

5 Jehoram was thirty and two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned <sup>e</sup> eight years in Jerusalem.

6 And he walked in the way of the <sup>f</sup> kings of Israel, like as did <sup>s</sup> the house of Ahab ; for he had the <sup>h</sup> daughter of Ahab to wife : and he wrought that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD.

7 Howbeit the LORD would not destroy the <sup>i</sup> house of David, because of the <sup>k</sup> covenant that he had made with David, and as he promised to give a † light to him and to his sons for ever.

8 In his days the Edomites revolted from under the † dominion of Judah, and made themselves a king.

9 Then Jehoram <sup>1</sup> went forth with his princes, and all his chariots with him : and he rose up by night, and smote the Edomites which compassed him in, and the captains of the chariots.

10 So the Edomites revolted from under the hand of Judah unto this day. The same time also did <sup>m</sup> Libnah revolt from under <sup>n</sup> his hand ; because he had forsaken the LORD God of his fathers.

11 Moreover, he made <sup>o</sup> high places in the mountains of Judah, and caused the inhabitants of Jerusalem to commit <sup>p</sup> fornication and <sup>q</sup> compelled Judah thereto.

12 And there came <sup>r</sup> a writing to him from Elijah the prophet, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of David thy father, Because thou hast not walked in the <sup>s</sup> ways of Jehoshaphat thy father, nor in the ways of Asa king of Judah,

13 But hast walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and hast made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to go <sup>t</sup> a whoring, like to the whoredoms of the house of <sup>u</sup> Ahab, and also hast slain thy brethren of thy father's house, which were better than thyself ;

14 Behold, with a great plague will the LORD smite thy people, and thy children, and thy wives, and all thy goods :

15 And thou shalt have great sickness by disease of thy <sup>x</sup> bowels, until thy bowels fall out by reason of the sickness day by day.

16 ¶ Moreover, <sup>y</sup> the LORD stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines, and of the Arabians, that were <sup>z</sup> near the Ethiopians.

17 And they came up into Judah, and <sup>z</sup> brake into it, and carried away all the substance that was found in the king's house, and his sons also, and his wives ; so that there was never a son left him, save Jehoahaz, the youngest of his sons.

18 ¶ And after all this the LORD smote him in his <sup>a</sup> bowels with an incurable disease.

19 And it came to pass, that, in process of time, after the end of two years, his bowels fell out by reason of his sickness ; so he died of sore diseases : and his people made <sup>b</sup> no burning for him, like the burning of his fathers.

20 Thirty and two years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years, and <sup>c</sup> departed † without being desired ; howbeit they buried him in the city of David, but not in the sepulchres of the kings.

25 And when they were departed from him (for they left him in great diseases,) <sup>k</sup> his own servants conspired against him, for the blood of <sup>l</sup> the sons of Jehoiada the priest, and slew him on his bed, and he died: and they buried him in the city of David, but they buried him <sup>m</sup> not in the sepulchres of the kings.

26 And these are they that conspired against him; <sup>n</sup> Zabad the son of Shimeath an Ammonitess, and Jehozabad the son of Shimrith a Moabitess.

27 Now concerning his sons, and the greatness of the burdens laid upon him, and the repairing of the house of God, behold, they are written in the || story of the book of the Kings. And † Amaziah his son reigned in his stead.

C II A P. XXV.

1 Amaziah beginneth to reign well: 3 He executeth justice on the traitors: 5 Having hired an army of Israelites against the Edomites, at the word of a prophet he loseth the hundred talents, and dismisseth them: 11 He overthroweth the Edomites. 10, 13 The Israelites, discontented with their dismissal, spoil as they return home. 14 Amaziah, proud of his victory, serveth the gods of Edom, and despiseth the admonitions of the prophet: 17 He provoketh Joash to his overthrow: 25 His reign: 27 He is slain by conspiracy.

AMAZIAH was <sup>a</sup> twenty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, but <sup>b</sup> not with a perfect heart.

3 Now it came to pass, when the kingdom was established to him, that he <sup>c</sup> slew his servants that had <sup>d</sup> killed the king his father:

4 But he slew not their children, but did as it is written in the law in the book of Moses, where the LORD commanded, saying, <sup>e</sup> The fathers shall not die for the children, neither shall the children die for the fathers, but every man shall die for his own sin.

6 He hired also an <sup>k</sup> hundred thousand mighty men of valour out of Israel for <sup>l</sup> an hundred talents of silver.

7 But there came <sup>m</sup> a man of God to him, saying, O king, let not the army of Israel go with thee; <sup>n</sup> for the LORD is not with Israel, to wit, with all the children of <sup>o</sup> Ephraim.

8 But if thou wilt go, <sup>p</sup> be strong for the battle; God shall make thee fall before the enemy: for God hath <sup>q</sup> power to help, and to cast down.

9 And Amaziah said to the man of God, But what shall we do for the hundred talents which I have given to the army of Israel? And the man of God answered, The LORD <sup>r</sup> is able to give thee much more than this.

10 Then Amaziah separated them, to wit, the army that was come to him out of Ephraim, to go home again: wherefore their <sup>s</sup> anger was greatly kindled against Judah, and they returned home in great anger.

11 And Amaziah strengthened himself, and led forth his people, and went to the <sup>t</sup> valley of Salt, and smote of the children of Seir ten thousand.

12 And other ten thousand left alive did the children of Judah carry away captive, and brought them unto the top of the rock, and cast them down from the top of the rock, that they all were <sup>u</sup> broken in pieces.

13 But the soldiers of the army which Amaziah sent back, that they should not go with him to battle, fell upon the cities of Judah, from Samaria even unto <sup>x</sup> Beth-horon, and smote three thousand of them, and took much spoil.

14 ¶ Now it came to pass, after that Amaziah was come from the slaughter of the Edomites, that he brought the <sup>y</sup> gods of the children of Seir, and set them up to be <sup>z</sup> his gods, and bowed down himself before them, and burned incense unto them.

15 Wherefore the anger of the LORD was kindled against Amaziah, and he sent unto him a prophet, which said unto him, Why hast thou sought after the gods of the <sup>a</sup> people which could not deliver <sup>b</sup> their own people out of thine hand?

16 And it came to pass, as he talked with him, that the king said unto him, Art thou made of the king's counsel? <sup>c</sup> forbear; why shouldest thou be smitten? Then the prophet forbore, and said, I know that God hath determined <sup>d</sup> to destroy thee, because thou hast done this, and hast not hearkened unto my counsel.

17 ¶ Then Amaziah king of Judah <sup>e</sup> took advice, and || sent to Joash the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu king of Israel, saying, Come, let us see one another in the face.

18 And Joash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son to wife: and there passed by a <sup>f</sup> wild beast that was in Lebanon, and trode down the thistle.

19 Thou sayest, I, o, thou hast smitten the Edomites, and <sup>g</sup> thine heart lifteth thee up to boast: abide now at home, why shouldest thou meddle to thine hurt, that thou shouldest fall, even thou, and Judah with thee?

20 But Amaziah would not hear; for <sup>h</sup> it came of God, that he might deliver them into the hand of their enemies, because they sought after the gods of Edom.

21 So Joash the king of Israel went up, and they saw one another in the face, both he and Amaziah king of Judah, at Beth-shemesh, which belongeth <sup>i</sup> to Judah.

22 And Judah was <sup>j</sup> put to the worse before Israel; and they fled every man to his tent.

23 And Joash the king of Israel took Amaziah ziah king of Judah, the son of Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, at Beth-shemesh, and brought him to Jerusalem, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem, from the <sup>1</sup> gate of Ephraim to the † corner-gate, four hundred cubits.

24 And he took all the gold and the silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of God <sup>k</sup> with Obed-edom, and the treasures of the king's house, the † hostages also, and returned to Samaria.

25 And Amaziah, the son of Joash king of Judah, lived after the death of Joash, son of Jehoahaz king of Israel, fifteen years.

26 Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, <sup>1</sup> first and last, behold, are they not written in the book of the Kings of Judah and Israel?

27 Now after the time that Amaziah did turn away from following the LORD, they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem; and he fled to Lachish: but they sent to <sup>m</sup> Lachish after him, and slew him there.

28 And they brought him upon horses, and buried him with his fathers in the <sup>n</sup> city of Judah.

C H A P. XXVI.

1 Uzziah succeeding, and reigning well in the days of Zechariah, prospereth. 16 Waxing proud, he invadeth the priest's office, and is smitten with leprosy: 22 He dieth, and Jotham succeedeth him.

THEN all the people of Judah took Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in the room of his father Amaziah.

2 He built Eloth, and restored it to Judah, after that the king slept with his fathers.

3 Sixteen years old was Uzziah when he began to reign; and he reigned fifty and two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Jecoliah of Jerusalem.

4 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, <sup>a</sup> according to all that his father Amaziah did.

5 And he sought God <sup>b</sup> in the days of Zechariah, who had understanding in <sup>c</sup> the visions of God: and <sup>d</sup> as long as he sought the LORD, God made him to prosper.

6 And he went forth, and warred against the Philistines, and brake down the wall of Gath, and the wall of Jabneh, and the wall of Ashdod, and built cities about Ashdod, and among the Philistines.

7 And God <sup>e</sup> helped him against the Philistines, and against the Arabians that dwelt in Gur-baal, and the Mehunims.

8 And the <sup>f</sup> Ammonites <sup>g</sup> gave gifts to Uzziah: and his name spread abroad even to the entering in of Egypt; for he strengthened himself exceedingly.

9 Moreover, Uzziah built <sup>h</sup> towers in Jerusalem, at the <sup>i</sup> corner-gate, and at the <sup>k</sup> valley-gate, and at the turning of the wall, and fortified them.

10 Also he built towers in the <sup>l</sup> desert, and digged many wells: for he had much cattle, both in the low country and in the plains; husbandmen also, and vine-dressers in the mountains, and in Carmel: for he loved husbandry.

11 Moreover, Uzziah had <sup>m</sup> an host of fighting men, that went out to war by bands, according to the number of their account by the hand of Jeiel the scribe, and Maaseiah the ruler, under the hand of Hananiah, one of the king's captains.

12 The whole number of the chief of the fathers of the mighty men of valour were two thousand and six hundred.

13 And under their hand was an army, three hundred thousand and seven thousand and five hundred, that made war with mighty power, to help the king against the enemy.

14 And Uzziah prepared for them, throughout all the host, shields, and spears, and helmets, and habergeons, and bows, and <sup>n</sup> slings to cast stones.

15 And he made in Jerusalem engines, invented by cunning men, to be on the towers and upon the bulwarks, to shoot arrows and great stones withal: and his name spread far abroad; for he was <sup>o</sup> marvellously helped till he was strong.

16 But when he was <sup>p</sup> strong, <sup>q</sup> his heart was lifted up to his destruction: for he transgressed against the LORD his God, and went into the <sup>r</sup> temple of the LORD to <sup>s</sup> burn incense upon the altar of incense.

17 And Azariah the <sup>t</sup> priest went in after him, and with him fourscore priests of the LORD, that were valiant men:

18 And they withstood Uzziah the king, and said unto him, It <sup>u</sup> pertaineth not unto thee, Uzziah, to burn incense unto the LORD, but to the <sup>x</sup> priests the sons of Aaron, that are consecrated to burn incense: go out of the sanctuary; for thou hast trespassed: neither shall it be for thine <sup>y</sup> honour <sup>z</sup> from the LORD God.

19 Then Uzziah was wroth, and had a censer in his hand to burn incense; and <sup>a</sup> while he was wroth with the priests, the <sup>b</sup> leprosy even rose up in his forehead before the priests in the house of the LORD, from beside the incense-altar.

20 And Azariah the chief priest, and all the priests, looked upon him, and, behold, he was leprous in his forehead, and they thrust him out from thence; yea, himself <sup>c</sup> hastened also to go out, because the LORD had smitten him.

21 And Uzziah the king was a leper unto the day of his death, and dwelt in <sup>d</sup> a several house, being a leper; for he was <sup>e</sup> cut off from the house of the LORD; and Jotham his son was over the king's house, <sup>f</sup> judging the people of the land.

22 Now the rest of the acts of Uzziah, first and last, did <sup>g</sup> Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz, write.

23 So Uzziah <sup>h</sup> slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the field of the burial which belonged to the kings; for they said, He is a leper: and Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

JOTHAM was <sup>a</sup> twenty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Jerushah, the daughter of Zadok.

2 And he did that which was <sup>b</sup> right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah did: howbeit he <sup>c</sup> entered not into the temple of the LORD. And the people did yet <sup>d</sup> corruptly.

3 He <sup>e</sup> built the <sup>f</sup> high gate of the house of the LORD, and on the wall of <sup>g</sup> Ophel he built much.

4 Moreover, he built cities in the mountains of Judah: and in the forests he built <sup>h</sup> castles and towers.

5 He fought also with the king of the Ammonites, and prevailed against them. And the children of Ammon gave him the same year <sup>i</sup> an hundred talents of silver, and ten thousand <sup>j</sup> measures of wheat, and ten thousand of barley. So much did the children of Ammon pay unto him, both the second year and the third.

6 So Jotham became mighty, because he <sup>k</sup> prepared his <sup>l</sup> ways before the LORD his God.

7 Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all his wars, and his ways, lo, they are written in the book of the Kings of Israel and Judah.

8 He was five and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem.

9 And || Jotham slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David: and Ahaz his son reigned in his stead.

C H A P. XXVIII.

AHAZ was <sup>a</sup> twenty years old when he began to reign; and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: but he did not that which was <sup>b</sup> right in the sight of the LORD, <sup>c</sup> like David his father:

2 For he walked in the <sup>c</sup> ways of the kings of Israel, and made also molten images for <sup>d</sup> Baalim.

3 Moreover, he burnt incense in the <sup>e</sup> valley of the son of Hinnom, and <sup>f</sup> burnt his children in the fire, after the abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel.

4 He sacrificed also, and burnt incense in the <sup>g</sup> high places, and on the hills, and under <sup>h</sup> every green tree.

5 Wherefore the LORD <sup>i</sup> his God delivered him into the hand of the <sup>j</sup> king of Syria; and they smote him, and carried away a great multitude of them captives, and brought them to Damascus; and he was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel, who smote him with a great slaughter.

6 For Pekah the son of Remaliah slew in Judah an hundred and twenty thousand in one day, which were all valiant men; <sup>k</sup> because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers.

7 And Zichri, a mighty man of Ephraim, slew Maaseiah the king's son, and Azrikam the governor of the house, and Elkanah that was † next to the king.

8 And the children of Israel carried away captive of their <sup>m</sup> brethren two hundred thousand, women, sons, and daughters, and took also away much spoil from them, and brought the spoil to Samaria.

9 But <sup>n</sup> a prophet of the LORD was there, whose name was Oded; and he went out before the host that came to Samaria, and said unto them, Behold, because the LORD God of your fathers <sup>o</sup> was wroth with Judah, he hath delivered them into your hand, and ye have slain them in a rage that <sup>p</sup> reacheth up unto heaven.

10 And now ye purpose to keep under the children of Judah and Jerusalem for <sup>q</sup> bondmen and bondwomen unto you: but are there not with you, even with you, <sup>r</sup> sins against the LORD your God?

11 Now hear me, therefore, and <sup>s</sup> deliver the captives again, which ye have taken captive of your brethren: for <sup>t</sup> the fierce wrath of God is upon you.

12 Then certain of the <sup>u</sup> heads of the children of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, and Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai, stood up against them that came from the war, 13 And said unto them, Ye shall not bring in the captives hither: for whereas we have offended against the LORD already, ye intend to add more to our sins and to our trespass; for our trespass is great, and there is <sup>v</sup> fierce wrath against Israel.

14 So the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the princes and all the congregation.

15 And the men which were expressed by name <sup>w</sup> rose up, and took the captives, and with the spoil clothed all that were naked among them, and arrayed them, and shod them, and gave them <sup>x</sup> to eat and to drink, and <sup>y</sup> anointed them, and carried all the feeble of them upon asses, and brought them to Jericho the city of palm-trees, to their brethren: then they returned to Samaria.

16 ¶ At that time did king Ahaz send unto the <sup>z</sup> kings of Assyria to help him.

17 For <sup>a</sup> again the Edomites had come and smitten Judah, and carried away captives.

18 The Philistines also had invaded the cities of the low country, and of the south of Judah, and had taken <sup>b</sup> Beth-shemesh, and <sup>c</sup> Ajalon, and <sup>d</sup> Gederoth, and <sup>e</sup> Shchocho with the villages thereof, and <sup>f</sup> Timnah with the villages thereof; Gimzo also and the villages thereof: and they dwelt there.

19 For the LORD brought Judah low, because of Ahaz king of Israel: for he made Judah <sup>g</sup> naked, and transgressed sore against the LORD.

20 And <sup>h</sup> Tilath-pilneser king of Assyria came unto him, and <sup>i</sup> distressed him, but strengthened him not.

house of the LORD, and out of the house of the king, and of the princes, and gave it unto the king of Assyria: but he helped him not.

22 And in the time of this distress did he trespass yet more against the LORD: this is that king Ahaz.

23 For he sacrificed unto the gods of Damascus, which smote him: and he said, Because the gods of the kings of Syria help them, therefore will I sacrifice to them, that they may help me. But they were the ruin of him, and of all Israel.

24 And Ahaz gathered together the vessels of the house of God, and cut in pieces the vessels of the house of God, and shut up the doors of the house of the LORD, and he made him altars in every corner of Jerusalem.

25 And in every several city of Judah he made high places to burn incense unto other gods, and provoked to anger the LORD God of his fathers.

26 Now the rest of his acts, and of all his ways, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

27 And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, even in Jerusalem; but they brought him not into the sepulchres of the kings of Israel: and Hezekiah his son reigned in his stead.

C H A P. XXIX.

1 Hezekiah's good reign. 3 He restoreth religion. 5 He exhorteth the Levites. 12 They sanctify themselves, and cleanse the house of God. 20 Hezekiah offereth solemn sacrifices, wherein the Levites were more forward than the priests.

HEZEKIAH began to reign when he was five and twenty years old; and he reigned nine and twenty years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Abijah the daughter of Zechariah.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that David his father had done.

3 He, in the first year of his reign, in the first month, opened the doors of the house of the LORD, and repaired them.

4 And he brought in the priests and the Levites, and gathered them together into the east street,

5 And said unto them, Hear me, ye Levites; Sanctify now yourselves, and sanctify the house of the LORD God of your fathers, and carry forth the filthiness out of the holy place.

6 For our fathers have trespassed, and done that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD our God, and have forsaken him, and have turned away their faces from the habitation of the LORD, and turned their backs.

7 Also they have shut up the doors of the porch, and put out the lamps, and have not burnt incense nor offered burnt-offerings in the holy place, unto the God of Israel.

8 Wherefore the wrath of the LORD was upon Judah and Jerusalem, and he hath delivered them to trouble, to astonishment, and to hissing, as ye see with your eyes.

9 For, lo, our fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons, and our daughters, and our wives, are in captivity for this.

10 Now it is in mine heart to make a covenant with the LORD God of Israel, that his fierce wrath may turn away from us.

11 My sons, be not now negligent: for the LORD hath chosen you to stand before him, to serve him, and that you should minister unto him, and burn incense.

12 ¶ Then the Levites arose, Mahath the son of Amasai, and Joel the son of Azariah, of the sons of the Kohathites: and of the sons of Merari; Kish the son of Abdi, and Azariah the son of Jehalelel: and of the Gershonites; Joah the son of Zimmah, and Eden the son of Joah:

13 And of the sons of Elizaphan; Shimri, and Jeiel: and of the sons of Asaph; Zechariah, and Mattaniah:

14 And of the sons of Heman; Jehiel, and Shimei: and of the sons of Jeduthun; Shemaiah, and Uzziel.

15 And they gathered their brethren, and sanctified themselves, and came, according to the commandment of the king, by the words of the LORD, to cleanse the house of the LORD.

16 And the priests went into the inner part of the house of the LORD to cleanse it, and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of the LORD into the court of the house of the LORD. And the Levites took it, to carry it out abroad into the brook Kidron.

17 Now they began on the first day of the first month to sanctify, and on the eighth day of the month came they to the porch of the LORD: so they sanctified the house of the LORD in eight days; and in the sixteenth day of the first month they made an end.

18 Then they went in to Hezekiah the king, and said, We have cleansed all the house of the LORD, and the altar of burnt-offering, with all the vessels thereof, and the shew-bread table, with all the vessels thereof.

19 Moreover, all the vessels, which king Ahaz in his reign did cast away in his transgression, have we prepared and sanctified, and, behold, they are before the altar of the LORD.

20 Then Hezekiah the king rose early, and gathered the rulers of the city, and went up to the house of the LORD.

21 And they brought seven bullocks, and seven rams, and seven lambs, and seven he-goats, for a sin-offering for the kingdom, and for the sanctuary, and for Judah: and he commanded the priests, the sons of Aaron, to offer them on the altar of the LORD.

22 So they killed the bullocks, and the priests received the blood, and sprinkled it on the altar: likewise, when they had killed the rams, they sprinkled the blood upon the altar: they killed also the lambs, and they sprinkled the blood upon the altar.

23 And they brought forth the he-goats for the sin-offering before the king and the congregation; and laid their hands upon them:

24 And the priests killed them, and they made <sup>e</sup> reconciliation with their blood upon the altar, to make an <sup>f</sup> atonement for all Israel; for the king commanded, that the burnt-offering and the sin-offering should be made for all Israel.

25 And he <sup>g</sup> set the Levites in the house of the Lord with cymbals, with psalteries, and with harps, according to the commandment of David, and of <sup>h</sup> Gad the king's seer, and Nathan the prophet; for so was the commandment of the Lord by his prophets.

26 And the Levites stood with the <sup>i</sup> instruments of David, and the priests <sup>k</sup> with the trumpets.

27 And Hezekiah commanded to offer the burnt-offering upon the altar. And when the burnt-offering began, the <sup>l</sup> song of the Lord began also with the trumpets, and with the instruments ordained by <sup>m</sup> David king of Israel.

28 And all the congregation <sup>n</sup> worshipped, and the <sup>o</sup> singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded: and all this continued until the burnt-offering was finished.

29 And when they had made <sup>p</sup> an end of offering, the king and all that were present with him bowed themselves, and worshipped.

30 Moreover, Hezekiah the king, and the princes, commanded the Levites to sing praise unto the Lord with the words of David, and <sup>q</sup> of Asaph the seer: and they sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshipped.

31 Then Hezekiah answered and said, Now ye have consecrated yourselves unto the Lord, come near, and bring <sup>r</sup> sacrifices and thank-offerings into the house of the Lord. And the congregation brought in sacrifices and thank-offerings; and as many as were of <sup>s</sup> a free heart, <sup>t</sup> burnt-offerings.

32 And the number of the burnt-offerings, which the congregation brought, was <sup>u</sup> three-score and ten bullocks, an hundred rams, and two hundred lambs: all these were for a burnt-offering to the Lord.

33 And the consecrated things were six hundred oxen, and three thousand sheep.

34 But the priests were too few, so that they could not <sup>v</sup> slay all the burnt-offerings: wherefore their brethren the Levites did <sup>w</sup> help them till the work was ended, and until the other priests had sanctified themselves; for the Levites were more <sup>x</sup> upright in heart to sanctify themselves than the priests.

35 And also the burnt-offerings were in abundance, with the <sup>y</sup> fat of the peace-offerings, and the <sup>z</sup> drink-offerings for <sup>a</sup> every burnt-offering. So the service of the house of the Lord was set in order.

36 And Hezekiah <sup>b</sup> rejoiced, and all the people, that God had prepared the people: for the thing was done suddenly.

C H A P. XXX.

1 Hezekiah proclaimeth a solemn passover on the second month for Judah and Israel. 13 The assembly having destroyed the altars of idolatry, keep the first fourteen days. 27 The priests and Levites bless the people.

AND Hezekiah sent to <sup>a</sup> all Israel and Judah, and wrote letters also to <sup>b</sup> Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of the Lord <sup>c</sup> at Jerusalem, to keep the <sup>d</sup> passover unto the Lord God of Israel.

2 For the king had <sup>e</sup> taken counsel, and his princes, and all the congregation in Jerusalem, to keep the passover in the <sup>f</sup> second month.

3 For they <sup>g</sup> could not keep it at that time, <sup>h</sup> because the priests had not sanctified themselves sufficiently, neither had the people gathered themselves together to Jerusalem.

4 And the thing pleased the king and all the congregation.

5 So they established a decree, to make proclamation throughout <sup>i</sup> all Israel, from <sup>j</sup> Beer-sheba even to Dan, that they should come to keep the passover unto the Lord God of Israel at Jerusalem; for they had not done it of a long time in such sort as it was written.

6 So the posts went with the letters from the king and his princes throughout all Israel and Judah, and according to the commandment of the king, saying, Ye children of Israel, <sup>k</sup> turn again unto the Lord God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, and <sup>l</sup> he will return to the remnant of you that are <sup>m</sup> escaped out of the hand of the kings of Assyria.

7 And be not ye <sup>n</sup> like your fathers, and like your brethren, which trespassed against the Lord God of their fathers, who, therefore, <sup>o</sup> gave them up to desolation, as ye see.

8 Now be ye not <sup>p</sup> stiff-necked, as your fathers were, but yield yourselves unto the Lord, and enter into his sanctuary, which he hath sanctified for ever; and serve the Lord your God, that the fierceness of his wrath may turn away from you.

9 For if ye <sup>q</sup> turn again unto the Lord, your brethren and your children shall find <sup>r</sup> compassion before them that lead them captive, so that they shall come again into this land: for the Lord your God is gracious and merciful, and will not turn away his face from you, if ye return unto him.

10 So the posts passed from city to city, through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh, even unto Zebulun: but they <sup>s</sup> laughed them to scorn and mocked them.

11 <sup>t</sup> Nevertheless divers of Asher and Manasseh and of Zebulun <sup>u</sup> humbled themselves, and came to Jerusalem.

12 Also in Judah, the <sup>v</sup> hand of God was to give them <sup>w</sup> one heart to do the commandment of the king and of the princes, by the <sup>x</sup> word of <sup>y</sup> the Lord.

13 And there assembled at Jerusalem much people to keep the feast of unleavened bread in the second month, a very great congregation.

14 And <sup>z</sup> they arose, and took away the <sup>a</sup> altars that were in Jerusalem, and all the altars for incense took they away, and cast them into the brook Kidron.

15 Then they killed the passover on the fourteenth day of the second month: and the priests and the Levites were <sup>d</sup>ashamed, and sanctified themselves, and brought in the burnt-offerings into the house of the LORD.

16 And they stood in their place after their manner, <sup>e</sup>according to the law of Moses the man of God: the priests sprinkled the blood, which they received of the hand of the Levites:

17 For there were many in the congregation that were not sanctified; therefore the Levites had the charge of the killing of the passovers for every one that was not clean, to sanctify them unto the LORD.

18 For a multitude of the people, even many of Ephraim and Manassch, Issachar and Zebulun, had <sup>f</sup>not cleansed themselves, yet did they eat the passover otherwise than it was written: but Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, The good LORD pardon every one 19 That <sup>g</sup>prepareth his heart to seek God, the LORD God of his fathers, though he be not cleansed according to the <sup>h</sup>purification of the sanctuary.

20 And the LORD hearkened to Hezekiah, and <sup>i</sup>healed the people.

21 And the children of Israel that were present at Jerusalem kept the feast <sup>k</sup>of unleavened bread seven days with great gladness: and the Levites and the priests praised the LORD day by day, singing with loud instruments unto the LORD.

22 And Hezekiah spake <sup>l</sup>comfortably unto all the Levites <sup>m</sup>that taught the <sup>n</sup>good knowledge of the LORD: and they did eat throughout the feast seven days, offering peace-offerings, and making <sup>o</sup>confession to the LORD God of their fathers.

23 And the whole assembly took counsel to keep other seven days: and they kept other seven days with gladness.

24 For Hezekiah king of Judah did give to the congregation <sup>p</sup>a thousand bullocks and seven thousand sheep; and the princes gave to the congregation a thousand bullocks and ten thousand sheep: and a great number of priests sanctified themselves.

25 And all the congregation of Judah, with the priests and the Levites, and all the congregation that came out of Israel, and the strangers that came out of the land of Israel, and that dwelt in Judah, rejoiced.

26 So there was great joy in Jerusalem: for since the time of Solomon the son of David king of Israel there was not the like in Jerusalem.

CHAP. XXXI.

1 The people is forward in destroying idolatry. 2 Hezekiah ordreth the courses of the priests and Levites, and provideth for their work and maintenance. 5 The people's forwardness in offerings and tithes. 11 Hezekiah appointeth officers to dispose of the tithes. 20 The sincerity of Hezekiah.

NOW <sup>a</sup>when all this was finished, all Israel that were present went out to the cities of Judah, and brake the images in pieces, and cut down the <sup>b</sup>groves, and threw down the high places and the altars out of all Judah and Benjamin, in Ephraim also and Manassch; until they had utterly destroyed them all. Then all the children of Israel returned every man to his possession into their own cities.

2 And Hezekiah appointed the <sup>c</sup>courses of the priests and the Levites after their courses, every man according to his service, the priests and <sup>d</sup>Levites for burnt-offerings and for peace-offerings, to minister, and to give thanks, and to praise in the gates of the <sup>e</sup>tents of the LORD.

3 He appointed also the <sup>f</sup>king's portion of his substance for the burnt-offerings, to wit, for the <sup>g</sup>morning and evening burnt-offerings, and the burnt-offerings for the <sup>h</sup>sabbaths, and for the new moons, and for the <sup>i</sup>set feasts, as it is written in the law of the LORD.

4 Moreover, he commanded the people that dwelt in Jerusalem to give the <sup>k</sup>portion of the priests and the Levites, that they might be <sup>l</sup>encouraged in the <sup>m</sup>law of the LORD.

5 And as soon as the commandment came abroad, the children of Israel brought in abundance the <sup>n</sup>first-fruits of corn, wine, and oil, and honey, and of all the increase of the field; and the <sup>o</sup>tithe of all things brought they in abundantly.

6 And concerning the children of Israel and Judah that dwelt in the cities of Judah, they also brought in the tithes of oxen and sheep, and the tithe of <sup>p</sup>holy things which were consecrated unto the LORD their God, and laid them <sup>q</sup>by heaps.

7 In the <sup>r</sup>third month they began to lay the foundation of the heaps, and finished them in the <sup>s</sup>seventh month.

8 And when Hezekiah and the princes came and saw the heaps, they <sup>t</sup>blessed the LORD, and <sup>u</sup>his people Israel.

9 Then Hezekiah questioned with the priests and the Levites concerning the heaps.

10 And Azariah the <sup>v</sup>chief priest, of the house of Zadok, answered him and said, Since the people began to bring the offerings into the house of the LORD we have had <sup>w</sup>enough to eat, and have left plenty: for the LORD hath <sup>x</sup>blessed his people: and that which is left is this great store.

11 Then Hezekiah commanded to prepare <sup>y</sup>chambers in the house of the LORD; and they prepared them.

12 And brought in the offerings, and the tithes, and the dedicated things, <sup>z</sup>faithfully; over which Cononiah the Levite was <sup>a</sup>ruler, and Shimei his brother was the next.

13 And Jehiel, and Azaziah, and Nahath, and Asabel, and Jerimoth, and Jozabad, and Eliel, and Ismachiah, and Mahath, and Benaiah, more overseers, under the hand of Cononiah and Shimei his brother, at the commandment of Hezesalem as against the gods of the people of the earth, which were the work of the hands of man.

20 For this cause Hezekiah the king, and the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz, prayed and cried <sup>a</sup> to heaven.

21 And the LORD sent an angel, which cut off all the mighty men of valour, and the leaders, and captains, in the camp of the king of Assyria: so he returned with shame of face to his own land. And when he was come into the house of his god, they that came forth of his own bowels slew him there with the sword.

22 Thus the LORD saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all other, and || guided them on every side.

23 And many brought gifts unto the LORD to Jerusalem, and <sup>b</sup> presents to Hezekiah king of Judah: so that he was <sup>c</sup> magnified in the sight of all nations from thenceforth.

24 <sup>d</sup> In those days Hezekiah was sick to the death, and prayed unto the LORD: and he spake unto him, and he gave him a sign.

25 But Hezekiah <sup>e</sup> rendered not again according to the benefit done unto him; for <sup>f</sup> his heart was lifted up: therefore there was wrath upon him, and <sup>g</sup> upon Judah and Jerusalem.

26 Notwithstanding, Hezekiah humbled himself <sup>h</sup> for the pride of his heart, (both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem,) so that the wrath of the LORD came not upon them in the days of Hezekiah.

27 And Hezekiah had exceeding much riches and honour: and he made himself treasuries for silver, and for gold, and for precious stones, and for spices, and for shields, and for all manner of pleasant jewels;

28 Storehouses also for the increase of corn, and wine, and oil; and stalls for all manner of beasts, and cotes for flocks.

29 Moreover he provided him cities, and possessions of flocks and herds in abundance; for <sup>i</sup> God had given him substance very much.

30 This same Hezekiah also stopped the upper water-course of Gihon, and brought it straight down to the west side of the city of David. And Hezekiah prospered in all his works.

31 Howbeit, in the business of the ambassadors of the princes of Babylon, who sent unto him to <sup>k</sup> inquire of the wonder that was done in the land, God left him to <sup>l</sup> try him, that he might <sup>m</sup> know all that was in his heart.

32 Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and his <sup>n</sup> goodness, behold, they are written in the <sup>o</sup> Vision of Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz, and in the book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

33 And Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the chiefest of the sepulchres of the sons of David: and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem did him honour at his death. And || Manasseh his son reigned in his stead.

MANASSEH was <sup>a</sup> twelve years old when he began to reign: and he reigned fifty and five years in Jerusalem:

2 But did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, like unto the <sup>b</sup> abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel.

3 For he <sup>c</sup> built again the high places which Hezekiah his father had <sup>d</sup> broken down, and he reared up altars for <sup>e</sup> Baalim, and made groves, and worshipped all the <sup>f</sup> host of heaven, and served them.

4 Also he built altars in the house of the LORD, whereof the LORD had said, In Jerusalem shall my name be for ever.

5 And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the <sup>g</sup> two courts of the house of the LORD.

6 And he caused his <sup>h</sup> children to pass through the fire in the valley of the son of Hinnom: also he observed times, and used enchantments, and used witchcraft, and dealt with a familiar spirit, and with wizards: he <sup>i</sup> wrought much evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.

7 And he set a carved image, the idol which he had made, in the house of God, of which God had said to David, and to Solomon his son, <sup>j</sup> In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen before all the tribes of Israel, will I put my name for ever:

8 Neither will I any more <sup>k</sup> remove the foot of Israel from out of the land which I have appointed for your fathers: so that they will take heed to do <sup>l</sup> all that I have commanded them, according to the whole law and the statutes and the ordinances by the hand of Moses.

9 So Manasseh made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem <sup>m</sup> to err, and to do <sup>n</sup> worse than the heathen, whom the LORD had destroyed before the children of Israel.

10 And the LORD spake to Manasseh, and to his people; but they would not <sup>o</sup> hearken.

11 Wherefore the LORD brought upon them the captains of the host of <sup>p</sup> the king of Assyria, which took Manasseh among the <sup>q</sup> thorns, and bound him with <sup>r</sup> fetters, and carried him to Babylon.

12 And when he was <sup>s</sup> in affliction, he sought the LORD his God, and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers.

13 And prayed unto him; and he was <sup>t</sup> entreated of him, and heard his supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh <sup>u</sup> knew that the LORD he was God.

14 Now after this he built <sup>v</sup> a wall without the city of David, on the west side of <sup>w</sup> Gihon, in the valley, even to the entering in at <sup>x</sup> the fish-gate, and compassed about Ophel, and raised it up a very great height, and put captains of war in all the fenced cities of Judah.

that they might give according to the divisions of the families of the † people, to offer unto the Lord, as it is written in the book of Moses: and so did they with the oxen.

13 And they roasted the passover <sup>2</sup> with fire, according to the ordinance: but the other holy offerings sod they in pots, and in caldrons, and in pans, and divided them speedily among all the people.

14 And afterward they made ready for themselves, and for the priests: <sup>a</sup> because the priests the sons of Aaron were busied in offering of burnt-offerings and the fat until night; therefore the Levites prepared for themselves, and for the priests the sons of Aaron.

15 And the singers the sons of Asaph, were in their place, according to the <sup>b</sup> commandment of David, and Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer: and the porters waited at † every gate: they might not depart from their service; for their brethren the Levites prepared for them.

16 So all the service of the Lord was prepared the same day, to keep the passover, and to offer burnt-offerings upon the altar of the Lord, according to the commandment of king Josiah.

17 And the children of Israel that were present kept the passover at that time, and the feast of <sup>c</sup> unleavened bread seven days.

18 And there was <sup>d</sup> no passover like to that kept in Israel, from the days of Samuel the prophet; neither did all the kings of Israel keep such a passover as Josiah kept, and the priests, and the Levites, and all Judah and Israel that were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

19 In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah was this passover kept.

20 ¶ After all this, when Josiah had prepared the temple, <sup>e</sup> Necho king of Egypt came up to fight against Carchemish by Euphrates: and Josiah went out against him.

21 But he sent ambassadors to him, saying, † What have I to do with thee, thou king of Judah? I come not against † thee this day, but against the house wherewith I have war; <sup>f</sup> for God commanded me to make haste: forbear thee from meddling with God, who is with me, that he destroy thee not.

22 Nevertheless, Josiah would not turn his face from him, but <sup>g</sup> disguised himself, that he might fight with him, and hearkened not unto the words of Necho from the mouth of God, and came to fight in the valley of <sup>h</sup> Megiddo.

23 And the archers shot at king Josiah: and the king said to his servants, Have me away; for I am sore † wounded.

24 His servants therefore took him out of that chariot, and put him in the second chariot that he had; and they brought him to Jerusalem, and he <sup>i</sup> died, and was buried in one of the sepulchres of his fathers: and all Judah and Jerusalem <sup>k</sup> mourned for Josiah.

25 And <sup>l</sup> Jeremiah lamented for Josiah; and all the singing-men and the singing-women spake of Josiah in their lamentations to this day, and made them an ordinance in Israel: and, behold, they are written in the Lamentations.

26 Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and his goodness, according to that which was written in the law of the Lord, 27 And his deeds, <sup>m</sup> first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the Kings of Israel and Judah.

16 But they mocked the messengers of God, and despised his words, and misused his prophets, until the wrath of the LORD arose against his people, till there was no remedy.

17 Therefore he brought upon them the king of the Chaldees, who slew their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion upon a young man or maiden, old man, or him that stooped for age; he gave them all into his hand.

1 The proclamation of Cyrus for the building of the temple. 5 The people provide for their return. 7 Cyrus restoreth the vessels of the temple to Sheshbazzar.

NOW in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, (that the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled,) the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying,

2 Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, The LORD God of heaven hath given me all the kingdoms of the earth; and he hath charged me to build him an house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah:

3 Who is there among you of all his people? his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build the house of the LORD God of Israel (He is the God) which is in Jerusalem.

4 And whosoever remaineth in any place where he sojourneth, let the men of his place help him with silver, and with gold, and with goods, and with beasts, besides the free-will-offering for the house of God that is in Jerusalem.

5 Then rose up the chief of the fathers of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests, and the Levites, with all them whose spirit God had raised to go up to build the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem.

6 And all they that were about them strengthened their hands with vessels of silver, with gold, with goods, and with beasts, and with precious things, besides all that was willingly offered.

7 Also Cyrus the king brought forth the vessels of the house of the LORD, which Nebuchadnezzar had brought forth out of Jerusalem, and had put them in the house of his gods;

8 Even those did Cyrus king of Persia bring forth by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, and numbered them unto Sheshbazzar the prince of Judah.

9 And this is the number of them: thirty chargers of gold, a thousand chargers of silver, nine and twenty knives,

10 Thirty basons of gold, silver basons of a second sort four hundred and ten, and other vessels a thousand.

11 All the vessels of gold and of silver were five thousand and four hundred. All these did Sheshbazzar bring up with them of the captivity, that were brought up from Babylon unto Jerusalem.

66 Their horses were seven hundred thirty and six; their mules, two hundred forty and five;

67 Their camels, four hundred thirty and five; their asses, six thousand seven hundred and twenty.

68 And some of the chief of the fathers, when they came to the house of the LORD which is at Jerusalem, offered ‡ freely for the house of God to set it up in his place:

69 They gave after their * ability unto the treasure of the work, threescore and one thousand drams of gold, and five thousand pounds of silver, and one hundred priests' garments.

70 So the priests, and the Levites, and some of the people, and the ‡ singers, and the ‡ porters, and the * Nethinims, dwelt in their cities, and ‡ all Israel in their cities.

C H A P. III.

1 The altar is set up. 4 Offerings frequented. 7 Workmen prepared. 8 The foundation of the temple laid in great joy and mourning.

AND when the * seventh month was come, and the children of Israel were in the cities, the people gathered themselves together ‡ as one man to * Jerusalem.

2 Then stood up Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and his brethren the priests, and Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and his brethren, and builded the altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt-offerings thereon, as it is ‡ written in the law of Moses the * man of God.

3 And they set the altar upon his bases; (for ‡ fear was upon them because of the people of those countries;) and they ‡ offered burnt-offerings thereon unto the LORD, even burnt-offerings morning and evening.

4 They kept also the ‡ feast of tabernacles, as it is written, and offered the daily burnt-offerings by number, according to the custom, ‡ as the duty of every day required;

5 And afterward offered the ‡ continual burnt-offering; both of the new moons, and of all the ‡ set feasts of the LORD that were consecrated, and of every one that ‡ willingly offered a free-will-offering unto the LORD.

6 From the first day of the seventh month began they to offer burnt-offerings unto the LORD. But the foundation of the temple of the LORD was not yet laid.

7 They gave money also unto the masons, and to the carpenters; and meat, and drink, and oil, unto them of ‡ Zidon, and to them of Tyre, to bring ‡ cedar-trees from * Lebanon to the sea of ‡ Joppa, according to the grant that they had of Cyrus king of Persia.

8 Now in the second year of their coming unto the house of God at Jerusalem, in the second month, began Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and the remnant of their brethren the priests and the Levites, and all they that were come out of the captivity unto Jerusalem; and appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to set forward the work of the house of the LORD.

9 Then ‡ stood Jeshua with his sons and his brethren, Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of Judah, together, to set forward the workmen in the house of God; the sons of Henadad, with their sons and their brethren the Levites.

10 And when the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, they set the priests in their apparel with ‡ trumpets, and the Levites the sons of Asaph with cymbals, to praise the LORD, after the ordinance of David king of Israel.

11 And they sung together by course, in praising and giving thanks unto the LORD; because he is good, for his mercy endureth for ever towards Israel. And all the people ‡ shouted with a great shout when they praised the LORD, because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid.

12 But many of the priests and Levites, and chief of the fathers, who were ancient men, that had seen the ‡ first house, when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice; and many shouted aloud ‡ for joy;

13 So that the people could not discern the noise of the shout of joy from the noise of the weeping of the people: for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the noise was heard afar off.

C H A P. IV.

1 The adversaries, being not accepted in the building of the temple with the Jews, endeavour to hinder it. 7 Their letter to Artaxerxes. 17 The decree of Artaxerxes. 23 The building is hindered.

NOW when the * adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the children of the captivity builded the temple unto the ‡ LORD God of Israel,

2 ‡ Then they came to Zerubbabel, and to the ‡ chief of the fathers, and said unto them, ‡ Let us build with you; for ‡ we seek your God, as ye do; and we do ‡ sacrifice unto him, since the days of ‡ Esar-haddon king of Assur, which brought us up hither.

3 But Zerubbabel, and Jeshua, and the rest of the chief of the fathers of Israel, said unto them, You have nothing to do with us to build an house unto our God; but we ourselves together will build unto the LORD God of Israel, ‡ as king Cyrus the king of Persia hath commanded us.

11 This is the copy of the letter that they sent unto him, even unto Artaxerxes the king: Thy servants on this side the river, and at such a time.

14 Now, because † we have maintenance from the king's palace, and it was not meet for us to see the king's dishonour, therefore have we sent and certified the king,

15 That search may be made in the book of the <sup>u</sup> records of thy fathers: so shalt thou find in the book of the records, and know, that this city is a rebellious city, and <sup>x</sup> hurtful unto kings and provinces, and that they have moved sedition within the same of old time: for which cause was this city destroyed.

16 We certify the king, that if this city be builded again, and the walls thereof set up, by this means thou shalt have no portion on this side the river.

17 ¶ Then sent the king an answer unto Rehum the chancellor, and to Shimshai the scribe, and to the rest of their companions that dwell in Samaria, and unto the rest beyond the river, <sup>y</sup> Peace, and at such a time.

Ps. 23, 3.

18 The letter which ye sent unto us hath been plainly read before me.

19 And I commanded, and search hath been made; and it is found that this city of old time hath made insurrection against kings, and that rebellion and sedition have been made therein.

20 There have been <sup>z</sup> mighty kings also over Jerusalem, which have ruled over all countries <sup>a</sup> beyond the river; and toll, tribute, and <sup>b</sup> custom, was paid unto them.

21 Give ye now commandment to cause these men to cease, and that this city be not builded, until another commandment shall be given from me.

22 Take heed now that ye fail not to do this: why should damage grow to the hurt of the kings?

23 ¶ Now when the copy of king Artaxerxes' letter was read before Rehum, and Shimshai the scribe, and their companions, they went up <sup>c</sup> in haste to Jerusalem, unto the Jews, and made them to cease † by force and power.

24 Then ceased the work of the house of God which is at Jerusalem. So it <sup>d</sup> ceased unto the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

a Num. 25, 4.

9 Then asked we those elders, and said unto them thus, Who commanded you to build this house, and to make up these walls?

10 We asked their <sup>a</sup> names also, to certify thee, that we might write the names of the men that were the chief of them.

11 And thus they returned us answer, saying, We are the servants of the <sup>a</sup> God of heaven and earth, and build the house that was <sup>x</sup> builded these many years ago, which a great king of Israel builded and set up.

12 But after that our fathers had <sup>y</sup> provoked the God of heaven unto wrath, he gave them into the hand of <sup>z</sup> Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this house, and carried the people away into Babylon.

13 But in the <sup>a</sup> first year of Cyrus the king of Babylon, the same king Cyrus made a decree to build this house of God.

14 And the <sup>b</sup> vessels also of gold and silver of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple, that was in Jerusalem, and brought them into the temple of Babylon, those did <sup>c</sup> Cyrus the king take out of the temple of Babylon, and they were delivered unto one whose name was Sheshbazzar, whom he had made governor;

15 And said unto him, Take these vessels, go, carry them into the temple that is in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be builded in his place.

16 Then came the same Sheshbazzar, and laid the foundation of the house of God which is in Jerusalem: and since that time, even until now, hath it been in building, and yet it is <sup>d</sup> not finished.

17 Now therefore, if it seem good to the king, let there be search made in the king's treasure-house, which is there at Babylon, whether it be so that a decree was made of Cyrus the king to build this house of God at Jerusalem, and let the king send <sup>e</sup> his pleasure to us concerning this matter.

C H A P. VI.

1 Darius finding the decree of Cyrus, maketh a new decree for the advancement of the building.

13 By the help of the enemies, and the directions of the prophets, the temple is finished.

16 The feast of the dedication is kept, 19 and the passover.

THEN Darius the king <sup>a</sup> made a decree, and search was made in the house of the † rolls, where the treasures were laid up in Babylon.

2 And there was found at Achmetha, in the palace that is in the province of the Medes, a <sup>b</sup> roll, and therein was a record thus written:

3 In the first year of Cyrus the king, the same Cyrus the king made a decree concerning the house of God at Jerusalem, Let the house be builded, the place where they offered sacrifices, and let the foundations thereof be strongly laid; the height thereof <sup>c</sup> threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof threescore cubits;

4 With three <sup>d</sup> rows of great stones, and a row of new timber: and let the <sup>e</sup> expenses be given out of the king's house:

5 And also let the golden and silver † vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took forth out of the temple which is at Jerusalem, and brought unto Babylon, ‡ be restored and brought again unto the temple which is at Jerusalem, every one to his place, and place them in the house of God.

6 Now therefore, Tatnai, governor beyond the river, Shethar-boznai, and your companions the Apharsachites, which are beyond the river, || be ye far from thence;

7 Let the work of this house of God alone; let the governor of the Jews, and the elders of the Jews, build this house of God in his place.

8 Moreover, † I make a decree what ye shall do to the elders of these Jews, for the building of this house of God: that, of the king's goods, even of the tribute beyond the river, forthwith expenses be given unto these men, that they be not hindered.

9 And that which they have need of, both young bullocks, and rams, and lambs, for the burnt-offerings of the God of heaven, <sup>k</sup> wheat, <sup>l</sup> salt, <sup>m</sup> wine, and oil, according to the appointment of the priests which are at Jerusalem, let it be given them day by day without fail;

10 That they may offer sacrifices of † sweet savours unto the God of heaven, and pray <sup>n</sup> for the life of the king, and of his sons.

11 Also I have made a decree, that whosoever shall <sup>o</sup> alter this word, let timber be pulled down from his house, and, being set up, let him be † hanged thereon; and let his house be made <sup>p</sup> a dunghill for this.

12 And the God that hath caused <sup>q</sup> his name to dwell there, <sup>r</sup> destroy all kings and people that shall put to their hand to alter and to destroy this house of God which is at Jerusalem. I Darius have made a decree; let it <sup>s</sup> be done with speed.

13 ¶ Then Tatnai, governor on this side the river, Shethar-boznai, and their companions, according to that which Darius the king had sent, <sup>t</sup> so they did speedily.

14 And the elders of the Jews builded, and they <sup>u</sup> prospered through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet, and Zechariah the son of Iddo: and they builded, and finished it, according to † the commandment of the God of Israel, and according to the commandment of Cyrus, and Darius, and Artaxerxes king of Persia.

15 And this house was finished on the third day of the month <sup>x</sup> Adar, which was in the <sup>y</sup> sixth year of the reign of Darius the king.

16 And the children of Israel, the <sup>z</sup> priests and the Levites, and the rest of the children of the captivity, kept the <sup>a</sup> dedication of this house of God with joy, 17 And offered at the dedication of this house of God <sup>b</sup> an hundred bullocks, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs; and, for a sin-offering for all Israel, twelve he-goats, according to the <sup>c</sup> number of the tribes of Israel.

C H A P. VII.

1 Ezra goeth up to Jerusalem. 11 The gracious commission of Artaxerxes to him. 27 He bleisseth God for his favour.

NOW after these things, in the reign of ° Artaxerxes king of Persia, ° Ezra the son of Seraiah, the son of Azariah, the son of Hilkiah,

2 The son of ° Shallum, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahitub,

3 The son of Amariah, the son of ° Azariah, the son of Meraioth,

4 The son of ° Zerariah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki,

5 The son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of ° Aaron the chief priest :

6 This Ezra went up from Babylon; and he was ° a ready scribe in the law of Moses, which the LORD God of Israel had given: and the king granted him all his request, according to the <sup>h</sup> hand of the LORD his God upon him.

7 And there went up some of the <sup>i</sup> children of Israel, and of the priests, and the Levites, and the singers, and the porters, and the <sup>k</sup> Nethinims, unto Jerusalem, in the <sup>l</sup> seventh year of Artaxerxes the king.

8 And he came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king.

9 For upon the first day of the <sup>m</sup> first month began he to go up from Babylon, and on the first day of the fifth month came he to Jerusalem, according to the good hand of his God upon him.

10 For Ezra had ° prepared his heart to seek the law of the LORD, and to ° do it, and to teach in Israel statutes and judgments.

11 ¶ Now this is the copy of the letter that the king Artaxerxes gave unto Ezra the priest, the scribe, even a scribe of the words of the commandments of the LORD, and of his statutes to Israel.

12 Artaxerxes, ° a king of kings, Unto Ezra the priest, a scribe of the law of the God of heaven, perfect peace, and at such a time.

13 I make a decree, that all they of the people of Israel, and of his priests and Levites, in my realm, which are minded of <sup>r</sup> their own free-will to go up to Jerusalem, go with thee.

14 Forasmuch as thou art sent of the king, and of his ° seven counsellors, to inquire concerning Judah and Jerusalem, according to the law of <sup>t</sup> thy God which is in thine hand;

15 And to carry the silver and gold, which the king and his counsellors have freely offered unto the God of Israel, whose <sup>u</sup> habitation is in Jerusalem;

16 And all the silver and gold that thou canst find <sup>x</sup> in all the province of Babylon, with the free-will-offering of the people, and of the priests, offering willingly for the house of their God which is in Jerusalem:

17 That thou mayest buy speedily with this money, ° bullocks, rams, lambs, with their meat-offerings, and their drink-offerings, and offer them upon the altar of the house of your God which is in Jerusalem.

18 And whatsoever shall seem good to thee, and to thy brethren, ° to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, that do ° after the will of your God.

19 The vessels also that are given thee for the service of the house of thy God, those deliver thou before the God of Jerusalem.

20 And whatsoever more shall be needful for the house of thy God, which thou shalt have occasion to bestow, bestow it out of the king's treasure-house.

21 And I, even I, Artaxerxes the king, do make a decree to all the treasurers which are beyond the river, that whatsoever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven, shall require of you, it be done speedily, 22 Unto || an hundred talents of silver, and to an hundred † measures of wheat, and to an hundred baths of wine, and to an hundred || baths of oil, and salt without prescribing how much.

23 Whatsoever is commanded by the God of heaven, let it be diligently done for the house of the God of heaven: for why should there be <sup>b</sup> wrath against the realm of the king and his sons?

24 Also we certify you, that, touching any of the priests and Levites, singers, porters, Nethinims, or ministers of this house of God; it shall not be lawful to impose toll, tribute, or custom, upon them.

25 And thou, Ezra, after the wisdom of thy God, that is in thine hand, ° set magistrates and judges, which may judge all the people that are beyond the river, all such as ° know the laws of thy God; and teach ye <sup>t</sup> them that know them not.

26 And whosoever will not do the law of thy God, and the law of the king, let judgment be executed speedily upon him, whether it be unto death, or to † banishment, or to confiscation of goods, or to imprisonment.

27 ¶ ° Blessed be the LORD God of our fathers, which hath ° put such a thing as this in the king's heart, to beautify the house of the LORD which is in ° Jerusalem;

28 And hath extended mercy unto me before the king and his counsellors, and before all the king's mighty princes. And I was<sup>h</sup> strengthened as the<sup>i</sup> hand of the LORD my God was upon me; and I gathered together out of Israel chief men to go up with me.

C H A P. VIII.

1 The companions of Esra, who returned from Babylon. 15 He sendeth to Iddo for ministers for the temple. 21 He keepeth a fast. 24 He committeth the treasures to the custody of the priests. 31 From Ahava they come to Jerusalem. 33 The treasure is weighed in the temple. 36 The commission is delivered.

THESE are now the chief of their fathers, and this is the<sup>a</sup> genealogy of them that<sup>b</sup> went up with me from Babylon, in the reign of Artaxerxes the king.

3 Of the sons of Shechaniah, of the sons of Pharosh; Zechariah: and with him were reckoned, by genealogy, of the<sup>f</sup> males an hundred and fifty.

4 Of the sons of<sup>g</sup> Pahath-moab; Elihoenai the son of Zerariah, and with him two hundred males.

5 Of the sons of Shechaniah; the son of Jahaziel, and with him three hundred males.

6 Of the sons also of<sup>h</sup> Adin; Ebed the son of Jonathan, and with him fifty males.

7 And of the sons of Elam; Jeshaiah the son of Athaliah, and with him seventy males.

8 And of the sons of<sup>k</sup> Shephatiah; <sup>l</sup> Zebadiah the son of Michael, and with him fourscore males.

9 Of the sons of<sup>m</sup> Joab; <sup>n</sup> Obadiah the son of Jehiel, and with him two hundred and eighteen males.

10 And of the sons of Shelomith; the son of Josiphiah, and with him an hundred and threescore males.

11 And of the sons of<sup>o</sup> Bebai; Zechariah the son of Bebai, and with him twenty and eight males.

12 And of the sons of<sup>p</sup> Azgad; Johanan the son of Hakkatan, and with him an hundred and ten males.

13 And of the last sons of Adonikam, whose names are these, Eliphelet, Jciel, and Shemaiah, and with them threescore males.

14 Of the sons also of Bigvai; Uthai, and Zabbud, and with them seventy males.

15 And I gathered them together to the<sup>r</sup> river that runneth to Ahava; and there<sup>s</sup> abode we in tents three days: and<sup>t</sup> viewed the people and the priests, and found there<sup>u</sup> none of the sons of Levi.

16 Then sent I for Eliezer, for Ariel, for Shemaiah, and for Elnathan, and for Jarib, and for Elnathan, and for Nathan, and for Zechariah, and for Meshullam, chief men; also for Joiarib, and for Elnathan, men of understanding.

17 And I sent them with commandment unto Iddo the chief, at the place Casiphia; and † I told them what they should say unto Iddo; and to his brethren the Nethinims, at the place Casiphia, that they should bring unto us ministers for the house of our God.

18 And, by the<sup>u</sup> good hand of our God upon us, they brought us<sup>v</sup> a man of understanding, of the sons of Mahli, the son of Levi, the son of Israel; and Sherebiah, with his sons and his brethren, eighteen;

19 And<sup>y</sup> Hashabiah, and with him Jeshaiah, of the sons of Merari, his brethren and their sons, twenty;

20 Also of the<sup>z</sup> Nethinims, whom David and the princes had appointed for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty Nethinims; all of them were expressed by name.

21 Then I proclaimed<sup>a</sup> a fast there at the river Ahava, that we might<sup>b</sup> afflict ourselves before our God, to seek of him<sup>c</sup> a right way for us, and for our little ones, and for all our substance.

22 For I was ashamed to require of the king a band of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy in the way: because we had spoken unto the king, saying, The hand of our God is upon all them<sup>d</sup> for good that<sup>e</sup> seek him; but his power and his<sup>f</sup> wrath is against all them that<sup>g</sup> forsake him.

23 So we fasted, and besought our God for this; and he was<sup>h</sup> entreated of us.

24 Then I separated twelve of the chief of the priests, Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brethren with them,

25 And<sup>i</sup> weighed unto them the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, even the offering of the house of our God, which the king, and his counsellors, and his lords, and all Israel there present, had<sup>k</sup> offered;

26 I even weighed unto their hand six hundred and fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels an hundred talents, and of gold an hundred talents;

27 Also twenty basons of gold, of a thousand drams; and two vessels of fine copper, precious as gold.

28 And I said unto them, Ye are<sup>l</sup> holy unto the LORD; <sup>m</sup> the vessels are holy also; and the silver and the gold are a free-will-offering unto the LORD God of your fathers:

29 <sup>n</sup> Watch ye, and keep them, until ye weigh them before the chief of the priests and the Levites, and chief of the fathers of Israel, at Jerusalem, in the<sup>o</sup> chambers of the house of the LORD.

30 So took the priests and the Levites the weight of the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem, unto the house of our God.

31 Then we departed from the river of Ahava, on the twelfth day of the<sup>p</sup> first month, to go unto Jerusalem: and the hand of our God was upon us, and he delivered us from the hand of the enemy, and of such as lay in wait by the way.

32 And we came to Jerusalem, and abode there three days.

33 Now on the fourth day was the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, weighed in the house house of our God by the hand of <sup>a</sup> Meremoth the son of Uriah the priest; and with him was Eleazar the son of Phinehas; and with them was Jozabad the son of Jeshua, and Noadiah the son of Binnui, Levites;

34 By number and by weight of every one: and all the weight was written at that time.

35 Also the children of those that had been carried away, which were come out of the captivity, offered <sup>a</sup> burnt-offerings unto the God of Israel, <sup>a</sup> twelve bullocks for all Israel, ninety and six rams, seventy and seven lambs, twelve he-goats for a sin-offering: all this was a burnt-offering unto the Lord.

36 And they delivered the king's commissions unto the king's lieutenants, and to the governors on this side the river; and they † furthered the people, and the house of God.

C H A P. IX.

1 Ezra mourneth for the affinity of the people with strangers. 5 He prayeth unto God with confession of sins.

NOW when these things were done, the princes came to me, saying, The people of Israel, and the <sup>a</sup> priests, and the Levites, have <sup>b</sup> not separated themselves from the people of the lands, doing according to their <sup>a</sup> abominations, even of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites.

2 For they have <sup>d</sup> taken of their daughters for themselves, and for their sons; so that the <sup>a</sup> holy seed have mingled themselves with the people of those lands: yea, the hand of the <sup>e</sup> princes and rulers hath been chief in this trespass.

3 And when I heard this thing, I <sup>a</sup> rent my garment and my mantle, and plucked off the hair of my head and of my beard, and sat down <sup>b</sup> astonished.

4 Then were <sup>i</sup> assembled unto me every one that <sup>k</sup> trembled at the words of the God of Israel, because of the transgression of those that had been carried away; and I sat astonished until the evening sacrifice.

5 And at the <sup>i</sup> evening sacrifice I arose up from my heaviness; and having rent my garment and my mantle, I fell upon my knees, and <sup>m</sup> spread out my hands unto the Lord my God,

6 And said, O my God! I am <sup>a</sup> ashamed and blush to lift up my face to thee, my God: for <sup>o</sup> our iniquities are increased over our head, and our trespass is grown up <sup>p</sup> unto the heavens.

7 Since the days of our fathers have we been in a great trespass unto this day: and for our iniquities have we, our kings, and our priests, been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, and to a spoil, and to <sup>a</sup> confusion of face, as it is this day.

8 And now for <sup>a</sup> little space grace hath been shewed from the Lord our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us || a nail in his holy place, that our God may lighten our eyes, and give us <sup>a</sup> little reviving in our bondage.

9 For we were bondmen; yet our God hath <sup>a</sup> not forsaken us in our bondage, but hath extended mercy unto us in the <sup>t</sup> sight of the kings of Persia, to give us a reviving, to set up the house of our God, and to repair the desolations thereof, and to give us <sup>a</sup> wall in Judah and in Jerusalem.

10 And now, O our God, <sup>a</sup> what shall we say after this? for we have forsaken thy commandments, 11 Which thou hast <sup>v</sup> commanded by thy servants the prophets, saying, The land, unto which ye go to possess it, is an unclean land with the filthiness of the people of the lands, with their abominations, which have filled it from one end to another with their uncleanness.

12 Now, therefore, <sup>a</sup> give not your daughters unto their sons, neither take their daughters unto your sons, <sup>a</sup> nor seek their peace or their wealth for ever; that ye may be strong, and eat the good of the land, and leave it for <sup>b</sup> an inheritance to your children for ever.

13 And after all that is come upon us for our evil deeds, and for our great trespass, seeing that thou our God hast punished us <sup>c</sup> less than our iniquities deserve, and hast given us <sup>c</sup> such deliverance as this;

14 Should we <sup>d</sup> again break thy commandments, and join in affinity with the people of these abominations, wouldest not thou be angry with us till thou hadst consumed us, so that there should be no remnant nor escaping?

15 O Lord God of Israel, thou art <sup>e</sup> righteous; for we remain yet escaped, as it is this day; behold, we are <sup>f</sup> before thee in our trespasses; for we <sup>e</sup> cannot stand before thee because of this.

C H A P. X.

2 Shechaniah encourageth Ezra to reform the strange marriages. 6 Ezra mourning, assembleth the people. 9 The people, at the exhortation of Ezra, repent and promise amendment. 15 The cure to perform it. 18 The names of them which had married strange wives.

NOW when Ezra had prayed, and when he had <sup>a</sup> confessed, weeping and casting himself down <sup>b</sup> before the house of God, there assembled unto him out of Israel a very great congregation of men, and <sup>c</sup> women, and children: for the people wept very sore.

2 And Shechaniah the son of Jehiel, one of the sons of Elam, answered and said unto Ezra, We have trespassed against our God, and have <sup>d</sup> taken strange wives of the people of the land: yet now there is <sup>e</sup> hope in Israel concerning this thing.

3 Now therefore let us make a covenant with our God to put away all the wives, and such as are born of them, <sup>f</sup> according to the counsel of my lord, and of those that tremble at the commandment of our God; and let it be done according to the law.

4 <sup>a</sup> Arise; for this matter belongeth unto thee: we also will be with thee; <sup>b</sup> be of good courage, and <sup>i</sup> do it.

5 Then arose Ezra, and made the chief priests, the Levites, and all Israel, <sup>k</sup> to swear that they should do according to this word. And they swore.

6 Then Ezra rose up from before the house of God, and went into the <sup>1</sup> chamber of Johanan the son of Eliashib: and when he came thither, he did <sup>m</sup> eat no bread, nor drink water; for he mourned because of the transgression of them that had been carried away.

7 And they † made proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem unto all the children of the captivity, that they should gather themselves together unto Jerusalem;

8 And that whosoever would not come within three days, according to the counsel of the princes and the elders, all his substance should be forfeited, and himself || separated from the congregation of those that had been carried away.

9 Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered themselves together unto Jerusalem within three days: it was the <sup>n</sup> ninth month, and the twentieth day of the month; and all the people sat in the <sup>o</sup> street of the house of God, trembling because of this matter, and for the † great rain.

10 And Ezra the priest stood up, and said unto them, Ye have transgressed, and have taken strange wives † to increase the trespass of Israel.

11 Now therefore make <sup>p</sup> confession unto the LORD God of your fathers, and <sup>q</sup> do his pleasure; and <sup>r</sup> separate yourselves from the people of the land, and from the strange wives.

12 Then all the congregation answered and said with a loud voice, As thou hast said, <sup>s</sup> so must we do.

13 But the people are <sup>t</sup> many, and it is a time of much rain, and we are not able to stand without, neither is this a work of one day or two; for we are many that have transgressed in this thing.

14 Let now our <sup>u</sup> rulers of all the congregation stand, and let all them which have taken strange wives in our cities come at appointed times, and with them the elders of every city, and the <sup>x</sup> judges thereof, until the fierce wrath of our God for this matter be turned from us.

15 ¶ Only Jonathan the son of Asabel, and Jahaziah the son of Tikvah, were employed about this matter; and Meshullam and Shabbe-thai the Levite helped them.

16 And the children of the captivity did so. And Ezra the priest, with certain chief of the fathers, after the house of their fathers, and all of them by their names, were separated, and sat down in the first day of the tenth month to examine the matter.

17 And they made an end with all the men that had taken strange wives by the first day of the first month.

18 And among the sons of the priests there were <sup>z</sup> found that had taken strange wives; namely, of the sons of Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and his brethren; Maaseiah, and Eliezer, and Jarib, and Gedaliah.

19 And they <sup>a</sup> gave their hands that they would put away their wives; and being <sup>b</sup> guilty, they offered <sup>c</sup> a ram of the flock for their trespass.

20 And of the sons of <sup>d</sup> Immer; Hanani, and Zebadiah.

21 And of the sons of <sup>e</sup> Harim; Maaseiah, and Elijah, and Shemaiah, and Jehiel, and Uzziab.

22 And of the sons of <sup>f</sup> Pashur; Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethaneel, Jozabad, and Elasah.

23 Also of the <sup>g</sup> Levites; Jozabad, and Shimei, and Kelaiah (the same is Kelitu,) Pethahiah, Judah, and Eliezer.

24 Of the singers also; Eliashib: and of the porters; <sup>h</sup> Shallum, and Telem, and Uri.

25 Moreover || of Israel: of the sons of <sup>i</sup> Parosh; Ramiah, and Jeziab, and Malchiah, and Miamin, and Eleazar, and Malchijah, and Be-naiah.

26 And of the sons of <sup>k</sup> Elam; Mattaniah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, and Abdi, and Jeremoth, and Eliab.

27 And of the sons of <sup>l</sup> Zattu; Elioenai, Eliashib, Mattaniah, and Jerimoth, and Zabad, and Aziza.

28 Of the sons also of <sup>m</sup> Bebai; Jehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai, and Athlai.

29 And of the sons of <sup>n</sup> Bani; Meshullam, Mal-luch, and Adaiah, Jashub, and Sheal, and Ramoth.

30 And of the sons of <sup>o</sup> Pahath-moab; Adna, and Chelal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Bezaleel, and Binnui, and Manasseh.

32 Benjamin, Malluch, and Shemariah.

33 Of the sons of <sup>q</sup> Hashum; Mattenai, Mattathah, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasseh, and Shimei.

43 Of the sons of <sup>s</sup> Nebo; Jeiel, Mattithiah, Zabad, Zebina, Jadau, and Joel, Benaiah.

44 All <sup>t</sup> these had taken <sup>u</sup> strange wives: and some of them had wives by whom they had children.

¶ The BOOK of NEHEMIAH.

C H A P. I.

Before
c. 445.

1 Nehemiah, understanding by Hanani the misery of Jerusalem, mourneth, fasteth, and prayeth: 5 His prayer.

THE words of Nehemiah the son of Hachabiah. And it came to pass in the month <sup>a</sup>Chisleu, in the <sup>b</sup>twentieth year, as I was in Shushan the palace,

2 That <sup>c</sup>Hanani, one of my brethren, came, he and certain men of Judah; and I asked them concerning the Jews that had escaped, which were left of the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem.

3 And they said unto me, The remnant that are left of the captivity there in the <sup>d</sup>province are <sup>e</sup>in great affliction and reproach: the wall of Jerusalem also is <sup>f</sup>broken down, and the gates thereof are burnt with fire.

4 And it came to pass, when I heard these words, that <sup>g</sup>I sat down and wept, and mourned certain days, and <sup>h</sup>fasted, and <sup>i</sup>prayed before the God of heaven,

5 And said, I beseech thee, <sup>k</sup>O Lord God of heaven, the <sup>l</sup>great and terrible God, that <sup>m</sup>keepeth covenant and mercy for them that love him and observe his commandments;

6 <sup>n</sup>Let thine ear now be attentive, and thine eyes open, that thou mayest hear the prayer of thy servant, which I pray before thee now, day and <sup>o</sup>night, for the children of Israel thy servants, <sup>p</sup>and confess the sins of the children of Israel, which we have sinned <sup>q</sup>against thee: both I and my father's house have sinned.

7 We have dealt very corruptly against thee, and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the judgments, which thou commandedst thy servant Moses.

8 <sup>r</sup>Remember, I beseech thee, the word that thou commandedst thy servant Moses, saying, <sup>s</sup>If ye transgress, I will scatter you abroad among the nations:

9 But <sup>t</sup>if ye <sup>u</sup>turn unto me, and keep my commandments, and do them; though there were of you <sup>v</sup>cast out unto the uttermost part of the heaven, yet will I gather them from thence, and will bring them unto the place that I have chosen to set my name there.

10 Now these <sup>x</sup>are thy <sup>y</sup>servants, and thy people, whom thou hast redeemed by thy great power, and by thy <sup>z</sup>strong hand.

11 O Lord, I beseech thee, let now thine ear be attentive to the prayer of thy servant, and to the prayer of thy servants, who desire to <sup>a</sup>fear thy name; and <sup>b</sup>prosper, I pray thee, thy servant this day, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man: For I was the king's cup-bearer.

C H A P. II.

1 Artaxerxes understanding the cause of Nehemiah's sadness, sendeth him with letters and commission to Jerusalem. 9 Nehemiah, to the grief of the enemies, cometh to Jerusalem: 12 He vieweth secretly the ruins of the walls: 17 He inciteth the Jews to build in despite of the enemies.

AND it came to pass in the month <sup>a</sup>Nisan, in the twentieth year of <sup>b</sup>Artaxerxes the king, that wine was before him: and I took up the <sup>c</sup>wine, and gave it unto the king. Now I had not been beforetime <sup>d</sup>sad in his presence.

2 Wherefore the king said unto me, Why is thy countenance sad, seeing thou art not sick? this is nothing else but <sup>e</sup>sorrow of heart. Then I was <sup>f</sup>very sore afraid,

3 And said unto the king, <sup>g</sup>Let the king live for ever: <sup>h</sup>why should not my countenance be sad, when the city, the place of my fathers' sepulchres, lieth waste, and the gates thereof are consumed with fire?

4 Then the king said unto me, For what dost thou make request? So I <sup>i</sup>prayed to the God of heaven.

5 And I said unto the king, If it <sup>k</sup>please the king, and if thy servant have found favour in thy sight, that thou wouldest <sup>l</sup>send me unto Judah, unto the city of my fathers' sepulchres, that <sup>m</sup>I may build it:

6 And the <sup>n</sup>king said unto me, (the queen also sitting by him,) For how long shall thy journey be? and when wilt thou return? So it pleased the king to send me; and I <sup>o</sup>set him a time.

7 Moreover, I said unto the king, If it please the king, let <sup>p</sup>letters be given me to the governors beyond the river, that they may convey me over, till I come into Judah;

8 And a letter unto Asaph the keeper of the king's forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the palace which <sup>q</sup>appertaineth to the house, and for the wall of the city, and for the house <sup>r</sup>that I shall enter into. And the king granted me, according to the <sup>s</sup>good hand of my God upon me.

9 Then I came to the governors beyond the river, and gave them the king's letters. (Now the king had sent captains of the army and horsemen with me.)

10 When Sanballat the <sup>t</sup>Horonite, and Tobiah the <sup>u</sup>servant the <sup>v</sup>Ammonite heard of it, it <sup>w</sup>grieved them exceedingly that there was come a man to seek the welfare of the children of Israel.

11 So I came to Jerusalem, and was <sup>x</sup>there three days.

12 And I arose <sup>y</sup>in the night, I and some few men with me; neither told I <sup>z</sup>any man what my God had put in my heart to do at Jerusalem: neither was there <sup>a</sup>any beast with me, save the beast that I rode upon.

13 And I went out by night, by the <sup>b</sup>gate of the valley, even before the <sup>c</sup>dragon-well, and to the <sup>d</sup>dung-port, and viewed the walls of Jerusalem which were broken down, and the gates thereof were consumed with fire.

14 Then I went on to the gate of the <sup>e</sup>fountain, and to the <sup>f</sup>king's pool: but there was no place for the beast that was under me to pass.

15 Then went I up in the night by <sup>g</sup>the brook, and viewed the wall, and turned back, and entered by the gate of the valley, and so returned.

C H A P. IV.

1 While the enemies scoff, Nehemiah prayeth, and continueth the work. 7 Understanding the wrath and secrets of the enemy, he setteth a watch. 13 He armeth the labourers, 19 and giveth military precepts.

BUT it came to pass, that when Sanballat heard that <sup>a</sup>we builded the wall, he was wroth, and took great <sup>b</sup>indignation, and <sup>c</sup>mocked the Jews.

2 And he spake before his brethren and the army of Samaria, and said, What do these <sup>d</sup>feeble Jews? will they fortify themselves? will they sacrifice? will they make an end in a day? will they <sup>e</sup>revive the stones out of the heaps of the rubbish which are burnt?

3 Now <sup>f</sup>Tobiah the Ammonite was by him, and he said, Even that which they build, if <sup>g</sup>a fox go up, he shall even break down their stone wall.

4 <sup>h</sup>Hear, O our God; for we are despised: and <sup>i</sup>turn their reproach upon their own head, and give them for a prey in the land of captivity;

5 And <sup>k</sup>cover not their iniquity, and let not their sin be <sup>l</sup>blotted out from before thee: for they have provoked thee to anger before the builders.

6 <sup>m</sup>So built we the wall; and all the wall <sup>n</sup>was <sup>o</sup>joined together unto the half thereof: for the people had <sup>a</sup>a mind to work.

7 But it came to pass, that when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and the <sup>p</sup>Arabians, and the <sup>q</sup>Ammonites, and the <sup>r</sup>Ashdodites, heard that the walls of Jerusalem were made up, and that the breaches began to be stopped, then they were <sup>s</sup>very wroth,

8 And conspired <sup>t</sup>all of them together to come and to fight against Jerusalem, and to hinder it.

9 Nevertheless we made our <sup>u</sup>prayer unto our God, and <sup>x</sup>set a watch against them day and night, because of them.

10 And Judah said <sup>y</sup>The <sup>z</sup>strength of the bearers of burdens is decayed, and there is much rubbish, so that we are not <sup>a</sup>able to build the wall.

11 And our adversaries said, They shall not know, neither see, till we come in the midst among them, and slay them, and cause the work to cease.

12 And it came to pass, that when the Jews which <sup>a</sup>dwelt by them came, they said unto us ten times, From all places whence ye shall return unto us they will be upon you.

13 Therefore <sup>t</sup>set I in the lower places behind the wall, and on the higher places, I even set the people after their families with their swords, their spears, and their bows.

14 And I looked, and rose up, and said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, <sup>b</sup>Be not ye afraid of them: <sup>c</sup>remember the LORD which is great and terrible, and fight for your <sup>d</sup>brethren, your sons and your daughters, your <sup>e</sup>wives and your houses.

15 And it came to pass, when our enemies heard that it was known unto us, and God had brought <sup>f</sup>their counsel to nought, that we returned all of us to the wall, <sup>g</sup>every one unto his work.

16 And it came to pass, from that time forth, that the half of my <sup>h</sup>servants wrought in the work, and the other half of them <sup>i</sup>held both the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the habergeons; and the rulers were behind all the house of Judah.

17 They which builded on the wall, and they that bare burdens, with those that laded, every one with one of his hands wrought in the work, and with the other hand held a weapon.

18 For the builders, every one had his sword girded by his side, and so builded. And he that sounded the trumpet was by me.

19 And I said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, The work is great and large, and we are separated upon the wall, one far from another:

20 In what place therefore ye hear the sound of the trumpet, resort ye thither unto us: our God shall <sup>i</sup>fight for us.

21 So <sup>k</sup>we laboured in the work: and half of them held the spears, from the rising of the morning till the stars appeared.

22 Likewise at the same time said I unto the people, Let every one with his servant lodge within Jerusalem, that in the night they may be a guard to us, and labour on the day.

23 So neither I, nor my brethren, nor my servants, nor the men of the guard which followed me, none of us <sup>l</sup>put off our clothes, <sup>m</sup>saving that every one put them off for washing.

 9 Also I said, It is <sup>a</sup>not good that ye do: ought ye not <sup>r</sup>to walk in the fear of our God, because of the <sup>a</sup>reproach of the heathen our enemies?

10 I likewise, and my brethren, and my servants, might exact of them money and corn: I pray you, let us leave off <sup>t</sup>this usury.

11 <sup>u</sup>Restore, I pray you, to them, even this day, their lands, their vineyards, their oliveyards, and their houses, also the hundredth part of the money, and of the corn, the wine, and the oil, that ye <sup>x</sup>exact of them.

12 Then said they, We will restore them, and will <sup>y</sup>require nothing of them; so will we do as thou sayest. Then I called the priests, and took <sup>z</sup>an oath of them, that they should do according to this promise.

13 Also I <sup>a</sup>shook my lap, and said, So <sup>b</sup>God shake out every man from his house, and from his labour, that performeth not this promise, even thus be he shaken out and emptied. And all the congregation said, <sup>c</sup>Amen, and praised the LORD. And the people <sup>d</sup>did according to this promise.

14 Moreover, from the time that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year even unto the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes the king, <sup>e</sup>that is, <sup>f</sup>twelve years, I and my brethren have not eaten the <sup>f</sup>bread of the governor.

15 But the former governors that <sup>g</sup>had been before me were chargeable unto the people, and had taken of them bread and wine, beside forty shekels of silver; yea, even their servants bare rule over the people: but so did not I, <sup>h</sup>because of the fear of God.

17 Moreover, there were <sup>l</sup>at my table an hundred and fifty of the Jews and <sup>m</sup>rulers, besides those that came unto us from among the heathen that <sup>n</sup>are about us.

18 Now that which was prepared for me daily was <sup>o</sup>one ox and six choice sheep; also fowls were prepared for me, and once in ten days store of all sorts of wine: yet for all this required not I the bread of the governor, because the bondage was heavy upon this people.

19 <sup>p</sup>Think upon me, my God, for good, <sup>q</sup>according to all that I have done for this people.

1 Sanballat practiseth by craft, by rumours, by hired prophecies, to terrify Nehemiah. 15 The work is finished to the terror of the enemies. 17 Secret intelligence passeth between the enemies and the nobles of Judah.

NOW it came to pass, when Sanballat, and Töbiah, and Geshem the Arabian, and the rest of our enemies, heard that I had builded the wall, and that there was <sup>a</sup>no breach left therein, (though at that time I had <sup>b</sup>not set up the doors upon the gates,)

2 That Sanballat and Geshem <sup>c</sup>sent unto me, saying, Come, let us meet together in <sup>d</sup>some one of the villages in the plain of <sup>e</sup>Ono. But they thought to do me <sup>f</sup>mischiefs.

3 And <sup>g</sup>I sent messengers unto them, saying, I am doing a great work, so that I cannot come down: why should the <sup>h</sup>work cease, whilst I leave it, and come down to you?

4 Yet they sent unto me <sup>i</sup>four times after this sort; and I answered them after the same manner.

5 Then sent Sanballat his servant unto me, in like manner, the fifth time, with an open letter in his hand;

6 Wherein was written, <sup>j</sup>It is reported among the heathen, and Gashmu <sup>k</sup>saith it, that thou and the Jews think to <sup>l</sup>rebel: for which cause thou buildest the wall, that thou mayest be <sup>m</sup>their king, according to these words:

7 And thou hast also appointed <sup>n</sup>prophets to preach of thee at Jerusalem, saying, <sup>o</sup>There is a king in Judah: and now shall it be reported to the king according to these words. Come now therefore, and let us take counsel together.

8 Then I sent unto him, saying, There are no such things done as thou sayest, but thou <sup>p</sup>feignest them out of thine own heart.

9 For they all made us <sup>q</sup>afraid, saying, <sup>r</sup>Their hands shall be weakened from the work, that it be not done. Now therefore, <sup>s</sup>O God, strengthen my hands.

10 Afterward I came unto the house of <sup>t</sup>She-maiah the son of <sup>u</sup>Delaiah, the son of Meheta-beel, who <sup>v</sup>was shut up; and he said, Let us meet together in the <sup>w</sup>house of God, within the temple; and let us shut the doors of the temple: for they will come to slay thee; yea, in the night will they come to slay thee.

11 And I said, Should <sup>x</sup>such a man as I flee? and <sup>y</sup>who is there that being as I am, would go into the temple to save his life? <sup>z</sup>I will not go in.

12 And, lo, <sup>b</sup> I perceived that God had not sent him; but that he <sup>c</sup> pronounced this prophecy against me: for Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.

13 Therefore was he hired, that I should be <sup>d</sup> afraid, and do so, and sin, and that they might have matter for an evil report, that they might reproach me.

14 My God, think thou upon Tobiah and Sanballat according to these their works, and on the <sup>e</sup> prophetess Noadiah, and the rest of the prophets that would have put me in fear.

15 ¶ So the wall was <sup>f</sup> finished in the twenty and fifth day of the month Elul, <sup>g</sup> in fifty and two days.

16 And it came to pass, that when <sup>h</sup> all our enemies heard thereof, and all the heathen that were about us saw these things, they were <sup>i</sup> much cast down in their own eyes: for they perceived that this work was wrought of <sup>k</sup> our God.

17 Moreover, in those days, the nobles of Judah <sup>l</sup> sent many letters unto Tobiah, and the letters of Tobiah came unto them.

18 For there were many in Judah sworn unto him, because he was the son-in-law of Shechaniah the son of <sup>m</sup> Arah; and his son Johanan had taken the daughter of <sup>n</sup> Meshullam the son of Berechiah.

19 Also they reported his † good deeds before me, and uttered my words to him. And Tobiah sent letters to put me in fear.

NOW it came to pass, when the wall was built, and I had set up the <sup>a</sup> doors, and the porters, and the singers, and the Levites were appointed,

4 Now the city was large and great: but the people were few therein, and the <sup>e</sup> houses were not builded.

5 And my God <sup>f</sup> put into mine heart to gather together the nobles, and the rulers, and the people, that they might be reckoned by genealogy: and I found a register of the genealogy of them which came up at the first, and found written therein, 60 All the Nethinims, and the children of Solomon's servants, were three hundred ninety and two.

61 And these were they which went up also from Tel-melah, Tel-haresha, Cherub, Addon, and Immer: but they could not shew their father's house, nor their seed, whether they were of Israel.

65 And the || Tirshatha said unto them, that they should not eat of † the most holy things till there stood up a priest with || Urim and Thummin.

66 The whole congregation together was forty and two thousand three hundred and threescore;

5 And Ezra <sup>l</sup> opened the book in the sight of all the people; (for he was above all the people;) and when he opened it, all the people <sup>m</sup> stood up.

7 Also Jeshua, and Bani, and Sherebiah, Jamin, <sup>s</sup> Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodijah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites, caused the people to understand the law: and the people <sup>t</sup> stood in their place.

8 So they read in the book, in the law of God, <sup>u</sup> distinctly, and gave the sense, and caused them to understand the reading.

9 And Nehemiah, which <sup>v</sup> is the Tirshatha, and Ezra the priest the scribe, and the Levites that taught the people, said unto all the people, This day <sup>w</sup> is holy unto the LORD your God; <sup>x</sup> mourn not, nor weep. For all the people <sup>y</sup> wept when they heard the words of the law.

11 So the Levites <sup>d</sup> stilled all the people, saying, <sup>e</sup> Hold your peace; for the day <sup>f</sup> is holy; neither be ye grieved.

12 And all the people went their way to eat, and to drink, and to send portions, and to make great mirth, <sup>g</sup> because they had understood the words that were declared unto them.

13 ¶ And on the <sup>h</sup> second day were gathered together the chief of the fathers of all the people, the <sup>i</sup> priests and the Levites, unto Ezra the scribe, even to understand the words of the law.

14 And they found written in the law which the LORD <sup>j</sup> had commanded by Moses, that the children of Israel should dwell in <sup>k</sup> booths in the feast of the seventh month:

16 So the people went forth, and brought <sup>p</sup> them, and made themselves booths, every one upon the <sup>q</sup> roof of his house, and in their courts, and in the <sup>r</sup> courts of the house of God, and in the street of the <sup>s</sup> water-gate, and in the street of the <sup>t</sup> gate of Ephraim.

17 And all the congregation of them that were come again out of the captivity made booths, and <sup>u</sup> sat under the booths: for since the days of <sup>v</sup> Jeshua the son of Nun, <sup>w</sup> unto that day, had not the children of Israel done so. And there was <sup>x</sup> very great gladness.

18 Also day by day, from the first <sup>y</sup> day unto the last day, he read in the book of the law of God. And they kept the feast seven days; and on the eighth day <sup>z</sup> was a solemn assembly, according unto the manner.

NOW in the twenty and fourth day of <sup>a</sup> this month the children of Israel were assembled with <sup>b</sup> fasting, and with <sup>c</sup> sackclothes, and <sup>d</sup> earth upon them.

2 And the seed of Israel separated themselves from all strangers, and <sup>e</sup> stood and <sup>f</sup> confessed their sins, and the iniquities <sup>g</sup> of their fathers.

3 And they stood up in their place, and <sup>h</sup> read in the book of the law of the LORD their God <sup>i</sup> one fourth part of the day, and another fourth part they confessed, and worshipped the LORD their God.

4 Then stood up upon the <sup>j</sup> stairs, of the Levites, Jeshua, and Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani, and <sup>k</sup> cried with a loud voice unto the LORD their God.

5 Then the Levites, Jeshua, and Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabniah, Sherebiah, Hodijah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah, said, Stand up, and <sup>l</sup> bless the LORD your God for ever and ever; and blessed be thy <sup>m</sup> glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise.

9 And didst <sup>e</sup> see the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and heardest their <sup>f</sup> cry by the Red Sea:

10 And shewedst <sup>g</sup> signs and wonders upon Pharaoh, and on all his servants, and on all the people of his land; for thou knewest that they dealt <sup>h</sup> proudly against them: so didst thou get <sup>i</sup> thee <sup>j</sup> a name, as <sup>k</sup> it is this day.

11 And thou didst <sup>l</sup> divide the sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land; and their persecutors thou threwest into the deeps, <sup>m</sup> as a stone into the <sup>n</sup> mighty waters.

12 Moreover, thou <sup>o</sup> leddest them in the day by a cloudy pillar, and in the night by a pillar of of fire, to give them light in the way wherein they should go.

13 Thou camest down also upon <sup>1</sup> mount Sinaï, and spakest with them <sup>m</sup> from heaven, and gavest them <sup>a</sup> right judgments and true laws, good statutes and commandments:

14 And madest known unto them thy <sup>o</sup> holy sabbath, and commandedst them precepts, statutes, and laws, by the hand of Moses thy servant:

16 But they and <sup>a</sup> our fathers dealt <sup>t</sup> proudly, and hardened their necks, and <sup>u</sup> hearkened not to thy commandments, 17 And refused to obey, neither were <sup>x</sup> mindful of the wonders that thou didst among them; but hardened their necks, and in their rebellion appointed <sup>y</sup> a captain to return to their bondage: but thou <sup>z</sup> art a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, <sup>a</sup> slow to anger, and of great kindness, and <sup>b</sup> forsookest them not.

18 Yea, when they had made them <sup>b</sup> a molten calf, and said, This is thy god that brought thee up out of Egypt, and had wrought great provocations;

19 Yet thou, in thy <sup>c</sup> manifold mercies, forsookest them not in the wilderness: the <sup>d</sup> pillar of the cloud departed not from them by day, to lead them in the way; neither the pillar of fire by night, to shew them light, and the way wherein they should go.

20 Thou gavest also thy <sup>e</sup> good Spirit to instruct them, and witheldest not thy <sup>f</sup> manna from their mouth, and gavest them water for their thirst.

21 Yea, forty years didst thou sustain them in the wilderness, so that <sup>g</sup> they lacked nothing; their <sup>h</sup> clothes waxed not old, and their feet <sup>i</sup> swelled not.

22 Moreover, thou gavest them kingdoms and nations, and didst divide them into corners: so they possessed the land of Sihon, and the land of the king of <sup>k</sup> Heshbon, and the land of Og king of Bashan.

23 Their children also multipliedst thou as the <sup>l</sup> stars of heaven, and broughtest them into the land, concerning which thou hadst promised to their fathers, that they should go <sup>m</sup> in to possess it.

24 So the children went in and possessed the land, and thou <sup>n</sup> subduedst before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and gavest them into their hands, with their kings, and the people of the land, that they might do with them as they would.

25 And they took strong cities, and <sup>o</sup> a fat land, and possessed <sup>p</sup> houses full of all goods, wells digged, vineyards, and olive-yards, and fruit-trees in abundance: so they did eat, and were filled, and became fat, and <sup>q</sup> delighted themselves in thy great goodness.

26 Nevertheless they were disobedient, and rebelled against thee, and cast thy law <sup>r</sup> behind their backs, and <sup>s</sup> slew thy prophets, which testified against them to turn them to thee; and they wrought great provocations.

27 Therefore <sup>t</sup> thou deliveredst them into the hand of their enemies, who vexed them: and in the <sup>u</sup> time of their trouble, when they cried unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven; and, according to thy manifold mercies, thou gavest them <sup>x</sup> saviours, who saved them out of the hand of their enemies.

28 But after they had <sup>y</sup> rest, they did evil again before thee: therefore ledest thou them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them: yet when they returned, and cried unto thee, thou <sup>z</sup> heardest them from heaven; and many times didst thou deliver them, according to thy mercies;

29 And <sup>a</sup> testifiedst against them, that thou mightest bring them again unto thy law: yet they dealt proudly, and hearkened not unto thy commandments, but sinned against thy judgments, (which if a man <sup>b</sup> do, he shall live in them,) and withdrew the shoulder, and hardened their neck, and would not hear:

31 Nevertheless, for thy <sup>f</sup> great mercies' sake, thou didst <sup>g</sup> not utterly consume them, nor forsake them; for thou art a gracious and merciful God.

32 Now therefore, <sup>h</sup> our God, <sup>i</sup> the great, the mighty, and the terrible God, who keepest covenant and mercy, let not all the trouble seem <sup>j</sup> little before thee, that hath come upon us, on our kings, on our princes, and on our priests, and on our prophets, and on our fathers, and on all thy people, since the time of the kings <sup>k</sup> of Assyria unto this day.

33 Howbeit, thou art <sup>l</sup> just in all that is brought upon us; for thou hast done <sup>m</sup> right, but we have done wickedly:

34 Neither have <sup>n</sup> our kings, our princes, our priests, nor our fathers, kept thy law, nor hearkened unto thy commandments and thy testimonies, wherewith thou didst testify against them.

35 For they have not served thee in their kingdom, and <sup>o</sup> in thy great goodness that thou gavest them, and in the large and fat land which thou gavest before them, neither turned they from <sup>p</sup> their wicked works.

36 Behold, we are <sup>q</sup> servants this day; and for the land that thou gavest unto our fathers, <sup>r</sup> to eat the fruit thereof, and the good thereof, behold, we are servants in it:

37 And it <sup>s</sup> yieldeth much increase unto the kings whom thou hast set over us because of our sins: also they have dominion over our bodies, and over our cattle, at their pleasure, and we are in great distress.

23 The sons of Levi, the chief of the fathers, were written in the book of the Chronicles, even until the days of Johanan the son of Eliashib.

24 And the chief of the Levites: Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua the son of Kadmiel, with their brethren over against them, to praise and to give thanks, according to the commandment of David the man of God, ward over against ward.

25 Mattaniah, and Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, Akkub, were porters, keeping the ward at the thresholds of the gates.

26 These were in the days of Joiakim the son of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the governor, and of Ezra the priest, the scribe.

27 And at the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem they sought the Levites out of all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem, to keep the dedication with gladness, both with thanksgivings, and with singing, with cymbals, psalteries, and with harps.

28 And the sons of the singers gathered themselves together, both out of the plain country round about Jerusalem, and from the villages of Netophathi;

37 And at the fountain-gate, which was over against them, they went up by the stairs of the city of David, at the going up of the wall, above the house of David, even unto the water-gate eastward.

38 And the other company of them that gave thanks went over against them, and I after them, and the half of the people upon the wall, from beyond the tower of the furnaces even unto the broad wall;

39 And from above the gate of Ephraim, and above the old gate, and above the fish-gate, and the tower of Hananeel, and the tower of Meah, even unto the sheep-gate: and they stood still in the prison-gate.

40 So stood the two companies of them that gave thanks in the house of God, and I, and the half of the rulers with me:

41 And the priests: Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Michaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah, with trumpets;

42 And Maaseiah, and Shemaiah, and Eleazar, and Uzzi, and Jehohanan, and Malchijah, and Elam, and Ezer. And the singers sang loud, with Jezrahiah their overseer.

43 Also that day they offered great sacrifices, and rejoiced; for God had made them rejoice with great joy: the wives also and the children rejoiced; so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard even afar off.

44 And at that time were some appointed over the chambers for the treasures, for the offerings, for the first-fruits, and for the tithes, to gather into them, out of the fields of the cities, the portions of the law for the priests and Levites: for Judah rejoiced for the priests and for the Levites that waited.

45 And both the singers and the porters kept the ward of their God, and the ward of the purification, according to the commandment of David, and of Solomon his son.

46 For in the days of David and Asaph, of old, there were chief of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving unto God.

47 And all Israel, in the days of Zerubbabel, and in the days of Nehemiah, gave the portions of the singers and the porters every day his portion; and they sanctified holy things unto the Levites, and the Levites sanctified them unto the children of Aaron.

C H A P. XIII.

1 Upon the reading of the law, separation is made from the mixed multitude: 4 Nehemiah at his return causeth the chambers to be cleansed. 10 He reformeth the offices in the house of God, 15 the violation of the sabbath, 23 and the marriages with strange wives.

ON that day they read in the book of Moses in the audience of the people; and therein was found written, that the Ammonite and the Moabite should not come into the congregation of God for ever;

2 Because they met not the children of Israel with bread and with water, but hired Baalam against them, that he should curse them;

howbeit our God <sup>t</sup> turned the curse into a blessing.

3 Now it came to pass, when they had <sup>e</sup> heard the law, that they separated from Israel all the <sup>h</sup> mixed multitude.

4 ¶ And <sup>i</sup> before this, Eliashib the priest, having the <sup>k</sup> oversight of the chamber of the house of our God, <sup>was</sup> <sup>l</sup> allied unto Tobiah:

5 And he had prepared for him a great chamber, where aforetime they laid the <sup>m</sup> meat-offerings, the frankincense, and the vessels, and the tithes of the corn, the new wine, and the oil, (which was <sup>n</sup> commanded to be given to the Levites, and the singers, and the porters,) and the offerings of the priests.

6 But in all this <sup>o</sup> time <sup>was</sup> not I at Jerusalem: for in the <sup>p</sup> two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon came I unto the king, and after certain days obtained I leave of the king.

7 And I came to Jerusalem, and <sup>q</sup> understood of the evil that Eliashib did for Tobiah, in preparing him a chamber in <sup>r</sup> the courts of the house of God.

8 And it <sup>s</sup> grieved me sore: therefore I cast forth all the household-stuff of Tobiah out of the chamber.

9 Then I <sup>t</sup> commanded, and they cleansed the chambers; and thither brought I again the vessels of the house of God, with the meat-offering and the frankincense.

10 ¶ And I perceived that the <sup>u</sup> portions of the Levites had not been given <sup>them</sup>: for the Levites and the singers that did the <sup>v</sup> work were fled every one to his field.

11 Then <sup>w</sup> contended I with the rulers, and said, Why is the <sup>y</sup> house of God forsaken? And I gathered them together, and set them in their place.

12 Then brought all Judah the tithe of the corn, and the new wine, and the oil, unto the treasuries.

13 And I made <sup>z</sup> treasurers over the treasuries, Shelemiah the priest, and Zadok the scribe; and of the Levites, Pedaiah; and next to them was Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah: for they were counted <sup>a</sup> faithful; and their office <sup>was</sup> to distribute unto their brethren.

14 <sup>b</sup> Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and wipe not out my <sup>c</sup> good deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for the offices thereof.

16 There dwelt men of <sup>h</sup> Tyre also therein, which brought fish, and <sup>i</sup> all manner of ware, and sold on the sabbath unto the children of Judah, and in <sup>j</sup> Jerusalem.

17 Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said unto them, What evil thing is this that <sup>i</sup> ye do, and profane the sabbath-day?

18 Did not <sup>k</sup> your fathers thus, and did not our God bring all this evil upon us, and upon this city? yet ye <sup>l</sup> bring more wrath upon Israel by profaning the sabbath.

19 And it came to pass, that when the gates of Jerusalem began to be <sup>l</sup> dark before the sabbath, I commanded that the gates should be shut, and charged that they should not be opened till after the sabbath: and <sup>m</sup> some of my servants set I at the gates, that there should no burden be brought in on the sabbath-day.

20 So the merchants, and sellers of all kind of ware, lodged without Jerusalem once or twice.

21 Then I testified against them, and said unto them, Why lodge ye about the wall? if ye do <sup>n</sup> so again, I will lay hands on you. From that time forth came they no <sup>more</sup> on the sabbath.

22 And <sup>m</sup> I commanded the Levites, that they should <sup>n</sup> cleanse themselves, and that they should come and <sup>o</sup> keep the gates, to sanctify the sabbath-day. Remember me, O my God, <sup>p</sup> concerning this also, and spare me according to the greatness of thy mercy.

23 ¶ In those days also saw I <sup>p</sup> Jews that <sup>q</sup> had married wives of Ashdod, of Ammon, and of Moab:

24 And their children spake half in the speech of <sup>r</sup> Ashdod, and could not speak in the Jews' language, but according to the language of each people.

25 And I contended with them, and <sup>s</sup> cursed them, and smote certain of them, and <sup>t</sup> plucked off their hair, and made them <sup>u</sup> swear by God, saying, Ye shall not give your daughters unto their sons, nor take their daughters unto your sons, or for yourselves.

26 Did not <sup>v</sup> Solomon king of Israel sin by these things? yet among many nations was there <sup>w</sup> no king like him, who was <sup>y</sup> beloved of his God, and God made him king over all Israel: nevertheless even him did outlandish women cause to sin.

27 Shall we then hearken unto you to do all this great evil, to transgress against our God in marrying strange wives?

28 And <sup>z</sup> one of the sons of Joiada, the son of Eliashib the high priest, <sup>was</sup> son-in-law to <sup>a</sup> Sanballat the Horonite: therefore I chased him from me.

29 <sup>b</sup> Remember them, O my God, because they have defiled the priesthood, and the <sup>c</sup> covenant of the priesthood, and of the Levites.

30 Thus cleansed I them from all strangers, and appointed the wards of the priests and the Levites, every one in his business;

31 And for the <sup>d</sup> wood-offering at times appointed, and for the first-fruits. <sup>d</sup> Remember me, O my God, for good.

1 Ahasuerus maketh royal feasts. 10 Vashti sent for, refuseth to come. 13 Ahasuerus by the counsel of Memucan, maketh the decree of men's sovereignty.

NOW it came to pass in the days of <sup>a</sup> Ahasuerus, (this is Ahasuerus which reigned from India even unto Ethiopia, over <sup>b</sup> an hundred and seven and twenty provinces.)

2 That in those days, when the king Ahasuerus <sup>c</sup> sat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in <sup>d</sup> Shushan the palace,

3 In the third year of his reign, he made <sup>e</sup> a feast unto all his princes and his <sup>f</sup> servants; the <sup>g</sup> power of Persia and Media, the <sup>h</sup> nobles and princes of the provinces, being before him;

4 When he <sup>i</sup> shewed the riches of his glorious kingdom, and the honour of his <sup>j</sup> excellent majesty, many days, even an hundred and fourscore days.

5 And when these days were expired, the king made a feast unto all the people that were present in Shushan the palace, both unto great and small, seven days, in the court of the garden of the king's palace;

6 Where were white, green, and blue hangings, fastened with cords of fine linen and purple to silver rings and pillars of marble: the <sup>k</sup> beds were of gold and silver, upon <sup>l</sup> a pavement of red, and blue, and white, and black marble.

7 And they gave them drink in vessels of gold, (the vessels being diverse one from another,) and <sup>m</sup> royal wine <sup>n</sup> in abundance, according to the state of the king.

8 And the drinking was according to the law; none did <sup>o</sup> compel: for the king had <sup>p</sup> appointed to all the officers of his house, that they should do according to every man's pleasure.

9 Also Vashti the queen made <sup>q</sup> a feast for the women in the royal house which belonged to king Ahasuerus.

10 ¶ On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was <sup>r</sup> merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, and Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas, the seven chamberlains that served in the presence of Ahasuerus the king, 11 To bring Vashti the queen before the king, with the crown royal, to shew the people and the princes her <sup>s</sup> beauty: for she was fair to look on.

12 But the queen Vashti <sup>t</sup> refused to come at the king's commandment by his chamberlains: therefore was the king very <sup>u</sup> wroth, and his <sup>v</sup> anger burned in him.

13 Then the king said to the <sup>w</sup> wise men, which <sup>x</sup> knew the times, (for so was the king's manner towards all that knew <sup>y</sup> law and judgment;

14 And the next unto him was Carshena, She-thar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, <sup>z</sup> the seven princes of Persia and Media, which saw <sup>aa</sup> the king's face, and which sat the first in the kingdom;)

15 What shall <sup>b</sup> we do unto the queen Vashti according to law, because she hath not performed the commandment of the king Ahasuerus by the chamberlains?

16 And Memucan answered <sup>c</sup> before the king and the princes, Vashti the queen hath not done <sup>d</sup> wrong to the king only, but also to all the princes, and to all the people that are in all the provinces of the king's Ahasuerus.

17 For this deed of the queen shall come abroad unto all women, so that they shall <sup>e</sup> despise their husbands in their eyes, when it shall be reported, The king Ahasuerus commanded Vashti the queen to be brought in before him, but she came not.

18 Likewise shall the ladies of Persia and Media say this day unto all the king's princes, which have heard of the deed of the queen. Thus shall there arise too much contempt and wrath.

19 If it please the king, let there go <sup>f</sup> a royal commandment from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the Medes, that it be not altered, that Vashti <sup>g</sup> come no more before king Ahasuerus; and let the king give her royal estate unto another that is better than she.

20 And when the king's decree which he shall make shall be published throughout all his empire, (for it is great,) all the wives shall <sup>h</sup> give to their husbands <sup>i</sup> honour, both to great and small.

21 And the saying <sup>j</sup> pleased the king and the princes; and the king did according to the word of Memucan:

22 For he sent letters into all the king's provinces, into every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language, that every man <sup>k</sup> should bear rule in his own house; and <sup>l</sup> that it should be <sup>m</sup> published according to the language of every people.

AFTER these things, when the wrath of king Ahasuerus was appeased, he <sup>n</sup> remembered Vashti, and what she had done, and what was <sup>o</sup> decreed against her.

2 Then said the <sup>p</sup> king's servants that ministered unto him, Let there <sup>q</sup> be fair young virgins sought for the king:

3 And let the king appoint officers in <sup>r</sup> all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather together all the fair young virgins unto Shushan the palace, to the house of the women, unto the custody of Hege the king's chamberlain,

8 So it came to pass, when the king's commandment and his decree was heard, and when many maidens were gathered together unto Shushan the palace, to the custody of Hegai, that Esther was brought also unto the king's house, to the custody of Hegai, keeper of the women.

13 Then thus came every maiden unto the king; whatsoever she desired was given her, to go with her out of the house of the women unto the king's house.

14 In the evening she went, and on the morrow she returned into the second house of the women, to the custody of Shaashgaz the king's chamberlain, which kept the concubines: she came in unto the king no more, except the king delighted in her, and that she were called by name.

• Psalm 105,

15 Now when the turn of Esther, the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her for his daughter, was come to go in unto the king, she required nothing but what Hegai the king's chamberlain, the keeper of the women, appointed: and Esther obtained favour in the sight of all them that looked upon her.

16 So Esther was taken unto king Ahasuerus into his house royal in the tenth month, which is the month Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign.

17 And the king loved Esther above all the women, and she obtained grace and favour † in his sight more than all the virgins; so that he set the royal crown upon her head, and made her queen instead of Vashti.

18 Then the king made a great feast unto all his princes and his servants, even Esther's feast; and he made a release to the provinces, and gave gifts according to the state of the king.

19 And when the virgins were gathered together the second time, then Mordecai sat in the king's gate.

20 Esther had not yet shewed her kindred nor her people, as Mordecai had charged her: for Esther did the commandment of Mordecai, like as when she was brought up with him.

21 ¶ In those days, while Mordecai sat in the king's gate, two of the king's chamberlains, Bigthan and Teresh, of those which kept the door, were wroth, and sought to lay hand on the king Ahasuerus.

22 And the thing was known to Mordecai, who told it unto Esther the queen, and Esther certified the king thereof in Mordecai's name.

23 And when inquisition was made of the matter, it was found out; therefore they were both hanged on a tree: and it was written in the book of the Chronicles before the king.

CHAP. III.

1 Haman advanced by the king, and despised by Mordecai, seeketh revenge upon all the Jews. 7 He casteth lots: 8 He obtaineth, by calumny, a decree of the king to put the Jews to death.

AFTER these things did king Ahasuerus promote Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, and advanced him, and set his seat above all the princes that were with him.

2 And all the king's servants, that were in the king's gate, bowed and revered Haman: for the king had so commanded concerning him: but Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence.

3 Then the king's servants, which were in the king's gate, said unto Mordecai, Why transgressest thou the king's commandment?

4 Now it came to pass, when they spake daily unto him, and he hearkened not unto them, that they told Haman, to see whether Mordecai's matters would stand: for he had told them that he was a Jew.

5 And when Haman saw that Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence, then was Haman full of wrath.

6 And he thought scorn to lay hands on Mordecai alone; for they had shewed him the people of Mordecai: wherefore Haman sought to

2 And came even before the king's gate: for none might enter into the king's gate clothed with sackcloth.

3 And in every province, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, there was <sup>f</sup> great mourning among the Jews, and <sup>g</sup> fasting, and weeping, and wailing: and many <sup>h</sup> lay in sackcloth and ashes. <sup>i</sup> Ps. 12, 5. <sup>j</sup> Zech. 8, 19.

4 So Esther's maids and her chamberlains came and told it her. Then was the queen exceedingly grieved; and she sent raiment to clothe Mordecai, and to take away the sackcloth from him: but he <sup>h</sup> received it not. <sup>k</sup> Rom. 2, 7

5 Then called Esther for Hatach, one of the king's chamberlains, whom he had appointed to attend upon her, and gave him a commandment to Mordecai, <sup>i</sup> to know what it was, and why it was. <sup>j</sup> Job 23, 2. <sup>k</sup> Rom. 12, 15. <sup>l</sup> Hebr. 13, 3. <sup>m</sup> Titus 2, 10.

8 Also he gave him the copy of the writing of the decree that was given at <sup>m</sup> Shushan to destroy them, to shew it unto Esther, and to declare it unto her, and to <sup>n</sup> charge her that she should go in unto the king, to make <sup>o</sup> supplication unto him, and to make <sup>p</sup> request before him for her people. <sup>o</sup> 1 Thess. 5, 27. <sup>p</sup> Tim. 4, 1. <sup>q</sup> 1 Kings 8, 28. <sup>r</sup> Prov. 16, 15. <sup>s</sup> Jer. 23, 28. <sup>t</sup> Acts 20, 27.

13 Then Mordecai commanded to answer Esther, Think not with thyself that thou shalt escape in <sup>a</sup> the king's house, more than all the Jews. <sup>b</sup> Prov. 29, 25. & 30, 24.

14 For if thou altogether holdest thy peace at this time, then shall there <sup>c</sup> enlargement and deliverance arise to the Jews from <sup>d</sup> another place; but <sup>e</sup> thou and thy father's house shall be destroyed: and <sup>f</sup> who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this? <sup>g</sup> Isa. 49, 23. <sup>h</sup> Heb. breathing, Job 9, 18. <sup>i</sup> Zech. 2, 5, 8. <sup>j</sup> Hebr. 13, 5. <sup>k</sup> Gen. 22, 8. <sup>l</sup> Titus 1, 2. <sup>m</sup> Judg. 5, 23. <sup>n</sup> Ezek. 1, 16.

15 Then Esther bade them return Mordecai this answer;

16 Go, gather together all the Jews that are present in Shushan, and <sup>a</sup> fast ye for me, and neither eat nor drink three days, night or day: <sup>b</sup> I also and my maidens will fast likewise; and <sup>c</sup> so will I go in unto the king, which is not according to the law; and <sup>d</sup> if I perish, I perish. <sup>e</sup> Acts 12, 5. <sup>f</sup> Josh. 24, 15. <sup>g</sup> Matth. 16, 24. <sup>h</sup> Gen. 43, 14. <sup>i</sup> Heb. 11, 24.

3 And Esther spake yet again before the king, and fell down at his feet, and besought him with tears to put away the <sup>f</sup> mischief of Haman the Agagite, and his device that he had devised against the Jews.

4 Then the king <sup>g</sup> held out the golden sceptre toward Esther. So Esther arose, and stood before the king,

9 And Parmashta, and Arisai, and Aridai, and Vajezatha,

10 The ten sons of Haman, the son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews, <sup>k</sup> slew they; but on the spoil laid they <sup>l</sup> not their hand.

11 On that day the number of those that were slain in Shushan the palace was brought before the king.

12 And the king said unto Esther the queen, The Jews have slain and destroyed five hundred men in Shushan the palace, and the ten sons of Haman; what have they done in the rest of the king's provinces! Now what is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee; or what is thy request further? and it shall be done.

13 Then said Esther, <sup>m</sup> If it please the king, let it be granted to the Jews which are in Shushan to do to-morrow also according unto this day's decree, and let <sup>n</sup> Haman's ten sons be hanged upon the gallows.

14 And the king commanded it so to be done; and the decree was given at Shushan; and they hanged Haman's ten sons.

15 For the Jews that were in Shushan gathered themselves together on the fourteenth day also of the month Adar, and slew three hundred men at Shushan; but on the prey they laid not their hand.

16 But the <sup>p</sup> other Jews that were in the king's provinces gathered themselves together, and stood for their lives, and had rest from their enemies, and slew of their foes seventy and five thousand (but they laid not their hands on the prey)

17 On the <sup>q</sup> thirteenth day of the month Adar: and on the fourteenth day of the same rested they, and made it <sup>r</sup> a day of <sup>s</sup> feasting and gladness.

18 But the Jews that were at Shushan assembled together on the thirteenth day thereof, and on the fourteenth thereof; and on the fifteenth day of the same they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

19 Therefore the Jews of the villages, that dwelt in the unwall'd towns, made the fourteenth day of the month Adar a day of gladness and <sup>t</sup> feasting, and a good day, and of sending portions one to another.

20 And Mordecai <sup>u</sup> wrote these things, and sent letters unto all the Jews that were in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, both nigh and far, their enemies, and the month which was turned unto them from <sup>a</sup> sorrow to joy, and from mourning into a good day; that they should make them days of feasting and joy, and of sending portions one to another, and gifts to the poor.

23 And the Jews undertook to do as they had begun, and as Mordecai had written unto them;

24 Because Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had devised against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast || Pur (that is, the lot) to consume them, and to destroy them:

25 But when Esther came before the king, he commanded by letters, that his wicked device, which he devised against the Jews, should <sup>z</sup> return upon his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.

26 Wherefore they called these days <sup>a</sup> Purim, after the name of Pur: therefore, for all the words of this letter, and of that which they had seen concerning this matter, and which had come unto them,

27 The Jews ordained, and took upon them, and upon their seed, and upon all such as <sup>b</sup> joined themselves unto them, so as it should not fail, that they would keep these two days according to their writing, and according to their appointed time, every year;

28 And that these days should be <sup>c</sup> remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and that these days of Purim should not fail from among the Jews, nor the memorial of them perish from their seed.

29 Then Esther the queen, the daughter of Abihail, and Mordecai the Jew, wrote with all authority, to confirm this second letter of Purim.

30 And he sent the letters unto all the Jews, to the hundred twenty and seven provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, with words of <sup>d</sup> peace and truth, 31 To confirm these days of Purim in their times appointed, according as Mordecai the Jew and Esther the queen had enjoined them, and as they had decreed † for themselves, and for their <sup>a</sup> seed, the † matters of the fastings and their <sup>a</sup> cry.

32 And the decree of Esther confirmed these matters of Purim; and it was written in the book.

¶ The BOOK of JOB.

C H A P. I.

1 The holiness, riches, and religious care of Job for his children. 6 Satan appearing before God, by calumniation obtaineth leave to tempt Job: 13 Understanding of the loss of his goods and children, in his mourning he blesseth God.

THERE was <sup>a</sup> man in the land of <sup>a</sup> Uz, whose name was <sup>b</sup> Job; and that man was <sup>c</sup> perfect and <sup>d</sup> upright, and one that <sup>e</sup> feared God, and <sup>f</sup> eschewed evil.

2 And there were born unto him <sup>g</sup> seven sons and three daughters.

3 His <sup>h</sup> substance also was seven thousand sheep, and three thousand camels, and five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred she-asses, and a very great household; so that this man was the greatest of all the men of the east.

4 And his sons went and <sup>i</sup> feasted in their houses every one <sup>j</sup> his day; and sent and called for their three sisters, <sup>k</sup> to eat and to drink with them.

5 And it was so, when the days of their feasting were gone about, that Job sent and <sup>l</sup> sanctified them, and <sup>m</sup> rose up early in the morning, and offered burnt-offerings according <sup>n</sup> to the number of them all: for Job said, <sup>o</sup> It may be that my sons have <sup>p</sup> sinned; and cursed God in their <sup>q</sup> hearts. Thus did Job <sup>r</sup> continually.

6 ¶ Now there was a day when <sup>s</sup> the sons of God came to <sup>t</sup> present themselves before the LORD, and <sup>u</sup> Satan came also among them.

7 And the LORD said unto Satan, <sup>v</sup> Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, From <sup>w</sup> going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.

8 And the LORD said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that <sup>x</sup> there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil?

9 Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, Doth Job fear God for nought?

10 Hast not thou made an <sup>y</sup> hedge about him, and about his <sup>z</sup> house, and about all that he hath on every side? Thou hast blessed the <sup>a</sup> work of his hands, and his substance is increased in the land:

11 But put forth thine hand now, and touch all that he hath, and he will <sup>b</sup> curse thee to thy face.

12 And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, all that he hath <sup>c</sup> is <sup>d</sup> in thy power; <sup>e</sup> only upon himself put not forth thine hand. So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD.

13 And there was a day when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house :

14 And there came a messenger unto Job, and said, The oxen were plowing, and the asses feeding beside them ;

15 And the Sabeans fell upon them, and took them away ; yea, they have slain the servants with the edge of the sword ; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

16 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The fire of God is fallen from heaven, and hath burnt up the sheep, and the servants, and consumed them ; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

17 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The Chaldeans made out three bands, and fell upon the camels, and have carried them away, yea, and slain the servants with the edge of the sword ; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

18 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, Thy sons and thy daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house :

19 And, behold, there came a great wind from the wilderness, and smote the four corners of the house, and it fell upon the young men, and they are dead ; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

20 Then Job arose, and rent his mantle, and shaved his head, and fell down upon the ground, and worshipped, 21 And said, Naked came I out of my mother's womb, and naked shall I return thither : the LORD gave, and the LORD hath taken away ; blessed be the name of the LORD.

22 In all this Job sinned not, nor charged God foolishly.

CHAP. II.

1 Satan appearing again before God, obtaineth further leave to tempt Job : 7 He smiteth him with sore boils. 9 Job reproveth his wife, moving him to curse God. 11 His three friends condole with him in silence.

AGAIN there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan came also among them to present himself before the LORD.

2 And the LORD said unto Satan, From whence comest thou ? And Satan answered the LORD, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.

3 And the LORD said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil ? and still he holdeth fast his integrity, although thou movedst me against him, to destroy him without cause.

4 And Satan answered the LORD, and said, Skin for skin ; yea, all that a man hath will he give for his life :

5 But put forth thine hand now, and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will curse thee to thy face.

6 And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, he is in thine hand ; but save his life.

7 So went Satan forth from the presence of the LORD, and smote Job with sore boils, from the sole of his foot unto his crown.

8 And he took him a potsherd to scrape himself withal ; and he sat down among the ashes.

9 Then said his wife unto him, Dost thou still retain thine integrity ? Curse God, and die.

10 But he said unto her, Thou speakest as one of the foolish women speaketh. What ! shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil ? In all this did not Job sin with his lips.

11 Now when Job's three friends heard of all this evil that was come upon him, they came every one from his own place ; Eliphaz the Temanite, and Bildad the Shubite, and Zophar the Naamathite : for they had made an appointment together to come to mourn with him, and to comfort him.

12 And when they lift up their eyes afar off, and knew him not, they lifted up their voice and wept ; and they rent every one his mantle, and sprinkled dust upon their heads toward heaven.

13 So they sat down with him upon the ground seven days and seven nights, and none spake a word unto him : for they saw that his grief was very great.

CHAP. III.

1 Job curseth the day and services of his birth. 13 The ease of death. 20 He complaineth of life, because of his anguish.

AFTER this opened Job his mouth, and cursed his day.

2 And Job spake, and said, Let the day perish wherein I was born, and the night in which it was said, There is a man child conceived.

4 Let that day be darkness ; let not God regard it from above, neither let the light shine upon it.

5 Let darkness and the shadow of death stain it ; let a cloud dwell upon it ; let the blackness of the day terrify it.

6 As for that night, let darkness seize upon it ; let it not be joined unto the days of the year ; let it not come into the number of the months.

7 Yea, let that night be solitary ; let no joyful voice come therein.

8 Let them curse it that curse the day, who are ready to raise up their mourning.

9 Let the stars of the twilight thereof be dark ; let it look for light, but have none ; neither let it see the dawning of the day :

10 Because it shut not up the doors of my mother's womb, nor hid sorrow from mine eyes.

11 Why died I not from the womb ? why did I not give up the ghost when I came out of the belly ?

12 Why did the knees prevent me ? or why the breasts that I should suck ?

13 For now should I have lain still and been quiet, I should have slept: then had I been at rest

14 With kings and counsellors of the earth, which built desolate places for themselves;

15 Or with princes that had <sup>a</sup> gold, who <sup>r</sup> filled their houses with silver:

16 Or as an <sup>a</sup> hidden untimely birth I had <sup>a</sup> not been; as infants which <sup>b</sup> never saw light.

17 There the wicked <sup>c</sup> cease from troubling; and there the <sup>d</sup> weary be at rest.

18 There the prisoners rest together; they hear not the voice of the <sup>e</sup> oppressor.

19 The <sup>f</sup> small and great are there; and the <sup>g</sup> servant is free from his master.

20 Wherefore is <sup>h</sup> light given to him that is in misery, and life unto the <sup>i</sup> bitter in soul;

21 Which <sup>k</sup> long for death, but it cometh not; and <sup>l</sup> dig for it more than for hid treasures;

22 Which <sup>m</sup> rejoice exceedingly, and are glad when they can find the grave?

23 Why is light given to a man whose way is <sup>n</sup> hid, and whom God hath <sup>o</sup> hedged in?

24 For my sighing cometh <sup>p</sup> before I eat, and my roarings are poured out like the waters.

25 For the thing which I greatly feared is come upon me, and that which I was afraid of is come unto me.

26 I was not in safety, neither had I rest, neither was I quiet; yet trouble came.

C H A P. IV.

1 Eliphaz reproveth Job for want of religion: 7 He teacheth God's judgments to be not for the righteous, but for the wicked: 12 His fearful vision to humble the excellencies of creatures before God.

THEN Eliphaz the Temanite <sup>a</sup> answered and said,

2 If we assay to commune with thee, wilt thou <sup>b</sup> be grieved? but who can <sup>c</sup> withhold himself from speaking?

3 Behold, thou hast <sup>d</sup> instructed many, and thou hast <sup>e</sup> strengthened the weak hands.

4 Thy words have upholden him that was <sup>f</sup> falling, and thou hast strengthened the <sup>g</sup> feeble knees.

5 But now it is <sup>h</sup> come upon thee, and thou faintest; it <sup>i</sup> toucheth thee, and thou art troubled.

6 Is not <sup>j</sup> this thy <sup>k</sup> fear, thy <sup>l</sup> confidence, the <sup>m</sup> uprightness of thy ways, and thy hope?

7 Remember, I pray thee, who <sup>n</sup> ever perished, being innocent? or where were the righteous cut off?

8 Even as I have seen, they that plow iniquity, and sow wickedness, reap the same.

9 By the blast of God they perish, and by the breath of his nostrils are they consumed.

10 The roaring of the <sup>a</sup> lion, and the voice of the fierce lion, and the teeth of the young lions, are broken.

11 The old lion perisheth <sup>o</sup> for lack of prey, and the stout lion's whelps are scattered abroad.

12 Now a thing was <sup>p</sup> secretly brought to me, and mine ear received <sup>q</sup> a little thereof.

15 Then a spirit passed before my face; the <sup>t</sup> hair of my flesh stood up:

16 It stood still, but I could <sup>u</sup> not discern the form thereof: an image <sup>v</sup> was before mine eyes;

there <sup>w</sup> was <sup>x</sup> silence, and I heard <sup>y</sup> a voice, saying,

19 How much less on them that <sup>f</sup> dwell in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust, which are <sup>g</sup> crushed before the moth?

20 They are destroyed from morning to evening: they perish for ever, without any regarding it.

21 Doth not their excellency which is in them go away? they die, even without wisdom.

C H A P. V.

1 The harm of inconsideration. 3 The end of the wicked is misery. 6 God is to be regarded in affliction. 17 The happy end of God's correction.

CALL now, if there be any that will <sup>a</sup> answer thee; and to which of the saints wilt thou <sup>b</sup> turn?

2 For <sup>c</sup> wrath killeth the foolish man, and envy slayeth the silly one.

5 Whose harvest the <sup>h</sup> hungry eateth up, and taketh it even out of the thorns, and the robber swalloweth up their substance.

6 Although affliction cometh not forth of the <sup>i</sup> dust, neither doth trouble spring out of the ground,

7 Yet man is <sup>k</sup> born unto trouble, as the sparks fly upward.

8 I would seek unto God, and unto God would I commit my cause;

9 Which <sup>l</sup> doeth great things and unsearchable; marvellous things without number:

10 Who giveth <sup>m</sup> rain upon the earth, and sendeth waters upon the fields:

25 Thou shalt know also that <sup>g</sup> thy seed shall be great, and thine offspring as the grass of the earth.

26 Thou shalt come to <sup>h</sup> thy grave in a full age, like as a shock of corn cometh in in his season.

27 Lo this, we have <sup>i</sup> searched it, so it is; hear it, and know thou it for <sup>k</sup> thy good.

1 Job sheweth that his complaints are not causeless: 8 He wisheth for death, wherein he is assured of comfort: 14 He reproveth his friends of unkindness.

BUT Job answered and said,
2 Oh that my <sup>a</sup> grief were throughly <sup>b</sup> weighed, and my calamity laid in the balances together!

3 For now it would be heavier than the sand of the sea: therefore my words are <sup>c</sup> swallowed up.

4 For the <sup>d</sup> arrows of the Almighty are within me, the poison whereof drinketh up my spirit: the terrors of God do <sup>e</sup> set themselves in array against me.

5 Doth the wild ass bray when he hath <sup>f</sup> grass? or loweth the ox over his fodder?

6 Can that which is <sup>g</sup> unsavoury be eaten without salt? or is there any taste in the white of an egg?

7 The things that my soul <sup>b</sup> refused to touch are as my <sup>i</sup> sorrowful meat.

8 Oh that I might have my request; and that God would grant me the thing that <sup>k</sup> I long for;

9 Even that it would please God to <sup>l</sup> destroy me; that he would let loose his hand, and cut me off!

10 Then should I yet have comfort; yea, I would harden myself in sorrow; let him not spare; for I have not <sup>m</sup> concealed the words of the Holy One.

11 What is my strength, that I should <sup>n</sup> hope? and what is mine end, that I should prolong my life?

12 Is my strength <sup>o</sup> the strength of stones? or is my flesh of brass?

13 Is not <sup>p</sup> my help in me? and is wisdom driven quite from me?

14 To him that is afflicted <sup>q</sup> pity should be shewed from his friend; but he forsaketh the fear of the Almighty.

15 My brethren have <sup>r</sup> dealt deceitfully as a brook, and as the stream of brooks they pass away;

16 Which are blackish by reason of the ice, and wherein the snow is hid:

17 What time they wax warm they vanish: when it is hot they are consumed out of their place.

18 The paths of their way are turned aside; they go to nothing, and perish.

19 The troops of <sup>s</sup> Tema looked, the companies of Sheba waited for them.

20 They were <sup>t</sup> confounded because they had hoped; they came thither, and were ashamed.

21 For now ye are nothing; ye see <sup>u</sup> my casting down, and are <sup>a</sup> afraid.

22 Did I say, <sup>x</sup> Bring unto me? or, Give a reward for me of your substance?

23 Or, Deliver me from the enemies' hand? or, Redeem me from the hand of the <sup>y</sup> mighty?

24 <sup>z</sup> Teach me, and I will <sup>a</sup> hold my tongue; and cause me to understand wherein I have erred.

25 How forcible are <sup>b</sup> right words! but what doth your arguing reprove?

26 Do ye imagine to reprove words, and the speeches of one that is desperate, which are as <sup>c</sup> wind?

27 Yea, ye <sup>d</sup> overwhelm the fatherless, and ye dig a pit for your friend.

28 Now, therefore, be content: look upon me: for it is <sup>e</sup> evident unto you if I lie.

29 <sup>f</sup> Return, I pray you, let it not be iniquity; yea, return again, my righteousness is in it.

30 Is there iniquity in <sup>g</sup> my tongue? cannot my taste <sup>h</sup> discern perverse things?

C H A P. VII.

1 Job excuseth his desire of death: 12 He complaineth of his own restlessness, and of God's watchfulness.

IS there not <sup>a</sup> an appointed time to man upon earth? are not his days also like the days of <sup>b</sup> an hireling?

2 As a servant earnestly desireth the shadow, and as an hireling looketh for <sup>c</sup> the reward of his work;

3 So am I made to possess <sup>d</sup> months of vanity, and wearisome nights are appointed to me.

4 When I lie down, I say, When shall I arise, and the <sup>e</sup> night be gone? and I am full of <sup>f</sup> tossings to and fro unto the dawning of the day.

5 My flesh is clothed with <sup>g</sup> worms and clods of dust; my skin is broken, and become <sup>h</sup> loathsome.

6 My days are <sup>i</sup> swifter than a weaver's shuttle, and are spent without <sup>k</sup> hope.

7 O remember that my life is <sup>l</sup> wind: mine eye shall no more see good.

8 The eye of him that hath seen me shall see me <sup>m</sup> no more: <sup>n</sup> thine eyes are upon me, and I am not.

2 How long wilt thou speak these things? and how long shall the words of thy mouth be like a strong wind?
3 Doth God pervert judgment? or doth the Almighty pervert justice?
4 If thy children have sinned against him, and he have cast them away for their transgression;
5 If thou wouldest seek unto God betimes, and make thy supplication to the Almighty;
6 If thou wert pure and upright; surely now he would awake for thee, and make the habitation of thy righteousness prosperous.
7 Though thy beginning was small, yet thy latter end should greatly increase.
8 For inquire, I pray thee, of the former age, and prepare thyself to the search of their fathers:
9 (For we are but of yesterday, and know nothing, because our days upon earth are a shadow:)
10 Shall not they teach thee, and tell thee, and utter words out of their heart?
11 Can the rush grow up without mire? can the flag grow without water?

12 Whilst it is yet in his greenness, and not cut down, it withereth before any other herb.

13 So are the paths of all that forget God; and the hypocrite's hope shall perish:

14 Whose hope shall be cut off, and whose trust shall be as a spider's web.

15 He shall lean upon his house, but it shall not stand: he shall hold it fast, but it shall not endure.

16 He is green before the sun, and his branch shooteth forth in his garden.

17 His roots are wrapped about the heap, and seeth the place of stones.

18 If he destroy him from his place, then it shall deny him, saying, I have not seen thee.

19 Behold, this is the joy of his way, and out of the earth shall others grow.

20 Behold, God will not cast away a perfect man, neither will he help the evil-doers;

21 Till he fill thy mouth with laughing, and thy lips with rejoicing.

22 They that hate thee shall be clothed with shame; and the dwelling-place of the wicked shall come to nought.

1 Job acknowledging God's justice, sheweth there is no contending with him. 22 Man's innocency is not to be condemned by afflictions.

THEN Job answered and said, 2 I know it is so of a truth: but how should man be just with God?

3 If he will contend with him, he cannot answer him one of a thousand.

4 He is wise in heart, and mighty in strength: who hath hardened himself against him, and hath prospered?

5 Which removeth the mountains, and they know not; which overturneth them in his anger;

6 Which shaketh the earth out of her place, and the pillars thereof tremble;

7 Which commandeth the sun, and it riseth not, and sealeth up the stars;

8 Which alone spreadeth out the heavens, and treadeth upon the waves of the sea;

9 Which maketh Arcturus, Orion, and Pleiades, and the chambers of the south;

10 Which doeth great things past finding out, yea, and wonders without number.

11 Lo, he goeth by me, and I see him not; he passeth on also, but I perceive him not.

12 Behold, he taketh away, who can hinder him? who will say unto him, What doest thou?

13 If God will not withdraw his anger, the proud helpers do stoop under him.

14 How much less shall I answer him, and choose out my words to reason with him?

15 Whom, though I were righteous, yet would I not answer, but I would make supplication to my Judge.

16 If I had called, and he had answered me: yet would I not believe that he had hearkened unto my voice.

17 For he breaketh me with a tempest, and multiplieth my wounds without cause.

18 He will not suffer me to take my breath, but filleth me with <sup>a</sup> bitterness.
19 If I <sup>a</sup> speak of strength, lo, he is <sup>a</sup> strong; and if of judgment, who shall set me a time to plead?
20 If I <sup>a</sup> justify myself, mine own mouth shall condemn me: if I say, I am perfect, it shall also prove me perverse.
21 Though I were perfect, yet would I <sup>a</sup> not know my soul: I would despise my life.
22 This is one thing, therefore I said it, He destroyeth the <sup>a</sup> perfect and the wicked.
23 If the scourge <sup>a</sup> slay suddenly, he will laugh at the trial of the innocent.
24 The earth <sup>a</sup> is given into the hand of the wicked: he covereth the faces of the judges thereof; if not, where, and who is he?
25 Now my days are swifter than a post: they flee away, they <sup>b</sup> see no good.
26 They are passed away as the swift ships;
as the <sup>c</sup> eagle that hasteth to the prey.
27 If I say, I will forget my <sup>d</sup> complaint, I will leave off my heaviness, and comfort myself;
28 I am <sup>e</sup> afraid of all my sorrows, I know that thou wilt not hold me innocent.
29 If I be wicked, why then labour I <sup>f</sup> in vain?
30 If I <sup>g</sup> wash myself with snow water, and make my hands never so clean;
31 Yet shalt thou plunge me in the <sup>h</sup> ditch, and mine own clothes shall abhor me.
32 For he is not a <sup>i</sup> man, as I am, that I should answer him, and we should come together in judgment.
33 Neither is there any <sup>k</sup> days-man betwixt us, that might lay his hand upon us both.
34 Let him take his rod away from me, and let not his <sup>l</sup> fear terrify me;
35 <sup>m</sup> Then would I speak, and not fear him:

1 Job, taking liberty of complaint, expostulateth with God about his afflictions: 18 He complaineth of life, and craveth a little ease before death.
MY soul is <sup>a</sup> weary of my life: I will leave my complaint upon myself; I will speak in the <sup>b</sup> bitterness of my soul.
2 I will say unto God, Do not <sup>c</sup> condemn me;
shew me wherefore thou contendest with me.
3 Is it good unto thee that thou shouldst oppress, that thou shouldst despise the <sup>d</sup> work of thine hands, and shine upon the counsel of the wicked?
4 Hast thou <sup>e</sup> eyes of flesh? or seest thou as man seeth?
5 <sup>f</sup> Are thy days as the days of man? are thy years as man's days, 6 That thou <sup>g</sup> inquirest after mine iniquity, and searchest after my sin?
7 <sup>h</sup> Thou knowest that I am not wicked; and there is none that can <sup>i</sup> deliver out of thine hand.
8 Thine hands have made me, and fashioned me together round about; yet thou dost destroy me.
9 Remember, I beseech thee, that thou hast made me <sup>k</sup> as the clay; and wilt thou bring me into dust again?

10 Hast thou not <sup>l</sup> poured me out as milk, and curdled me like cheese?
11 Thou hast <sup>m</sup> clothed me with skin and flesh, and hast fenced me with bones and sinews.
12 Thou hast granted me <sup>n</sup> life and favour, and thy visitation hath preserved my spirit.
13 And these things hast thou <sup>o</sup> hid in thine heart: I know that this is with thee.
14 If I sin, then thou <sup>p</sup> markest me, and thou <sup>q</sup> wilt not acquit me from mine iniquity.
15 If I be wicked, <sup>r</sup> wo unto me; and if I <sup>s</sup> be righteous, yet will I not lift up my head. I am full of confusion; therefore <sup>t</sup> see thou mine affliction;
16 For it <sup>u</sup> increaseth. Thou huntest me as a fierce lion; and again thou shewest thyself marvellous upon me.
17 Thou renewest thy <sup>v</sup> witnesses against me, and increasest thine indignation upon me;
changes and war are against me.
18 Wherefore then hast thou <sup>w</sup> brought me forth out of the womb? Oh that I had given up the ghost, and <sup>x</sup> no eye had seen me!
19 I should have been as though I had not been; I should have been carried from the womb to the grave.

20 Are not my <sup>y</sup> days few? cease then, and let me alone, that I may talk comfort a little, 21 Before I go whence I shall <sup>z</sup> not return, even to the land of darkness and the shadow of death;
22 A land of <sup>a</sup> darkness, as darkness itself:
and of the shadow of death, without any order,

1 Job maintaineth himself against his friends that reprove him: 7 He acknowledgeth the general doctrine of God's omnipotency.

AND Job answered and said,
2 No doubt but ye are <sup>a</sup> the people, and wisdom shall die <sup>b</sup> with you.

3 But I have understanding as well as you; I am not <sup>a</sup> inferior to you: yea, who knoweth not such things as these?

4 I am as one mocked of his neighbour, who <sup>a</sup> calleth upon God, and he answereth him: the just upright man is laughed to scorn.

5 He that is ready <sup>a</sup> to slip with his feet is as a lamp despised in the thought of him that is at ease.

6 The tabernacles of robbers <sup>a</sup> prosper, and they that provoke God are secure; into whose hand God bringeth abundantly.

7 But <sup>a</sup> ask now the beasts, and they shall teach thee; and the fowls of the air, and they shall tell thee:

8 Or speak to the earth, and it shall teach thee; and the fishes of the sea shall declare unto thee.

9 Who knoweth not in all these, that the <sup>a</sup> hand of the LORD hath wrought this?

10 In whose <sup>a</sup> hand is the soul of every living thing, and the breath of all mankind.

11 Doth not the <sup>a</sup> ear try words? and the mouth taste his meat?

12 With the <sup>a</sup> ancient is wisdom; and in length of days understanding.

13 With him is <sup>a</sup> wisdom and strength, he hath counsel and understanding.

14 Behold, he breaketh down, and it cannot be <sup>a</sup> built again; he shutteth up a man, and there can be no opening.

15 Behold, he withholdeth the waters, and they dry up; also he <sup>a</sup> sendeth them out, and they overturn the earth.

16 With him is <sup>a</sup> strength and wisdom: the deceived and the deceiver are his.

17 He leadeth counsellors <sup>a</sup> away spoiled, and maketh the judges fools.

18 He <sup>a</sup> looseth the bond of kings, and girdeth <sup>a</sup> their loins with a girdle.

19 He leadeth princes away spoiled, and <sup>a</sup> overthroweth the mighty.

20 He removeth away <sup>a</sup> the speech of the trusty, and taketh away the understanding of the aged.

21 He poureth <sup>a</sup> contempt upon princes, and weakeneth the strength of the mighty.

22 He discovereth <sup>a</sup> deep things out of darkness, and bringeth out to light the shadow of death.

23 He <sup>a</sup> increaseth the nations, and destroyeth them: he enlargeth the nations, and straiteneth them again.

24 He taketh away <sup>a</sup> the heart of the chief of the people of the earth, and causeth them to wander in a wilderness where there is no way.

25 They <sup>a</sup> grope in the dark without light, and he maketh them to stagger like a drunken man.

C H A P. XIII.

1 Job reproveth his friends of partiality: 14 He professeth his confidence in God, 20 and entreatheth to know his own sins, and God's purpose in afflicting him.

L O, mine eye hath seen all this, mine ear hath heard and understood it.

2 What ye know, the same <sup>a</sup> do I know also: <sup>a</sup> I am not inferior unto you.

3 Surely I would <sup>a</sup> speak to the Almighty, <sup>b</sup> and I desire to reason with God.

4 But ye are forgers of lies, ye are all physicians of <sup>a</sup> no value.

5 O that you would altogether hold your peace! and it should be <sup>a</sup> your wisdom.

6 <sup>a</sup> Hear now my reasoning, and hearken to the pleadings of my lips.

7 Will you speak wickedly <sup>a</sup> for God? and talk deceitfully for him?

8 Will ye <sup>a</sup> accept his person? will ye contend for God?

9 Is it good that he should search you out? or, as one man <sup>b</sup> mocketh another, do ye so mock him?

10 He will surely <sup>a</sup> reprove you, if ye do secretly accept persons.

11 Shall not his excellency make you afraid? and his <sup>a</sup> dread fall upon you?

12 Your remembrances are like unto <sup>a</sup> ashes, your bodies to bodies of clay.

13 Hold your peace, let me alone, that I may speak, and <sup>a</sup> let come on me what will.

14 Wherefore do I take my flesh in my teeth, and put my life <sup>a</sup> in mine hand?

15 Though he slay me, <sup>a</sup> yet will I trust in him: but I will maintain mine own ways before him.

16 He also shall be my salvation: for an hypocrite shall <sup>a</sup> not come before him.

17 <sup>a</sup> Hear diligently my speech and my declaration with your ears.

18 Behold now, I have ordered my cause; <sup>a</sup> I know that I shall be justified.

19 Who is he <sup>a</sup> that will plead with me? for now, if I <sup>t</sup> hold my tongue, I shall give up the ghost.

20 Only do not <sup>u</sup> two things unto me; then will I not hide myself from thee.

21 Withdraw <sup>x</sup> thine hand far from me; and let not thy dread make me afraid:

22 Then <sup>y</sup> call thou, and I will answer; <sup>z</sup> or let me speak, and answer thou me.

23 <sup>a</sup> How many are mine iniquities and sins? make me to know my transgression and my sin.

24 Wherefore <sup>b</sup> hidest thou thy face, and holdest me for thine enemy?

25 Wilt thou <sup>c</sup> break a leaf driven to and fro? and wilt thou pursue the dry stubble?

26 For thou writest bitter things against me, and makest me to possess the iniquities of <sup>d</sup> my youth.

27 Thou putteth <sup>e</sup> my feet also in the stocks, and lookest narrowly unto all my paths; thou settest a print upon the heels of my feet.

28 And he, as a rotten thing, consumeth, as a garment that is <sup>f</sup> moth-eaten.

C H A P. XIV.

1 Job entreateth God for favour, by the shortness of life, and certainty of death. 7 Though life once lost be irrecoverable, yet he waiteth for his change. 16 By sin the creature is subject to corruption.

MAN that is born of a woman is of <sup>a</sup> few days, and full of trouble.

2 He cometh forth like a flower, <sup>b</sup> and is cut down: he fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not.

3 And dost thou <sup>c</sup> open thine eyes upon such an one, and bringest me into judgment with thee?

4 Who can bring a clean thing out of <sup>d</sup> an unclean? not one.

5 Seeing his days are determined, the number of his months are with thee; thou hast appointed his <sup>e</sup> bounds that he cannot pass:

6 Turn from him that he <sup>f</sup> may rest, till he shall accomplish, as an hireling, his day.

7 For there is <sup>g</sup> hope of a tree, if it be cut down, that it will sprout again, and that the tender branch thereof will not cease.

8 Though the root thereof wax old in the earth, and the stock thereof <sup>h</sup> die in the ground;

9 Yet through the scent of water it will bud, and bring forth boughs like a plant.

10 But man dieth, and wasteth away; yea, man giveth up the ghost, and <sup>i</sup> where is he?

11 As the waters fail from the sea, and the flood decayeth and drieth up;

12 So man <sup>k</sup> lieth down, and riseth not: till the heavens be <sup>l</sup> no more, they shall not awake, nor be raised out of their sleep.

13 Oh that thou wouldest hide me in the grave, that thou wouldest keep me <sup>m</sup> secret until thy wrath be past, that thou wouldest appoint me a set time, and remember me!

14 If a man die, shall he <sup>n</sup> live again? All the days of my appointed time will I wait, till my change come.

15 Thou shalt <sup>o</sup> call; and I will answer thee: thou wilt have a desire to the work of thine hands.

16 For now thou <sup>p</sup> numberest my steps; dost thou not watch over my sin?

17 My transgression is <sup>q</sup> sealed up in a bag, and thou sewest up mine iniquity.

18 And surely the mountain falling <sup>r</sup> cometh to nought, and the rock is removed out of his place.

19 The waters wear the stones: thou wastest away the things which grow out of the dust of the earth; and thou destroyest the <sup>s</sup> hope of man.

20 Thou <sup>t</sup> prevailest for ever against him; and he passeth: thou changest his countenance, and sendest him away.

21 His sons come to honour, and he knoweth it not; and they are brought low, but he <sup>u</sup> perceiveth it not of them.

22 But his flesh upon him shall have pain, and his soul within him shall <sup>x</sup> mourn.

1 Eliphaz reproveth Job of impiety in justifying himself. 17 He proveth by tradition the unquietness of wicked men.

THEN answered Eliphaz the Temanite, and I said,

2 Should <sup>a</sup> a wise man utter vain knowledge, and fill his belly with the east wind?

3 Should he reason with <sup>b</sup> unprofitable talk? or with speeches wherewith he can do no good?

4 Yea, thou castest off fear, and <sup>c</sup> restrainest prayer before God.

5 For thy <sup>d</sup> mouth uttereth thine iniquity, and thou choosest the tongue of the crafty.

6 Thine own mouth <sup>e</sup> condemneth thee, and not I; yea, thine own lips testify against thee:

7 Art thou the <sup>f</sup> first man that was born? or wast thou made before the hills?

8 Hast thou heard the <sup>g</sup> secret of God? and dost thou <sup>h</sup> restrain wisdom to thyself?

9 What knowest thou, that <sup>i</sup> we know not? what understandest thou, which is not in us?

10 <sup>k</sup> With us are both the gray-headed and very aged men, much elder than thy father.

11 Are the <sup>l</sup> consolations of God small with thee? is there any secret thing <sup>m</sup> with thee?

12 Why doth thine heart carry thee away? and what do thine eyes wink at, 13 That thou turnest thy spirit against God, and lettest <sup>n</sup> such words go out of thy mouth?

14 What is man, that he should <sup>o</sup> be clean? and he which is born of a woman, that he should be righteous?

15 Behold, he putteth no trust in his saints; yea, <sup>p</sup> the heavens are not clean in his sight:

16 How much more abominable and filthy is man, which <sup>q</sup> drinketh iniquity like water?

17 I will shew thee, hear me; and that which I have <sup>r</sup> seen I will declare;

19 Unto whom alone the earth was given, and no stranger passed among them.
20 The wicked man travaileth with pain all his days, and the number of years is hidden to the oppressor.
21 A dreadful sound is in his ears: in prosperity the destroyer shall come upon him.
22 He believeth not that he shall return out of darkness, and he is waited for of the sword.
23 He wandereth abroad for bread, saying,
Where is it? he knoweth that the day of darkness is ready at his hand.
24 Trouble and anguish shall make him afraid; they shall prevail against him, as a king ready to the battle.
25 For he stretcheth out his hand against God, and strengtheneth himself against the Almighty.
26 He runneth upon him, even on his neck, upon the thick bosses of his bucklers;
27 Because he covereth his face with his fatness, and maketh collops of fat on his flanks.
28 And he dwelleth in desolate cities, and in houses which no man inhabiteth, which are ready to become heaps.
29 He shall not be rich, neither shall his substance continue, neither shall he prolong the perfection thereof upon the earth.
30 He shall not depart out of darkness: the flame shall dry up his branches, and by the breath of his mouth shall he go away.
31 Let not him that is deceived trust in vanity; for vanity shall be his recompense.
32 It shall be accomplished before his time, and his branch shall not be green.
33 He shall shake off his unripe grape as the vine, and shall cast off his flower as the olive.
34 For the congregation of hypocrites shall be desolate, and fire shall consume the tabernacles of bribery.
35 They conceive mischief, and bring forth vanity, and their belly prepareth deceit.

C H A P. XVI.

1 Job reproveth his friends of unmercifulness: 7 He sheweth the pitifulness of his case: 17 He maintaineth his innocence.

THEN Job answered and said,
2 I have heard many such things: miserable comforters are ye all.
3 Shall vain words have an end? or what emboldeneth thee that thou answerest?
4 I also could speak as ye do: if your soul were in my soul's stead, I could heap up words against you, and shake mine head at you.
5 But I would strengthen you with my mouth, and the moving of my lips should assuage your grief.
6 Though I speak, my grief is not assuaged;
and though I forbear, what am I eased?
7 But now he hath made me weary: thou hast made desolate all my company.
8 And thou hast filled me with wrinkles, which is a witness against me: and my leanness rising up in me beareth witness to my face.

9 He teareth me in his wrath who hateth me:
he gnasheth upon me with his teeth; mine enemy sharpeneth his eyes upon me.
10 They have gaped upon me with their mouth; they have smitten me upon the cheek reproachfully; they have gathered themselves together against me.
11 God hath delivered me to the ungodly, and turned me over into the hands of the wicked.
12 I was at ease, but he hath broken me asunder: he hath also taken me by my neck, and shaken me to pieces, and set me up for his mark.
13 His archers compass me round about; he cleaveth my reins asunder, and doth not spare;
he poureth out my gall upon the ground.
14 He breaketh me with breach upon breach;
he runneth upon me like a giant.
15 I have sewed sackcloth upon my skin, and defiled my horn in the dust.
16 My face is foul with weeping, and on mine eyelids is the shadow of death;
17 Not for any injustice in mine hands: also my prayer is pure.
18 O earth, cover not thou my blood, and let my cry have no place.
19 Also now, behold, my witness is in heaven, and my record is on high.
20 My friends scorn me; but mine eye poureth out tears unto God.
21 Oh that one might plead for a man with God, as a man pleadeth for his neighbour!
22 When a few years are come, then I shall go the way whence I shall not return.

C H A P. XVII.

1 Job appealeth from men to God. 6 The unmerciful dealing of men with the afflicted may astonish, but not discourage, the righteous: 11 His hope is not in life, but in death.

MY breath is corrupt, my days are extinct, the graves are ready for me.
2 Are there not mockers with me? and doth not mine eye continue in their provocation?
3 Lay down now, put me in a surety with thee; who is he that will strike hands with me?
4 For thou hast hid their heart from understanding: therefore shalt thou not exalt them.
5 He that speaketh flattery to his friends, even the eyes of his children shall fail.
6 He hath made me also a by-word of the people, and aforetime I was as a tabret.
7 Mine eye also is dim by reason of sorrow, and all my members are as a shadow.
8 Upright men shall be astonished at this, and the innocent shall stir up himself against the hypocrite.
9 The righteous also shall hold on his way, and he that hath clean hands shall be stronger and stronger.
10 But as for you all, do you return, and come now: for I cannot find one wise man among you.
11 My days are past, my purposes are broken off, even the thoughts of my heart.
12 They change the night into day: the light is short because of darkness.

Zophar sheweth the state and portion of the wicked.

THEN answered <sup>a</sup> Zophar the Naamathite, and said,

2 Therefore do my thoughts cause me to answer, and for this <sup>b</sup> I make haste.

3 I have heard the <sup>c</sup> check of my reproach, and the spirit of my understanding causeth me to answer.

4 Knowest thou not this <sup>d</sup> of old, since man was placed upon earth,

5 That the triumphing of the wicked is <sup>e</sup> short, and the joy of the hypocrite but for a moment?

6 Though his excellency mount up to the heavens, and his <sup>f</sup> head reach unto the clouds:

7 Yet he shall perish for ever like his <sup>g</sup> own dung: they which have seen him shall say, Where is he?

8 He shall fly away as a dream, and shall <sup>h</sup> not be found; yea, he shall be chased away as a vision of the night.

9 The eye also which saw him shall see him no more; neither shall <sup>i</sup> his place any more behold him.

10 <sup>k</sup> His children shall seek to please the poor, and his hands shall restore their goods.

11 His bones are full of the sin of his youth, which shall <sup>l</sup> lie down with him in the dust.

12 Though wickedness be <sup>m</sup> sweet in his mouth, though he hide it under his tongue;

13 Though he spare it, and <sup>n</sup> forsake it not, but keep it still within his mouth;

14 Yet his meat in his bowels is turned, it is the <sup>o</sup> gall of asps within him.

15 He hath swallowed down riches, and he shall <sup>p</sup> vomit them up again: God shall cast them out of his belly.

16 He shall suck the poison of asps: the <sup>q</sup> viper's tongue shall slay him.

17 He shall <sup>r</sup> not see the rivers, the floods, the brooks of honey and butter.

18 That which he laboured for shall he <sup>s</sup> restore, and shall not swallow it down: according to his substance shall the restitution be, and he shall not rejoice therein.

19 Because he hath oppressed and hath <sup>t</sup> forsaken the poor; because he hath violently taken away an house which he builded not;

20 Surely he shall not feel quietness in his belly, he shall <sup>u</sup> not save of that which he desired.

21 There shall none of his meat be <sup>x</sup> left; therefore shall no man look for his goods.

22 In the <sup>y</sup> fulness of his sufficiency he shall be in straits: every hand of the wicked shall come upon him.

23 When he is about to fill his belly, God shall <sup>z</sup> cast the fury of his wrath upon him, and shall rain it upon him <sup>a</sup> while he is eating.

24 He shall flee from the iron weapon, and the <sup>b</sup> bow of steel shall strike him through.

25 It is <sup>c</sup> drawn, and cometh out of the body; yea, the glittering sword cometh out of his gall: terrors are upon him.

27 The <sup>e</sup> heaven shall reveal his iniquity; and the <sup>f</sup> earth shall rise up against him.

28 The increase of his house shall <sup>g</sup> depart, and his goods shall flow away in the day of his wrath.

29 This is the portion of a wicked man from God, and the heritage <sup>h</sup> appointed unto him by God.

C H A P. XXI.

1 Job sheweth, that even in the judgment of man he hath reason to be grieved. 7 Sometimes the wicked do so prosper, as they despise God. 16 Sometimes their destruction is manifest. 23 The happy and unhappy are alike in death. 30 The judgment of the wicked is in another world.

BUT Job answered and said, 2 <sup>a</sup> Hear diligently my speech; and let this be your consolations.

3 <sup>b</sup> Suffer me that I may speak; and after that I have spoken, mock on.

4 As for me, is my complaint <sup>c</sup> to man? and if it were so, why should not my spirit be troubled?

5 Mark me, and be <sup>d</sup> astonished, and lay your hand upon your mouth.

6 Even when I remember I am afraid, and <sup>e</sup> trembling taketh hold on my flesh.

7 <sup>f</sup> Wherefore do the wicked live, become old, yea, are <sup>g</sup> mighty in power?

8 Their <sup>h</sup> seed is established in their sight with them, and their offspring before their eyes.

9 Their houses are safe from fear, neither is the <sup>i</sup> rod of God upon them.

10 Their bull gendereth, and <sup>k</sup> faileth not; their cow calveth, and casteth not her calf.

12 They take the timbrel and harp, and rejoice at the sound of the organ.

13 They spend their days in wealth, and <sup>m</sup> in a moment go down to the grave.

14 Therefore they say unto God, <sup>n</sup> Depart from us; for we desire not the knowledge of thy ways.

15 <sup>o</sup> What is the Almighty, that we should serve him? and what profit should we have, if we pray unto him?

16 Lo, <sup>p</sup> their good is not in their hand: the counsel of the wicked is far from me.

17 How oft is the candle of the wicked put out? and how oft cometh their destruction upon them? God <sup>q</sup> distributeth sorrows in his anger.

18 They are as <sup>r</sup> stubble before the wind, and as chaff that the storm carrieth away.

1 Wickedness goeth often unpunished. 17 There is a secret judgment for the wicked.

WHY, seeing <sup>a</sup> times are not hidden from the Almighty, do they that know him not see his days?

2 Some <sup>b</sup> remove the land-marks; they violently take away flocks, and feed thereof;

3 They drive away <sup>c</sup> the ass of the fatherless; they take the widow's ox for a pledge;

4 They turn the needy out of the way: the <sup>d</sup> poor of the earth hide themselves together.

5 Behold, as wild asses in the desert, go they forth to their work, <sup>e</sup> rising betimes for a prey: the wilderness yieldeth food for them and for their children.

6 They reap every one his <sup>f</sup> corn in the field, and they gather the vintage of the wicked;

7 They cause the <sup>g</sup> naked to lodge without clothing, that they have no covering in the cold;

8 They are wet with the showers of the mountains, and embrace the <sup>h</sup> rock for want of a shelter;

9 They <sup>i</sup> pluck the fatherless from the breast, and take a pledge of the poor;

10 They cause him to go naked without clothing, and they take away the <sup>k</sup> sheaf from the hungry;

11 Which make oil within their walls, and tread their wine-presses, and <sup>l</sup> suffer thirst.

12 Men groan from out of the city, and the soul of the wounded crieth out; <sup>m</sup> yet God layeth not folly to them.

13 They are of those that <sup>n</sup> rebel against the light; they know not the ways thereof, nor abide in the paths thereof.

14 The murderer, rising with the light, killeth the poor and needy, and <sup>o</sup> in the night is as a thief.

15 The eye also of the adulterer waiteth for the twilight, saying, No eye <sup>p</sup> shall see me; and disguiseth his face.

16 In the dark they dig through houses, which they had marked for themselves in the day-time: they know not the light.

17 For the morning is to them even as the shadow of death: if one know them, they are in the terrors of the shadow of death.

18 He is swift as the waters; their portion is cursed in the earth: <sup>s</sup> he beholdeth not the way of the vineyards.

19 Drought and heat consume the snow-waters; so doth the <sup>t</sup> grave those which have sinned.

21 He evil entreateth the <sup>x</sup> barren that beareth not, and doeth not good to the widow.

22 He <sup>y</sup> draweth also the mighty with his power: he riseth up, and no man is sure of life.

23 Though it be given him to be in safety, whereon he resteth; yet <sup>z</sup> his eyes are upon their ways.

24 They are exalted for <sup>a</sup> a little while, but are gone, and brought low; they are taken out of the way as all other, and cut off as the <sup>b</sup> tops of the ears of corn.

1 Job protesteth his sincerity. 8 The hypocrite is without hope. 11 The blessings which the wicked have are turned into curses.

and said,

2 As God liveth, <sup>b</sup> who hath taken away my judgment; and the Almighty, <sup>c</sup> who hath vexed my soul;

3 All the while my breath is in me, and the spirit of God is in my nostrils,

4 My lips shall not speak<sup>d</sup> wickedness, nor

5 God forbid that I should<sup>e</sup> justify you: till I

6 My righteousness<sup>g</sup> I hold fast, and will not let it go: <sup>h</sup> my heart shall not reproach me so long as I live.

7 Let mine enemy be as the wicked, and he that riseth up against me as the unrighteous.

8 For what<sup>i</sup> is the hope of the hypocrite, though he hath gained, when God<sup>k</sup> taketh away his soul?

9 Will God hear his cry when<sup>l</sup> trouble cometh upon him?

10 Will he delight himself in the Almighty?
will he<sup>m</sup> always call upon God?

11 I will teach you by the hand of God:
that which is with the Almighty will I not conceal.

12 Behold, all ye yourselves have seen it;
why then are ye thus altogether<sup>n</sup> vain?

13 This is the portion of a wicked man with God, and the heritage of<sup>o</sup> oppressors, which they shall receive of the Almighty.

14 If his children be multiplied, it is for the sword; and his offspring shall not be satisfied with bread.

15 Those that remain of him shall he<sup>p</sup> buried in death; and his widows shall<sup>q</sup> not weep.

16 Though he<sup>r</sup> heap up silver as the dust, and prepare raiment as the clay;

17 He may prepare it, but<sup>s</sup> the just shall put it on, and the innocent shall divide the silver.

18 He buildeth his house<sup>t</sup> as a moth, and as a booth that the keeper maketh.

19 The rich man shall lie down, but he shall not be gathered: <sup>u</sup> he openeth his eyes, and he is not.

20 Terrors take hold on him as waters, a tempest stealeth him away<sup>v</sup> in the night.

21 The east wind carrieth him away, and he departeth; and, as a storm, <sup>w</sup> hurleth him out of his place.

22 For God shall cast upon him, and not spare: he would fain<sup>x</sup> flee out of his hand.

23 Men shall<sup>y</sup> clap their hands at him, and shall hiss him out of his place.

C H A P. XXVIII.

1 There is a knowledge of natural things: 12 But wisdom is an excellent gift of God.

SURELY there is a vein for the silver, and a place for gold where they<sup>z</sup> fine it.

2 Iron is taken out of the earth, and<sup>a</sup> brass is molten out of the stone.

3 He setteth<sup>b</sup> an end to darkness, and searcheth out all<sup>c</sup> perfection: the stones of darkness, and the shadow of death.

4 The flood breaketh out from the inhabitant; even the waters forgotten of the foot: they are dried up, they are gone away from men.

5 As for the earth, out of it cometh<sup>d</sup> bread; <sup>e</sup> and under it is turned up as it were fire.

6 The stones of it are the place of<sup>f</sup> sapphires; <sup>g</sup> and it hath dust of gold.

7 There is<sup>h</sup> a path which no fowl knoweth, and which the vulture's eye hath not seen:

8 The lion's whelps have not trodden it, nor the fierce lion passed by it.

9 He putteth forth his hand upon the rock;
he overturneth the mountains by the roots.

10 He<sup>i</sup> cutteth out rivers among the rocks;
and his eye<sup>j</sup> seeth every precious thing.

11 He bindeth the floods from overflowing; and the thing that is<sup>k</sup> hid bringeth he forth to light.

12 But<sup>l</sup> where shall wisdom be found? and where is the<sup>m</sup> place of understanding?

13 Man knoweth not the price thereof; neither is it found in the<sup>n</sup> land of the living.

14 The<sup>o</sup> depth saith, It is not in me: and the sea saith, It is not with me.

15 It cannot be gotten for<sup>p</sup> gold, neither shall silver be weighed for the price thereof.

16 It cannot be valued with the gold of Ophir, with the precious<sup>q</sup> onyx, or the sapphire.

17 The gold and the crystal cannot equal it: and the exchange of it shall not be for<sup>r</sup> jewels of fine gold.

18 No mention shall be made of coral, or of pearls: for the price of wisdom is above rubies.

19 The topaz of Ethiopia shall not equal it, neither shall it be valued with pure gold.

20 Whence then cometh wisdom? and where is the place of understanding?

21 Seeing it is<sup>s</sup> hid from the eyes of all living, and kept close from the fowls of the air.

22 Destruction and death say, We have heard the fame thereof with our ears.

23 God understandeth the way thereof, and he knoweth the place thereof.

24 For he looketh to the ends of the earth, and<sup>t</sup> seeth under the whole heaven;

25 To make the<sup>u</sup> weight for the winds, and he weigheth the waters by measure.

26 When he made<sup>v</sup> a decree for the rain, and

C H A P. XXIX.

Job bemoaneth himself of his former prosperity and honour.

and said,

2 Oh that I were as in <sup>b</sup> months past, as in the days when God preserved me;

3 When his candle shined upon my head, and when by his light I walked through <sup>c</sup> darkness;

4 As I was in the days of my youth, when the <sup>d</sup> secret of God was upon my tabernacle;

5 When the Almighty was yet <sup>e</sup> with me, when my children were about me;

6 When I <sup>f</sup> washed my steps with butter, and <sup>g</sup> the rock poured me out rivers of oil;

7 When I <sup>h</sup> went out to the gate, through the city, when I prepared my seat in the street;

8 The young men saw me, and <sup>i</sup> hid themselves: and the aged arose, and stood up.

9 The princes <sup>k</sup> refrained talking, and <sup>l</sup> laid their hand on their mouth.

10 The nobles held their peace, and their tongue cleaved to the roof of their mouth.

11 When the ear heard me, then it <sup>m</sup> blessed me;
and when the eye saw me, <sup>n</sup> it gave witness to me:

12 Because I delivered the poor that cried, and the fatherless, and him that had <sup>o</sup> none to help him.

13 <sup>p</sup> The blessing of him that <sup>q</sup> was ready to perish came upon me: and I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy.

14 <sup>r</sup> I put on righteousness, and it clothed me: my judgment was as a robe and a diadem.

15 I was <sup>s</sup> eyes to the blind, and <sup>t</sup> feet was I to the lame.

16 I was a father to the poor: and the cause which I knew not <sup>u</sup> I searched out.

17 And I brake the <sup>v</sup> jaws of the wicked, and plucked the spoil out of his teeth.

18 Then <sup>w</sup> I said, I shall die in my <sup>x</sup> nest, and I shall multiply my days as the sand.

19 My root was spread out <sup>y</sup> by the waters, and the dew lay all night upon my branch.

20 My <sup>z</sup> glory was fresh in me, and my bow was <sup>a</sup> renewed in my hand.

21 Unto me men gave ear, and <sup>b</sup> waited, and kept silence at <sup>c</sup> my counsel.

22 <sup>d</sup> After my words they spake not again;
and my speech dropped upon them.

23 And they waited for me <sup>e</sup> as for the rain; and they opened their mouth wide as for the latter rain.

24 If I <sup>f</sup> laughed on them, they <sup>g</sup> believed it not; and the light of my countenance they cast not down.

25 I chose out their way, and sat chief, and dwelt as a king in the army, as one that com-forteth the mourners.

C H A P. XXX.

1 Job's honour is turned into extreme contempt;
his prosperity into calamity.

BUT now they that are younger than I <sup>a</sup> have me in derision, whose fathers I would have disdained to have set with the dogs of my flock.

2 Yea, whereto might the <sup>b</sup> strength of their hands profit me, in whom old age was perished?

3 For <sup>c</sup> want and famine they were <sup>d</sup> solitary; fleeing into the wilderness in former time desolate and waste:

4 Who cut up <sup>e</sup> mallows by the bushes, and juniper-roots for their <sup>f</sup> meat.

5 They were <sup>g</sup> driven forth from among men,
(they cried after them as after a thief,)

6 To dwell in the cliffs of the valleys, in caves of the earth, and in the rocks.

7 Among the bushes they <sup>h</sup> brayed; under the nettles they were gathered together.

8 They were children of fools, yea, children of base men; they were viler than the earth.

9 And now am I their <sup>i</sup> song; yea, I am their by-word.

10 They abhor me, they <sup>k</sup> flee far from me, and spare not to <sup>l</sup> spit in my face.

11 Because he hath loosed my cord, and <sup>m</sup> afflicted me, they have also let loose the bridle before me.

12 Upon my <sup>n</sup> right hand rise the youth; they push away my feet, and they raise up against me the ways of their destruction.

13 They <sup>o</sup> mar my path, they <sup>p</sup> set forward my calamity, they have <sup>q</sup> no helper.

14 They <sup>r</sup> came upon me as a wide breaking-in of waters: in the desolation they rolled themselves upon me.

15 <sup>s</sup> Terrors are turned upon me: they pursue my soul as the wind; and my welfare passeth away as a cloud.

16 And now my soul is <sup>t</sup> poured out upon me:
the days of affliction have taken hold upon me.

17 My bones are pierced in me in <sup>u</sup> the night-season; and my sinews <sup>v</sup> take no rest.

18 By the great force of my disease is my garment changed: it bindeth me about as the collar of my coat.

19 He hath cast me into the <sup>w</sup> mire, and I am become like dust and ashes.

20 I cry unto thee, and thou dost not hear me: I <sup>x</sup> stand up, and thou <sup>y</sup> regardest me not.

21 Thou art become <sup>z</sup> cruel to me: with thy strong hand thou opposest thyself against me.

22 Thou liftest me up to the wind; thou causest me to ride upon it, and dissolvest my <sup>a</sup> substance.

23 For I know that thou wilt bring me to death, and to the <sup>b</sup> house appointed for all living.

24 Howbeit he will not <sup>c</sup> stretch out his hand to the grave, though they cry in his destruction.

25 Did not <sup>d</sup> I weep for him that was in trouble? was not my soul grieved for the poor?

26 When <sup>e</sup> I looked for good, then evil came unto me; and when I waited for light, there came darkness.

27 My <sup>f</sup> bowels boiled, and rested not; the days of affliction <sup>g</sup> prevented me.

28 I went <sup>h</sup> mourning without the sun: I stood up, and I cried in the congregation.

29 I am <sup>i</sup> a brother to dragons, and a companion to owls.

C H A P. XXXI.

Job maketh a solemn protestation of his integrity in several duties.

I MADE a covenant with <sup>a</sup> mine eyes; why then should I <sup>b</sup> think upon a maid?

2 For what <sup>c</sup> portion of God is there from above? and what inheritance of the Almighty from on high?

3 Is not destruction to the wicked? and <sup>d</sup> a strange punishment to the workers of iniquity?

4 Doth not he, <sup>e</sup> see my ways, and count all my steps?

5 If I have <sup>f</sup> walked with vanity, or if my <sup>g</sup> foot hath hastened to deceit;

6 Let me be <sup>h</sup> weighed in an even balance, that God <sup>i</sup> may know mine integrity.

7 If my step hath turned out of the way, and <sup>k</sup> mine heart walked after mine eyes, and if any blot hath cleaved to my hands;

8 Then let me <sup>l</sup> sow, and let another eat; yea, let my offspring be rooted out.

9 If mine heart have been deceived <sup>m</sup> by a woman; or if I have <sup>n</sup> laid wait at my neighbour's door;

10 Then let my wife grind unto another, and let <sup>o</sup> others bow down upon her.

11 For this is an heinous crime; yea, it is an iniquity to be punished by the <sup>p</sup> judges.

12 For it is a fire that consumeth to destruction, and would <sup>q</sup> root out all mine increase.

13 If I did <sup>r</sup> despise the cause of my manservant, or of my maid-servant, when they contended with me;

14 What then shall I do when God riseth up? and, when he <sup>s</sup> visiteth, what shall I answer him?

15 Did not he that made me in the womb make <sup>t</sup> him? and did not one fashion us in the womb?

16 If I have withheld the poor from their <sup>u</sup> desire, or have caused the eyes of the widow to fail;

17 Or have <sup>x</sup> eaten my morsel myself alone, and the fatherless hath not eaten thereof;

18 (For from my <sup>y</sup> youth he was brought up with me, as with a father, and I have guided <sup>z</sup> her from my mother's womb;)

19 If I have seen any <sup>a</sup> perish for want of clothing, or any poor without covering;

20 If his loins have not <sup>b</sup> blessed me, and if he were not warmed with the fleece of my sheep;

21 If I have <sup>c</sup> lifted up my hand against the fatherless, when I saw my help in <sup>d</sup> the gate;

22 <sup>e</sup> Then let mine arm fall from my shoulder-blade, and mine arm be broken from the bone.

23 For <sup>f</sup> destruction from God was a <sup>g</sup> terror to me, and by reason of his highness I could not endure.

24 If I have made gold my hope, or have said to the fine gold, Thou art my confidence;

25 If I <sup>h</sup> rejoiced because my wealth was great, and because mine hand had gotten much;

26 If I <sup>k</sup> beheld the sun when it shined, or the moon walking in brightness,

27 And <sup>l</sup> my heart hath been secretly enticed, or my mouth hath <sup>m</sup> kissed my hand:

28 This also were an iniquity <sup>n</sup> to be punished by the judge: for I should have <sup>o</sup> denied the God that is above.

29 If I rejoiced at the destruction of him that <sup>p</sup> hated me, or lifted up myself when evil found him;

30 (Neither have I suffered my mouth to sin, by wishing <sup>q</sup> a curse to his soul;)

31 If the men of my tabernacle said not, Oh that we had of <sup>r</sup> his flesh! we cannot be satisfied.

32 (The <sup>s</sup> stranger did not lodge in the street; but I opened my doors to the traveller;)

33 If I covered my transgressions <sup>t</sup> as Adam, by hiding mine iniquity in my bosom;

34 (Did I fear a great multitude, or did the <sup>u</sup> contempt of families terrify me, that I <sup>x</sup> kept silence, and went not out of the door?)

35 Oh that one would hear me! behold, my desire is that the Almighty would <sup>y</sup> answer me, and that mine adversary had written a book:

36 Surely I would take it upon my shoulder, and bind it as <sup>z</sup> a crown to me.

37 I would <sup>a</sup> declare unto him the number of my steps; as a prince would I <sup>b</sup> go near unto him.)

38 If my land <sup>c</sup> cry against me, or that the furrows likewise thereof complain;

39 If I have <sup>d</sup> eaten the fruits thereof without money, or have caused the owners thereof to lose their life;

40 Let thistles grow instead of wheat, and cockle instead of barley. The words of Job <sup>e</sup> are ended.

C H A P. XXXII.

1 Elihu is angry with Job and his three friends. 9 Because wisdom cometh not from age, he excuseth the boldness of his youth. 11 He reproveth them for not satisfying of Job. 16 His zeal to speak.

SO these three men <sup>a</sup> ceased to answer Job, because he was <sup>b</sup> righteous in his own eyes.

2 Then was <sup>c</sup> kindled the wrath of Elihu, the son of Barachel the <sup>d</sup> Buzite, of the kindred of Ram; against Job was his wrath kindled, because he justified <sup>e</sup> himself rather than God.

3 Also against his three friends was his wrath kindled, because they had found no answer, and yet had <sup>f</sup> condemned Job.

4 Now Elihu had waited till Job had spoken, because they were <sup>g</sup> elder than he.

5 When Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, then his wrath was kindled.

6 And Elihu, the son of Barachel the Buzite, answered and said, I am young, and ye are very old; wherefore I was <sup>h</sup> afraid, and durst not shew you mine opinion.

7 I said, <sup>i</sup> Days should speak, and multitude of years should teach <sup>k</sup> wisdom.

8 But there is <sup>l</sup> a spirit in man; and the <sup>m</sup> inspiration of the Almighty giveth them understanding.

10 Therefore I said, Harken to me; I also will shew mine opinion.

11 Behold, I waited for your words; I gave ear to your reasons, whilst you searched out what to say.

12 Yea, <sup>p</sup> I attended unto you; and, behold, there was none of you that <sup>a</sup> convinced Job, or that <sup>r</sup> answered his words:

13 <sup>a</sup> Lest ye should say, <sup>t</sup> We have found out wisdom: <sup>a</sup> God thrusteth him down, not man.

14 Now, he hath not directed his words against me; neither will I answer him with your speeches.

15 They were <sup>a</sup> amazed; they answered no more; they <sup>v</sup> left off speaking.

16 When I had waited, (for they spake not, but stood still, and answered no more,)

17 I said, I will answer also my part; I also will shew mine opinion.

18 For I am full of matter; the spirit within me <sup>a</sup> constraineth me.

19 Behold, my belly is as wine which hath no vent; it is ready to burst like <sup>b</sup> new bottles.

20 I will speak, that I may be refreshed: I will <sup>c</sup> open my lips, and answer.

21 Let me not, I pray you, <sup>d</sup> accept any man's person; neither let me give <sup>e</sup> flattering titles unto man.

22 For <sup>f</sup> I know not to give flattering titles; in so doing my Maker would soon <sup>g</sup> take me away.

C H A P. XXXIII.

1 Elihu offereth himself instead of God, with sincerity and meekness, to reason with Job: 8 He excuseth God from giving man an account of his ways by his greatness. 14 God calleth man to repentance by visions, 19 by afflictions, 23 and by his ministry: 31 He inciteth Job to attention.

WHEREFORE, Job, I pray thee, hear my speeches, and hearken <sup>a</sup> to all my words. 2 Behold, now I have <sup>b</sup> opened my mouth, my tongue hath spoken in my mouth.

3 My words shall be of the <sup>c</sup> uprightness of my heart; and my lips shall utter knowledge clearly.

4 The <sup>d</sup> Spirit of God hath made me, and the breath of the Almighty hath given me life.

5 If thou canst answer me, set thy words in order before me, stand up;

6 Behold, I am according to thy wish <sup>e</sup> in God's stead; I also am formed out of the clay.

7 Behold, <sup>f</sup> my terror shall not make thee afraid, neither shall my hand be heavy upon thee.

8 Surely thou hast spoken in mine <sup>g</sup> hearing, and I have heard the voice of thy words, saying,

9 I am <sup>h</sup> clean without transgression, I am innocent; neither is there iniquity in me.

10 Behold, he <sup>i</sup> findeth occasions against me, he <sup>j</sup> counteth me for his enemy;

11 He putteth <sup>k</sup> my feet in the stocks, he <sup>l</sup> marketh all my paths.

12 Behold, <sup>m</sup> in this thou art not just: I will answer thee, that God is <sup>n</sup> greater than man.

13 Why dost thou <sup>o</sup> strive against him? for he <sup>p</sup> giveth not account of any of his matters.

14 For God <sup>q</sup> speaketh once, yea, twice, yet man <sup>r</sup> perceiveth it not.

15 In <sup>s</sup> a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falleth upon men, in slumberings upon the bed,

16 Then he <sup>t</sup> openeth the ears of men, and <sup>u</sup> sealeth their instruction, 17 That he may <sup>v</sup> withdraw man from his purpose, and hide <sup>w</sup> pride from man.

18 He keepeth back his soul from the pit, and his life from <sup>x</sup> perishing by the sword.

19 He is <sup>y</sup> chastened also with pain upon his bed, and the multitude of his bones with strong pain:

20 So that his life <sup>z</sup> abhorreth bread, and his soul dainty meat.

21 His flesh is <sup>a</sup> consumed away, that it cannot be seen; and his bones that were not seen <sup>b</sup> stick out.

22 His soul draweth near unto the grave, and his life to the <sup>c</sup> destroyers.

23 If there be <sup>d</sup> a messenger with him, an <sup>e</sup> interpreter, one among a thousand, to shew unto man his <sup>f</sup> uprightness;

24 Then he is gracious unto him, and saith, Deliver him from going down to the pit; I have found a ransom.

25 His flesh shall be fresher than a child's: he shall return <sup>g</sup> to the days of his youth:

26 He shall <sup>h</sup> pray unto God, and he will be favourable unto him; and he shall <sup>i</sup> see his face with joy: for he will render unto man his righteousness.

27 He looketh upon men; and if any say, <sup>j</sup> O I have sinned, and perverted that which was right, and it <sup>k</sup> profited me not;

28 He will deliver his soul from going into the <sup>l</sup> pit, and his life shall see the light.

29 Lo, all these things worketh God <sup>m</sup> oftentimes with man, 30 <sup>n</sup> To bring back his soul from the pit, to be enlightened with the light of the living.

31 Mark well, O Job; hearken unto me: hold thy peace, and I will speak.

32 If thou hast any thing to say, <sup>o</sup> answer me: I speak; for I desire to justify thee.

33 If not, <sup>p</sup> hearken unto me: hold thy peace, and I shall teach thee <sup>q</sup> wisdom.

C H A P. XXXIV.

4 Let us choose to us judgment: let us know among ourselves what <sup>d</sup> is good.

8 Which <sup>k</sup> goeth in company with the workers of iniquity, and walketh with wicked men ?

9 For he hath <sup>l</sup> said, It profiteth a man <sup>m</sup> nothing that he should delight himself with God.

10 Therefore hearken unto me, ye men of understanding : Far be it from God, that he should do <sup>n</sup> wickedness ; and from the Almighty, that he should commit iniquity.

11 For the work of a man shall he <sup>o</sup> render unto him, and cause every man to <sup>p</sup> find according to his ways.

12 Yea, surely God will not do wickedly, neither will the Almighty <sup>q</sup> pervert judgment.

13 Who hath <sup>r</sup> given him a charge over the earth ? or who hath <sup>s</sup> disposed the whole world ?

14 If he set his heart upon man, if he <sup>t</sup> gather unto himself his spirit and his breath ;

15 All flesh shall perish together, and man shall turn again unto <sup>u</sup> dust.

16 If now thou hast <sup>x</sup> understanding, hear this ; hearken to the voice of my words :

17 Shall even he that hateth right <sup>y</sup> govern ? and wilt thou condemn him that is most just ?

18 Is it fit to say to a king, Thou art <sup>z</sup> wicked ? and to princes, Ye are ungodly ?

19 How much less to him that <sup>a</sup> accepteth not the persons of princes, nor regardeth the rich more than the poor ? for they all are the work of his hands.

20 <sup>b</sup> In a moment shall they die, and the people shall be troubled <sup>c</sup> at midnight, and pass away : and the mighty shall be taken away <sup>d</sup> without hand.

21 For <sup>e</sup> his eyes are upon the ways of man, and he seeth all his goings.

22 There is <sup>f</sup> no darkness, nor shadow of death, where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves.

23 For he will not lay upon man <sup>g</sup> more than right, that he should enter into judgment with God.

24 He shall <sup>h</sup> break in pieces mighty men without number, and <sup>i</sup> set others in their stead.

25 Therefore he <sup>k</sup> knoweth their works, and he overturneth them in the night, so that they are <sup>l</sup> destroyed.

26 He striketh them as wicked men in the <sup>m</sup> open sight of others ;

27 Because they <sup>n</sup> turned back from him, and would not consider any of his ways :

28 So that they cause the <sup>o</sup> cry of the poor to come unto him, and <sup>p</sup> he heareth the cry of the afflicted.

29 When he giveth <sup>q</sup> quietness, who then can make trouble ? and when he hideth his face, who then can behold him ? whether it be done against a nation, or against a man only :

30 That the hypocrite reign not, lest the people be <sup>r</sup> ensnared.

31 Surely it is meet to be said unto God, I have <sup>s</sup> borne chastisement, I will <sup>t</sup> not offend any more :

32 That which <sup>u</sup> I see not, teach thou me : if I have done iniquity, I will do <sup>v</sup> no more.

ELIHU spake moreover, and said,
2 Thinkest thou this to be right, that thou saidst, My righteousness, is <sup>b</sup> more than God's ?
3 For thou saidst, What advantage will it be unto thee ? and, What profit shall I have, if I be cleansed from my sin ?

4 I will <sup>d</sup> answer thee, and thy companions with thee.

5 <sup>e</sup> Look unto the heavens, and see ; and behold the clouds, which <sup>f</sup> are higher than thou.

6 If thou sinnest, what doest thou <sup>g</sup> against him ? or if thy transgressions be multiplied, what doest thou unto him ?

7 If thou be righteous, what <sup>h</sup> givest thou him ? or what <sup>i</sup> receiveth he of thine hand ?

8 Thy wickedness may <sup>k</sup> hurt a man as thou art, and thy righteousness may <sup>l</sup> profit the son of man.

9 By reason of the multitude of oppressions they make the oppressed to <sup>m</sup> cry ; they cry out by reason of the arm of the mighty :

10 But none saith, Where is God my <sup>n</sup> Maker, who giveth <sup>o</sup> songs in the night ;

11 Who <sup>p</sup> teacheth us more than the beasts of the earth, and maketh us wiser than the fowls of heaven ?

12 There they cry, but <sup>q</sup> none giveth answer, because of the pride of evil men.

13 Surely God will not hear vanity, neither will the Almighty <sup>r</sup> regard it.

14 Although thou sayest thou shalt <sup>s</sup> not see him, yet <sup>t</sup> judgment is before him ; therefore trust thou in him.

15 But now, because it is not so, he hath visited in his anger ; yet he knoweth it not in great extremity :

16 Therefore doth Job open his mouth <sup>u</sup> in vain : he multiplieth words without knowledge.

C H A P. XXXVI.

1 Elihu sheweth how God is just in his ways, 16 how Job's sins hinder God's blessings. 24 God's works are to be magnified.

ELIHU also proceeded, and said,
2 Suffer me a little, and I will shew thee that I have yet to speak on <sup>a</sup> God's behalf.

3 I will fetch my knowledge from <sup>b</sup> afar, and will <sup>c</sup> ascribe righteousness to my Maker.

4 For truly my words shall not be <sup>d</sup> false : he that is perfect in knowledge <sup>e</sup> is with thee.

5 Behold, God is mighty, <sup>e</sup> and despiseth not any: he is mighty in strength and wisdom.

6 He <sup>e</sup> preserveth not the life of the wicked: but giveth <sup>h</sup> right to the poor.

7 He withdraweth not <sup>i</sup> his eyes from the righteous: but with kings <sup>are</sup> they on the throne; yea, he doth establish them for ever, and they are exalted.

8 And if <sup>they</sup> be bound in <sup>i</sup> fetters, and be holden in cords of affliction;

9 Then he sheweth them their <sup>m</sup> work, and their transgressions that they have exceeded.

10 He <sup>n</sup> openeth also their ear to discipline, and commandeth that they return from iniquity.

11 If they obey and serve <sup>him</sup>, they shall spend their days in <sup>o</sup> prosperity, and their years in pleasures:

12 But if they obey not, they shall <sup>p</sup> perish by the sword, and they shall die without knowledge.

13 But the <sup>q</sup> hypocrites in heart <sup>r</sup> heap up wrath; they cry not when he bindeth them:

14 They <sup>s</sup> die in youth, and their life is among the <sup>t</sup> unclean.

15 He delivereth the <sup>u</sup> poor in his affliction, and openeth their ears in oppression:

16 Even so would he have removed thee out of the strait into <sup>x</sup> a broad place, where <sup>there is</sup> no straitness; and that which should be set on thy table <sup>should be</sup> <sup>y</sup> full of fatness.

17 But thou hast <sup>z</sup> fulfilled the judgment of the wicked: judgment and justice <sup>a</sup> take hold on thee.

18 Because <sup>there is</sup> wrath, beware lest he take thee away with his stroke: then a <sup>b</sup> great ransom cannot deliver thee.

19 Will he esteem thy <sup>c</sup> riches? no, not gold, nor all the forces of strength.

20 Desire not the <sup>d</sup> night, when people are cut off in their place.

21 Take heed, <sup>e</sup> regard not iniquity: for this hast thou chosen <sup>f</sup> rather than affliction.

22 Behold, God exalteth by his power: who <sup>g</sup> teacheth like him?

23 Who hath <sup>h</sup> enjoined him his way? or who can say, Thou hast <sup>i</sup> wrought iniquity?

24 Remember that thou <sup>k</sup> magnify his work, which men behold.

25 Every man may <sup>l</sup> see it; man may behold it afar off.

26 Behold, God is great, and <sup>m</sup> we know him not; neither can <sup>n</sup> the number of his years be searched out.

27 For he maketh <sup>o</sup> small the drops of water: they pour down rain according to the vapour thereof, 28 Which the clouds do drop and distil upon man <sup>p</sup> abundantly.

29 Also can <sup>any</sup> understand the <sup>q</sup> spreadings of the clouds, or the <sup>r</sup> noise of his tabernacle?

30 Behold, he <sup>s</sup> spreadeth his light upon it, and covereth the bottom of the sea.

31 For by them <sup>t</sup> judgeth he the people; he giveth <sup>u</sup> meat in abundance.

32 With <sup>x</sup> clouds he covereth the light; and commandeth it not to shine, by the cloud that cometh betwixt.

33 The noise thereof sheweth concerning it, the cattle also concerning the vapour.

C H A P. XXXVIII.

1 God challengeth Job to answer. A God, by his mighty works, convinceth Job of ignorance, 31 and of imbecility.

THIEN THE LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind, and said,

2 Who is this that darkeneth counsel by words without knowledge?

3 Gird up now thy loins like a man; for I will demand of thee, and answer thou me.

4 Where wast thou when I laid the foundations of the earth? declare, if thou hast understanding.

5 Who hath laid the measures thereof, if thou knowest? or who hath stretched the line upon it?

6 Whereupon are the foundations thereof fastened? or who laid the corner-stone thereof,

7 When the morning-stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy?

8 Or who shut up the sea with doors, when it brake forth as if it had issued out of the womb?

9 When I made the cloud the garment thereof, and thick darkness a swaddling-band for it,

10 And brake up for it my decreed place, and set bars and doors,

11 And said, Hitherto shalt thou come, but no further; and here shall thy proud waves be stayed?

12 Hast thou commanded the morning since thy days; and caused the day-spring to know his place;

13 That it might take hold of the ends of the earth, that the wicked might be shaken out of it?

14 It is turned as clay to the seal; and they stand as a garment.

15 And from the wicked their light is withholden, and the high arm shall be broken.

16 Hast thou entered into the springs of the sea? or hast thou walked in the search of the depth?

17 Have the gates of death been opened unto thee? or hast thou seen the doors of the shadow of death?

18 Hast thou perceived the breadth of the earth? declare, if thou knowest it all.

19 Where is the way where light dwelleth? and as for darkness, where is the place thereof, 20 That thou shouldest take it to the bound thereof, and that thou shouldest know the paths to the house thereof?

21 Knowest thou it, because thou wast then born? or because the number of thy days is great?

22 Hast thou entered into the treasures of the snow, or hast thou seen the treasures of the hail, 23 Which I have reserved against the time of trouble, against the day of battle and war?

24 By what way is the light parted, which scattereth the east wind upon the earth?

25 Who hath divided a water-course for the overflowing of waters; or a way for the lightning of thunder;

26 To cause it to rain on the earth, where no man is; on the wilderness, wherein there is no man;

27 To satisfy the desolate and waste ground, and to cause the bud of the tender herb to spring forth?

28 Hath the rain a father? or who hath begotten the drops of dew?

29 Out of whose womb came the ice? and the hoary frost of heaven, who hath gendered it?

30 The waters are hid as with a stone, and the face of the deep is frozen.

31 Canst thou bind the sweet influences of Pleiades, or loose the bands of Orion?

32 Canst thou bring forth Mazzaroth in his season? or canst thou guide Arcturus with his sons?

33 Knowest thou the ordinances of heaven? canst thou set the dominion thereof in the earth?

34 Canst thou lift up thy voice to the clouds, that abundance of waters may cover thee?

35 Canst thou send lightnings, that they may go, and say unto thee, Here we are?

36 Who hath put wisdom in the inward parts? or who hath given understanding to the heart?

37 Who can number the clouds in wisdom? or who can stay the bottles of heaven, 38 When the dust groweth into hardness, and the clods cleave fast together?

39 Wilt thou hunt the prey for the lion? or fill the appetite of the young lions, 40 When they couch in their dens, and abide in the covert to lie in wait?

41 Who provideth for the raven his food? when his young ones cry unto God, they wander for lack of meat.

C H A P. XXXIX.

1 Of the wild goats and hinds. 5 Of the wild ass, 9 the unicorn, 13 the peacock, stork, and ostrich, 19 the horse, 26 the hawk, 27 the eagle.

KNOWEST thou the time when the wild goats of the rock bring forth? or canst thou mark when the hinds do calve?

2 Canst thou number the months that they fulfil; or knowest thou the time when they bring forth?

3 They bow themselves, they bring forth their young ones, they cast out their sorrows.

4 Their young ones are in good liking, they grow up with corn; they go forth, and return not unto them.

5 Who hath sent out the wild ass free? or who hath loosed the bands of the wild ass?

6 Whose house I have made the wilderness, and the barren land his dwellings.

7 He scorneth the multitude of the city, neither regardeth he the crying of the driver.

8 The range of the mountains is his pasture, and he searcheth after every green thing.

9 Will the unicorn be willing to serve thee, or abide by thy crib?

C H A P. XL.

1 Job humbleth himself to God. 6 God stirreth him up to shew his righteousness, power, and wisdom.

15 Of the behemoth.
MOREOVER, the Lord answered Job, and said,

2 Shall he that contendeth with the Almighty instruct him? he that reproveth God, let him answer it.

3 ¶ Then Job answered the Lord, and said,

4 Behold, I am vile; what shall I answer thee? I will lay my hand upon my mouth.

5 Once have I spoken, but I will not answer; yea, twice; but I will proceed no further.

6 ¶ Then answered the Lord unto Job out of the whirlwind, and said,

7 Gird up thy loins now like a man; I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.

8 Wilt thou also disannul my judgment?

wilt thou condemn me, that thou mayest be righteous?

9 Hast thou an arm like God? or canst thou thunder with a voice like him?

10 Deck thyself now with majesty and excellency; and array thyself with glory and beauty.

11 Cast abroad the rage of thy wrath; and behold every one that is proud, and abase him.

12 Look on every one that is proud, and bring him low; and tread down the wicked in their place.

13 Hide them in the dust together, and bind their faces in secret.

14 Then will I also confess unto thee that thine own right hand can save thee.

15 Behold now behemoth, which I made with thee; he eateth grass as an ox.

16 Lo now, his strength is in his loins, and his force is in the navel of his belly.

17 He moveth his tail like a cedar: the sinews of his stones are wrapped together.

18 His bones are as strong pieces of brass; his bones are like bars of iron.

19 He is the chief of the ways of God: he that made him can make his sword to approach unto him.

20 Surely the mountains bring him forth food, where all the beasts of the field play.

21 He lieth under the shady trees, in the covert of the reed, and fens.

22 The shady trees cover him with their shadow; the willows of the brook compass him about.

23 Behold, he drinketh up a river, and hasteth not: he trusteth that he can draw up Jordan into his mouth.

24 He taketh it with his eyes: his nose pierceth through snares.

C H A P. XLI.

Of God's great power in the leviathan.

CANST thou draw out leviathan with an hook? or his tongue with a cord which thou lettest down?

2 Canst thou put an hook into his nose? or bore his jaw through with a thorn?

3 Will he make many supplications unto thee? will he speak soft words unto thee?

4 Will he make a covenant with thee? wilt thou take him for a servant for ever?

5 Wilt thou play with him as with a bird? wilt thou bind him for thy maidens?

6 Shall thy companions make a banquet of him? shall they part him among the merchants?

7 Canst thou fill his skin with barbed irons? or his head with fish-spears?

8 Lay thine hand upon him, remember the battle, do no more.

9 Behold, the hope of him is in vain: shall not one be cast down even at the sight of him?

10 None is so fierce that dare stir him up; who then is able to stand before me?

11 Who hath prevented me, that I should repay him? whatsoever is under the whole heaven is mine.

1 David encourageth himself in God against his enemies. 4 The providence and justice of God.

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

IN the LORD put I my <sup>a</sup> trust: how say ye to my soul, Flee as a bird to your <sup>b</sup> mountain?

2 For, lo, the wicked <sup>a</sup> bend their bow, they make ready their arrow upon the string, that they may privily shoot at the upright in heart.

3 If the <sup>a</sup> foundations be destroyed, what can the righteous do?

5 The LORD trieth the righteous: but the wicked, and him that loveth violence, his soul <sup>a</sup> hateth.

7 For the righteous LORD loveth <sup>a</sup> righteousness; his countenance doth behold the upright.

1 David, destitute of human comfort, craveth help of God: 3 He comforteth himself with God's judgments on the wicked, and confidence in God's tried promises.

To the chief Musician upon Sheminith.

A Psalm of David.

HELP, LORD; for the <sup>a</sup> godly man ceaseth; for the faithful fail from among the children of men.

2 They speak vanity every one with his neighbour: with <sup>b</sup> flattering lips, and with a double heart, do they speak.

3 The LORD shall cut off all flattering lips, and the tongue that speaketh <sup>a</sup> proud things;

4 Who have said, With our tongue will we <sup>a</sup> prevail; our lips are <sup>a</sup> our own: who <sup>a</sup> is lord over us?

5 For the oppression of the poor, for the sighing of the needy, <sup>a</sup> now will I arise, saith the LORD; I will set him in safety from him that puffeth at him.

6 The words of the LORD are <sup>a</sup> pure words; as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times.

7 Thou shalt keep them; O LORD; thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever.

1 David complaineth of delay in help: 3 He prayeth for preventing grace: 5 He boasteth of divine mercy.

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

HOW long wilt thou forget me, O LORD! for ever? how long wilt thou <sup>a</sup> hide thy face from me?

2 How long shall I take <sup>b</sup> counsel in my soul, having sorrow in my heart daily? how long shall mine enemy be exalted over me?

3 Consider and hear me, O LORD my God; lighten mine eyes, lest I sleep the sleep of death;

4 Lest mine enemy say, I have <sup>a</sup> prevailed against him; and those that trouble me rejoice when I am moved.

5 But I have <sup>a</sup> trusted in thy mercy; my heart shall rejoice in thy salvation.

6 I will sing unto the LORD, <sup>a</sup> because he hath dealt bountifully with me.

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

THE fool hath said <sup>a</sup> in his heart, There is no God: They are corrupt; they have done abominable works; there is none that doeth good.

2 The LORD <sup>b</sup> looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, and <sup>c</sup> seek God.

3 They are <sup>a</sup> all gone aside, they are <sup>a</sup> all together become filthy; there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

4 Have all the workers of iniquity <sup>a</sup> no knowledge? who eat up my people as they eat bread, and call not upon the LORD.

5 There were they in <sup>a</sup> great fear: for God is in the generation of the righteous.

6 You have <sup>a</sup> shamed the counsel of the poor; because the LORD is his refuge.

7 Oh that the salvation of Israel were come out of Zion! When the LORD bringeth back the <sup>a</sup> captivity of his people, Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

A Psalm of David.

LORD, who shall abide in thy tabernacle? who shall dwell in thy <sup>a</sup> holy hill?

2 He that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousness, and <sup>b</sup> speaketh the truth in his heart.

3 He that <sup>a</sup> backbiteth not with his tongue, nor doeth evil to his neighbour, nor taketh up a reproach against his neighbour.

4 In whose eyes <sup>a</sup> a vile person is contemned; but he honoureth them that fear the LORD. He that sweareth to his own hurt, and changeth not.

P S A L. XVIII.

David praiseth God for his manifold and marvellous blessings.

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David, the <sup>a</sup> servant of the LORD, who spake unto the LORD the words of this <sup>b</sup> song in the day that the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of <sup>c</sup> Saul: and he said,

I WILL <sup>d</sup> love thee, O LORD, my strength. 2 The LORD is my <sup>e</sup> rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, my strength, in whom I will trust; my buckler, and the <sup>f</sup> horn of my salvation, and my high tower.

3 I will call upon the LORD, who is <sup>g</sup> worthy to be praised: so shall I be saved from mine enemies.

4 The <sup>h</sup> sorrows of death compassed me, and the <sup>i</sup> floods of ungodly men made me afraid.

5 The sorrows of hell compassed me about; the <sup>k</sup> snares of death prevented me.

6 In my distress I called upon the LORD, and <sup>l</sup> cried unto my God: he heard my voice out of his temple, and my cry came before him, even into his ears.

7 Then the <sup>m</sup> earth shook and trembled; the foundations also of the hills moved and were shaken, because he was <sup>n</sup> wroth.

8 There went up <sup>o</sup> a smoke out of his nostrils, and fire out of his mouth devoured: coals were kindled by it.

9 <sup>p</sup> He bowed the heavens also, and came down: and darkness was under his feet.

10 And he rode upon <sup>q</sup> a cherub, and did fly; yea, he did fly upon the wings of the wind.

11 He made darkness his secret place: his pavilion round about him were dark waters and thick clouds of the skies.

12 At the brightness that was before him his thick clouds passed; hail-stones and coals of fire.

13 The LORD also <sup>r</sup> thundered in the heavens, and the Highest gave his voice; hail-stones and coals of fire.

14 Yea, he sent out his <sup>s</sup> arrows, and scattered them; and he shot out lightnings, and <sup>t</sup> discomfited them.

15 Then the channels of waters were seen, and the foundations of the world were discovered at thy rebuke, O LORD, at the <sup>u</sup> blast of the breath of thy nostrils.

16 He sent from above, he took me, he drew me out of <sup>x</sup> many waters.

17 He delivered me from my <sup>y</sup> strong enemy, and from them which hated me: for they were too strong for me.

27 For thou wilt save the afflicted people ; but wilt bring down <sup>g</sup> high looks.

28 For thou wilt <sup>h</sup> light my candle ; the LORD my God will enlighten my darkness.

31 For <sup>k</sup> who is God save the LORD ? or who is a rock save our God ?

32 It is God that girdeth me with strength, and maketh my way perfect.

33 He maketh my feet like <sup>l</sup> hinds' feet, and setteth me upon my high places.

34 He <sup>m</sup> teacheth my hands to war, so that a bow of steel is broken by mine arms.

35 Thou hast also <sup>n</sup> given me the shield of thy salvation ; and thy right hand hath holden me up, and <sup>o</sup> thy gentleness hath made me great.

36 Thou hast <sup>p</sup> enlarged my steps under me, that my feet did not slip.

37 I have pursued mine enemies, and <sup>q</sup> overtaken them : neither did I turn again till they were consumed.

38 I have <sup>r</sup> wounded them that they were not able to rise : they are fallen under my feet.

39 For thou hast <sup>s</sup> girded me with strength unto the battle : thou hast subdued under me those that rose up against me.

40 Thou hast also given me <sup>t</sup> the necks of mine enemies, that I might destroy them that hate me.

41 They cried, but there was none to save them : even unto the LORD, but he <sup>u</sup> answered them not.

42 Then did I <sup>x</sup> beat them small as the dust before the wind ; I did cast them out as the dirt in the streets.

43 Thou hast delivered me from the strivings of the people ; and thou hast made me <sup>y</sup> the head of the heathen : a people whom I have not known shall serve me.

44 As soon as they hear of me, they shall obey me : the strangers † shall submit themselves unto me.

45 The strangers shall fade away, and be ‡ afraid out of their close places.

46 The LORD § liveth ; and blessed be my rock ; and let the God of my salvation be ¶ exalted.

47 It is God that avengeth me, and subdueth the people under me.

48 He delivereth me from mine enemies ; yea, thou liftest me up above those that rise up against me : thou hast delivered me from the violent man.

1 David complaineth in great discouragement: 9 He prayeth in great distress: 23 He praiseth God. To the chief Musician upon Aijeleth Shahar.

A Psalm of David.

MY God, my God, why hast thou forsaken <sup>a</sup> me? <sup>b</sup> why art thou so far from helping me, and from the words of my <sup>c</sup> roaring?

2 O my God, I cry in the day-time, but thou <sup>d</sup> hearest not; and in the night-season, and am <sup>e</sup> not silent.

3 But thou art holy, O thou that inhabitest the <sup>f</sup> praises of Israel.

4 O our fathers trusted in thee: they trusted, and thou didst deliver them.

5 They cried unto thee, and were delivered; they trusted in thee, and were not <sup>g</sup> confounded.

6 But I am <sup>h</sup> a worm, and no man; a reproach of men, and despised of the people.

7 All they that see me <sup>i</sup> laugh me to scorn: they shoot out the lip, they shake the head, saying,

8 <sup>j</sup> He trusted on the LORD that he would deliver him: let him deliver him, seeing he delighted in him.

9 But thou art he that took me out of the womb; thou didst make me <sup>k</sup> hope when I was upon my <sup>l</sup> mother's breasts.

10 I was cast upon thee from the womb; thou art my God from my mother's belly.

11 Be not far from me, for trouble is near; for there is <sup>m</sup> none to help.

12 Many <sup>n</sup> bulls have compassed me: strong bulls of Bashan have beset me round.

13 They <sup>o</sup> gaped upon me with their mouths, as a ravening and a roaring lion.

14 I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint: my heart is like <sup>p</sup> wax; it is melted in the midst of my bowels.

15 My strength is dried up like a potsherd; and my tongue <sup>q</sup> cleaveth to my jaws; and thou hast brought me into the dust of death.

16 For <sup>r</sup> dogs have compassed me; the assembly of the wicked have inclosed me: they <sup>s</sup> pierced my hands and my feet.

17 I may tell all my bones: <sup>t</sup> they look and stare upon me.

18 They <sup>u</sup> part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture.

19 But be not thou far from me, O LORD; O my strength, haste thee to help me.

20 Deliver my soul from <sup>v</sup> the sword; my <sup>w</sup> darling from the power <sup>x</sup> of the dog.

21 Save me from the <sup>y</sup> lion's mouth: for thou hast heard me from <sup>z</sup> the horns of the unicorns.

1 David's confidence in prayer: 7 He prayeth for remission of sins, 16 and for help in affliction.

A Psalm of David.

a 2 Sam. 17, 17.

UNTIL thee, O LORD, do I lift up my soul.

2 O my God, I trust in thee: let me not be ashamed; let not mine enemies triumph over me.

3 Yea, let none that wait on thee be ashamed: let them be ashamed which transgress without cause.

4 Shew me thy ways, O LORD; teach me thy paths.

5 Lead me in thy truth, and teach me: for thou art the God of my salvation; on thee do I wait all the day.

6 Remember, O LORD, thy tender mercies, and thy loving-kindnesses; for they have been ever of old.

7 Remember not the sins of my youth, nor my transgressions: according to thy mercy remember thou me, for thy goodness' sake, O LORD.

8 Good and upright is the LORD: therefore will he teach sinners in the way.

9 The meek will he guide in judgment, and the meek will he teach his way.

10 All the paths of the LORD are mercy and truth unto such as keep his covenant and his testimonies.

11 For thy name's sake, O LORD, pardon mine iniquity; for it is great.

12 What man is he that feareth the LORD? him shall he teach in the way that he shall choose:

13 His soul shall dwell at ease; and his seed shall inherit the earth.

14 The secret of the LORD is with them that fear him; and he will shew them his covenant.

15 Mine eyes are ever towards the LORD; for he shall pluck my feet out of the net.

16 Turn thee unto me, and have mercy upon me; for I am desolate and afflicted.

17 The troubles of my heart are enlarged: O bring thou me out of my distresses.

18 Look upon mine affliction, and my pain: and forgive all my sins.

19 Consider mine enemies; for they are many; and they hate me with cruel hatred.

20 O keep my soul, and deliver me: let me not be ashamed; for I put my trust in thee.

21 Let integrity and uprightness preserve me; for I wait on thee.

22 Redeem Israel, O God, out of all his troubles.

7 I will be glad and rejoice in thy mercy: for thou hast considered my trouble; thou hast <sup>i</sup> known my soul in adversities;

8 And hast not <sup>j</sup> shut me up into the hand of the enemy: thou hast set my feet in <sup>k</sup> a large room.

9 Have mercy upon me, O LORD, for I am in trouble; mine eye is <sup>l</sup> consumed with grief, yea, my soul and my belly.

10 For my life is spent with grief, and my years with sighing; my strength <sup>m</sup> faileth because of mine iniquity, and my <sup>n</sup> bones are consumed.

11 I was <sup>o</sup> a reproach among all mine enemies, but especially among <sup>p</sup> my neighbours, and a fear to mine acquaintance: they that did see me without <sup>q</sup> fled from me.

12 I am forgotten as a dead man out <sup>r</sup> of mind: I am like a broken vessel.

13 For I have heard the <sup>s</sup> slander of many: fear <sup>s</sup> was on every side: while they took counsel together against me, they devised to take away my life.

14 But I trusted in thee, O LORD: I said, Thou art <sup>t</sup> my God.

15 <sup>u</sup> My times are in thy hand: deliver me from the hand of mine enemies, and from them that persecute me.

16 <sup>x</sup> Make thy face to shine upon thy servant: save me for thy mercies' sake.

17 Let me not be ashamed, O LORD; for I have called upon thee: let the wicked be ashamed, and let them <sup>y</sup> be silent in the grave.

18 Let the <sup>z</sup> lying lips be put to silence; which speak grievous things proudly and contemptuously against the righteous.

19 <sup>a</sup> Oh how great is thy goodness, which thou hast <sup>b</sup> laid up for them that fear thee; which thou hast wrought for them that trust in thee before the sons of men!

20 Thou shalt hide them in the <sup>c</sup> secret of thy presence from the pride of man; thou shalt keep them secretly in a pavilion from the strife of tongues.

21 Blessed be the LORD; for he hath shewed me his marvellous kindness in a strong city.

David persuadeth to patience and confidence in God, by the different state of the godly and the wicked.

A Psalm of David.

FRET not thyself <sup>a</sup> because of evil-doers, neither be thou envious against the workers of iniquity:

<sup>b</sup> For they shall soon be cut down like the grass, and wither as the green herb.

<sup>c</sup> Trust in the LORD, and <sup>e</sup> do good: so shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed.

<sup>d</sup> Delight thyself also in the LORD; and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart.

<sup>f</sup> Commit thy way unto the LORD; trust also in him, and he shall bring it to pass:

<sup>g</sup> And he shall bring forth thy righteousness as the <sup>h</sup> light, and thy judgment as the noon-day.

1 The benefit of confidence in God. 6 Obedience is the best sacrifice. 11 The sense of David's evils inflameth his prayer.

To the chief Musician. A Psalm <sup>a</sup> of David.

I WAITED <sup>b</sup> patiently for the LORD; and he <sup>b</sup> inclined unto me, and heard my cry.

2 He brought me up also out of an <sup>d</sup> horrible pit, out of the miry clay, and set my feet upon <sup>a</sup> a rock, and established my goings.

3 And he hath put <sup>e</sup> a new song in my mouth, even praise unto our God: many shall <sup>g</sup> see it, and fear, and shall trust in the LORD.

4 Blessed is that man that maketh the LORD <sup>b</sup> his trust; and <sup>i</sup> respecteth not the proud, nor such <sup>k</sup> as turn aside to lies.

5 Many, O LORD my God, are thy <sup>i</sup> wonderful works which thou hast done, and thy thoughts which are to us-ward: they cannot be reckoned up in order unto thee: if I would declare and speak of them, they are <sup>m</sup> more than can be numbered.

6 <sup>a</sup> Sacrifice and offering thou didst not desire; mine ears hast thou † opened: burnt-offering and <sup>o</sup> sin-offering hast thou not required.

7 Then said I, <sup>p</sup> Lo, I come: in the volume of the book it is <sup>q</sup> written of me;

8 <sup>i</sup> I delight to do <sup>a</sup> thy will, O my God: yea, thy law is within my heart.

9 I have preached <sup>r</sup> righteousness in the great congregation: lo, I have <sup>u</sup> not refrained my lips, O LORD, thou knowest.

10 I have <sup>x</sup> not hid thy righteousness within my heart; I have declared thy faithfulness and thy salvation: I have not concealed thy loving-kindness and thy truth from the great congregation.

11 Withhold not thou thy tender mercies from me, O LORD: let <sup>y</sup> thy loving-kindness and thy truth continually preserve me.

12 For innumerable evils have compassed me about; || mine iniquities have taken hold upon me, so that I am not able to look up: they are more than the hairs of mine head; therefore my heart faileth me.

13 Be pleased, O LORD, to deliver me: O LORD, make haste to help me.

14 Let them <sup>z</sup> be ashamed and confounded together that seek after my soul to destroy it; let them be driven backward, and put to shame, that wish me evil.

15 Let them <sup>a</sup> be desolate for a reward of their shame, that say unto me, Aha, aha!

16 Let all those that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee: let such as love thy salvation say continually, The LORD <sup>b</sup> be magnified.

17 But I am poor and needy; yet the LORD <sup>c</sup> thinketh upon me: thou art my help and my deliverer; make no tarrying, O my God.

g Ps. 20, 7

6 For I will not <sup>g</sup> trust in my bow, neither shall my sword save me.

7 But thou hast saved us from our enemies, and hast put them to shame that hated us.

8 In God <sup>h</sup> we boast all the day long, and praise thy name for ever. Selah.

Isa. 33, 2.

k Jer. 30, 24

10 Thou makest us <sup>k</sup> to turn back from the enemy;

enemy ; and they which hate us spoil for themselves.

11 Thou hast given us like sheep appointed for meat ; and hast scattered us among the heathen.

12 Thou sellest thy people <sup>1</sup> for nought, and dost <sup>m</sup> not increase thy wealth by their price.

13 Thou makest us <sup>a</sup> a reproach to our neighbours, a scorn and a derision to them that are round about us.

14 Thou makest us <sup>a</sup> a by-word among the heathen, <sup>a</sup> a shaking of the head among the people.

15 My confusion is continually before me, and the shame of my face hath covered me, 16 For the voice of him that reproacheth and blasphemeth ; by reason of the enemy and avenger.

17 All this is come upon us ; <sup>a</sup> yet have we not forgotten thee, neither have we dealt falsely in thy covenant.

18 <sup>a</sup> Our heart is not turned back, neither have our <sup>t</sup> steps declined from thy way ;

19 Though thou hast sore broken us in the place of dragons, and covered us with the shadow of death.

20 If we have <sup>a</sup> forgotten the name of our God, or stretched out our hands to a strange god ;

21 Shall not God <sup>a</sup> search this out ? for he knoweth the secrets of the heart.

22 Yea, <sup>a</sup> for thy sake are we killed all the day long ; we are counted as sheep for the slaughter.

23 <sup>a</sup> Awake, why sleepest thou, O Lord ? arise, cast us not off for ever.

24 Wherefore <sup>a</sup> hidest thou thy face, and forgettest our affliction and our oppression ?

25 For our soul is bowed down to the <sup>b</sup> dust ; our belly cleaveth unto the earth.

26 Arise for our help, and redeem us, for thy mercies' sake.

2 Thou art <sup>c</sup> fairer than the children of men ; grace is <sup>a</sup> poured into thy lips : therefore God hath <sup>a</sup> blessed thee for ever.

3 <sup>a</sup> Gird thy sword upon thy thigh, <sup>a</sup> O most Mighty, with thy glory and thy majesty.

5 Thine arrows are sharp in the heart of the King's enemies ; whereby the people fall under thee.

d 2 Tim. 3, 15.

4 I will incline mine ear to a parable; I will open my dark saying upon the harp.

5 Wherefore should I fear in the days of evil, when the iniquity of my heels shall compass me about?

6 They that trust in their wealth, and boast themselves in the multitude of their riches;

7 None of them can by any means redeem his brother, nor give to God a ransom for him;

8 (For the redemption of their soul is precious, and it ceaseth for ever.)

9 That he should still live for ever, and not see corruption.

10 For he seeth that wise men die, likewise the fool and the brutish person perish, and leave their wealth to others.

11 Their inward thought is, that their houses shall continue for ever, and their dwelling-places to all generations: they call their lands after their own names.

12 Nevertheless, man being in honour abideth not: he is like the beasts that perish.

13 This their way is their folly: yet their posterity approve their sayings. Selah.

14 Like sheep they are laid in the grave; death shall feed on them; and the upright shall have dominion over them in the morning; and their beauty shall consume in the grave from their dwelling.

15 But God will redeem my soul from the power of the grave; for he shall receive me. Selah.

16 Be not thou afraid when one is made rich, when the glory of his house is increased:

17 For, when he dieth, he shall carry nothing away; his glory shall not descend after him;

18 Though, while he lived, he blessed his soul: (and men will praise thee when thou doest well to thyself:)

19 He shall go to the generation of his fathers; they shall never see light.

20 Man that is in honour, and understandeth not, is like the beasts that perish.

17 <sup>w</sup> Evening, and morning, and at noon, will I pray, and cry aloud ; and he shall hear my voice.

18 He hath delivered my soul in peace from <sup>x</sup> the battle that was against me : for there were many with me.

19 God shall hear and afflict them, even he that abideth of old. Selah. Because they have <sup>y</sup> no changes, therefore they fear not God.

20 He hath <sup>z</sup> put forth his hands against such as be at <sup>a</sup> peace with him ; he hath broken his covenant.

21 The words of his mouth were <sup>b</sup> smoother than butter, but war was in his heart : his words were softer than oil, yet were they <sup>c</sup> drawn swords.

22 Cast thy <sup>d</sup> burden upon the Lord, and he shall sustain thee : he shall never suffer the righteous to be moved.

23 But thou, O God, shalt bring them down into the pit of destruction : bloody and deceitful men shall <sup>e</sup> not live out half their days ; but I will trust in thee.

1 David reproveth wicked judges, 3 describeth the nature of the wicked, 6 and devoteth them to God's judgments, 10 whereat the righteous shall rejoice.

To the chief Musician, Al-taschith, Michtam of David.

DO ye indeed <sup>a</sup> speak righteousness, O congregation? do ye judge uprightly, O ye sons of men?

2 Yea, in heart you work wickedness; you <sup>b</sup> weigh the violence of your hands <sup>c</sup> in the earth.

A <sup>a</sup> Psalm or Song of Asaph.

UNTo thee, O God, do we give thanks, unto thee do we give thanks: for that thy name <sup>b</sup> is near, thy <sup>c</sup> wondrous works declare.

1 The Psalmist sheweth what fierce combat he had with diffidence: 10 The victory which he had by consideration of God's great and gracious works. To the chief Musician, to Jeduthun.

A Psalm of Asaph.

I <sup>a</sup> CRIED unto God with my voice, even unto God with my voice; and he gave <sup>b</sup> ear unto me.
 2 In the day of my trouble I <sup>c</sup> sought the LORD: my sore ran in the night, and <sup>d</sup> ceased not: my soul refused to be comforted.
 3 I remembered God, and <sup>e</sup> was troubled: I complained, and my spirit was <sup>f</sup> overwhelmed. Selah.
 4 Thou <sup>g</sup> holdest mine eyes waking: I am so troubled that I cannot speak.
 5 I have considered the <sup>h</sup> days of old, the years of ancient times.
 6 I call to remembrance my song in the night: I <sup>i</sup> commune with mine own heart, and my spirit made diligent search.
 7 Will the LORD cast off for ever? and will he be favourable no more?
 8 Is his mercy clean gone <sup>k</sup> for ever? doth his promise fail for evermore?
 9 Hath God <sup>l</sup> forgotten to be gracious? hath he in anger shut up his tender mercies? Selah.
 10 And I said, This is my <sup>m</sup> infirmity: but I will remember the years of the right hand of the Most High.
 11 I will remember the works of the LORD; surely I will remember thy wonders <sup>n</sup> of old.

 13 Thy way, O God, is in <sup>o</sup> the sanctuary: who is so great a God as our God!
 14 Thou art the God that <sup>p</sup> doest wonders: thou hast declared thy strength among the people.
 15 Thou hast with thine <sup>q</sup> arm redeemed thy people, the sons of Jacob and Joseph. Selah.

1 An exhortation both to learn and to preach the law of God. 9 The story of God's wrath against the incredulous and disobedient. 67 The Israelites being rejected, God chose Judah, Zion, and David. Maschil of Asaph.

GIVE ear, O <sup>a</sup> my people, to my law: <sup>b</sup> incline your ears to the words of my mouth.

2 I will <sup>c</sup> open my mouth in <sup>d</sup> a parable; I will utter dark sayings of old;

3 Which we have <sup>e</sup> heard and known, and our fathers have told us.

4 We will not hide them from their children, shewing to the generation to come the <sup>f</sup> praises of the LORD, and his strength, and his wonderful works that he hath done.

5 For he established <sup>g</sup> a testimony in Jacob, and appointed a law in Israel, which he commanded our fathers, that they should make them known <sup>h</sup> to their children;

6 That the generation to come might know them, even the children which should be born, who should arise and <sup>i</sup> declare them to their children:

7 That they might set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God; but keep his commandments:

8 And might not be <sup>k</sup> as their fathers, <sup>l</sup> a stubborn and rebellious generation; <sup>a</sup> a generation that set not their heart aright, and whose spirit was not stedfast with God.

9 The <sup>m</sup> children of Ephraim, being armed, cern They <sup>n</sup>g bows, turned back in the day of and their tong.

10 Therefore not the covenant of God, and waters of <sup>o</sup> a full <sup>p</sup> a law;

17 Until I went into the <sup>y</sup> sanctuary of God; then understood I their <sup>z</sup> end.

18 Surely thou didst set them <sup>a</sup> in slippery places: thou castedst them down into destruction.

19 How are they brought <sup>b</sup> into desolation, as in a moment! they are <sup>c</sup>verly consumed with terrors.

20 <sup>d</sup> As a dream when one waketh; so, O LORD, when thou <sup>e</sup> awakest, thou shalt despise their image.

can he <sup>f</sup> give bread also? can he provide flesh for his people?

21 Therefore the LORD <sup>g</sup> heard this, and was <sup>h</sup> wroth: so a fire was kindled against Jacob, and anger also came up against Israel.

22 Because they <sup>i</sup> believed not in God, and <sup>j</sup> trusted not in his salvation;

23 Though he had commanded the clouds from above, and opened the <sup>k</sup> doors of heaven, 24 And had rained down <sup>l</sup> manna upon them to eat, and had given them of the corn of heaven.

25 Man did eat <sup>m</sup> angels' food: he sent them <sup>n</sup> meat to the full.

26 He caused an east wind <sup>o</sup> to blow in the heaven; and by his power he brought in the south wind.

27 He rained <sup>p</sup> flesh also upon them as dust, and feathered fowls like as the sand of the sea;

28 And he let it fall in the midst of their camp, round about their habitations.

29 So they did eat, and were well filled: for he gave them their own desire;

30 They were not estranged from their <sup>q</sup> lust: but while their meat was yet in their mouths, 31 The wrath of God came upon them, and slew the fattest of them, and smote down the chosen men of Israel.

32 For all this they <sup>r</sup> sinned still, and believed not for his wondrous works.

33 Therefore their days did he consume <sup>s</sup> in vanity, and their years in trouble.

34 When he <sup>t</sup> slew them, then they sought him; and they returned and inquired early after God:

35 And they remembered that God was their Rock, and the high God their Redeemer.

36 Nevertheless they did flatter him with their mouth, and they lied unto him with their tongues:

37 For their heart was <sup>u</sup> not right with him, neither were they stedfast in his covenant.

38 But he, being <sup>v</sup> full of compassion, forgave their iniquity, and destroyed them not: yea,

<sup>w</sup> many a time turned he his anger away, and did not stir up all his wrath:

39 For he remembered that they were but <sup>x</sup> flesh; <sup>a</sup> a wind that passeth away, and cometh not again.

40 How oft did they provoke him in the wilderness, and <sup>b</sup> grieve him in the desert:

41 Yea, they <sup>c</sup> turned back, and tempted God, and <sup>d</sup> limited the Holy One of Israel.

42 They remembered not his hand, nor the day when he delivered them from the enemy:

43 How he had wrought his signs in Egypt, and his wonders in the field of Zoan:

44 And had turned their rivers into <sup>e</sup> blood; and their floods, that they could not drink.

 land: thou hast brought back the <sup>a</sup> captivity of Jacob.

 thou draw out thine anger to all generations?

6 Wilt thou not <sup>e</sup> revive us again, that thy 7 Shew us <sup>f</sup> thy mercy, O LORD, and grant <sup>f</sup> us thy salvation.

8 I will <sup>g</sup> hear what God the LORD will <sup>h</sup> speak: for he will speak peace unto his people, and to his saints: but let them not <sup>i</sup> turn again to folly.

9 Surely his salvation <sup>k</sup> is nigh them that fear him; that <sup>l</sup> glory may dwell in our land.

A Prayer of David.

BOW down thine ear, O LORD, hear me;
<sup>a</sup> for I am poor and needy.

2 Preserve my soul, for I am <sup>b</sup> holy: O thou my God, save thy servant that <sup>c</sup> trusteth in thee.

3 Be merciful unto me, O LORD: for I cry unto thee <sup>d</sup> daily.

4 Rejoice the soul of thy servant: for unto thee, O LORD, do <sup>e</sup> I lift up my soul.

5 For thou, LORD, art good, and <sup>f</sup> ready to forgive; and <sup>g</sup> plenteous in mercy unto all them that call upon thee.

6 Give ear, O LORD, unto my prayer; and attend to the <sup>h</sup> voice of my supplications.

7 In the <sup>i</sup> day of my trouble I will call upon thee: for thou wilt answer me.

8 Among the gods there is <sup>k</sup> none like unto thee, O LORD; neither are there any works like unto <sup>l</sup> thy works.

9 <sup>m</sup> All nations whom thou hast made shall come and worship before thee, O LORD; and shall glorify thy name.

10 For thou art great, and doest wondrous things: thou art <sup>n</sup> God alone.

11 <sup>o</sup> Teach me thy way, O LORD; I will walk in thy truth: <sup>p</sup> unite my heart to fear thy name.

12 I will praise thee, O LORD my God, with all my heart; and I will <sup>q</sup> glorify thy name for 13 For great is thy mercy toward me; and thou hast delivered my soul from the lowest

A prayer containing a grievous complaint.

A Song or Psalm for the sons of Korah. To the chief Musician upon Mahalath Leannoth, Maschil of <sup>a</sup> Heman the Ezrahite.

O LORD God of <sup>b</sup> my salvation, I have cried <sup>c</sup> day and night before thee.

2 Let <sup>d</sup> my prayer come before thee: incline thine ear unto my cry;

3 For my soul is full of troubles, and my life draweth nigh unto the grave.

4 I am counted with them that go down into the pit: I am as a man that hath no strength:

5 <sup>f</sup> Free among the dead, like the slain that lie in the grave, whom thou rememberest no more: and they are cut off <sup>g</sup> from thy hand.

6 Thou hast laid me in the lowest pit, in <sup>h</sup> darkness, in the deeps.

7 Thy wrath lieth hard upon me, and thou hast afflicted me with <sup>i</sup> all thy waves. Selah.

8 Thou hast put away mine acquaintance <sup>j</sup> far from me; thou hast made me an abomination unto them: I am <sup>k</sup> shut up, and I cannot come forth.

9 Mine eye mourneth by reason of affliction: Lord, I have called daily upon thee; I have stretched out my hands unto thee.

10 Wilt thou shew wonders to the dead? shall the <sup>l</sup> dead arise and praise thee? Selah.

11 Shall thy <sup>m</sup> loving-kindness be declared in the grave? or thy faithfulness <sup>n</sup> in destruction?

12 Shall thy wonders be known in the <sup>o</sup> dark? and thy righteousness in the land of <sup>p</sup> forgetfulness?

13 But unto thee have I cried, O Lord; and in the morning shall my prayer prevent thee.

14 Lord, <sup>q</sup> why castest thou off my soul? why hidest thou thy face from me?

15 I am afflicted and ready to die from my youth up: while I suffer thy terrors I am distracted.

16 Thy <sup>r</sup> fierce wrath goeth over me; thy <sup>s</sup> terrors have cut me off.

17 They came round about me daily like water, they <sup>t</sup> compassed me about together.

18 <sup>u</sup> Lover and friend hast thou put far from me, and mine acquaintance into darkness.

is that they shall be destroyed for ever;
8 But thou, LORD, art most high for evermore.
9 For, lo, thine enemies, O LORD, for, lo, thine enemies shall perish: all the workers of iniquity shall be scattered;

10 But my horn shalt thou exalt like the horn of a unicorn: I shall be anointed with fresh oil.
11 Mine eye also shall see my desire on mine enemies; and mine ears shall hear my desire of the wicked that rise up against me.

12 The righteous shall flourish like the palm-tree; he shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon.

13 Those that be planted in the house of the LORD shall flourish in the courts of our God.

14 They shall still bring forth fruit in old age; they shall be fat and flourishing;

15 To shew that the LORD is upright: he is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him.

P S A L. XCIII.

The majesty, power, and holiness of Christ's kingdom.

THE LORD reigneth; he is clothed with majesty; the LORD is clothed with strength, wherewith he hath girded himself: the world also is established, that it cannot be moved.

2 Thy throne is established of old: thou art from everlasting.

3 The floods have lifted up, O LORD, the floods have lifted up their voice; the floods lift up their waves.

4 The LORD on high is mightier than the noise of many waters, yea, than the mighty waves of the sea.

5 Thy testimonies are very sure: holiness becometh thine house, O LORD, for ever.

P S A L. XCIV.

1 The Prophet calling for justice, complaineth of tyranny and impiety: 8 He teacheth God's providence: 12 He sheweth the blessedness of affliction. 16 God is the defender of the afflicted.

O LORD God, to whom vengeance belongeth; O God, to whom vengeance belongeth, shew thyself.

2 Lift up thyself, thou judge of the earth: render a reward to the proud.

3 LORD, how long shall the wicked, how long shall the wicked triumph?

4 How long shall they utter and speak hard things? and all the workers of iniquity boast themselves?

5 They break in pieces thy people, O LORD, and afflict thine heritage:

6 They slay the widow and the stranger, and murder the fatherless.

7 Yet they say, The LORD shall not see, neither shall the God of Jacob regard it.

8 Understand, ye brutish among the people; and, ye fools, when will ye be wise?

9 He that planted the ear, shall he not hear? he that formed the eye, shall he not see?

10 He that chastiseth the heathen, shall he not be correct? he that teacheth man knowledge, shall not he know?

1 An exhortation to praise God, and to seek out his works. 7 The story of God's providence over Abraham, 16 over Joseph, 23 over Jacob in Egypt, 26 over Moses delivering the Israelites, 37 Over the Israelites brought out of Egypt, fed in the wilderness, and planted in Canaan.

GIVE thanks unto the LORD; call upon his name; make known his deeds among the people.

2 Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him: talk ye of all his wondrous works.

3 Glory ye in his holy name: let the heart of them rejoice that seek the LORD.
 4 Seek the LORD, and his strength; seek his face evermore.
 5 Remember his marvellous works that he hath done; his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth;
 6 O ye seed of Abraham his servant, ye children of Jacob his chosen.
 7 He is the LORD our God; his judgments are in all the earth.
 8 He hath remembered his covenant for ever, the word which he commanded to a thousand generations:
 9 Which covenant he made with Abraham, and his oath unto Isaac;
 10 And confirmed the same unto Jacob for a law, and to Israel for an everlasting covenant;
 11 Saying, Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan, the lot of your inheritance:
 12 When they were but a few men in number; yea, very few, and strangers in it.
 13 When they went from one nation to another, from one kingdom to another people, 14 He suffered no man to do them wrong;
 yea, he reproved kings for their sakes;
 15 Saying, Touch not mine anointed, and do my prophets no harm.
 16 Moreover, he called for a famine upon the land: he brake the whole staff of bread.
 17 He sent a man before them, even Joseph,
 who was sold for a servant;
 18 Whose feet they hurt with fetters: he was laid in iron;
 19 Until the time that his word came; the word of the LORD tried him.
 20 The king sent and loosed him; even the ruler of the people, and let him go free.
 21 He made him lord of his house, and ruler of all his substance;
 22 To bind his princes at his pleasure, and teach his senators wisdom.
 23 Israel also came into Egypt, and Jacob sojourned in the land of Ham.
 24 And he increased his people greatly, and made them stronger than their enemies.
 25 He turned their heart to hate his people, to deal subtilly with his servants.
 26 He sent Moses his servant, and Aaron whom he had chosen.
 27 They shewed his signs among them; and wonders in the land of Ham.
 28 He sent darkness, and made it dark; and they rebelled not against his word.
 29 He turned their waters into blood, and slew their fish.
 30 The land brought forth frogs in abundance, in the chambers of their kings.
 31 He spake, and there came divers sorts of flies, and lice in all their coasts.
 32 He gave them hail for rain, and flaming fire in their land.
 33 He smote their vines also, and their figtrees; and brake the trees of their coasts.

34 He

Ex. 10, 4. 34 He spake, and the <sup>a</sup> locusts came, and caterpillars, and that without number, 35 And did eat up all the herbs in their land, and devoured the fruit of their ground.

Ex. 12, 29. 36 He smote also all the <sup>a</sup> first-born in their
Gen. 49, 3. land, the <sup>a</sup> chief of all their strength.

37 He brought them forth also with silver and gold; and there was <sup>a</sup> not one feeble person among their tribes.

38 Egypt was glad when they departed; for <sup>a</sup> the fear of them fell upon them.

Ex. 13, 21. 39 He spread <sup>b</sup> a cloud for a covering, and Neh. 2, 3. <sup>c</sup> fire to give light in the night.

Num. 11, 1. 40 The people asked, and he brought <sup>d</sup> quails,
Ex. 16, 14. and satisfied them with the <sup>e</sup> bread of heaven.

1 Cor. 10, 4. 41 He opened the <sup>f</sup> rock, and the waters
Numb. 20. gushed out; they ran in the dry places like <sup>g</sup> a river.

Ex. 2, 24. 42 For he <sup>h</sup> remembered his holy promise, and Abraham his servant.

43 And he brought forth his people with joy, and his chosen <sup>i</sup> with gladness;

Dan. 2, 44. 44 And gave them the <sup>k</sup> lands of the heathen: and they inherited the labour of the people;

Ex. 19, 4. 45 That they might <sup>l</sup> observe his statutes, and keep his laws. Praise ye the LORD.

P S A L M. CVI.

1 The Psalmist exhorteth to praise God: 4 He prayeth for pardon of sin. 7 The story of the people's rebellion, and God's mercy. 47 He concludeth with prayer and praise.

1 Thess. 5, II. PRAISE ye the LORD. <sup>a</sup> O give thanks unto the LORD; for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.

2 Who can utter the mighty acts of the LORD? <sup>b</sup> who can shew forth <sup>b</sup> all his praise?

3 Blessed are they that keep judgment, and he that <sup>c</sup> doeth righteousness <sup>d</sup> at all times.

Ps. 15, 2. 4 <sup>e</sup> Remember me, O LORD, with the favour
Acts 24, 16. <sup>f</sup> that thou bearest unto thy people: O visit me
Gal. 6, 9. with thy salvation;

5 That I may <sup>g</sup> see the good of thy chosen, that I may rejoice in the gladness of thy nation, that I may <sup>h</sup> glory with thine inheritance.

Lev. 26, 6 We have <sup>i</sup> sinned with our fathers, we have Jer. 17, 6. committed iniquity, we have done wickedly.

7 Our fathers understood not thy wonders in Egypt; they remembered not the multitude of thy mercies; but provoked him at the sea, even <sup>j</sup> at the Red Sea.

Ezek. 20, 8 Nevertheless, he saved them <sup>k</sup> for his name's sake, that he might make his mighty power to be known.

Nah. 1, 4. 9 He <sup>l</sup> rebuked the Red Sea also, and it was dried up: so he led them through <sup>m</sup> the depths, as through the wilderness.

10 And he saved them from the hand of him that hated them, and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.

Ex. 15, 5. 11 And the waters <sup>n</sup> covered their enemies; there was not one of them left.

Ex. 14, 27. 12 Then <sup>o</sup> believed they his words; they Ex. 15, 1. sang his praise.

Ex. 15, 24. 13 They <sup>p</sup> soon forgot his works; they waited not for his counsel;

14 But <sup>q</sup> lusted exceedingly in the wilderness, and <sup>r</sup> tempted God in the desert.

15 And he gave them their request; but sent <sup>s</sup> leanness into their soul.

16 They <sup>t</sup> envied Moses also in the camp; and Aaron the saint of the LORD.

17 The <sup>u</sup> earth opened and swallowed up Dathan, and covered the company of Abiram.

18 And a fire was kindled in their company; the flame burnt up <sup>v</sup> the wicked.

19 They made a calf in <sup>w</sup> Horeb, and worshipped the molten image.

20 Thus they changed their <sup>x</sup> glory into the similitude of <sup>y</sup> an ox that eateth grass.

21 They forgot God their saviour, which had done great things in Egypt;

22 Wondrous works in the land of Ham, and terrible things by the Red Sea.

23 Therefore <sup>z</sup> he said that he would destroy them, had not Moses his chosen stood before him in the <sup>a</sup> breach, to turn away his wrath, lest he should destroy them.

24 Yea, they despised the <sup>b</sup> pleasant land; they <sup>c</sup> believed not his word;

25 But <sup>d</sup> murmured in their tents, and hearkened not unto the voice of the LORD:

26 Therefore <sup>e</sup> he lifted up his hand against them, to overthrow them in the wilderness:

27 To overthrow their seed also among the nations, and to <sup>f</sup> scatter them in the lands.

28 They joined themselves also unto <sup>g</sup> Baal-peor, and ate the <sup>h</sup> sacrifices of the <sup>i</sup> dead.

29 Thus they provoked him to anger with their inventions; and the plague brake in upon them.

30 Then stood up <sup>j</sup> Phinehas, and executed judgment: and so the plague was stayed.

31 And that was counted unto him <sup>k</sup> for righteousness, unto all generations for evermore.

32 They angered him also at the waters of strife, so that it went <sup>l</sup> ill with Moses for their sakes:

33 Because they <sup>m</sup> provoked his spirit, so that he spake <sup>n</sup> unadvisedly with his lips.

34 They did <sup>o</sup> not destroy the nations, concerning whom the LORD commanded them:

35 But were <sup>p</sup> mingled among the heathen, and learned their works.

36 And they served their idols; which were <sup>q</sup> a snare unto them.

37 Yea, they sacrificed their sons and their daughters unto devils, 38 And shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons, and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed unto the <sup>r</sup> idols of Canaan: and the land was polluted with blood.

39 Thus were they defiled with their own works, and went <sup>s</sup> a whoring with their own inventions.

40 Therefore was the wrath of the LORD kindled against his people, insomuch that he abhorred his own inheritance.

41 And <sup>t</sup> he gave them into the hand of the heathen; and they that hated them ruled over them.

42 Their enemies also oppressed them, and they were brought into subjection under their hand.

<sup>c</sup> Deut. 30, 3. 46 He made them also <sup>d</sup> to be pitied of all those that carried them captives.

47 Save us, O LORD our God, and gather us from among the heathen, to give thanks unto thy holy <sup>e</sup> name, and to triumph in thy praise.

<sup>e</sup> Ps. 115, 1. 48 Blessed be the LORD God of Israel from everlasting to everlasting: and let all the people say, Amen. Praise ye the LORD.

1 The Psalmist exhorteth the redeemed, in praising God, to observe his manifold providence, 4 over travellers, 10 over captives, 17 over sick men, 23 over seamen, 33 and in divers varieties of life.

O GIVE thanks unto the LORD, for he is <sup>a</sup> good; for his mercy endureth for ever.

<sup>i</sup> Heb. 11, 10. 9 For he <sup>k</sup> satisfieth the longing soul, and filleth the hungry soul with goodness.

<sup>m</sup> Job 36, 8. 12 Therefore he brought down their heart with labour; they fell down, and there was none to help.

<sup>n</sup> Lam. 3, 35. 13 Then they <sup>p</sup> cried unto the LORD in their trouble, and he saved them out of their distresses.

<sup>q</sup> Ps. 44, 4. 15 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

17 Fools, <sup>s</sup> because of their transgression, and because of their iniquities, <sup>t</sup> are afflicted:

18 Their <sup>u</sup> soul abhorreth all manner of meat; and they draw near unto the gates of death.

19 Then they cry unto the LORD in their trouble; he saveth them out of their distresses.

20 He sent his <sup>v</sup> word and healed them, and delivered them from their <sup>x</sup> destructions.

21 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

22 And let them <sup>y</sup> sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving, and declare his works with rejoicing.

23 They that go down to the sea in ships, that do <sup>z</sup> business in great waters;

24 These <sup>a</sup> see the works of the LORD, and his wonders in the deep.

25 For he commandeth, and <sup>b</sup> raiseth the stormy wind, which lifteth up the waves thereof.

26 They mount up to the heaven, they go down again to the depths; their soul is <sup>c</sup> melted because of trouble.

27 They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man, and are at their wit's end.

28 <sup>d</sup> Then they cry unto the LORD in their trouble, and he bringeth them out of their distresses.

29 He maketh the storm <sup>e</sup> a calm, so that the waves thereof are still.

30 Then are they glad because they be quiet; so he bringeth them unto their desired haven.

31 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

32 Let them exalt him also in the congregation of the people, and praise him in the assembly of the elders.

33 He <sup>f</sup> turneth rivers into a wilderness, and the water-springs into dry ground;

34 A fruitful land into barrenness, for the wickedness of them that dwell therein.

35 He turneth the <sup>g</sup> wilderness into a standing water, and dry ground into water-springs.

36 And there he maketh the hungry to dwell, that they may prepare a city for habitation;

37 And sow the fields, and plant vineyards, which may <sup>h</sup> yield fruits of increase.

38 He <sup>i</sup> blesseth them also, so that they are multiplied greatly, and suffereth not their cattle to decrease.

39 Again, they are <sup>j</sup> minished, and brought low through oppression, affliction, and sorrow.

40 He <sup>k</sup> poureth contempt upon princes, and causeth them to wander in the wilderness, where there is no way.

41 Yet <sup>l</sup> setteth he the poor on high from affliction, and maketh him families like a flock.

42 The righteous shall <sup>m</sup> see it, and rejoice; and all iniquity shall <sup>n</sup> stop her mouth.

43 Whoso is <sup>o</sup> wise, and will observe these things, even they shall understand the loving-kindness of the LORD.

A L E P H.

BLESSED are the undefiled in the way, who walk in the law of the LORD.

2 Blessed are they that keep his testimonies, and that seek him with the whole heart.

3 They also do no iniquity: they walk in his ways.

4 Thou hast commanded us to keep thy precepts diligently.

5 O that my ways were directed to keep thy statutes!

6 Then shall I not be ashamed, when I have respect unto all thy commandments.

7 I will praise thee with uprightness of heart, when I shall have learned thy righteous judgments.

8 I will keep thy statutes: O forsake me not utterly.

B E T H.

9 Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? By taking heed thereto according to thy word.

10 With my whole heart have I sought thee: O let me not wander from thy commandments.

11 Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee.

12 Blessed art thou, O LORD: teach me thy statutes.

13 With my lips have I declared all the judgments of thy mouth.

14 I have rejoiced in the way of thy testimonies, as much as in all riches.

15 I will meditate in thy precepts, and have respect unto thy ways.

16 I will delight myself in thy statutes: I will not forget thy word.

G I M E L.

17 Deal bountifully with thy servant, that I may live, and keep thy word.

18 Open thou mine eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of thy law.

19 I am a stranger on the earth; hide not thy commandments from me.

20 My soul breaketh for the longing that it hath unto thy judgments at all times.

21 Thou hast rebuked the proud that are cursed, which do err from thy commandments.

22 Remove from me reproach and contempt; for I have kept thy testimonies.

23 Princes also did sit and speak against me: but thy servant did meditate in thy statutes.

24 Thy testimonies also are my delight, and my counsellors.

D A I E T H.

25 My soul cleaveth unto the dust: quicken thou me according to thy word.

26 I have declared my ways, and thou heardest me: teach me thy statutes.

27 Make me to understand the way of thy precepts: so shall I talk of thy wondrous works.

28 My soul melteth for heaviness: strengthen thou me according unto thy word.

29 Remove from me the way of lying; and grant me thy law graciously.

30 I have chosen the way of truth: thy judgments have I laid before me.

31 I have stuck unto thy testimonies: O LORD, put me not to shame.

32 I will run the way of thy commandments, when thou shalt enlarge my heart.

H E.

33 Teach me, O LORD, the way of thy statutes, and I shall keep it unto the end.

34 Give me understanding, and I shall keep thy law; yea, I shall observe it with my whole heart.

35 Make me to go in the path of thy commandments; for therein do I delight.

36 Incline my heart unto thy testimonies, and not to covetousness.

37 Turn away mine eyes from beholding vanity; and quicken thou me in thy way.

38 Establish thy word unto thy servant, who is devoted to thy fear.

39 Turn away my reproach which I fear: for thy judgments are good.

40 Behold, I have longed after thy precepts: quicken me in thy righteousness.

V A U.

41 Let thy mercies come also unto me, O LORD; even thy salvation, according to thy word.

42 So shall I have wherewith to answer him that reproacheth me: for I trust in thy word.

43 And take not the word of truth utterly out of my mouth; for I have hoped in thy judgments.

44 So shall I keep thy law continually for ever and ever.

45 And I will walk at liberty: for I seek thy precepts.

46 I will speak of thy testimonies also before kings, and will not be ashamed.

47 And I will delight myself in thy commandments, which I have loved.

7 And beheld among the simple ones, I discerned among the youths, a young man void of understanding,

8 Passing through the street near her corner; and he went the way to her house;

9 In the twilight, in the evening, in the black and dark night:

10 And, behold, there met him a woman, with the attire of an harlot, and subtle of heart.

11 (She is a loud and stubborn; her feet abide not in her house:

12 Now is she without, now in the streets, and p lieth in wait at every corner.)

13 So she caught him, and kissed him, and with an impudent face said unto him,

14 I have peace-offerings with me; this day have I paid my vows:

15 Therefore came I forth to meet thee, diligently to seek thy face; and I have found thee.

16 I have decked my bed with coverings of tapestry, with carved works, with fine linen of Egypt.

17 I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.

18 Come, let us take our fill of love until the morning; let us solace ourselves with loves:

19 For the good man is not at home, he is gone a long journey:

20 He hath taken a bag of money with him, and will come home at the day appointed.

21 With much fair speech she caused him to yield, with the flattering of her lips she forced him.

22 He goeth after her straightway, as an ox goeth to the slaughter, or as a fool to the correction of the stocks;

23 Till a dart strike through his liver, as a bird hasteth to the snare, and knoweth not that it is for his life.

24 Harken unto me now, therefore, O ye children, and attend to the words of my mouth:

25 Let not thine heart decline to her ways, go not astray in her paths:

26 For she hath cast down many wounded; yea, many strong men have been slain by her.

27 Her house is the way to hell, going down to the chambers of death.

1 The fame, 6 and evidence of wisdom. 10 The excellency, 12 the nature, 15 the power, 18 the riches, 22 and the eternity of wisdom. 32 Wisdom is to be desired for the blessedness it bringeth.

Both not a Wisdom cry? and Understanding
D ing put forth her voice?

2 She standeth in the top of high places, by the way in the places of the paths;

3 She crieth at the gates, at the entry of the city, at the coming in at the doors;

4 Unto you, O men, I call; and my voice is to the sons of man.

5 O ye simple, understand wisdom; and, ye fools, be ye of an understanding heart.

6 Hear; for I will speak of excellent things; and the opening of my lips shall be right things.

7 For my mouth shall speak truth; and wickedness is an abomination to my lips.

8 All the words of my mouth are in righteousness; there is nothing froward or perverse in them.

9 They are all plain to him that understandeth, and right to them that find knowledge.

10 Receive my instruction, and not silver; and knowledge rather than choice gold.

11 For wisdom is better than rubies; and all the things that may be desired are not to be compared to it.

12 I Wisdom dwell with Prudence, and find out knowledge of witty inventions.

13 The fear of the Lord is to hate evil: pride, and arrogancy, and the evil way, and the froward mouth, do I hate.

14 Counsel is mine, and sound wisdom: I am understanding; I have strength.

15 By me kings reign, and princes decree justice.

16 By me princes rule, and nobles, even all the judges of the earth.

17 I love them that love me; and those that seek me early shall find me.

18 Riches and honour are with me; yea, durable riches and righteousness.

19 My fruit is better than gold, yea, than fine gold; and my revenue than choice silver.

20 I lead in the way of righteousness, in the midst of the paths of judgment;

21 That I may cause those that love me to inherit substance; and I will fill their treasures.

22 The Lord possessed me in the beginning of his way, before his works of old.

23 I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, or ever the earth was.

24 When there were no depths, I was brought forth; when there were no fountains abounding with water.

25 Before the mountains were settled, before the hills was I brought forth:

26 While as yet he had not made the earth, nor the fields, nor the highest part of the dust of the world.

27 When he prepared the heavens, I was there; when he set a compass upon the face of the depth;

28 When he established the clouds above; when he strengthened the fountains of the deep;

29 When he gave to the sea his decree, that the waters should not pass his commandment; when he appointed the foundations of the earth:

30 Then I was by him, as one brought up with him; and I was daily his delight, rejoicing always before him;

31 Rejoicing in the habitable part of his earth; and my delights were with the sons of men.

32 Now, therefore, hearken unto me, O ye children: for blessed are they that keep my ways.

33 Hear instruction, and be wise, and refuse it not.

WISDOM hath builded<sup>a</sup> her house, she hath<sup>b</sup> hewn out her seven<sup>c</sup> pillars:

2 She hath killed her<sup>d</sup> beasts; she hath mingled her wine; she hath also furnished her table:

3 She hath<sup>e</sup> sent forth her<sup>f</sup> maidens: she crieth upon the highest places of the city,

4 Whoso is<sup>g</sup> simple, let him turn in hither: as for him that wanteth understanding, she saith to him,

5<sup>h</sup> Come, eat of my<sup>i</sup> bread, and drink of the wine which I have mingled.

6<sup>k</sup> Forsake the foolish, and live; and go in the way of understanding.

7 He that reproveth<sup>l</sup> a scorner getteth to himself shame; and he that rebuketh a wicked man getteth himself a blot.

8<sup>m</sup> Reprove not a scorner, lest he hate thee: rebuke<sup>n</sup> a wise man, and he will love thee.

9 Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be yet wiser; teach a just man, and he will<sup>o</sup> increase in learning.

10<sup>p</sup> The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom; and the knowledge of the holy is understanding.

11 For<sup>q</sup> by me thy days shall be multiplied, and the years of thy life shall be increased.

12 If thou be wise, thou shalt be wise<sup>r</sup> for thyself: but if thou scornest, thou alone shalt bear it.

13<sup>s</sup> A foolish woman is clamorous; she is simple, and<sup>t</sup> knoweth nothing.

14 For she<sup>u</sup> sitteth at the door of her house, on a seat in the high places of the city,

16 Whoso is simple, let him turn in hither: and as for him that wanteth understanding, she saith to him, 17<sup>w</sup> Stolen waters are sweet, and bread eaten in secret is pleasant.

18 But he knoweth not that the<sup>x</sup> dead are there; and that her guests are in the depths of hell.

CHAP. X.

From this chapter to the five and twentieth, are sundry observations of moral virtues, and their contrary vices.

THE Proverbs of Solomon. A wise son maketh a glad father: but a foolish son is the<sup>a</sup> heaviness of his mother.

2 Treasures of wickedness<sup>b</sup> profit nothing: but<sup>c</sup> righteousness delivereth from death.

3 The LORD will<sup>d</sup> not suffer the soul of the righteous to famish: but he casteth away the substance of the wicked.

4 He becometh poor that dealeth<sup>e</sup> with a slack hand: but the hand of the diligent maketh rich.

5 He that gathereth in summer is a wise son: but he that sleepeth in harvest is a son that causeth shame.

6<sup>f</sup> Blessings are upon the head of the just: but violence<sup>g</sup> covereth the mouth of the wicked.

7<sup>h</sup> The memory of the just is blessed: but the<sup>i</sup> name of the wicked shall rot.

8 The wise in heart will receive commandments: but<sup>j</sup> a prating fool shall fall.

9 He that walketh uprightly walketh<sup>k</sup> surely: but he that perverteth his ways shall be<sup>l</sup> known.

10 He that winketh with the eye causeth sorrow; but a prating fool shall fall.

11 The mouth of a righteous man is a<sup>m</sup> well of life: but violence covereth the mouth of the wicked.

12 Hatred stirreth up strifes: but<sup>n</sup> love covereth all sins.

13 In the lips of him that hath understanding wisdom is found: but a<sup>o</sup> rod is for the back of him that is void of understanding.

14 Wise men<sup>p</sup> lay up knowledge: but the mouth of the foolish is near destruction.

15 The rich man's wealth is<sup>q</sup> his strong city: the destruction of the poor is their poverty.

16 The labour of the righteous<sup>r</sup> tendeth to life; the<sup>s</sup> fruit of the wicked to sin.

17 He is in the<sup>t</sup> way of life that<sup>u</sup> keepeth instruction: but he that refuseth reproof erreth.

18 He that hideth hatred with lying lips, and he that uttereth<sup>v</sup> a slander, is a fool.

19 In the<sup>w</sup> multitude of words there wanteth not sin: but he that refraineth his lips is wise.

20 The tongue of the just is as<sup>x</sup> a choice silver: the heart of the wicked is little worth.

21 The lips of the righteous<sup>y</sup> feed many: but fools die for want of wisdom.

22 The blessing of the LORD, <sup>z</sup> it maketh rich; and he addeth<sup>a</sup> no sorrow with it.

23 It is<sup>b</sup> as a sport to a fool to do mischief: but a man of understanding hath wisdom.

24 The fear of the wicked, it shall<sup>c</sup> come upon him: but the desire of the righteous shall be<sup>d</sup> granted.

25 As the whirlwind passeth, so is the wicked no more: but the righteous is<sup>e</sup> an everlasting foundation.

26 As vinegar to the teeth, and as smoke to the eyes, so is the<sup>f</sup> sluggard to them that send him.

27 The fear of the LORD<sup>g</sup> prolongeth days: but the years of the wicked shall be<sup>h</sup> shortened.

28<sup>i</sup> The hope of the righteous shall be gladness: but the<sup>j</sup> expectation of the wicked shall perish.

29 The way of the LORD is strength to the upright; but destruction shall be to the workers of iniquity.

30 The righteous shall<sup>k</sup> never be removed: but the wicked shall not inhabit the earth.

21 There shall <sup>m</sup> no evil happen to the just: but the wicked shall be <sup>n</sup> filled with mischief.

23 A prudent man <sup>s</sup> concealeth knowledge: but the heart of fools proclaimeth foolishness.

24 The hand of the diligent shall bear rule: but the slothful shall be <sup>t</sup> under tribute.

25 Heaviness in the heart of man maketh it <sup>u</sup> stoop: but <sup>v</sup> a good word maketh it glad.

26 The righteous <sup>w</sup> is <sup>x</sup> more excellent than his neighbour: but the way of the wicked <sup>y</sup> seduceth them.

27 The slothful man <sup>z</sup> roasteth not that which he took in hunting: but the substance of a diligent man <sup>a</sup> is precious.

28 In the way of righteousness <sup>b</sup> is life; and in the pathway <sup>c</sup> thereof <sup>d</sup> there is no death.

C H A P. XIII.

A WISE son <sup>e</sup> heareth his father's instruction: but <sup>f</sup> a scorner <sup>g</sup> heareth not rebuke.

2 A man shall eat good by the fruit of <sup>h</sup> his mouth: but the soul of the transgressors <sup>i</sup> shall <sup>j</sup> eat violence.

3 He that <sup>k</sup> keepeth his mouth <sup>l</sup> keepeth his life: but he that <sup>m</sup> openeth wide his lips shall have destruction.

4 The soul of the sluggard <sup>n</sup> desireth, and hath nothing: but the soul of the <sup>o</sup> diligent shall be made fat.

5 A righteous man <sup>p</sup> hateth lying: but a wicked man <sup>q</sup> is <sup>r</sup> loathsome, and cometh to shame.

6 Righteousness <sup>s</sup> keepeth him that is upright in the way: but wickedness overthroweth the sinner.

7 There is that maketh himself rich, yet <sup>t</sup> hath nothing; there is that maketh himself poor, yet <sup>u</sup> hath great riches.

8 The <sup>v</sup> ransom of a man's life <sup>w</sup> are his riches: but the poor <sup>x</sup> heareth not rebuke.

9 The light of the righteous <sup>y</sup> rejoiceth: but the lamp of the wicked shall <sup>z</sup> be put out.

10 Only by pride <sup>a</sup> cometh contention: but with the well-advised <sup>b</sup> is wisdom.

11 <sup>c</sup> Wealth gotten <sup>d</sup> by vanity shall be diminished: but he that gathereth by labour shall <sup>e</sup> increase.

12 Hope deferred maketh the heart <sup>f</sup> sick: but <sup>g</sup> when the <sup>h</sup> desire cometh, <sup>i</sup> it is a tree of life.

13 Whoso despiseth the word shall be <sup>j</sup> destroyed: but he that feareth the commandment shall be rewarded.

14 The law of the wise <sup>k</sup> is <sup>l</sup> a fountain of life, to depart from the <sup>m</sup> snares of death.

18 Poverty and shame <sup>w</sup> shall be to him that <sup>x</sup> refuseth instruction: but he that regardeth reproof shall be <sup>y</sup> honoured.

19 The <sup>z</sup> desire accomplished <sup>a</sup> is sweet to the soul: but <sup>b</sup> it is abomination to fools to <sup>c</sup> depart from evil.

20 He that walketh with wise men shall be wise: but a companion of fools shall be destroyed.

23 <sup>i</sup> Much food <sup>j</sup> is in the tillage of the poor: but there is <sup>k</sup> that is destroyed for <sup>l</sup> want of judgment.

24 He that <sup>m</sup> spareth his rod <sup>n</sup> hateth his son: but he that loveth him chasteneth him betimes.

25 The righteous eateth to the satisfying of his soul: but the belly of the wicked shall want.

C H A P. XIV.

EVERY wise woman <sup>a</sup> buildeth her house: but the foolish <sup>b</sup> plucketh it down <sup>c</sup> with her hands.

2 He that <sup>d</sup> walketh in his uprightness feareth the LORD: but <sup>e</sup> he that is perverse in his ways <sup>f</sup> despiseth him.

3 In the mouth of the foolish <sup>g</sup> is <sup>h</sup> a rod of pride: but the lips of the wise shall preserve them.

4 Where no <sup>i</sup> oxen <sup>j</sup> are, the crib <sup>k</sup> is clean: but <sup>l</sup> much increase <sup>m</sup> is by the strength of the ox.

5 <sup>n</sup> A faithful witness will not lie: but <sup>o</sup> a false witness will utter lies.

6 A scorner seeketh wisdom, and <sup>p</sup> findeth it not: but knowledge <sup>q</sup> is <sup>r</sup> easy unto him that understandeth.

7 Go from the presence of a foolish man, when thou <sup>s</sup> perceivest not <sup>t</sup> in him the lips of knowledge.

8 The wisdom of the prudent <sup>u</sup> is <sup>v</sup> to understand his way: but the folly of fools <sup>w</sup> is <sup>x</sup> deceit.

9 Fools make a mock at sin: but among the righteous <sup>y</sup> there is <sup>z</sup> favour.

10 The heart knoweth <sup>a</sup> his own bitterness; and a stranger doth <sup>b</sup> not intermeddle with his joy.

11 <sup>c</sup> The house of the wicked shall be overthrown: but the <sup>d</sup> tabernacle of the upright shall flourish.

12 There is a way which <sup>e</sup> seemeth right unto a man; but the <sup>f</sup> end thereof <sup>g</sup> are the ways of death.

13 Even in <sup>h</sup> laughter the heart is sorrowful; and the <sup>i</sup> end of that mirth <sup>j</sup> is heaviness.

14 The backslider in heart shall be <sup>k</sup> filled with his own ways; and a good man <sup>l</sup> shall be satisfied <sup>m</sup> from himself.

15 The simple <sup>n</sup> believeth every word: but the prudent man <sup>o</sup> looketh well to his going.

C H A P. XV.

- A SOFT answer <sup>a</sup> turneth away wrath: but <sup>b</sup> grievous words stir up anger.
- 2 The tongue of the wise <sup>c</sup> useth knowledge aright: but the mouth of fools poureth out foolishness.
- 3 <sup>d</sup> The eyes of the LORD are in every place, beholding the evil and the good.
- 4 <sup>e</sup> A wholesome tongue is a tree of life: but perverseness therein is <sup>f</sup> a breach in the spirit.
- 5 A fool despiseth his father's instruction: but he that regardeth reproof <sup>g</sup> is prudent.
- 6 In the house of the righteous is <sup>h</sup> much treasure: but in the revenues of the wicked is <sup>i</sup> trouble.
- 7 The lips of the wise <sup>k</sup> disperse knowledge: but the heart of the foolish <sup>l</sup> doeth not so.
- 8 The <sup>m</sup> sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the LORD: but the prayer of the upright is his <sup>n</sup> delight.
- 9 The <sup>o</sup> way of the wicked is an abomination unto the LORD: but he loveth him that <sup>p</sup> followeth after righteousness.
- 10 Correction is <sup>q</sup> grievous unto him that forsaketh the way; and he that hateth reproof shall die.
- 11 Hell and destruction are before the LORD; how much more then the <sup>r</sup> hearts of the children of men?
- 12 A scorner <sup>s</sup> loveth not one that reproveth him; neither will he <sup>t</sup> go unto the wise.
- 13 <sup>u</sup> A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance: but by sorrow of the heart the <sup>x</sup> spirit is broken.
- 14 The heart of him that hath understanding <sup>y</sup> seeketh knowledge: but the mouth of fools <sup>z</sup> feedeth on foolishness.
- 15 All the days of the afflicted are <sup>a</sup> evil: but he that is of a merry heart hath a continual feast.
- 16 <sup>b</sup> Better is little with the fear of the LORD, than great treasure and trouble therewith.
- 17 Better is a dinner of herbs where love is, than <sup>c</sup> a stalled ox and hatred therewith.
- 18 <sup>d</sup> A wrathful man stirreth up strife: but he that is <sup>e</sup> slow to anger appeaseth strife.
- 19 The way of the slothful man is <sup>f</sup> as an hedge of thorns: but the way of the righteous is made <sup>g</sup> plain.
- 20 A wise son maketh a glad father: but a foolish man despiseth his mother.
- 21 <sup>h</sup> Folly is joy to him that is destitute of wisdom: but a man of understanding <sup>i</sup> walketh uprightly.
- 22 Without counsel purposes are disappointed: but in the <sup>k</sup> multitude of counsellors they are established.
- 23 A man hath joy by the answer of his mouth; and a word spoken <sup>l</sup> in due season, how good is it!
- 24 The way of life is <sup>m</sup> above to the wise, that he may depart from hell beneath.
- 25 The LORD will <sup>n</sup> destroy the house of the proud: but he will establish the border of the widow.
- 26 <sup>o</sup> The thoughts of the wicked are an abomination to the LORD: but the words of the pure are <sup>p</sup> pleasant words.
- 27 He that is greedy of gain <sup>q</sup> troubleth his own house: but he that hateth gifts shall live.
- 28 The heart of the righteous <sup>r</sup> studieth to answer: but the mouth of the wicked poureth out evil things.
- 29 The LORD is far <sup>s</sup> from the wicked: but he <sup>t</sup> heareth the prayer of the righteous.
- 30 The light of the eyes rejoiceth the heart; and <sup>u</sup> a good report maketh the bones fat.
- 31 The ear that heareth the <sup>x</sup> reproof of life abideth among the wise.
- 32 He that refuseth instruction despiseth his own soul: but he that heareth reproof getteth understanding.
- 33 The fear of the LORD is the instruction of wisdom; and <sup>y</sup> before honour is humility.

C H A P. XVI.

THE <sup>a</sup>preparations of the heart in man, and the <sup>b</sup>answer of the tongue, is from the LORD.

2 All the ways of a man are <sup>c</sup>clean in his own eyes: but the LORD <sup>d</sup>weigheth the spirits.

3 <sup>e</sup>Commit thy works unto the LORD, and thy <sup>f</sup>thoughts shall be established.

4 The LORD hath made all <sup>g</sup>things <sup>h</sup>for himself; yea, even the wicked <sup>i</sup>for the day of evil.

5 Every one that is <sup>j</sup>proud in heart is an abomination to the LORD: though <sup>k</sup>hand join in hand, he shall not be unpunished.

6 By mercy and truth iniquity is <sup>l</sup>purged; and by the <sup>m</sup>fear of the LORD <sup>n</sup>men depart from evil.

10 <sup>u</sup>A divine sentence is in the lips of the king: his mouth <sup>v</sup>transgresseth not in judgment.

11 <sup>w</sup>A just weight and balance are the LORD's; all the weights of the bag are his work.

12 It is an abomination to kings to commit wickedness; for the <sup>x</sup>throne is established by righteousness.

13 Righteous lips are the <sup>y</sup>delight of kings; and they love him <sup>z</sup>that speaketh right.

14 The <sup>aa</sup>wrath of a king is as messengers of death; but a wise man will <sup>ab</sup>pacify it.

15 In the <sup>ac</sup>light of the king's countenance is life; and his favour is as a cloud of the <sup>ad</sup>latter rain.

16 How much better is it to get wisdom than gold? and to get understanding rather to be chosen than silver?

17 <sup>ae</sup>The highway of the upright is to depart from evil: he that keepeth his way preserveth his soul.

18 Pride goeth before destruction, and an haughty spirit before a fall.

19 Better it is to be of an humble spirit with the lowly, than to divide the spoil with the proud.

20 He that handleth a matter wisely shall find <sup>af</sup>good; and whoso <sup>ag</sup>trusteth in the LORD, happy is he.

21 The <sup>ah</sup>wise in heart shall be called prudent; and the sweetness of the lips increaseth learning.

22 Understanding is <sup>ai</sup>a well-spring of life unto him that hath it: but the <sup>aj</sup>instruction of fools is folly.

23 <sup>ak</sup>The heart of the wise teacheth his mouth, and addeth learning to his lips.

24 <sup>al</sup>Pleasant words are as an honey-comb, <sup>am</sup>sweet to the soul, and <sup>an</sup>health to the bones.

25 There is a way that seemeth right unto a man; but the end thereof are the ways of death.

26 He that <sup>ao</sup>laboureth, laboureth for himself; for his mouth craveth it of him.

27 An ungodly man <sup>ap</sup>diggeth up evil; and in his <sup>aq</sup>lips there is as a burning fire.

28 A froward man soweth strife; and <sup>ar</sup>a whisperer separateth chief friends.

29 <sup>as</sup>A violent man <sup>at</sup>enticeth his neighbour, and <sup>au</sup>leadeth him into the way that is not good.

30 He shutteth his eyes to devise froward things; moving his lips, he bringeth evil to pass.

31 The hoary head is a crown of glory, if it be found in the way of righteousness.

32 He that is <sup>av</sup>slow to anger is better than the mighty; and he that <sup>aw</sup>ruleth his spirit than he that taketh a city.

33 The <sup>ax</sup>lot is cast into the lap; but the whole <sup>ay</sup>disposing thereof is of the LORD.

C H A P. XVII.

BBETTER is <sup>az</sup>a dry morsel, and quietness <sup>ba</sup>therewith, than an house full of <sup>bb</sup>sacrifices <sup>bc</sup>with strife.

2 <sup>bd</sup>A wise servant shall have rule over a son that causeth shame, and shall have part of the inheritance among the brethren.

3 The fining-pot is for silver, and the <sup>be</sup> furnace for gold: but the LORD <sup>bf</sup>triethe the hearts.

4 A wicked doer giveth heed to false lips; and a liar giveth ear <sup>bg</sup>to a naughty tongue.

5 Whoso <sup>bh</sup>mocketh the poor reproacheth his Maker; and he that <sup>bi</sup>is glad at calamities shall not be unpunished.

6 <sup>bj</sup>Children's children are the crown of old men; and the glory of children are <sup>bk</sup>their fathers.

7 Excellent speech becometh <sup>bl</sup>not a fool: much less do lying lips a prince.

8 A gift is as a precious stone in the eyes of him that hath it; whithersoever it turneth, <sup>bm</sup>it prospereth.

9 He that <sup>bn</sup>covereth a transgression seeketh love: but he that <sup>bo</sup>repeateth a matter separateth <sup>bp</sup>very friends.

10 A reproof entereth more into a wise man than <sup>bq</sup>a hundred stripes into a fool.

11 An evil man seeketh only <sup>br</sup>rebellion; therefore <sup>bs</sup>a cruel messenger shall be sent against him.

12 Let a bear, robbed of her whelps, meet a man, rather than <sup>bt</sup>a fool in his folly.

13 Whoso rewardeth <sup>bu</sup>evil for good, <sup>bv</sup>evil shall not depart from his house.

14 <sup>bw</sup>The beginning of strife is as when one letteth out water; therefore leave off contention <sup>bx</sup>before it be meddled with.

15 He that <sup>by</sup>justifieth the wicked, and he that <sup>bz</sup>condemneth the just, even they both are abomination to the LORD.

16 Wherefore is there <sup>ca</sup>a price in the hand of a fool to get wisdom, seeing he hath <sup>cb</sup>no heart to it?

17 A friend loveth <sup>cc</sup>at all times, and a brother is born <sup>cd</sup>for adversity.

18 A man void of understanding striketh hands, and becometh surety in the presence of his friend.

19 He loveth transgression that <sup>ce</sup>loveth strife: and he that <sup>cf</sup>exalteth his gate seeketh destruction.

20 He that hath a froward heart findeth no good; and he that hath <sup>cg</sup>a perverse tongue falleth into mischief.

21 He that begetteth a fool doeth it to his sorrow; and the father of a fool hath <sup>ch</sup>no joy.

22 <sup>ci</sup>A merry heart doeth good like a medicine: but <sup>cj</sup>a broken spirit drieth the bones.

23 A wicked man taketh a gift <sup>a</sup> out of the bosom <sup>a</sup> to pervert the ways of judgment.

24 Wisdom is <sup>a</sup> before him that hath understanding: but the eyes of a fool <sup>a</sup> are in the <sup>a</sup> ends of the earth.

25 A foolish son <sup>a</sup> is a grief to his father, and a bitterness to her that bare him.

26 Also to punish the just <sup>a</sup> is <sup>a</sup> not good, nor to strike princes for equity.

27 He that hath knowledge <sup>a</sup> spareth his words; and a man of understanding is of an excellent spirit.

28 Even a fool when he <sup>a</sup> holdeth his peace is counted wise; and he that shutteth his lips <sup>a</sup> is esteemed a man of understanding.

C H A P. XVIII.

THROUGH desire a man, having <sup>a</sup> separated himself, seeketh and intermeddleth with all wisdom.

2 A fool hath <sup>a</sup> no delight in understanding, but that <sup>a</sup> his heart may discover itself.

3 When the <sup>a</sup> wicked cometh, then cometh also contempt, and with <sup>a</sup> ignominy reproach.

4 The words of a man's mouth <sup>a</sup> are <sup>a</sup> as deep waters, and the well-spring of wisdom <sup>a</sup> as a flowing brook.

5 It is not good <sup>a</sup> to accept the person of the wicked, to overthrow the righteous in judgment.

6 A fool's lips <sup>a</sup> enter into contention, and his mouth calleth for strokes.

7 A fool's mouth <sup>a</sup> is his <sup>a</sup> destruction, and his lips <sup>a</sup> are the <sup>a</sup> snare of his soul.

8 The words of <sup>a</sup> a tale-bearer <sup>a</sup> are as <sup>a</sup> wounds, and they go down into the innermost parts of the belly.

9 He also that is <sup>a</sup> slothful in his work is brother to him that is a great waster.

10 The name of the LORD <sup>a</sup> is a strong tower; the righteous <sup>a</sup> runneth into it, and is <sup>a</sup> safe.

11 The rich man's <sup>a</sup> wealth <sup>a</sup> is his strong city, and as an high wall in his own conceit.

13 He that answereth a matter before <sup>a</sup> he heareth it, it is <sup>a</sup> folly and shame unto him.

14 <sup>a</sup> The spirit of a man will sustain his infirmity: <sup>a</sup> but <sup>a</sup> a wounded spirit who can bear?

15 The heart of the prudent getteth knowledge; and the <sup>a</sup> ear of the wise seeketh knowledge.

16 <sup>a</sup> A man's gift maketh room for him, and bringeth him before great men.

17 He that is <sup>a</sup> first in his own cause seemeth just; but his neighbour cometh and <sup>a</sup> searcheth him.

18 The <sup>a</sup> lot causeth contentions to cease, and parteth between the mighty.

19 <sup>a</sup> A brother offended <sup>a</sup> is harder to be won than a strong city; and their <sup>a</sup> contentions are like the bars of a castle.

20 A man's belly shall be satisfied with the <sup>a</sup> fruit of his mouth; and with the increase of his lips shall he be filled.

21 Death and life <sup>a</sup> are in the power of the tongue; and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof.

22 Whoso findeth <sup>a</sup> a wife findeth a good thing, and obtaineth favour of the LORD.

23 The poor useth <sup>a</sup> entreaties; but the rich answereth <sup>a</sup> roughly.

24 A man that hath friends must shew himself friendly: and there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother.

C H A P. XIX.

BETTER <sup>a</sup> is the poor that walketh in his integrity, than he that is perverse in his lips, and is a fool.

2 Also, that the soul <sup>a</sup> be <sup>a</sup> without knowledge, it is not good; and he that <sup>a</sup> hasteth with his feet sinneth.

3 The foolishness of man <sup>a</sup> perverteth his way: and his heart <sup>a</sup> fretteth against the LORD.

4 Wealth maketh many <sup>a</sup> friends; but the poor is <sup>a</sup> separated from his neighbour.

5 A false witness shall not be <sup>a</sup> unpunished; and he that speaketh lies shall not escape.

6 Many will entreat the favour of the prince; and every man <sup>a</sup> is a friend to him that <sup>a</sup> giveth gifts.

7 All the brethren of the poor do hate him; how much more do his friends go <sup>a</sup> far from him? he pursueth them with words, yet they are wanting to him.

8 He that getteth wisdom loveth his own soul: he that <sup>a</sup> keepeth understanding shall find good.

9 A false witness shall not be unpunished; and he that speaketh lies shall perish.

10 Delight <sup>a</sup> is not seemly for a fool; much less for a servant <sup>a</sup> to have rule over princes.

11 The discretion of a man <sup>a</sup> deferreth his anger; and it is his glory to <sup>a</sup> pass over a transgression.

12 The king's wrath <sup>a</sup> is as the roaring <sup>a</sup> of a lion: but his favour <sup>a</sup> is as dew upon the grass.

15 <sup>a</sup> Slothfulness casteth into a deep sleep; and an idle soul shall <sup>a</sup> suffer hunger.

16 He that <sup>a</sup> keepeth the commandment keepeth his own soul; but he that despiseth his ways shall die.

17 He that hath pity upon the poor <sup>a</sup> lendeth unto the LORD; and that which he hath given will he <sup>a</sup> pay him again.

18 Chasten thy son while there is <sup>a</sup> hope, and let not thy soul spare for his crying.

19 A man of <sup>a</sup> great wrath shall suffer punishment: for if thou deliver him, yet thou must do it again.

20 Hear counsel, and receive instruction, that thou mayest be wise in thy <sup>a</sup> latter end.

21 There are many devices in a man's heart; nevertheless, the counsel of the LORD, that shall <sup>a</sup> stand.

22 The desire of a man <sup>a</sup> is <sup>a</sup> his kindness: and a poor man <sup>a</sup> is <sup>a</sup> better than a liar.

3 It is an honour for a man<sup>c</sup> to cease from strife: but every fool will be meddling.

4 The sluggard will not plow by reason of the cold; therefore shall he<sup>d</sup> beg in harvest, and have nothing.

5 Counsel in the heart of man is like deep water: but a man of understanding will<sup>e</sup> draw it out.

6 Most men will<sup>f</sup> proclaim every one his own goodness: but a faithful man<sup>g</sup> who can find?

7 The just man walketh in his<sup>h</sup> integrity; his children are blessed after him.

8 A king that sitteth in the<sup>i</sup> throne of judgment scattereth away all evil with his eyes.

9 Who can say, I have made my<sup>k</sup> heart clean, I am pure from my sin?

10<sup>l</sup> Divers weights, and divers measures, both of them are alike abomination to the LORD.

23 Divers weights are an abomination unto the LORD; and a false balance is not good.

24 Man's goings are<sup>e</sup> of the LORD: how can a man then<sup>f</sup> understand his own way?

25 It is a snare to the man who devoureth that which is holy, and<sup>g</sup> after vows to make inquiry.

26 A wise king scattereth the wicked, and bringeth the<sup>h</sup> wheel over them.

27 The spirit of man is the candle of the LORD,<sup>i</sup> searching all the inward parts of the belly.

28<sup>k</sup> Mercy and truth preserve the king; and his throne is upholden by mercy.

THE king's<sup>a</sup> heart is in the<sup>b</sup> hand of the LORD, as the rivers of water; he turneth it whithersoever he will.

3 To do justice and judgment is more acceptable to the LORD than<sup>d</sup> sacrifice.

4 An high look, and a proud heart, and the<sup>e</sup> plowing of the wicked, is sin.

5 The thoughts of the diligent tend only to plenteousness; but of every one that is hasty, only to want.

6 The getting of treasures by<sup>f</sup> a lying tongue is a vanity tossed to and fro of them that seek death.

7 The robbery of the wicked shall<sup>g</sup> destroy them; because they refuse to do judgment.

8 The way of man is froward and strange: but as for the<sup>h</sup> pure, his work is right.

9 It is better to dwell in a corner of the house-top, than with a brawling woman in a wide house.

15 It is a joy to the just to do judgment: but destruction shall be to the workers of iniquity.

16 The man that wandereth out of the way of understanding shall remain in the congregation of the dead.

17 He that loveth a pleasure shall be a poor man; he that loveth wine and oil shall not be rich.

18 The wicked shall be a ransom for the righteous, and the transgressor for the upright.

19 It is better to dwell in the wilderness, than with a contentious and an angry woman.

20 There is treasure to be desired, and oil in the dwelling of the wise: but a foolish man spendeth it up.

21 He that followeth after righteousness and mercy, findeth life, righteousness, and honour.

22 A wise man scaleth the city of the mighty, and casteth down the strength of the confidence thereof.

23 Whoso keepeth his mouth and his tongue, keepeth his soul from troubles.

24 Proud and haughty scorner is his name, who dealeth in proud wrath.

25 The desire of the slothful killeth him; for his hands refuse to labour.

26 He coveteth greedily all the day long: but the righteous giveth and spareth not.

27 The sacrifice of the wicked is abomination: how much more, when he bringeth it with a wicked mind?

28 A false witness shall perish: but the man that heareth speaketh constantly.

29 A wicked man hardeneth his face: but as for the upright, he directeth his way.

30 There is no wisdom, nor understanding, nor counsel, against the Lord.

31 The horse is prepared against the day of battle: but safety is of the Lord.

C H A P. XXII.

A GOOD name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and loving favour rather than silver and gold.

2 The rich and poor meet together: the Lord is the maker of them all.

3 A prudent man foreseeth the evil, and hideth himself: but the simple pass on, and are punished.

4 By humility, and the fear of the Lord, are riches, and honour, and life.

5 Thorns and snares are in the way of the froward: he that doth keep his soul shall be far from them.

6 Train up a child in the way he should go; and when he is old, he will not depart from it.

7 The rich ruleth over the poor, and the borrower is servant to the lender.

8 He that soweth iniquity shall reap vanity; and the rod of his anger shall fail.

9 He that hath a bountiful eye shall be blessed; for he giveth of his bread to the poor.

10 Cast out the scorner, and contention shall go out; yea, strife and reproach shall cease.

BE not thou <sup>a</sup> envious against evil men, neither desire to be with them:

2 For their heart <sup>b</sup> studieth destruction, and their lips <sup>c</sup> talk of mischief.

3 Through wisdom is an house <sup>d</sup> builded, and by understanding it is established;

17 For a just man falleth seven times, and <sup>t</sup> riseth up again: but the wicked shall <sup>u</sup> fall into mischief.

18 Rejoice not when thine enemy falleth; and let not thine heart be glad when he stumbleth;

10 Whoso causeth the righteous to go astray in an evil way, he shall fall himself into his own pit: but the upright shall have <sup>k</sup> good things in possession.

11 The rich man is wise <sup>l</sup> in his own conceit; but the poor that hath understanding searcheth him out.

12 When righteous men do <sup>m</sup> rejoice, there is great glory: but when the wicked rise, a man is <sup>n</sup> hidden.

13 He that <sup>o</sup> covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whoso <sup>p</sup> confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy.

14 Happy is the man that <sup>q</sup> feareth alway: but he that <sup>r</sup> hardeneth his heart shall fall into mischief.

15 As a <sup>s</sup> roaring lion, and a ranging bear; so is <sup>t</sup> a wicked ruler over the poor people.

16 The prince that wanteth understanding is also a great oppressor: but he that hateth covetousness shall prolong his days.

17 A man that doth violence to the blood of any person shall fly to the pit; let no man stay him.

18 Whoso walketh uprightly shall be saved: but he that is <sup>u</sup> perverse in his ways shall fall at once.

19 He that tilleth his land shall have <sup>x</sup> plenty of bread: but he that followeth after vain persons shall have <sup>y</sup> poverty enough.

20 A faithful man shall abound with blessings: but he that maketh haste to be rich shall not be innocent.

21 To have respect of persons is not good; for, for a piece of bread that man will transgress.

22 He that hasteth to be rich hath an evil eye, and <sup>z</sup> considereth not that poverty shall come upon him.

23 He that <sup>a</sup> rebuketh a man, afterwards shall find more favour than he that flattereth with the tongue.

24 Whoso robbeth his father or his mother, and saith, It is no transgression; the same is the companion of a destroyer.

25 He that is of a proud heart stirreth up strife: but he that <sup>b</sup> putteth his trust in the LORD shall be made fat.

26 He that <sup>c</sup> trusteth in his own heart is a fool: but whoso walketh wisely, he shall be delivered.

27 He that giveth unto the poor shall <sup>d</sup> not lack: but he that hideth his eyes shall have many a curse.

28 When the wicked rise, men hide themselves: but when they perish, the righteous <sup>e</sup> increase.

HE that, being often reprov'd, hardeneth his neck, shall suddenly be <sup>a</sup> destroyed, and that without remedy.

2 When the righteous are <sup>b</sup> in authority, the people rejoice: but when the wicked <sup>c</sup> beareth rule, the people mourn.

3 Whoso loveth wisdom rejoiceth his father: but he that keepeth company with harlots <sup>d</sup> spendeth his substance.

4 The king <sup>e</sup> by judgment establisheth the land: but he that receiveth <sup>f</sup> gifts overthroweth it.

5 A man that <sup>g</sup> flattereth his neighbour spreadeth a net for his feet.

6 In the transgression of an evil man there is a snare: but the righteous doth <sup>h</sup> sing and rejoice.

7 The righteous <sup>i</sup> considereth the cause of the poor: but the wicked regardeth not to know it.

8 Scornful men bring a city into a snare: but wise <sup>j</sup> men turn away wrath.

9 If a wise man contendeth with a foolish man, <sup>k</sup> whether he rage or laugh, there is no rest.

10 The blood-thirsty <sup>l</sup> hate the upright: but the just seek his soul.

11 A fool uttereth <sup>m</sup> all his mind: but a wise man keepeth it in till afterwards.

12 If a ruler hearken <sup>n</sup> to lies, all his servants are wicked.

13 The poor and the deceitful man meet together: the LORD <sup>o</sup> lighteneth both their eyes.

14 The king that <sup>p</sup> faithfully judgeth the poor, his throne shall be established for ever.

15 The rod and reproof give wisdom: but a child <sup>q</sup> left to himself bringeth his mother to shame.

16 When the wicked are multiplied, transgression increaseth: but the righteous shall see their <sup>r</sup> fall.

17 Correct thy son, and he shall give thee rest: yea, he shall give delight unto thy soul.

18 Where there is no vision, the people <sup>s</sup> perish: but he that keepeth the law, happy is he.

19 A servant will <sup>t</sup> not be corrected by words: for though he <sup>u</sup> understand, he will not answer.

20 Seest thou a man that is hasty in his words? there is more hope of a fool than of him.

21 He that <sup>v</sup> delicately bringeth up his servant from a child, shall have him become his son at the length.

22 An angry man stirreth up strife, and a furious man aboundeth in transgression.

23 A man's pride shall bring him <sup>w</sup> low: but honour shall uphold the humble in spirit.

24 Whoso <sup>x</sup> is <sup>y</sup> partner with a thief hateth his own soul: he heareth cursing, and bewrayeth it not.

25 The <sup>z</sup> fear of man bringeth a snare: but whoso putteth his trust in the LORD shall be safe.

26 Many seek the ruler's favour; but <sup>a</sup> every man's judgment cometh from the LORD.

27 An unjust man is an abomination to the <sup>b</sup> just; and he that is upright in the way is abomination to the wicked.

10 <sup>q</sup> Accuse not a servant unto his master, lest

12 There is a generation that are pure in their

13 There is a generation, O how <sup>t</sup> lofty are their eyes! and their eye-lids are lifted up.

14 There is a generation whose teeth are as swords, and their jaw-teeth as knives, to <sup>u</sup> devour the poor from off the earth, and the needy from among men.

15 The horse-leech hath two daughters, crying,

17 The eye that <sup>x</sup> mocketh at his father, and shall eat it.

18 There be three things which are too <sup>y</sup> wonder-

19 The way of an eagle in the air, the way of a serpent upon a rock, the way of a ship in 20 Such is the way of an <sup>z</sup> adulterous woman;

23 For an odious woman when she is married, and an handmaid that is heir to her mistress.

CHAP. I.

1 The Preacher sheweth that all human courses are vain ; A because the creatures are restless in their old things are forgotten : 12 and because he hath found it so in the studies of wisdom.

CHAP. II.

1 The vanity of human courses in the works of pleasure. 12 Though the wise be better than the fool, yet both have one event. 18 The vanity of human labour, in leaving it they know not to whom.
24 Nothing better than joy in our labour ; but that is God's gift.

I SAID <sup>a</sup> in mine heart, Go to now, I will prove thee with mirth ; therefore enjoy pleasure : and, behold, this also is <sup>b</sup> vanity.

2 I said <sup>c</sup> of laughter, It is mad : and of mirth,
What doeth it ?

3 I sought in mine heart to give myself unto wine, (<sup>d</sup> yet acquainting mine heart with wisdom,) and to lay hold on folly, till I might see what was that good for the sons of men which they should do under the heaven all the days of their life.

4 I <sup>e</sup> made me great works ; I builded me
<sup>f</sup> houses ; I planted me vineyards ;

5 I made me gardens and <sup>g</sup> orchards, and I planted trees in them <sup>h</sup> of all kind of fruits ;

6 I made me <sup>i</sup> pools of water, to water therewith the wood that bringeth forth trees ;

7 I got me servants and maidens, and had servants born in my house ; also I had <sup>k</sup> great possessions of great and small cattle above all that were in Jerusalem before me ;

8 I gathered me also silver and gold, and the peculiar treasure of kings and of the provinces ;
I gat me men-singers and women-singers, and all that were before me in Jerusalem: also my wisdom <sup>m</sup> remained with me.

10 And whatsoever <sup>a</sup> mine eyes desired I kept not from them; I withheld not my heart from any joy: for <sup>a</sup> my heart rejoiced in all my labour; and this was my portion of all my labour.

11 Then I <sup>p</sup> looked on all the works that my hands had wrought, and on the labour that I had laboured to do: and, behold, all was vanity and vexation of spirit, and there was <sup>q</sup> no profit under the sun.

12 And I turned myself to behold wisdom, and <sup>r</sup> madness, and folly: for what can the man do that cometh <sup>a</sup> after the king? even that which hath been already done.

13 Then I saw that <sup>t</sup> wisdom excelleth folly, as far as light excelleth darkness.

14 The wise man's eyes are in his head, but the fool walketh in darkness: and I myself perceived also that <sup>u</sup> one event happeneth to them all.

15 Then said I in my heart, As it happeneth to the fool, so it happeneth even to me: and why was I then <sup>x</sup> more wise? Then I said in my heart, that this also is vanity.

16 For there is no remembrance of the wise more than of the fool for ever; seeing that which now is, in the days to come shall be <sup>y</sup> forgotten. And how dieth the wise man? <sup>z</sup> As the fool.

17 Therefore I <sup>a</sup> hated life; because the work that is wrought under the sun is grievous unto me: for all is vanity and vexation of spirit.

18 Yea, <sup>b</sup> I hated all my labour which I had taken under the sun; because I should leave it unto the man that shall be after me.

19 And who knoweth whether he shall be a wise man <sup>c</sup> or a fool? yet shall he have rule over all my labour wherein I have laboured, and wherein I have shewed myself wise under the sun. This is also <sup>d</sup> vanity.

20 Therefore I went about to cause my heart <sup>e</sup> to despair of all the labour which I took under the sun.

21 For there is a man whose labour is in wisdom, and in knowledge, and in equity; yet to a man that hath not laboured therein shall he <sup>f</sup> leave it for his portion. This also is vanity, and a great evil.

22 For what hath man of <sup>g</sup> all his labour, and of the vexation of his heart, wherein he hath laboured under the sun?

23 For <sup>h</sup> all his days are sorrows, and his travail grief: yea, his heart taketh not <sup>i</sup> rest in the night. This also is vanity.

24 There is nothing better for a man than that he should eat and drink, and that he should make his soul enjoy good in his labour. This also I saw, that it was <sup>k</sup> from the hand of God.

25 For who can eat, or who else can hasten hereunto more than I?

26 For God giveth to a man that is <sup>l</sup> good in his sight, wisdom, and knowledge, and joy: but to the <sup>m</sup> sinner he giveth travail, to gather, and to heap up, that he may give to him that is good <sup>n</sup> before God. This also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

C H A P. III.

1 By the necessary change of times, vanity is added to human travail. 11 There is an excellency in God's work. 16 But as for man, God shall judge his works hereafter, and here he shall be like a beast.

TO every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:

2 A time to be <sup>a</sup> born, and a time to <sup>b</sup> die: a time to <sup>c</sup> plant, and a time to pluck <sup>d</sup> up that which is planted:

3 A time <sup>e</sup> to kill, and a time to heal: a time to break down, and a time to build up:

4 A time to <sup>f</sup> weep, and a time to <sup>g</sup> laugh: a time to mourn, and a time to dance:

5 A time <sup>h</sup> to cast away stones, and a time to <sup>i</sup> gather stones together: a time to embrace, and a time to <sup>j</sup> refrain from embracing.

6 A time to get, and a time to lose: a time to keep, and a time to cast away:

7 A time to rend, and a time to sew: a time to <sup>k</sup> keep silence, and a time to speak:

8 A time to love, and a time to <sup>l</sup> hate: a time of war, and a time of peace.

9 <sup>m</sup> What profit hath he that worketh in that wherein he laboureth?

10 I have <sup>n</sup> seen the travail which God hath <sup>o</sup> given to the sons of men to be exercised in it.

11 <sup>p</sup> He hath made every thing beautiful in his time: also he hath set the world in their heart; so that no man can <sup>q</sup> find out the work that God maketh from the beginning to the end.

12 I know that there is no good <sup>r</sup> in them, but for a man to rejoice, and to do good in his life.

13 And also that every man should <sup>s</sup> eat and drink, and enjoy the good of all his labour, it is the gift of God.

14 I know that whatsoever God doeth, it shall be <sup>t</sup> for ever: <sup>u</sup> nothing can be put to it, nor any thing taken from it: and God doeth it that men should fear before him.

15 That which hath been is now; and that which <sup>v</sup> is to be hath already been: and God requireth that which is past.

16 And, moreover, I saw under the sun the place of judgment, that <sup>w</sup> wickedness was there; and the place of righteousness that iniquity was there.

17 I said in mine heart, God shall <sup>x</sup> judge the righteous and the wicked: for there is a time there for every purpose, and for every work.

18 I said in my heart concerning the estate of the sons of men, that God might manifest them, and that they might see that they themselves are <sup>y</sup> beasts.

19 For that which befalleth the sons of men befalleth beasts; even one thing befalleth them: as the one dieth, so dieth the other; yea, they have all one breath: so that a man hath <sup>z</sup> no pre-eminence above a beast: for all is vanity.

20 All go unto <sup>a</sup> one place: all are of the dust, and all turn to dust again.

21 Who knoweth the spirit of man that goeth <sup>b</sup> upward, and the spirit of the beast that goeth downward to the earth?

C H A P. IV.

1 Vanity is increased unto men by oppression, 4 by envy, 5 by idleness, 7 by covetousness, 9 by solitariness, 13 by wilfulness.

SO I returned, and considered all the oppressions that are done under the sun: and behold, the tears of such as were oppressed, and they had no comforter; and on the side of their oppressors there was power; but they had no comforter.

2 Wherefore I praised the dead which are already dead, more than the living which are yet alive.

3 Yea, better is he than both they which hath not yet been, who hath not seen the evil work that is done under the sun.

4 ¶ Again, I considered all travail, and every right work, that for this a man is envied of his neighbour. This is also vanity and vexation of spirit.

5 The fool foldeth his hands together, and eateth his own flesh.

6 Better is an handful with quietness, than both the hands full with travail and vexation of spirit.

7 ¶ Then I returned, and I saw vanity under the sun.

8 There is one alone and there is not a second; yea, he hath neither child nor brother: yet is there no end of all his labour; neither is his eye satisfied with riches; neither saith he, For whom do I labour, and bereave my soul of good? This is also vanity, yea, it is a sore travail.

9 ¶ Two are better than one; because they have a good reward for their labour.

10 For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow: but wo to him that is alone when he falleth; for he hath not another to help him up.

11 Again, if two lie together, then they have heat: but how can one be warm alone?

12 And if one prevail against him, two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

13 ¶ Better is a poor and a wise child than an old and foolish king, who will no more be admonished.

14 For out of prison he cometh to reign; whereas also he that is born in his kingdom becometh poor.

15 I considered all the living which walk under the sun, with the second child that shall stand up in his stead.

16 There is no end of all the people, even of all that have been before them: they also that come after shall not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

C H A P. V.

1 Vanities in divine service, 8 in murmuring against oppression, 9 and in riches. 13 Joy in riches is the gift of God.

KEEP thy foot when thou goest to the house of God, and be more ready to hear than to give the sacrifice of fools: for they consider not that they do evil.

2 Be not rash with thy mouth, and let not thine heart be hasty to utter any thing before God; for God is in heaven, and thou upon earth: therefore let thy words be few.

3 For a dream cometh through the multitude of business; and a fool's voice is known by multitude of words.

4 When thou vowest a vow unto God, defer not to pay it; for he hath no pleasure in fools: pay that which thou hast vowed.

5 Better is it that thou shouldst not vow, than that thou shouldst vow and not pay.

6 Suffer not thy mouth to cause thy flesh to sin; neither say thou before the angel, that it was an error: wherefore should God be angry at thy voice, and destroy the work of thine hands?

7 For in the multitude of dreams and many words there are also divers vanities: but fear thou God.

8 If thou seest the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not at the matter: for he that is higher than the highest regardeth; and there be higher than they.

9 Moreover, the profit of the earth is for all: the king himself is served by the field.

10 He that loveth silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he that loveth abundance with increase. This is also vanity.

11 When goods increase, they are increased that eat them: and what good is there to the owners thereof, saving the beholding of them with their eyes?

12 The sleep of a labouring man is sweet, whether he eat little or much: but the abundance of the rich will not suffer him to sleep.

13 There is a sore evil which I have seen under the sun, namely, riches kept for the owners thereof to their hurt.

14 But those riches perish by evil travail; and he begetteth a son, and there is nothing in his hand.

15 As he came forth of his mother's womb, naked shall he return to go as he came, and shall take nothing of his labour, which he may carry away in his hand.

16 And this also is a sore evil, that in all points as he came so shall he go: and what profit hath he that hath laboured for the wind?

17 All his days also he eateth in darkness, and he hath much sorrow and wrath with his sickness.

18 Behold that which I have seen: it is good and comely for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy the good of all his labour that he taketh under the sun all the days of his life, which God giveth him; for it is his portion.

19 Every man also to whom God hath given riches and wealth, and hath given him power to eat thereof, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labour; this is the gift of God.

4 The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning: but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth.

i Acts 2, 37.

5 It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise, than for a man to hear the song of fools.

6 For as the crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of the fool. This also is vanity.

7 Surely oppression maketh a wise man mad; and a gift destroyeth the heart.

8 Better is the end of a thing than the beginning thereof; and the patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit.

9 Be not hasty in thy spirit to be angry: for anger resteth in the bosom of fools.

10 Say not thou, What is the cause that the former days were better than these? for thou dost not inquire wisely concerning this.

11 Wisdom is good with an inheritance; and by it there is profit to them that see the sun.

12 For wisdom is a defence, and money is a defence: but the excellency of knowledge is, that wisdom giveth life to them that have it.

13 Consider the work of God: for who can make that straight which he hath made crooked?

14 In the day of prosperity be joyful, but in the day of adversity consider: God also hath set the one over against the other, to the end that man should find nothing after him.

15 All things have I seen in the days of my vanity: there is a just man that perisheth in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man that longeth his life in his wickedness.

16 Be not righteous over-much; neither make thyself over-wise: why shouldest thou destroy thyself?

17 Be not over-much wicked, neither be thou foolish: why shouldest thou die before thy time?

18 It is good that thou shouldest take hold of this; yea, also from this withdraw not thine hand: for he that feareth God shall come forth of them all.

19 Wisdom strengtheneth the wise more than ten mighty men which are in the city.

20 For there is not a just man upon earth, that doeth good, and sinneth not.

21 Also take no heed unto all words that are spoken; lest thou hear thy servant curse thee:

22 For oftentimes also thine own heart knoweth that thou thyself likewise hast cursed others.

23 All this have I proved by wisdom: I said, I will be wise; but it was far from me.

24 That which is far off, and exceeding deep, who can find it out?

25 I applied mine heart to know, and to search, and to seek out wisdom, and the reason of things, and to know the wickedness of folly, even of foolishness and madness:

26 And I find more bitter than death the woman whose heart is snares and nets, and her hands as bands: whoso pleaseth God shall escape from her; but the sinner shall be taken by her.

27 Behold, this have I found, (saith the Preacher,) counting one by one, to find out the account;

28 Which yet my soul seeketh, but I find not:

1 Like things happen to good and bad. 4 There is a necessity of death unto men. 7 Comfort is all their portion in this life. 11 God's providence ruleth over all. 13 Wisdom is better than strength.

FOR all this I considered in my heart, even to declare all this, that the righteous, and the wise and their works, are in the hand of God: no man knoweth either love or hatred by all that is before them.

the sons of men <sup>r</sup> snared in an evil time, when it falleth <sup>r</sup> suddenly upon them.

13 This wisdom have I seen also under the sun, and it seemed great unto me :

14 There was a little <sup>t</sup> city, and few men within it; and there came <sup>a</sup> a great king against it, and besieged it, and built great bulwarks against it.

15 Now there was found in it <sup>a</sup> a poor wise man, and he <sup>y</sup> by his wisdom delivered the city; yet no man <sup>z</sup> remembered that same poor man.

16 Then said I, Wisdom <sup>a</sup> is better than strength: nevertheless the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard.

17 The words of wise men are heard <sup>b</sup> in quiet, more than the cry of him that ruleth among fools.

18 Wisdom is better than weapons of war: but <sup>c</sup> one sinner destroyeth much good.

C H A P. X.

1 Observations of wisdom and folly, 16 of riot, 18 slothfulness, 19 and money. 20 Men's thoughts of kings ought to be reverent.

DEAD flies cause the ointment of the apothecary to send forth a stinking savour: so doth <sup>a</sup> a little folly him that is in reputation for wisdom and honour.

2 A wise man's heart is at his <sup>b</sup> right hand; but a fool's heart at <sup>c</sup> his left.

3 Yea also, when he that is a fool walketh by the way, his wisdom faileth him, and <sup>d</sup> he saith to every one that he is a fool.

4 If the spirit of the ruler rise up against thee, leave not <sup>e</sup> thy place; for <sup>e</sup> yielding pacifieth great offences.

5 There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, as an <sup>f</sup> error which proceedeth from the ruler;

6 Folly is set in great dignity, and the <sup>g</sup> rich sit in low place.

7 I have seen <sup>h</sup> <sup>a</sup> servants upon horses, and princes walking as servants upon the earth.

8 He that <sup>i</sup> diggeth a pit shall fall into it; and whoso <sup>k</sup> breaketh an hedge, a serpent shall bite him.

9 Whoso removeth stones shall be hurt there-with; and he that cleaveth wood shall be endangered thereby.

10 If the iron be blunt, and he do not whet the edge, then must he put to more strength: but <sup>l</sup> wisdom is profitable to direct.

11 Surely the <sup>m</sup> serpent will bite without enchantment; and a babbler is no better.

12 The words of a wise man's mouth are <sup>n</sup> gracious: but the lips of a fool will <sup>o</sup> swallow up himself.

13 The <sup>p</sup> beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness: and the end of his talk is mischievous madness.

14 A fool also is <sup>q</sup> full of words: a man cannot tell what shall be; and what shall be after him who can tell him?

15 The labour of the foolish wearieth every one of them; because he knoweth not how to go to the <sup>r</sup> city.

16 Wo to thee, O land, when thy king is <sup>a</sup> a child, and thy princes eat in the morning!

17 Blessed art thou, O land, when thy king is the son of <sup>t</sup> nobles, and thy princes eat in due season, for strength, and not for drunkenness!

18 By much slothfulness the building decayeth; and through idleness of the hands the house droppeth through.

19 A feast is made for laughter, and wine maketh merry: but money answereth all things.

20 <sup>u</sup> Curse not the king, no, not in thy thought; and curse not the rich in thy bed-chamber: for <sup>v</sup> a bird of the air shall carry the voice, and that which hath wings shall tell the matter.

CAST thy bread <sup>a</sup> upon the waters: for thou shalt find it <sup>b</sup> after many days.

2 Give a <sup>c</sup> portion to seven, and also to eight; for thou knowest not what evil shall be upon the earth.

3 If the <sup>d</sup> clouds be full of rain, they empty themselves upon the earth: and if the tree fall toward the south, or toward the north, in the place, where the tree falleth, there it shall be.

4 He that <sup>e</sup> observeth the wind, shall not sow; and he that regardeth the clouds, shall not reap.

5 As thou knowest not what is the way of the || spirit, nor how <sup>f</sup> the bones do grow in the womb of her that is with child; even so thou knowest not the works of God who maketh all.

6 In the morning sow thy <sup>g</sup> seed, and in the evening withhold not thine hand: for thou knowest not whether shall prosper, either this or that, or whether they both shall be alike good.

7 Truly the <sup>h</sup> light is sweet, and a pleasant thing it is for the eyes to behold the sun:

8 But if a man live many years, and rejoice in them all; yet let him <sup>i</sup> remember the days of darkness; for they shall be <sup>k</sup> many. All that cometh is vanity.

9 <sup>l</sup> Rejoice, O young man, in thy youth, and let thy heart cheer thee in the days of thy youth, and walk in the ways of thine heart, and in the sight of thine eyes: but know thou, that for all these things God will bring thee into <sup>m</sup> judgment.

10 Therefore remove sorrow from thy heart, and put away <sup>n</sup> evil from thy flesh: for childhood and youth are vanity.

I AM <sup>a</sup> come into my garden, my sister, my spouse: I have gathered my <sup>b</sup> myrrh with my spice; I have eaten my honey-comb with my honey; I have drunk my wine with my milk: eat, O <sup>c</sup> friends; drink, yea, drink abundantly, O beloved.

2 ¶ I sleep, but my heart waketh: it is the voice of my beloved that <sup>d</sup> knocketh, saying, Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my undefiled: for my head is filled with dew, and my locks with the drops of the night.

3 I have put off my coat; <sup>e</sup> how shall I put it on? I have washed my feet; how shall I defile them?

4 My beloved put in his <sup>f</sup> hand by the hole of the door, and my bowels were moved for him.

5 I rose up to open to my beloved; and my hands dropped with myrrh, and my fingers with sweet-smelling myrrh, upon the handles of the lock.

6 I <sup>g</sup> opened to my beloved; but my beloved had withdrawn himself, and was gone: my soul <sup>h</sup> failed when he spake; I sought him, but I could not find him; I called him, but he gave me no <sup>i</sup> answer.

7 The watchmen that went about the city <sup>k</sup> found me, they <sup>k</sup> smote me, they wounded me; the keepers of the walls took away my vail from me.

8 I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, if ye find my beloved, that ye tell him, that I am sick of love.

9 What is thy beloved <sup>l</sup> more than another beloved, O thou <sup>m</sup> fairest among women? what is thy beloved more than another beloved, that thou dost so charge us?

10 My beloved is <sup>n</sup> white and ruddy, the <sup>o</sup> chiefest among ten thousand.

11 His head is as the most fine gold; his locks <sup>p</sup> are bushy, and <sup>p</sup> black as a raven:

12 His eyes are as the eyes of <sup>q</sup> doves by the rivers of water, washed with milk, and fitly set:

13 His cheeks are as a bed of spices, as sweet flowers; his lips like lilies, dropping <sup>r</sup> sweet-smelling myrrh:

1 The love of the church to Christ. 6 The vehemency of love. 8 The calling of the Gentiles.

14 The church prayeth for Christ's coming.

O H that thou wert as my brother, that sucked the breasts of my mother! when I should find thee without, I would kiss thee; yea, I should not be despised.

2 I would lead thee, and bring thee into my mother's house, who would instruct me: I would cause thee to drink of spiced wine of the juice of my pomegranate.

3 His left hand should be under my head, and his right hand should embrace me.

4 I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love, until he please.

5 (Who is this that cometh up from the wilderness, leaning upon her beloved?) I raised thee up under the apple-tree: there thy mother brought thee forth; there she brought thee forth that bare thee.

6 Set me as a seal upon thine heart, as a seal upon thine arm: for love is strong as death; jealousy is cruel as the grave: the coals thereof are coals of fire, which hath a most vehement flame.

7 Many waters cannot quench love, neither can the floods drown it: if a man would give all the substance of his house for love, it would utterly be contemned.

8 We have a little sister, and she hath no breasts: what shall we do for our sister in the day when she shall be spoken for?

9 If she be a wall, we will build upon her a palace of silver: and if she be a door, we will enclose her with boards of cedar.

10 I am a wall, and my breasts like towers: then was I in his eyes as one that found favour.

11 Solomon had a vineyard at Baal-hamon; he let out the vineyard unto keepers: every one for the fruit thereof was to bring a thousand pieces of silver.

12 My vineyard, which is mine, is before me: thou, O Solomon, must have a thousand, and those that keep the fruit thereof two hundred.

13 Thou that dwellest in the gardens, the companions hearken to thy voice: cause me to hear it.

14 Make haste, my beloved, and be thou like to a roe, or to a young hart, upon the mountains of spices.

¶ The BOOK of the Prophet ISAIAH.

CHAP. I.

2 Isaiah complaineth of Judah for her rebellion: 5 He lamenteth her judgments: 10 He upbraideth their whole service: 16 He exhorteth to repentance, with promises and threatenings. 21 Bewailing their wickedness, he denounceth God's judgments: 25 He promiseth grace, 28 and threateneth destruction to the wicked.

THE vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

2 Hear, O heavens; and give ear, O earth; for the LORD hath spoken: I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against me:

3 The ox knoweth his owner, and the ass his master's crib: but Israel doth not know, my people doth not consider.

4 Ah, sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evil-doers, children that are corrupters! they have forsaken the LORD, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are gone away backward.

5 Why should ye be stricken any more? ye will revolt more and more. The whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint.

6 From the sole of the foot even unto the head there is no soundness in it; but wounds, and bruises, and putrefying sores: they have not been closed, neither bound up, neither mollified with ointment.

7 Your country is desolate, your cities are burnt with fire: your land, strangers devour it in your presence, and it is desolate, as overthrown by strangers.

8 And the daughter of Zion is left as a cottage in a vineyard, as a lodge in a garden of cucumbers, as a besieged city.

9 Except the LORD of hosts had left unto us a very small remnant, we should have been as Sodom, and we should have been like unto Gomorrah.

10 Hear the word of the LORD, ye rulers of Sodom; give ear unto the law of our God, ye people of Gomorrah:

11 To what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices unto me? saith the LORD: I am full of the burnt-offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts; and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of he-goats.

12 When ye come to appear before me, who hath required this at your hand to tread my courts?

13 Bring no more vain oblations: incense is an abomination unto me; the new moons and sabbaths, the calling of assemblies, I cannot away with: it is iniquity, even the solemn meeting.

14 Your new moons and your appointed feasts my soul hateth: they are a trouble unto me; I am weary to bear them.

15 And when ye spread forth your hands I will hide mine eyes from you; yea, when ye make many prayers I will not hear: your hands are full of blood.

16 Wash you, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes; cease to do evil;

17 Learn to do well: seek judgment, relieve the oppressed; judge the fatherless; plead for the widow.

18 Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: Though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.

19 If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land:

20 But if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the sword: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

21 How is the faithful city become an harlot! it was full of judgment; righteousness lodged in it; but now murderers.

22 Thy silver is become dross, thy wine mixed with water:

23 Thy princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves: every one loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards: they judge not the fatherless, neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them.

24 Therefore saith the LORD, the LORD of hosts, the mighty One of Israel, Ah, I will ease me of mine adversaries, and avenge me of mine enemies:

25 And I will turn my hand upon thee, and purely purge away thy dross, and take away all thy tin:

26 And I will restore thy judges as at the first, and thy counsellors as at the beginning: afterward thou shalt be called, The city of righteousness, The faithful city.

27 Zion shall be redeemed with judgment, and her converts with righteousness.

28 And the destruction of the transgressors and of the sinners shall be together; and they that forsake the LORD shall be consumed.

29 For they shall be ashamed of the oaks which ye have desired, and ye shall be confounded for the gardens that ye have chosen.

30 For ye shall be as an oak whose leaf fadeth, and as a garden that hath no water.

31 And the strong shall be as tow, and the maker of it as a spark, and they shall both burn together, and none shall quench them.

C H A P. 11.

1 Isaiah prophesieth the coming of Christ's kingdom.

6 Wickedness is the cause of God's forsaking: 10 He exhorteth to fear, because of the powerful effects of God's majesty.

THE word that Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem.

2 And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the LORD's house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it.

3 And many people shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

4 And he shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people; and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning-hooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

5 O house of Jacob, come ye, and let us walk in the light of the LORD.

6 Therefore thou hast forsaken thy people, the house of Jacob, because they be replenished from the east, and are soothsayers like the Philistines, and they please themselves in the children of strangers.

7 Their land also is full of silver and gold, neither is there any end of their treasures; their land is also full of horses, neither is there any end of their chariots.

8 Their land also is full of idols; they worship the work of their own hands, that which their own fingers have made.

9 And the mean man boweth down, and the great man humbleth himself: therefore forgive them not.

10 Enter into the rock, and hide thee in the dust, for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty.

11 The lofty looks of man shall be humbled, and the haughtiness of men shall be bowed down; and the LORD alone shall be exalted in that day.

12 For the day of the LORD of hosts shall be upon every one that is proud and lofty, and upon every one that is lifted up, and he shall be brought low;

13 And upon all the cedars of Lebanon, that are high and lifted up, and upon all the oaks of Bashan,

14 And upon all the high mountains, and upon all the hills that are lifted up,

15 And upon every high tower, and upon every fenced wall,

16 And upon all the ships of Tarshish, and upon all pleasant pictures.

17 And the loftiness of man shall be bowed down, and the haughtiness of men shall be made low; and the LORD alone shall be exalted in that day.

1 Isaiah, in a vision of the Lord in his glory, being terrified, is confirmed for his message: 9 He sheweth the obstinacy of the people unto their desolation. 13 A remnant shall be saved.

IN the year that king Uzziah<sup>a</sup> died I saw also the LORD<sup>b</sup> sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and his train filled the temple.

2 Above it stood the<sup>c</sup> seraphims: each one had six wings; with twain he covered his<sup>d</sup> face, and with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly.

3 And one cried unto another, and said, <sup>e</sup> Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory.

4 And the<sup>f</sup> posts of the door moved at the voice of him that cried, and the house was<sup>h</sup> filled with smoke.

5 Then said I, <sup>i</sup> Wo is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of<sup>k</sup> unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts.

6 Then<sup>l</sup> flew one of the seraphims unto me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the<sup>m</sup> altar;

7 And he laid it upon my mouth, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy lips, and thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin purged.

8 Also I heard the<sup>n</sup> voice of the LORD, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go<sup>o</sup> for us? Then I said, Here am I; <sup>p</sup> send me.

9 And he said, <sup>q</sup> Go and tell this people, <sup>r</sup> Hear ye indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not.

10 <sup>s</sup> Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; <sup>t</sup> lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and convert, and be healed.

11 Then said I, LORD, how long? And he answered, Until the<sup>u</sup> cities be wasted without inhabitant, and the houses without man, and the land be<sup>v</sup> utterly desolate;

12 And the LORD have removed men far away, and there be<sup>w</sup> a great forsaking in the midst of the land.

13 But yet in it shall be a<sup>x</sup> tenth, and it shall return, and shall be eaten: as a teil-tree, and as an oak, whose substance is in them when they cast their leaves, so the<sup>y</sup> holy seed shall be the substance thereof.

1 Ahaz being troubled with fear of Rezin and Pekah, is comforted by Isaiah. 10 Ahaz, having liberty to choose a sign, and refusing, hath for a sign, Christ promised: 17 His judgment is prophesied to come by Assyria.

AND it came to pass in the days of<sup>a</sup> Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah king of Judah, that Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up towards Jerusalem to<sup>b</sup> war against it, but could<sup>c</sup> not prevail against it.

2 And it was told the house of David, saying, Syria is<sup>d</sup> confederate with Ephraim: and<sup>e</sup> his heart was moved, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the wood are moved with the wind.

3 Then said the LORD unto Isaiah, Go forth now to meet Ahaz, thou and<sup>h</sup> Shear-jashub thy son, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool, in the highway of the fuller's field;

4 And say unto him, Take heed, and be<sup>i</sup> quiet; fear not, neither be faint-hearted, for the two tails of these<sup>j</sup> smoking fire-brands, for the fierce anger of Rezin with Syria, and of the son of Remaliah.

5 Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah, <sup>k</sup> have taken evil counsel against thee, saying,

6 Let us go up against Judah, and vex it, and let us make a breach therein<sup>l</sup> for us, and set<sup>m</sup> a king in the midst of it, even the son of Tabeal:

7 Thus saith the LORD God, It shall<sup>n</sup> not stand, neither shall it come to pass.

8 For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin; and within<sup>o</sup> threescore and five years shall Ephraim be broken, that it be<sup>p</sup> not a people.

9 And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is<sup>q</sup> Remaliah's son. If ye will not believe, surely ye shall<sup>r</sup> not be established.

10 Moreover, the LORD spake again unto Ahaz, saying,

11 <sup>s</sup> Ask thee a sign of the LORD thy God: <sup>t</sup> ask it either in the depth, or in the height above.

12 But Ahaz said, I will not ask, neither will I<sup>u</sup> tempt the LORD.

13 And he said, Hear ye now, O house of David; Is it a small thing for you to<sup>v</sup> weary men, but will ye weary my God also?

14 Therefore the LORD himself shall give you a sign: Behold, <sup>w</sup> a Virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name<sup>x</sup> Immanuel.

15 Butter and honey shall<sup>y</sup> he eat, that he may<sup>z</sup> know to refuse the evil, and choose the good:

16 For before the child shall know to refuse the evil, and choose the good, the<sup>aa</sup> land that thou abhorrest shall be forsaken of both her kings.

17 The LORD shall bring<sup>ab</sup> upon thee, and upon thy people, and upon thy<sup>ac</sup> father's house, days that have not come, from the day that Ephraim departed from Judah; even the king of Assyria.

18 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall hiss for the<sup>ad</sup> fly that is in the uttermost part of the rivers of Egypt, and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria:

19 And they shall come, and shall rest<sup>ae</sup> all of them in the desolate valleys, and in the holes of the rocks, and upon all thorns, and upon all bushes.

20 In the same day shall the LORD shave with a razor that is<sup>af</sup> hired, namely, by them beyond the river, by the king of Assyria, the head, and the hair of the<sup>ag</sup> feet: and it shall also consume the beard.

1 In Maher-shalal-hash-baz, he prophesieth that Syria and Israel shall be subdued by Assyria; 5 Judah likewise for their infidelity. 9 God's judgments shall be irresistible. 11 Comfort shall be to them that fear God. 19 Great afflictions to idolaters.

MOREOVER the LORD said unto me, Take thee a great <sup>a</sup> rott, and write in it with a man's pen concerning <sup>b</sup> Maher-shalal-hash-baz.

2 And I took unto me faithful <sup>c</sup> witnesses to record, <sup>d</sup> Uriah the priest, and Zechariah the son of Jeberchiah.

3 And I <sup>e</sup> went unto the prophetess; and she conceived and bare a son. Then said the LORD to me, Call his name Maher-shalal-hash-baz:

4 For <sup>f</sup> before the child shall have knowledge to cry, My father, and, my mother, the <sup>g</sup> riches of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria shall be taken away before the king of Assyria.

5 ¶ The LORD spake also unto me again, saying,

6 Forsomuch as this people refuseth the waters of <sup>h</sup> Shiloah that go softly, and <sup>i</sup> rejoice in Rezin and Remaliah's son;

7 Now therefore, behold, the LORD bringeth up upon them the waters of the river, <sup>k</sup> strong and many, even the <sup>l</sup> king of Assyria, and all his glory: and he shall come up over all his channels, and go over all his banks:

8 And he shall pass through Judah; he shall overflow and go over; he shall reach even to the <sup>m</sup> neck: and the stretching out of his wings shall fill the breadth of thy land, O Immanuel.

9 <sup>n</sup> Associate yourselves, O ye people, and ye shall be <sup>o</sup> broken in pieces; and give ear, all ye of far countries: gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces; gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces.

10 Take counsel together, and it shall come to nought; speak the word, and it shall not stand: for <sup>p</sup> God is with us.

11 For the LORD spake thus to me with a strong hand, and <sup>q</sup> instructed me, that I should not walk in the way of this people, saying,

12 <sup>r</sup> Say ye not, A confederacy, to all them to whom this people shall say, A confederacy; neither <sup>u</sup> fear ye their fear, nor be afraid.

13 <sup>x</sup> Sanctify the LORD of hosts himself; and let him be your fear, and let him be your dread.

14 And he shall be for <sup>y</sup> a sanctuary; but for a <sup>z</sup> stone of stumbling, and for a rock of offence, to both the houses of Israel; for a gin and for a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

15 And <sup>a</sup> many among them shall <sup>b</sup> stumble and fall, and be broken, and be snared, and be taken.

16 <sup>c</sup> Bind up the testimony, <sup>d</sup> seal the law among my <sup>e</sup> disciples.

17 And I will wait upon the LORD, that <sup>f</sup> he hideth his face from the house of Jacob, and I will <sup>g</sup> look for him.

18 Behold, <sup>h</sup> I, and the children whom the LORD <sup>i</sup> hath given me, are for <sup>j</sup> signs and for wonders in Israel, from the LORD of hosts, which dwelleth in mount Zion.

19 And when they shall <sup>k</sup> say unto you, Seek unto them that have familiar spirits, and unto wizards that peep and that mutter; should not a people seek unto their God? <sup>l</sup> for the living to the dead?

20 To the <sup>m</sup> law and to the testimony: if they speak not <sup>n</sup> according to this word, it is because there is no light in them.

21 And they shall <sup>o</sup> pass through it hardly, beset and hungry: and it shall come to pass, that, when they shall be hungry, they shall <sup>p</sup> fret themselves, and curse their king and their <sup>q</sup> God, and look upward.

22 And they shall <sup>r</sup> look unto the earth; and behold trouble and darkness, dimness of anguish; and they shall be driven to darkness.

1 What joy shall be in the midst of afflictions, by the kingdom and birth of Christ. 8 The judgments upon Israel for their pride: 13 for their hypocrisy, 18 and for their impenitency.

NEVERTHELESS, the <sup>a</sup> dimness shall not be such as was in her vexation, when at the first he <sup>b</sup> lightly afflicted the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, and afterward <sup>c</sup> did more grievously afflict her by the way of the sea, beyond Jordan, in Galilee of the nations.

2 The <sup>d</sup> people that walked in darkness have seen a great light: they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the <sup>e</sup> light shined.

3 Thou hast <sup>f</sup> multiplied the nation, and not increased the joy: they joy before thee according to the joy in harvest, and as men rejoice when they <sup>g</sup> divide the spoil.

4 For thou hast broken the yoke of his burden, and the <sup>h</sup> staff of his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, as in the day of <sup>i</sup> Midian.

5 For every battle of the warrior is with confused noise, and <sup>j</sup> garments rolled in blood; but this shall be with <sup>k</sup> burning and fuel of fire.

6 For unto <sup>l</sup> us a Child is born, unto us a Son is <sup>m</sup> given; and the <sup>n</sup> government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The <sup>a</sup> mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince, of Peace.

7 Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice, from henceforth even for ever. The <sup>s</sup> zeal of the LORD of hosts will perform this.

8 ¶ The LORD sent a word into Jacob, and it hath <sup>t</sup> lighted upon Israel.

9 And all the people <sup>u</sup> shall know, even Ephraim and the inhabitants of Samaria, that <sup>x</sup> say in the pride and stoutness of heart,

10 The <sup>y</sup> bricks are fallen down, but <sup>z</sup> we will build with hewn stones; the <sup>a</sup> sycamores are cut down, but we will change them into cedars.

11 Therefore the LORD shall set up the adversaries of Rezin against him, and join his enemies together;

12 The Syrians before, and the Philistines behind; and they shall devour Israel with open mouth. <sup>b</sup> For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

13 For the people turneth not unto him that <sup>c</sup> smiteth them, neither do they <sup>e</sup> seek the LORD of hosts.

14 Therefore the LORD will cut off from Israel <sup>d</sup> head and tail, branch and rush, in <sup>e</sup> one day.

15 The ancient and honourable, he is the head; and the prophet <sup>f</sup> that teacheth lies, he is the <sup>g</sup> tail.

16 For the leaders of this people cause them to err; and they that are led of them are <sup>h</sup> destroyed.

17 Therefore the LORD shall have <sup>i</sup> no joy in their young men, neither shall have mercy on their <sup>j</sup> fatherless and widows: for every one is <sup>k</sup> an hypocrite and an evil-doer, and every mouth speaketh folly. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

18 For wickedness <sup>m</sup> burneth as the fire: it shall devour the briers and thorns, and shall kindle in the thickets of the forest; and they shall mount up like the lifting up of smoke.

19 Through the wrath of the LORD of hosts is the land darkened, and the people shall be as the fuel of the fire: no man shall <sup>n</sup> spare his brother.

20 And he shall snatch on the right hand, and be hungry; and he shall eat on the left hand, and they shall not be <sup>o</sup> satisfied: they shall eat every man <sup>p</sup> the flesh of his own arm:

21 Manasseh, Ephraim; and Ephraim, Manasseh: and they together shall be against Judah. <sup>q</sup> For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

3 And what will ye do in the <sup>d</sup> day of visitation, and in the desolation which shall come <sup>e</sup> from far? to whom <sup>f</sup> will ye flee for help? and where will ye leave your glory?

4 ¶ Without me they shall <sup>g</sup> bow down under the prisoners, and they shall fall under the slain. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

5 O Assyrian, the <sup>h</sup> rod of mine anger, and the staff in their hand is mine indignation.

6 I will send him against an <sup>i</sup> hypocritical nation, and against the people of my wrath will I <sup>k</sup> give him a charge, to take the spoil, and to take the prey, and to tread them down like the mire of the streets.

7 Howbeit <sup>l</sup> he meaneth not so, neither doth <sup>m</sup> his heart think so; but it is in his heart to destroy and cut off nations not a few.

8 For <sup>n</sup> he saith, Are not my princes altogether kings?

9 Is not Calno as Carchemish? is not Hamath as Arpad? is not Samaria as Damascus?

10 As my hand hath <sup>o</sup> found the kingdoms of the idols, and whose graven images did excel them of Jerusalem and of Samaria;

11 Shall I not, as I have done unto Samaria and her idols, <sup>p</sup> so do to Jerusalem and her idols?

12 Wherefore it shall come to pass, that, when the LORD hath <sup>q</sup> performed his whole work upon mount Zion and on Jerusalem, I will <sup>r</sup> punish the fruit of the stout heart of the king of Assyria, and the glory of his high looks.

13 For he saith, By the <sup>s</sup> strength of my hand I have done it, and by my <sup>t</sup> wisdom; for I am prudent: and I have removed the <sup>u</sup> bounds of the people, and have robbed their treasures, and I have put down the inhabitants like a valiant man:

14 And my hand hath found, as a <sup>v</sup> nest, the riches of the people: and as one gathereth eggs that are left, have I gathered all the earth; and there was none that moved the wing, or opened the mouth, or peeped.

15 Shall the axe <sup>w</sup> boast itself against him that heweth therewith? or shall the saw magnify itself against him that shaketh it? as if the rod should shake itself against them that lift it up, or as if the staff should lift up itself, as if it were <sup>x</sup> no wood.

16 Therefore shall the LORD, the LORD of hosts, send among his <sup>y</sup> fat ones <sup>z</sup> leanness; and under his glory he shall kindle a burning like the burning of a fire.

17 And the light of Israel shall be for a fire, and his Holy One for a flame: and it shall burn and devour his thorns and his <sup>a</sup> briers <sup>b</sup> in one day;

10 For the <sup>s</sup> stars of heaven, and the constel-

11 And I will punish the <sup>t</sup> world for their

19 And Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the

The lamentable state of Moab.

THE burden of <sup>a</sup> Moab. Because in the <sup>b</sup> night Ar of Moab is laid waste, and brought to silence; because in the night Kir of Moab is laid waste, and brought to silence:

2 He is gone up to Bajith, and to Dibon, the high places, to weep: Moab shall howl over Nebo, and over Medeba; on all their <sup>c</sup> heads shall be baldness, and every beard cut off.

3 In their streets they shall gird themselves with sackcloth: on the <sup>d</sup> tops of their houses, and in their streets, every one shall howl, weeping abundantly.

4 And Heshbon shall cry, and Elealeh: their voice shall be heard even unto Jahaz: therefore the armed soldiers of Moab shall cry out; <sup>e</sup> his life shall be grievous unto him.

5 My heart shall <sup>f</sup> cry out for Moab; his fugitives shall flee unto Zoar, an <sup>g</sup> heifer of three years old: for by the mounting up of Luhith with weeping shall they go it up; for in the way of Horonaim they shall raise up a cry of destruction.

6 For the <sup>h</sup> waters of Nimrim shall be desolate: for the hay is withered away, the grass faileth, there is no green thing.

7 Therefore the abundance they have gotten, and that which they have laid up, shall they carry away to the brook of the <sup>i</sup> willows.

8 For the cry is gone round about the borders of Moab; the howling thereof unto Eglaim, and the howling thereof unto Beer-elim.

9 For the waters of Dimon shall be full of <sup>k</sup> blood: for I will bring more upon Dimon, lions upon him that <sup>l</sup> escapeth of Moab, and upon the remnant of the land.

SEND ye the <sup>a</sup> lamb to the <sup>b</sup> ruler of the land from Sela to the wilderness, unto the mount of the daughter of Zion.

2 For it shall be, that as a <sup>c</sup> wandering bird cast out of the nest, so the daughters of Moab shall be at the fords of Arnon.

3 Take counsel, execute judgment, make thy shadow as the night in the midst of the noon-day; hide the <sup>d</sup> outcasts, <sup>e</sup> bewray not him that wandereth.

4 Let mine outcasts <sup>f</sup> dwell with thee, Moab: be thou a covert to them from the face of the spoiler: for the extortioner is at an end, the spoiler ceaseth, the oppressors are consumed out of the land.

5 And in mercy shall the throne be established; and he shall <sup>g</sup> sit upon it in truth in the tabernacle of David, judging and seeking <sup>h</sup> judgment, and hasting righteousness.

6 We have heard of the pride of Moab; he is <sup>i</sup> very proud: even of his haughtiness, and his pride, and his wrath: but his <sup>k</sup> lies shall not be so.

7 Therefore shall Moab howl for Moab, every one shall howl: for the <sup>l</sup> foundations of Kir-hareseth shall ye mourn; surely they are stricken.

8 For the fields of Heshbon <sup>m</sup> languish, and the vine of Sibmah: the lords of the heathen have broken down the principal plants thereof, they are come even unto Jazer, they wandered through the wilderness; her branches are stretched out, they are gone over the sea:

9 Therefore I will <sup>n</sup> bewail with the weeping of Jazer the vine of Sibmah: I will water thee with my tears, O Heshbon, and Elealeh; for the shouting for thy summer-fruits, and for thy harvest, is fallen.

10 And <sup>o</sup> gladness is taken away, and joy out of the plentiful field; and in the vineyards there shall be no singing, neither shall there be shouting: the treaders shall tread out no wine in their presses; I have made their vintage-shouting to cease.

11 Wherefore my bowels shall sound like an <sup>p</sup> harp for Moab, and mine inward parts for Kir-hareseth.

12 And it shall <sup>q</sup> come to pass, when it is seen that Moab is weary on the high place, that he shall come to his sanctuary <sup>r</sup> to pray; but he shall <sup>s</sup> not prevail.

13 This is the word that the LORD hath spoken concerning Moab since that time.

14 But now the LORD hath spoken, saying, <sup>t</sup> Within three years, as the years of an <sup>u</sup> hireling, and the glory of Moab shall be contemned, with all that great multitude; and the remnant shall be very small and feeble.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Syria and Israel are threatened. 6 A remnant shall forsake idolatry. 9 The rest shall be plagued for their impiety. 12 The wo of Israel's enemies.

THE burden of <sup>a</sup> Damascus. Behold, <sup>b</sup> Damascus is taken away from being a city; and it shall be a ruinous heap.

2 The cities of Aroer are forsaken; they shall be for flocks which shall lie down, and none shall <sup>c</sup> make them afraid.

3 The fortress shall also cease from Ephraim, and the kingdom from Damascus, and the remnant of Syria: they shall be <sup>d</sup> as the glory of the children of Israel, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 And in that day it shall come to pass, that the glory of Jacob shall be made <sup>e</sup> thin, and the <sup>f</sup> fatness of his flesh shall wax lean.

5 And it shall be as when the harvest-man <sup>g</sup> gathereth the corn, and reapeth the ears with his arm; and it shall be as he that gathereth ears in the valley of Rephaim.

6 Yet <sup>h</sup> gleanings shall be <sup>i</sup> left in it, as the shaking of an olive-tree, two or three berries in the top of the uppermost bough, four or five in the outmost fruitful branches thereof, saith the LORD God of Israel.

7 At that day shall a man <sup>k</sup> look to his Maker, and his eyes shall have respect to the Holy One of Israel.

8 And he shall not look to the <sup>l</sup> altars, the work of his hands, neither shall respect that which his <sup>m</sup> fingers have made, either the groves or the images.

9 In that day shall his strong cities be as a forsaken bough, and an uppermost branch, which they <sup>n</sup> left, because of the children of Israel: and there shall be desolation.

10 Because thou hast <sup>o</sup> forgotten the God of thy <sup>p</sup> salvation, and hast not been mindful of the Rock of thy strength; therefore shalt thou plant pleasant plants, and shalt set it with strange slips:

11 In the day shalt thou make thy plant to grow, and in the morning shalt thou make thy seed to flourish; but the <sup>q</sup> harvest shall be a heap in the day of grief and of desperate sorrow.

12 Wo to the multitude of many people, which make a <sup>r</sup> noise like the noise of the seas; and to the rushing of nations, that make a rushing like the rushing of mighty waters!

13 The nations shall rush like the rushing of many waters: but God shall <sup>s</sup> rebuke them, and they shall flee far off, and shall be chased as the <sup>t</sup> chaff of the mountains before the wind, and like a <sup>u</sup> rolling thing before the whirlwind.

14 And, behold, at <sup>x</sup> evening-tide trouble; and before the <sup>y</sup> morning he is not. This is the <sup>z</sup> portion of them that spoil us, and the lot of them that rob us.

1 The confusion of Egypt. 11 The foolishness of their princes. 18 The calling of Egypt to the church. 23 The covenant of Egypt, Assyria, and Israel.

THE burden of Egypt. Behold, the LORD <sup>a</sup> rideth upon a swift cloud, and shall come into Egypt; and the idols of Egypt shall be moved at his presence, and the <sup>b</sup> heart of Egypt shall melt in the midst of it.

2 And I will set the Egyptians <sup>c</sup> against the Egyptians: and they shall fight every one against his brother, and every one against his neighbour; city against city, and kingdom against kingdom.

3 And the spirit of Egypt shall fail in the midst thereof; and I will destroy the <sup>d</sup> counsel thereof: and they shall <sup>e</sup> seek to the idols, and to the charmers, and to them that have familiar spirits, and to the wizards.

4 And the Egyptians will I give over into the hand of a <sup>f</sup> cruel lord; and a fierce king shall rule over them, saith the LORD, the LORD of hosts.

5 And the <sup>g</sup> waters shall fail from the sea, and the river shall be wasted and dried up.

6 And they shall turn the rivers far away, and the brooks of <sup>h</sup> defence shall be emptied and dried up: the reeds and flags shall wither.

7 The paper-reeds, by the brooks, by the <sup>i</sup> mouth of the brooks, and every thing sown by the brooks, shall wither, be driven away, and be no more.

8 The <sup>k</sup> fishers also shall mourn, and all they that cast angle into the brooks shall lament, and they that <sup>l</sup> spread nets upon the waters shall languish.

9 Moreover, they that work in fine flax, and they that weave net-works, shall be confounded.

10 And they shall be broken in the purposes thereof, all that make sluices and ponds for <sup>m</sup> fish.

m Revel. 18, 13.

11 Surely the princes of Zoan are <sup>n</sup> fools, the counsel of the wise counsellors of Pharaoh is become <sup>o</sup> brutish: <sup>p</sup> how say ye unto Pharaoh, I am the son of the wise, the son of ancient kings?

12 <sup>q</sup> Where are they? where are thy wise men? and let them tell thee now, and let them know what the LORD of hosts hath purposed upon Egypt.

13 The princes of Zoan are become fools, the princes of Noph are deceived; they have also seduced Egypt, even they that are the stay of the tribes thereof.

14 The LORD hath mingled a <sup>r</sup> perverse spirit in the midst thereof: and they have caused Egypt to <sup>s</sup> err in every work thereof, as <sup>t</sup> a drunken man staggereth in his vomit.

15 Neither shall there be <sup>u</sup> any work for Egypt, which the <sup>v</sup> head or tail, branch or rush, may do.

16 In that day shall Egypt be like unto <sup>x</sup> women; and it shall be afraid and fear, because of the <sup>y</sup> shaking of the hand of the LORD of hosts, which he shaketh over it.

17 And the land of Judah shall be a <sup>z</sup> terror unto Egypt: every one that maketh mention thereof shall be afraid in himself, because of the counsel of the LORD of hosts, which he hath determined against it.

18 In that day shall five cities in the land of Egypt speak the language of Canaan, and <sup>a</sup> swear to the LORD of hosts: one shall be called, The city of destruction.

19 In that day shall there be an <sup>b</sup> altar to the LORD in the midst of <sup>c</sup> the land of Egypt, and a pillar at the border thereof <sup>d</sup> to the LORD.

20 And it shall be for a sign and for a witness unto the LORD of hosts in the land of Egypt: for they shall <sup>e</sup> cry unto the LORD because of the oppressors, and he shall send them a <sup>f</sup> saviour, and a <sup>g</sup> great one, and he shall deliver them.

21 And the LORD shall be <sup>h</sup> known to Egypt, and the Egyptians shall know the LORD in that day, and shall do <sup>i</sup> sacrifice and oblation; yea, they shall vow a vow unto the LORD, and perform it.

22 And the LORD shall <sup>k</sup> smite Egypt; he shall smite and heal it: and they shall <sup>l</sup> return even to the LORD, and he shall be entreated of them, and shall heal them.

23 In that day shall there be a <sup>m</sup> highway out of Egypt to Assyria; and the Assyrian shall come into Egypt, and the Egyptian into Assyria; and the Egyptians shall serve with the Assyrians.

24 In that day shall Israel be the third with Egypt and with Assyria, even a <sup>n</sup> blessing in the midst of the land;

25 Whom the LORD of hosts shall bless, saying, Blessed be Egypt <sup>o</sup> my people, and Assyria the <sup>p</sup> work of my hands, and Israel mine <sup>q</sup> inheritance.

3 And the Lord said, Like as my servant Isaiah hath walked naked and barefoot three years for a <sup>d</sup> sign and wonder upon Egypt and upon Ethiopia;
4 So shall the king of Assyria lead away the Egyptians prisoners, and the Ethiopians captives, young and old, naked and barefoot, even with their <sup>e</sup> buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt.

C H A P. XXI.
1 The prophet bewailing the captivity of his people, seeth in a vision the fall of Babylon by the Medes and Persians. 11 Edom scorning the prophet, is moved to repentance. 13 The set time of Arabia's calamity.
THE burden of the <sup>a</sup> desert of the sea. As whirlwinds in the south pass through; so it cometh from the desert, from a terrible land.
2 A grievous vision is declared unto me; The <sup>b</sup> treacherous dealer dealeth treacherously, and the spoiler <sup>c</sup> spoileth. Go up, O Elam: besiege, O Media: all the sighing thereof have I made to cease.
3 Therefore are my <sup>d</sup> loins filled with pain; pangs have taken hold upon me, as the pangs of a <sup>e</sup> woman that travaileth: I was bowed down at the hearing of it; I was dismayed at the seeing of it.
4 My heart panted, fearfulness affrighted me: the <sup>f</sup> night of my pleasure hath he turned into fear unto me.
5 <sup>g</sup> Prepare the table, watch in the watch-tower, <sup>h</sup> eat, drink: arise, ye princes, and anoint the shield:
6 For thus hath the Lord said unto me, Go, set <sup>i</sup> a watchman, let him declare <sup>k</sup> what he seeth.
7 And he saw a <sup>l</sup> chariot with a couple of horsemen, a chariot of asses, and a chariot of camels; and he hearkened <sup>m</sup> diligently with much heed.
8 And he cried, <sup>n</sup> A lion: My lord, I stand <sup>o</sup> continually upon the <sup>p</sup> watch-tower in the day-time, and I am set in my ward whole nights;
9 And, behold, here cometh a chariot of men, with a couple of horsemen. And he answered and said, <sup>q</sup> Babylon is fallen, is fallen; and all the <sup>r</sup> graven images of her gods he hath broken upon the ground.
10 O my <sup>s</sup> threshing, and the corn of my floor: that which I have heard of the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, have I declared unto you.

11 <sup>t</sup> The burden of Dumah. He calleth to me out of Seir, Watchman, <sup>u</sup> what of the night? watchman, what of the night?
12 The watchman said, The <sup>v</sup> morning cometh, and also the <sup>w</sup> night: if ye will enquire, <sup>x</sup> enquire ye: <sup>y</sup> return, <sup>z</sup> come.
13 <sup>aa</sup> The burden upon Arabia. In the forest in Arabia shall ye lodge, O ye travelling companies of Dedanim.
14 The inhabitants of the land of Tema brought water to him that was thirsty, they prevented with their bread him that fled.
15 For they <sup>b</sup> fled from the swords, from the drawn sword, and from the bent bow, and from the grievousness of war.
16 For thus hath the Lord said unto me, Within a <sup>c</sup> year, according to the years of an hireling, and all the glory of Kedar shall fail:
17 And the residue of the number of archers, the mighty men of the children of <sup>d</sup> Kedar, shall be <sup>e</sup> diminished: for the Lord God of Israel hath spoken it.

C H A P. XXII.

1 The prophet lamenteth the invasion of Jewry by the Persians: 8 He reproveth their human wisdom and worldly joy: 15 He prophesieth Shebna's deprivation, 20 and Eliakim, prefiguring the kingdom of Christ, his substitution.

THE burden of the <sup>a</sup> valley of <sup>b</sup> vision. What aileth thee now, that thou art wholly gone up to the house-tops?

2 Thou that art full of stirs, a tumultuous city, a <sup>c</sup> joyous city: thy slain men are not slain with the sword, nor dead in battle.

3 All thy <sup>d</sup> rulers are fled together, they are bound by the archers: all that are found in thee are <sup>e</sup> bound together, which have fled from far.

4 Therefore said I, Look away from me; I will <sup>f</sup> weep bitterly, labour not to comfort me; because of the spoiling of the daughter of my people.

5 For it is a day of trouble, and of treading down, and of perplexity <sup>g</sup> by the Lord God of hosts in the valley of vision, <sup>h</sup> breaking down the walls, and of crying to the mountains.

6 And Elam bare the quiver with chariots of men and horsemen, and Kir <sup>i</sup> uncovered the shield.

7 And it shall come to pass, that thy choicest valleys shall be full of chariots, and the horsemen shall set themselves in array at the gate.

8 And he discovered the covering of Judah, and thou didst look in that day to the armour of the house of the <sup>k</sup> forest.

9 Ye have seen also the <sup>l</sup> breaches of the city of David, that they are many; and ye gathered together the waters of the lower pool:

10 And ye have numbered the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses have ye broken down to fortify the wall.

11 Ye made also a ditch between the two walls for the water of the <sup>m</sup> old pool: but ye have not looked unto the <sup>n</sup> maker thereof, neither had respect unto him that fashioned it long ago.

12 And in that day did the Lord God of hosts call

THE burden of Tyre. ° Howl, ye ships of Tarshish; for it is ° laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in: from the land of Chittim it is revealed to them.
2 Be ° still, ye inhabitants of the isle; thou whom the merchants of Zidon, that pass over the sea, have ° replenished.

hath spoken, even the strength of the sea, saying, I travail not, nor bring forth children, neither do I nourish up ° young men, nor bring up virgins.

5 As at the report concerning Egypt, so shall they be sorely ° pained at the report of Tyre.
6 ° Pass ye over to Tarshish; howl, ye inhabitants of the isle.

7 Is this your ° joyous city, whose antiquity is of ancient days? her ° own feet shall carry her afar off to sojourn.

8 Who hath taken this counsel against Tyre, the ° crowning city, whose ° merchants are princes, whose traffickers are the ° honourable of the earth?

9 The LORD of hosts hath purposed it, to stain the ° pride of all glory, and to bring into contempt all the honourable of the earth.

10 Pass through thy land as a river, O daughter of Tarshish: there is no more strength.

11 He ° stretched out his hand over the sea; he ° shook the kingdoms: the LORD hath given a commandment against the merchant-city, to destroy the strong holds thereof.

12 And he said, Thou shalt no more ° rejoice, ° Thou oppressed virgin, daughter of Zidon; arise, pass over to Chittim; there also shalt thou have no rest.

13 Behold, the land of the Chaldeans: this people was not till the Assyrian ° founded it for them that dwell in the ° wilderness: they set up the towers thereof, they raised up the palaces thereof; and he brought it to ruin.

14 Howl, ye ships of Tarshish: for your strength is laid waste.

15 And it shall come to pass in that day, that Tyre shall be forgotten ° seventy years, according to the ° days of one king: after the end of seventy years shall Tyre sing as an harlot.

16 Take an harp, go about the city, ° thou harlot that hast been forgotten: make sweet melody, sing many songs, that thou mayest be remembered.

17 And it shall come to pass, after the end of seventy years, that the LORD will visit Tyre, and she shall turn to her ° hire, and shall ° commit fornication with all the kingdoms of the world upon the face of the earth.

18 And her ° merchandise and her hire shall be holiness to the LORD: it shall not be treasured nor laid up; for her merchandise shall be for them that dwell before the LORD, to ° eat sufficiently, and for durable clothing.

C H A P. XXIV.

1 The doleful judgments of God upon the land. 13 A remnant shall joyfully praise him. 16 God in his judgments shall advance his kingdom.

BEHOLD, the LORD maketh the earth ° empty; and maketh it waste, and turneth it upside down, and ° scattereth abroad the inhabitants thereof.

2 And it shall be, as with the ° people, so with the ° priest; as with the servant, so with his master; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender,

Before CHRIST
ch. 712.

lender, so with the borrower; as with the taker of usury, so with the giver of usury to him.

3 The land shall be utterly emptied, and utterly spoiled: for the LORD hath spoken this word.

4 The earth mourneth, and fadeth away; the world languisheth, and fadeth away; the haughty people of the earth do languish.

5 The earth also is defiled under the inhabitants thereof, because they have transgressed the laws, changed the ordinance, broken the everlasting covenant.

6 Therefore hath the curse devoured the earth, and they that dwell therein are desolate: therefore the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left.

7 The new wine mourneth, the vine languisheth, all the merry-hearted do sigh.

8 The mirth of tabrets ceaseth, the noise of them that rejoice endeth, the joy of the harp ceaseth.

9 They shall not drink wine with a song; strong drink shall be bitter to them that drink it.

10 The city of confusion is broken down; every house is shut up, that no man may come in.

11 There is a crying for wine in the streets; all joy is darkened, the mirth of the land is gone.

12 In the city is left desolation, and the gate is smitten with destruction.

13 When thus it shall be in the midst of the land among the people, there shall be as the shaking of an olive-tree, and as the gleaning-grapes when the vintage is done.

14 They shall lift up their voice, they shall sing for the majesty of the LORD, they shall cry aloud from the sea.

15 Wherefore glorify ye the LORD in the fires, even the name of the LORD God of Israel in the isles of the sea.

16 From the uttermost part of the earth have we heard songs, even glory to the righteous. But I said, My leanness, my leanness, wo unto me! the treacherous dealers have dealt treacherously; yea, the treacherous dealers have dealt very treacherously.

17 Fear, and the pit, and the snare, are upon thee, O inhabitant of the earth.

18 And it shall come to pass, that he who fleeth from the noise of the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that cometh up out of the midst of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for the windows from on high are open, and the foundations of the earth do shake.

19 The earth is utterly broken down, the earth is clean dissolved, the earth is moved exceedingly.

20 The earth shall reel to and fro like a drunkard, and shall be removed like a cottage; and the transgression thereof shall be heavy upon it; and it shall fall, and not rise again.

21 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall punish the host of the high ones that are on high, and the kings of the earth upon the earth.

22 And they shall be gathered together as prisoners are gathered in the pit, and shall be shut up in the prison, and after many days shall they be visited.

23 Then the moon shall be confounded, and the sun ashamed, when the LORD of hosts shall reign in mount Zion, and in Jerusalem, and before his ancients, gloriously.

CHAP. XXV.

1 The prophet praiseth God for his judgments, 6 for his saving benefits, 9 and for his victorious salvation.

O LORD, thou art my God; I will exalt thee, I will praise thy name: for thou hast done wonderful things; thy counsels of old are faithfulness and truth.

2 For thou hast made of a city an heap; of a fenced city a ruin: a palace of strangers to be no city; it shall never be built.

3 Therefore shall the strong people glorify thee, the city of the terrible nations shall fear thee.

4 For thou hast been a strength to the poor, a strength to the needy in his distress, a refuge from the storm, a shadow from the heat, when the blast of the terrible ones is as a storm against the wall.

5 Thou shalt bring down the noise of strangers as the heat in a dry place; even the heat with the shadow of a cloud: the branch of the terrible ones shall be brought low.

6 And in this mountain shall the LORD of hosts make unto all people a feast of fat things, a feast of wines on the lees; of fat things full of marrow, of wines on the lees well refined.

7 And he will destroy in this mountain the face of the covering cast over all people, and the veil that is spread over all nations.

8 He will swallow up death in victory; and the LORD God will wipe away tears from off all faces; and the rebuke of his people shall he take away from off all the earth: for the LORD hath spoken it.

9 And it shall be said in that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, and he will save us: this is the LORD; we have waited for him, we will be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

10 For in this mountain shall the hand of the LORD rest, and Moab shall be trodden down under him, even as straw is trodden down for the dunghill.

11 And he shall spread forth his hands in the midst of them, as he that swimmeth spreadeth forth his hands to swim; and he shall bring down their pride together with the spoils of their hands.

12 And the fortress of the high fort of thy walls shall he bring down, lay low, and bring to the ground, even to the dust.

CHAP. XXVI.

 7 The way of the just is <sup>k</sup> uprightness: thou, most upright, dost <sup>l</sup> weigh the path of the just.

9 By this, therefore, shall the iniquity of Jacob be <sup>q</sup> purged; and this is all the fruit to take away his sin; when he maketh all the stones of the altar as chalk-stones that are beaten in sunder, the groves and images shall not stand up.

10 Yet the defenced city shall be desolate, and the habitation forsaken, and left like a wilderness: there shall the calf feed, and there shall he lie down, and consume the branches thereof.

sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding-place.

18 And your covenant with death shall be disannulled, and your agreement with hell shall not stand; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, then ye shall be trodden down by it.

19 From the time that it goeth forth it shall take you: for morning by morning shall it pass over, by day and by night; and it shall be a vexation only to understand the report.

20 For the bed is shorter than that a man can stretch himself on it; and the covering narrower than that he can wrap himself in it.

21 For the LORD shall rise up as in a mount Perazim, he shall be wroth as in the valley of Gibeon, that he may do his work, his strange work; and bring to pass his act, his strange act.

22 Now, therefore, be ye not mockers, lest your bands be made strong: for I have heard from the Lord God of hosts a consumption, even determined, upon the whole earth.

23 Give ye ear, and hear my voice; hearken, and hear my speech.

24 Doth the plowman plow all day to sow? doth he open and break the clods of his ground?

25 When he hath made plain the face thereof, doth he not cast abroad the fitches, and scatter the cummin, and cast in the principal wheat, and the appointed barley, and the rye, in their place?

26 For his God doth instruct him to discretion, and doth teach him.

27 For the fitches are not threshed with a threshing instrument, neither is a cart-wheel turned about upon the cummin; but the fitches are beaten out with a staff, and the cummin with a rod.

28 Bread-corn is bruised; because he will not ever be threshing it, nor break it with the wheel of his cart, nor bruise it with his horsemen.

29 This also cometh forth from the LORD of hosts, which is wonderful in counsel, and excellent in working.

C H A P. XXX.

1 The prophet threateneth the people for their confidence in Egypt, 8 and contempt of God's word. 18 God's mercies towards his church. 27 God's wrath, and the people's joy in the destruction of Assyria.

WO to the rebellious children, saith the LORD, that take counsel, but not of me; and that cover with a covering, but not of my Spirit, that they may add sin to sin:

2 That walk to go down into Egypt, and have not asked at my mouth; to strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh, and to trust in the shadow of Egypt!

3 Therefore shall the strength of Pharaoh be your shame, and the trust in the shadow of Egypt your confusion.

4 For his princes were at Zoan, and his ambassadors came to Hanes.

5 They were all ashamed of a people that could not profit them, nor be an help nor profit, but a shame, and also a reproach.

6 The burden of the beasts of the south: Into the land of trouble and anguish, from whence come the young and old lion, the viper and fiery flying serpent, they will carry their riches upon the shoulders of young asses, and their treasures upon the bunches of camels, to a people that shall not profit them.

7 For the Egyptians shall help in vain, and to no purpose: therefore have I cried concerning this, Their strength is to sit still.

8 Now go, write it before them in a table, and note it in a book, that it may be for the time to come for ever and ever;

9 That this is a rebellious people, lying children, children that will not hear the law of the LORD:

10 Which say to the seers, See not: and to the prophets, Prophecy not unto us right things; speak unto us smooth things, prophesy deceits: 11 Get ye out of the way, turn aside out of the path, cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us.

13 Therefore this iniquity shall be to you as a breach ready to fall, swelling out in a high wall, whose breaking cometh suddenly at an instant.

14 And he shall break it as the breaking of the potter's vessel that is broken in pieces; he shall not spare: so that there shall not be found in the bursting of it a sherd to take fire from the hearth, or to take water withal out of the pit.

15 For thus saith the Lord God, the Holy One of Israel, In returning and rest shall ye be saved; in quietness and in confidence shall be your strength; and ye would not.

16 But ye said, No; for we will flee upon horses; therefore shall ye flee: and, We will ride upon the swift; therefore shall they that pursue you be swift.

17 One thousand shall flee at the rebuke of one; at the rebuke of five shall ye flee; till ye be left as a beacon upon the top of a mountain, and as an ensign on a hill.

18 And therefore will the Lord wait, that he may be gracious unto you; and therefore will he be exalted, that he may have mercy upon you; for the Lord is a God of judgment: blessed are all they that wait for him.

19 For the people shall dwell in Zion at Jerusalem; thou shalt weep no more: he will be very gracious unto thee at the voice of thy cry; when he shall hear it, he will answer thee.

20 And though the Lord give you the bread of adversity, and the water of affliction, yet shall not thy teachers be removed into a corner any more, but thine eyes shall see thy teachers:

21 And thine ears shall hear a word behind thee, saying, This is the way, walk ye in it, when ye turn to the right hand, and when ye turn to the left.

22 Ye shall defile also the covering of thy graven images of silver, and the ornament of thy molten images of gold: thou shalt cast them away as a menstruous cloth; thou shalt say unto it, Get thee hence.

23 Then shall he give the rain of thy seed, that thou shalt sow the ground withal; and bread of the increase of the earth, and it shall be fat and plenteous: in that day shall thy cattle feed in large pastures.

24 The oxen likewise, and the young asses that ear the ground, shall eat clean provender which hath been winnowed with the shovel and with the fan.

25 And there shall be upon every high mountain, and upon every high hill, rivers and streams of waters in the day of the great slaughter, when the towers fall.

26 Moreover, the light of the moon shall be as the light of the sun, and the light of the sun shall be seven-fold, as the light of seven days, in the day that the Lord bindeth up the breach of his people, and healeth the stroke of their wound.

27 Behold, the name of the Lord cometh from far, burning with his anger, and the burden thereof is heavy; his lips are full of indignation, and his tongue as a devouring fire:

28 And his breath, as an overflowing stream, shall reach to the midst of the neck, to sift the nations with the sieve of vanity: and there shall be a bridle in the jaws of the people, causing them to err.

29 Ye shall have a song, as in the night when a holy solemnity is kept; and gladness of heart, as when one goeth with a pipe to come into the mountain of the Lord, to the mighty One of Israel.

30 And the Lord shall cause his glorious voice to be heard, and shall shew the lighting down of his arm, with the indignation of his anger, and with the flame of a devouring fire, with scattering, and tempest, and hailstones.

31 For through the voice of the Lord shall the Assyrian be beaten down, which smote with a rod.

32 And in every place where the grounded staff shall pass, which the Lord shall lay upon him, it shall be with tabrets and harps: and in battles of shaking will he fight with it.

33 For Tophet is ordained of old; yea, for the king it is prepared: he hath made it deep and large; the pile thereof is fire and much wood: the breath of the Lord, like a stream of brimstone, doth kindle it.

C H A P. XXXI.

1 The prophet sheweth the cursed folly in trusting to Egypt, and forsaking of God: 6 He exhorteth to conversion: 8 He sheweth the fall of Assyria.

WO to them that go down to Egypt for help, and stay on horses, and trust in chariots, because they are many; and in horsemen, because they are very strong: but they look not unto the Holy One of Israel, neither seek the Lord!

2 Yet he also is wise, and will bring evil, and will not call back his words: but will arise against the house of the evil-doers, and against the help of them that work iniquity.

3 Now the Egyptians are men, and not God; and their horses flesh, and not spirit. When the Lord shall stretch out his hand, both he that helpeth shall fall, and he that is holpen shall fall down, and they all shall fail together.

4 For thus hath the Lord spoken unto me, Like as the lion and the young lion roaring on his prey, when a multitude of shepherds is called forth against him, he will not be afraid of their voice, nor abase himself for the noise of them: so shall the Lord of hosts come down to fight for mount Zion, and for the hill thereof.

5 As birds flying, so will the Lord of hosts defend Jerusalem; defending also he will deliver it, and passing over he will preserve it.

6 Turn ye unto him from whom the children of Israel have deeply revolted.

7 For in that day every man shall cast away his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, which your own hands have made unto you for a sin.

BEHOLD, a king<sup>a</sup> shall reign in righteousness, and<sup>b</sup> princes shall rule in judgment.

2 And || a man shall be as an hiding-place from the wind, and a covert from the tempest; as<sup>c</sup> rivers of water in a dry place; as the shadow of a great rock in a weary land.

3 And the eyes of them that see shall not be dim; and the ears of them that hear shall hearken.

4 The heart also of the rash shall understand knowledge, and the tongue of the stammerers shall be ready to speak plainly.

5 The<sup>e</sup> vile person shall be no<sup>f</sup> more called liberal, nor the churl said to be bountiful.

6 For the vile person will speak villany, and his heart will work iniquity, to practise hypocrisy, and to utter error against the LORD, to make empty the soul of the hungry; and he will cause the<sup>h</sup> drink of the thirsty to fail.

7 The instruments also of the churl are evil: he<sup>i</sup> deviseth wicked devices to destroy the poor with lying words, even when the needy speaketh right.

8 But the liberal<sup>k</sup> deviseth<sup>l</sup> liberal things; and by liberal things shall he stand.

9 Rise up, ye women that are at<sup>m</sup> ease; hear my voice, ye careless daughters; give ear unto my speech.

10 Many days and years shall ye be troubled, ye careless women: for the<sup>n</sup> vintage shall fail, the gathering shall not come.

11 Tremble, ye women that are at ease; be troubled, ye careless ones: <sup>o</sup> strip ye, and make ye bare, and gird sackcloth upon your loins.

12 They shall lament<sup>p</sup> for the teats, for the pleasant fields, for the fruitful vine.

13 Upon the land of my people shall come up<sup>q</sup> thorns and briers, yea, upon all the houses of joy in the joyous city:

14 Because the palaces<sup>r</sup> shall be forsaken; the multitude of the city shall be left; the forts and towers shall be for dens for ever, a joy of wild asses, a pasture of flocks;

15 Until the<sup>s</sup> Spirit be poured upon us<sup>t</sup> from on high, and the wilderness be a fruitful field, and the fruitful field be counted for a forest.

16 Then<sup>u</sup> judgment shall dwell in the wilderness, and righteousness remain in the fruitful field.

17 And the work of righteousness shall be<sup>v</sup> peace; and the<sup>w</sup> effect of righteousness, quietness and assurance for ever.

18 And my people shall dwell in a peaceable habitation, and in<sup>z</sup> sure dwellings, and in quiet resting-places, 15 Neither let Hezekiah make you<sup>u</sup> trust in the LORD, saying, The LORD will surely deliver us: this city shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria.

17 Until I come and<sup>y</sup> take you away to a land like your own land, <sup>z</sup> a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards.

21 But they<sup>d</sup> held their peace, and answered him not a word: for the king's commandment was, saying, Answer him not.

22 Then came Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, that<sup>was</sup> over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph, the recorder, to Hezekiah with their<sup>e</sup> clothes rent, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

4 It may be the LORD thy God will hear the words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master hath sent to reproach the living God, and will reprove the words which the LORD thy God hath heard: wherefore lift up thy prayer for the remnant that is left.

5 So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah.

6 And Isaiah said unto them, Thus shall ye say unto your master, Thus saith the LORD, Be not afraid of the words that thou hast heard, where-with the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me.

7 Behold, I will send a blast upon him; and he shall hear a rumour, and return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.

8 So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah: for he had heard that he was departed from Lachish.

9 And he heard say concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, He is come forth to make war with thee: and when he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying,

10 Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Let not thy God in whom thou trustest deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.

11 Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by destroying them utterly; and shalt thou be delivered?

12 Have the gods of the nations delivered them which my fathers have destroyed, as Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of Eden which were in Telassar?

13 Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah?

14 And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up unto the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD.

15 And Hezekiah prayed unto the LORD, saying,

16 O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, that dwellest between the cherubims, thou art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; thou hast made heaven and earth.

17 Incline thine ear, O LORD, and hear; open thine eyes, O LORD, and see; and hear all the words of Sennacherib, which hath sent to reproach the living God.

18 Of a truth, LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the nations, and their countries, 19 And have cast their gods into the fire; for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone; therefore they have destroyed them.

20 Now, therefore, O LORD our God, save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that thou art the LORD, even thou only.

21 Then Isaiah, the son of Amoz, sent unto Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Whereas thou hast prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria:

22 This is the word which the LORD hath spoken concerning him, The virgin, the daughter of Zion, hath despised thee, and laughed thee to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem hath shaken her head at thee.

23 Whom hast thou reproached and blasphemed? and against whom hast thou exalted thy voice, and lifted up thine eyes on high? even against the Holy One of Israel.

24 By thy servants hast thou reproached the LORD, and hast said, By the multitude of my chariots am I come up to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon; and I will cut down the tall cedars thereof, and the choice fir-trees thereof: and I will enter into the height of his border, and the forest of his Carmel.

25 I have digged, and drunk water; and with the sole of my feet have I dried up all the rivers of the besieged places.

26 Hast thou not heard long ago how I have done it; and of ancient times that I have formed it? now have I brought it to pass, that thou shouldest be to lay waste defenced cities into ruinous heaps.

27 Therefore their inhabitants were of small power, they were dismayed and confounded: they were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb; as the grass on the house-tops, and as corn blasted before it be grown up.

28 But I know thy abode, and thy going out, and thy coming in, and thy rage against me.

29 Because thy rage against me, and thy tumult, is come up into mine ears; therefore will I put my hook in thy nose, and my bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back by the way by which thou camest.

30 And this shall be a sign unto thee, Ye shall eat this year such as groweth of itself; and the second year that which springeth of the same; and in the third year sow ye, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat the fruit thereof.

31 And the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah shall again take root downward, and bear fruit upward:

32 For out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and they that escape out of mount Zion: the zeal of the LORD of hosts shall do this.

33 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the king of Assyria, He shall not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shields, nor cast a bank against it.

34 By the way that he came, by the same shall he return, and shall not come into this city, saith the LORD.

35 For I will defend this city to save it, for mine own sake, and for my servant David's sake.

1 Hezekiah having received a message of death, by prayer hath his life lengthened. 8 The sun goeth ten degrees backward for a sign of that promise. 9 His song of thanksgiving.

IN those days was Hezekiah sick unto death. And Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, came unto him, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Set thine house in order: for thou shalt die, and not live.

2 Then Hezekiah turned his face toward the wall, and prayed unto the LORD,

3 And said, Remember now, O LORD, I beseech thee, how I have walked before thee in truth, and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in thy sight: and Hezekiah wept sore.

4 Then came the word of the LORD to Isaiah, saying,

5 Go and say to Hezekiah, Thus saith the LORD, the God of David thy father, I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears: behold, I will add unto thy days fifteen years.

6 And I will deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria: and I will defend this city.

7 And this shall be a sign unto thee from the LORD, that the LORD will do this thing that he hath spoken;

8 Behold, I will bring again the shadow of the degrees, which is gone down in the sundial of Ahaz, ten degrees backward. So the sun returned ten degrees, by which degrees it was gone down.

9 ¶ The writing of Hezekiah king of Judah, when he had been sick, and was recovered of his sickness:

10 I said, in the cutting off of my days, I shall go to the gates of the grave: I am deprived of the residue of my years.

11 I said, I shall not see the LORD, even the LORD, in the land of the living: I shall behold man no more with the inhabitants of the world.

12 Mine age is departed, and is removed from me as a shepherd's tent: I have cut off like a weaver my life; he will cut me off with pining sickness: from day even to night wilt thou make an end of me.

13 I reckoned till morning, that, as a lion, so will he break all my bones: from day even to night wilt thou make an end of me.

14 Like a crane, or a swallow, so did I chatter:

ter; I did mourn as a dove: mine eyes fail with looking upward: O LORD, I am oppressed; undertake for me.

15 What shall I say? he hath both spoken unto me, and himself hath done it: I shall go softly all my years in the bitterness of my soul.

16 O LORD, by these things men live, and in all these things is the life of my spirit: so wilt thou recover me, and make me to live.

17 Behold, for peace I had great bitterness; but thou hast in love to my soul delivered it from the pit of corruption: for thou hast cast all my sins behind thy back.

18 For the grave cannot praise thee; death cannot celebrate thee: they that go down into the pit cannot hope for thy truth.

19 The living, the living, he shall praise thee, as I do this day; the father to the children shall make known thy truth.

20 The LORD was ready to save me: therefore we will sing my songs to the stringed instruments, all the days of our life, in the house of the LORD.

21 For Isaiah had said, Let them take a lump of figs, and lay it for a plaster upon the boil, and he shall recover.

22 Hezekiah also had said, What is the sign that I shall go up to the house of the LORD?

C H A P. XXXIX.

1 Merodach-baladan sending to visit Hezekiah because of the wonder, hath notice of his treasures.

3 Isaiah understanding thereof, foretelleth the Babylonian captivity.

AT that time Merodach-baladan, the son of Baladan king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah: for he had heard that he had been sick, and was recovered.

2 And Hezekiah was glad of them, and shewed them the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his armour, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah shewed them not.

3 Then came Isaiah the prophet unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him, What said these men? and from whence came they unto thee? And Hezekiah said, They are come from a far country unto me, even from Babylon.

4 Then said he, What have they seen in thine house? And Hezekiah answered, All that is in mine house have they seen; there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shewed them.

5 Then said Isaiah to Hezekiah, Hear the word of the LORD of hosts;

6 Behold, the days come, that all that is in thine house, and that which thy fathers have laid up in store until this day, shall be carried to Babylon: nothing shall be left, saith the LORD.

7 And of thy sons that shall issue from thee, which thou shalt beget, shall they take away; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.

8 Then said Hezekiah to Isaiah, Good is the word word of the LORD which thou hast spoken : he said moreover, For there shall be <sup>1</sup> peace and truth in my days.

1 The promulgation of the gospel. 3 The preaching of John Baptist. 9 The preaching of the apostles. 12 The prophet by the omnipotency of God, 18 and his incomparableness, 26 comforteth the people.

COMFORT ye, comfort ye <sup>a</sup> my people, saith your God.

2 Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her, that her warfare is <sup>b</sup> accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned : for she hath received of the LORD's hand <sup>c</sup> double for all her sins.

3 The <sup>d</sup> voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the LORD, make straight <sup>e</sup> in the desert a highway for <sup>f</sup> our God.

4 Every <sup>g</sup> valley shall be exalted, and every <sup>h</sup> mountain and hill shall be made low : and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain :

5 And the <sup>i</sup> glory of the LORD shall be revealed, and all flesh shall <sup>j</sup> see it together : for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

6 The voice said, Cry. And he said, What shall I cry ? <sup>k</sup> All flesh is grass, and all the goodliness thereof is as the flower of the field :

7 The grass withereth, the flower fadeth : because the Spirit of the LORD <sup>l</sup> bloweth upon it : surely the people <sup>m</sup> is grass.

8 The grass withereth, the flower fadeth ; but the <sup>n</sup> word of our God shall stand for ever.

9 O Zion, that bringest <sup>o</sup> good tidings, get thee up into the high mountain ; O Jerusalem, that bringest good tidings, lift up thy voice with strength : lift it up, be not afraid ; say unto the cities of Judah, <sup>p</sup> Behold your God !

10 Behold, the Lord <sup>q</sup> God will come with strong <sup>r</sup> hand, and his arm shall rule for him : behold, his <sup>s</sup> reward is with him, and his work before him.

11 He shall <sup>t</sup> feed his flock like a shepherd ; he shall gather the lambs with his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and shall gently lead those that are with <sup>u</sup> young.

12 Who hath <sup>v</sup> measured the waters in the hollow of his hand, and meted out heaven with the <sup>w</sup> span, and comprehended the dust of the earth in a measure, and weighed the mountains in scales, and the hills in a balance ?

13 Who hath <sup>x</sup> directed the <sup>y</sup> Spirit of the LORD, or, being his counsellor, hath taught him ?

14 With whom took he counsel, and <sup>z</sup> who <sup>z</sup> instructed him, and taught him in the path of judgment, and taught him knowledge, and shewed to him the way of understanding ?

15 Behold, the nations <sup>a</sup> are as a drop of a bucket, and are counted as the small <sup>b</sup> dust of the balance : behold, he taketh up the isles as a very little thing.

16 And Lebanon is not sufficient to burn, nor the beasts thereof sufficient for a burnt-offering.

17 All nations before him <sup>b</sup> are as nothing ; and they are counted to him less than nothing and <sup>c</sup> vanity.

18 <sup>d</sup> To whom then will ye liken God ? or what likeness will ye compare unto him ?

19 The <sup>e</sup> workman melteth a graven image, and the goldsmith spreadeth it over with gold, and casteth silver chains.

20 He that is so impoverished, that he hath no oblation, chooseth a tree that will not rot : he seeketh unto him a cunning <sup>f</sup> workman to <sup>g</sup> prepare a graven image, that shall not be moved.

21 Have ye not known ? have ye not heard ? hath it not been <sup>h</sup> told you from the beginning ? have ye not understood from the foundations of the earth ?

22 It is he that sitteth upon the circle of the earth, and the inhabitants thereof <sup>i</sup> are as grasshoppers ; that <sup>j</sup> stretcheth out the heavens as a curtain, and spreadeth them out as a tent to dwell in :

23 That bringeth the <sup>k</sup> princes to nothing : he maketh the judges of the earth as vanity.

24 Yea, they shall not be planted ; yea, they shall not be sown ; yea, their stock shall not take root in the earth : and he shall also <sup>l</sup> blow upon them, and they shall wither, and the whirlwind shall take them away <sup>m</sup> as stubble.

25 To whom then will ye <sup>n</sup> liken me, or shall I be <sup>o</sup> equal ? saith the Holy One.

26 Lift up your eyes on high, and behold who hath created these <sup>p</sup> things, that bringeth out their host <sup>q</sup> by number : he calleth them all by names, by the greatness of his might, for that he is strong in power ; not one <sup>r</sup> faileth.

27 <sup>s</sup> Why sayest thou, O Jacob, and speakest, O Israel, My way <sup>t</sup> is hid from the LORD, and my <sup>u</sup> judgment is passed over from my God ?

28 Hast thou not known, hast thou not <sup>v</sup> heard, that the everlasting God, the LORD, the Creator of the ends of the earth, <sup>w</sup> fainteth not, neither is weary ? there is <sup>x</sup> no searching of his understanding.

29 He giveth power to the <sup>y</sup> faint ; and to them that have no might he increaseth strength.

30 Even the <sup>z</sup> youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall :

31 But they that wait upon the LORD shall <sup>a</sup> renew their strength ; they shall mount up with wings as eagles ; they shall run and not be weary, and they shall walk and <sup>b</sup> not faint.

2 Who raised up the righteous man from the <sup>b</sup> east, called him to his <sup>c</sup> foot, <sup>d</sup> gave the nations before him, and made him <sup>e</sup> rule over kings ? he gave them as the dust to his sword, and as driven stubble to his bow.

3 He <sup>f</sup> pursued them, and passed safely ; even by the way that he <sup>g</sup> had not gone with his feet.

4 Who hath wrought and done it, calling the generations from the beginning? I the LORD, the first, and with the last; I am he.

5 The isles saw it, and feared; the ends of the earth were afraid, drew near, and came.

6 They helped every one his neighbour; and every one said to his brother, Be of good courage.

7 So the carpenter encouraged the goldsmith, and he that smootheth with the hammer him that smote the anvil, saying, It is ready for the sodering: and he fastened it with nails, that it should not be moved.

8 But thou, Israel, art my servant, Jacob whom I have chosen, the seed of Abraham my friend.

9 Thou whom I have taken from the ends of the earth, and called thee from the chief men thereof, and said unto thee, Thou art my servant, I have chosen thee, and not cast thee away.

10 Fear thou not; for I am with thee; be not dismayed, for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness.

11 Behold, all they that were incensed against thee shall be ashamed and confounded: they shall be as nothing; and they that strive with thee shall perish.

12 Thou shalt seek them, and shalt not find them, even them that contended with thee: they that war against thee shall be as nothing, and as a thing of nought.

13 For I the LORD thy God will hold thy right hand, saying unto thee, Fear not; I will help thee.

14 Fear not, thou worm Jacob, and ye men of Israel; I will help thee, saith the LORD, and thy Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel.

15 Behold, I will make thee a new sharp threshing instrument having teeth: thou shalt thresh the mountains, and beat them small, and shalt make the hills as chaff.

16 Thou shalt fan them, and the wind shall carry them away, and the whirlwind shall scatter them: and thou shalt rejoice in the LORD, and shalt glory in the Holy One of Israel.

17 When the poor and needy seek water, and there is none, and their tongue faileth for thirst, I the LORD will hear them, I the God of Israel will not forsake them.

18 I will open rivers in high places, and fountains in the midst of the valleys: I will make the wilderness a pool of water, and the dry land springs of water.

19 I will plant in the wilderness the cedar, the shittah-tree, and the myrtle, and the oil-tree; I will set in the desert the fir-tree, and the pine, and the box-tree together;

20 That they may see and know, and consider, and understand together, that the hand of the LORD hath done this, and the Holy One of Israel hath created it.

21 Produce your cause, saith the LORD:

bring forth your strong reasons, saith the King of Jacob.

22 Let them bring them forth, and shew us what shall happen: let them shew the former things what they be, that we may consider them, and know the latter end of them; or declare us things for to come.

23 Shew the things that are to come hereafter, that we may know that ye are gods: yea, do good, or do evil, that we may be dismayed, and behold it together.

24 Behold, ye are of nothing, and your work of nought: an abomination is he that chooseth you.

25 I have raised up one from the north, and he shall come: from the rising of the sun shall he call upon my name; and he shall come upon princes as upon mortar, and as the potter treadeth clay.

26 Who hath declared from the beginning, that we may know? and before-time, that we may say, He is righteous? yea, there is none that sheweth; yea, there is none that declareth; yea, there is none that heareth your words.

27 The first shall say to Zion, Behold, behold them: and I will give to Jerusalem one that bringeth good tidings.

28 For I beheld, and there was no man; even among them, and there was no counsellor, that, when I asked of them, could answer a word.

29 Behold, they are all vanity; their works are nothing: their molten images are wind and confusion.

2 He shall not cry, nor lift up, nor cause his voice to be heard in the street.

3 A bruised reed shall he not break, and the smoking flax shall he not quench: he shall bring forth judgment unto truth.

4 He shall not fail nor be discouraged, till he have set judgment in the earth: and the isles shall wait for his law.

5 Thus saith God the LORD, he that created the heavens, and stretched them out: he that spread forth the earth, and that which cometh out of it; he that giveth breath unto the people upon it, and spirit to them that walk therein; glory will I not give to another, neither my praise to graven images.

9 Behold, the former things are come to pass, and new things do I declare: before they spring forth I tell you of them.

10 Sing unto the LORD a new song, and his praise from the end of the earth, ye that go down to the sea, and all that is therein; the isles, and the inhabitants thereof.

11 Let the wilderness and the cities thereof lift up their voice, the villages that Kedar doth inhabit: let the inhabitants of the rock sing, let them shout from the top of the mountains.

12 Let them give glory unto the LORD, and declare his praise in the islands.

13 The LORD shall go forth as a mighty man, he shall stir up jealousy like a man of war: he shall cry; yea, roar; he shall prevail against his enemies.

14 I have long time holden my peace; I have been still, and refrained myself: now will I cry like a travailing woman; I will destroy and devour at once.

15 I will make waste mountains and hills, and dry up all their herbs; and I will make the rivers islands, and I will dry up the pools.

16 And I will bring the blind by a way that they knew not; I will lead them in paths that they have not known: I will make darkness light before them, and crooked things straight. These things will I do unto them, and not forsake them.

17 They shall be turned back, they shall be greatly ashamed, that trust in graven images, that say to the molten images, Ye are our gods.

18 Hear, ye deaf; and look, ye blind, that ye may see.

19 Who is blind, but my servant? or deaf, as my messenger that I sent? who is blind as he that is perfect, and blind as the LORD's servant?

20 Seeing many things, but thou observest not; opening the ears, but he heareth not.

21 The LORD is well pleased for his righteousness' sake; he will magnify the law, and make it honourable.

22 But this is a people robbed and spoiled; they are all of them snared in holes, and they are hid in prison-houses: they are for a prey, and none delivereth; for a spoil, and none saith, Restore.

23 Who among you will give ear to this? who will hearken, and hear for the time to come?

24 Who gave Jacob for a spoil, and Israel to the robbers? did not the LORD, he against whom we have sinned? for they would not walk in his ways, neither were they obedient unto his law.

25 Therefore he hath poured upon him the fury of his anger, and the strength of battle: and it hath set him on fire round about, yet he knew not; and it burned him, yet he laid it not to heart.

C H A P. XLIII.

1 The Lord comforteth the church with his promises:
2 He appealeth to the people for witness of his omnipotency; 14 He foretelleth them the destruction of Babylon, 18 and his wonderful deliverance of his people: 22 He reproveth the people as inexcusable.

BUT now, thus saith the LORD that created thee, O Jacob, and he that formed thee, O Israel, Fear not; for I have redeemed thee, I have called thee by thy name; thou art mine.

2 When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: when thou walkest through the fire thou shalt not be burnt; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee.

3 For I am the LORD thy God, the Holy One of Israel, thy Saviour: I gave Egypt for thy ransom, Ethiopia and Seba for thee.

4 Since thou wast precious in my sight, thou hast been honourable, and I have loved thee: therefore will I give men for thee, and people for thy life.

5 Fear not; for I am with thee: I will bring thy seed from the east, and gather thee from the west;

6 I will say to the north, Give up; and to the south, Keep not back: bring my sons from far, and my daughters from the ends of the earth;

7 Even every one that is called by my name: for I have created him for my glory, I have formed him; yea, I have made him.

8 Bring forth the blind people that have eyes, and the deaf that have ears.

9 Let all the nations be gathered together, and let the people be assembled: who among them can declare this, and shew us former things? let them bring forth their witnesses, that they may be justified: or let them hear, and say, It is truth.

10 Ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, and my servant whom I have chosen; that ye may know and believe me, and understand that I am he: before me there was no God formed, neither shall there be after me.

11 I, even I, am the LORD; and besides me there is no Saviour.

12 I have declared, and have saved, and I have shewed, when there was no strange god among you: therefore ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, that I am God.

13 Yea, before the day was I am he; and there is none that can deliver out of my hand: I will work, and who shall let it?

14 Thus saith the LORD, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; For your sake I have sent to Babylon, and have brought down all their nobles, and the Chaldeans, whose cry is in the ships.

15 I am the LORD, your Holy One, the Creator of Israel, your King.

16 Thus saith the LORD, which maketh a way in the sea, and a path in the mighty waters;

17 Which bringeth forth the chariot and horse, the army, and the power; they shall lie down together, they shall not rise: they are extinct, they are quenched as tow.

21 This people have I formed for myself; they shall <sup>h</sup> shew forth my praise.

22 But thou hast <sup>i</sup> not called upon me, O Jacob; but thou hast <sup>k</sup> been weary of me, O Israel.

23 Thou hast <sup>l</sup> not brought me the small cattle of thy burnt-offerings, neither hast thou honoured me with thy sacrifices: I have not caused thee to serve with an offering, nor wearied thee with incense.

24 Thou hast bought me no sweet cane with money, neither hast thou filled me with the fat of thy sacrifices; but thou hast made me to serve with thy sins, thou hast <sup>m</sup> wearied me with thine iniquities.

25 I, even I, am he that <sup>n</sup> blotteth out thy transgressions for mine <sup>o</sup> own sake, and will not remember thy sins.

26 <sup>p</sup> Put me in remembrance: let us <sup>q</sup> plead together: declare thou, that thou mayest be justified.

27 Thy <sup>r</sup> first father hath sinned, and thy <sup>s</sup> teachers have transgressed against me.

28 Therefore I have profaned <sup>t</sup> the princes of the sanctuary, and have given Jacob to the <sup>u</sup> curse, and Israel to reproaches.

C H A P. XLIV.

1 God comforteth the church with his promises. 7 The vanity of idols, 9 and folly of idol-makers.

21 He exhorteth to praise God for his redemption and omnipotency.

YET now hear, O <sup>a</sup> Jacob my servant; and Israel, whom I have chosen:

2 Thus saith the LORD that <sup>b</sup> made thee, and formed thee from the womb, which will help thee; Fear not, O Jacob my servant; and thou,

3 For I will <sup>d</sup> pour water upon him that is thirsty, and floods upon the dry ground; I will pour my Spirit upon thy seed, and my blessing upon thine offspring:

4 And they shall <sup>e</sup> spring up as among the grass, as willows by the water-courses.

5 <sup>f</sup> One shall say, I am the <sup>g</sup> LORD's; and another shall <sup>h</sup> call himself by the name of Jacob; and another shall subscribe with his hand unto the LORD, and surname himself by the name of Israel.

6 Thus saith the LORD the King of Israel, and his Redeemer the LORD of hosts; I am the <sup>i</sup> first, and I am the last; and besides me there is no God.

7 And who, as I, shall <sup>j</sup> call, and shall declare it, and set it in order for me, since I appointed the <sup>k</sup> ancient people? and the things that are coming, and shall come, let them shew unto them.

8 Fear ye not, neither be afraid: have not I told thee from that time, and have declared it? ye <sup>are</sup> even my witnesses. Is there a God besides me? yea, there is † no God; I know not any.

9 They that make a graven image <sup>are</sup> all of them vanity; and their delectable <sup>m</sup> things shall <sup>n</sup> not profit: and they <sup>are</sup> their own witnesses; they see not, nor know; that they may be ashamed.

10 Who hath formed a god, or molten a graven image that is <sup>o</sup> profitable for nothing?

11 Behold, all his fellows shall be ashamed; and the workmen, they <sup>are</sup> of men: let them all be gathered together, let them stand up; yet they shall fear, and they shall be <sup>p</sup> ashamed together.

12 The smith with the tongs both worketh in the coals, and fashioneth it with hammers, and worketh it with the strength of his arms: yea, <sup>q</sup> he is hungry, and his strength faileth; he drinketh no water, and is faint.

13 The carpenter stretcheth out his rule, he marketh it out with a line, he fitteth it with planes, and he marketh it out with the compass, and maketh it after the figure of a man, according to the beauty of a man; that it may remain in the <sup>r</sup> house.

14 He heweth him down cedars, and taketh the cypress and the oak, which he <sup>s</sup> strengtheneth for himself among the trees of the forest: he planteth an ash, and the rain doth nourish it.

15 Then shall it be for a man to burn: for he will take thereof and <sup>t</sup> warm himself; yea, he kindleth it, and baketh bread; yea, he <sup>u</sup> maketh a god, and worshippeth it: he maketh it a graven image, and falleth down thereto.

16 He burneth part thereof in the fire: with part thereof he eateth flesh; he roasteth roast, and is satisfied; yea, he warmeth himself, and saith, Aha, I am warm, I have seen the fire:

17 And the residue thereof he maketh a god, even his graven image: he falleth down unto it, and worshippeth it, and prayeth unto it, and saith, Deliver me; for thou art my God.

18 They have <sup>v</sup> not known nor understood: for he hath † shut their eyes, that they cannot see; and their hearts, that they cannot understand.

19 And none considereth in his heart, neither is there knowledge nor understanding to say, I have burnt part of it in the fire; yea, also I have baked bread upon the coals thereof; I have roasted flesh, and eaten it; and shall I make the residue thereof an abomination? shall I fall down to the stock of a tree?

20 He feedeth on ashes: <sup>w</sup> a deceived heart hath turned him aside, that he cannot deliver his soul, nor say, Is there not <sup>x</sup> a lie in my right hand?

21 <sup>y</sup> Remember these, O Jacob and Israel; for thou art my servant: I have formed thee; thou art my servant: O Israel, thou shalt not be forgotten of me.

BEL boweth down, Nebo stoopeth; their idols were upon the <sup>a</sup> beasts, and upon the cattle: your carriages were heavy loaden: they are a burden to the weary beast.

2 They stoop; they bow down together; they could not <sup>b</sup> deliver the burden, but themselves are gone into captivity.

3 Harken unto me, O house of Jacob, and all the remnant of the house of Israel, which are <sup>c</sup> borne by me from the belly, which are carried from the <sup>d</sup> womb:

4 And even to your <sup>e</sup> old age <sup>f</sup> I am he; and even to hoar hairs will I carry you: I have made, and I will bear; even I will carry, and will deliver you.

5 To whom will ye <sup>g</sup> liken me, and make me equal, and compare me, that we may be like?

6 They <sup>h</sup> lavish gold out of the bag, and weigh silver in the balance, and hire a goldsmith, and he maketh it a god: they fall down; yea, they worship.

7 They <sup>i</sup> bear him upon the shoulder, they carry him, and set him in his place, and he standeth; from his place shall he not remove: yea, one shall cry unto him, yet can he not answer, nor save him out of his trouble.

8 Remember this, and shew yourselves <sup>k</sup> men; bring it again to mind, O ye transgressors.

9 Remember the former things of old: for I am God, and there is <sup>l</sup> none else; I am God, and there is none like me;

C H A P. XLVII.

1 God's judgments upon Babylon and Chaldea, 6 for their unmercifulness, 7 pride, 10 and over-boldness, 11 shall be irresistible.

COME down, and sit in the <sup>a</sup> dust, O virgin daughter of Babylon; sit on the ground: there is no throne, O daughter of the Chaldeans: for thou <sup>b</sup> shalt no more be called tender and delicate.

2 Take the millstones, and grind meal: uncover thy locks, <sup>c</sup> make bare the leg, uncover the thigh, pass over the rivers.

3 Thy nakedness shall be uncovered, yea, thy shame shall be seen: I will <sup>d</sup> take vengeance, and I will <sup>e</sup> not meet thee as a man.

4 As for <sup>f</sup> our Redeemer, the LORD of hosts is his name, the Holy One of Israel.

5 Sit thou silent, and get thee into <sup>g</sup> darkness, O daughter of the Chaldeans: for thou shalt no more be called The lady of kingdoms.

6 I was <sup>h</sup> wroth with my people; I have polluted mine inheritance, and given them into thine hand: thou didst shew them <sup>i</sup> no mercy; upon the ancient hast thou very heavily laid thy yoke.

7 And thou saidst, I shall be a <sup>k</sup> lady for ever: so that thou didst not lay these things to thy heart, neither didst remember the latter end of it.

8 Therefore hear now this, thou that art given <sup>l</sup> to pleasures, that dwellest carelessly; that sayest in thine heart, <sup>m</sup> I am, and none else besides me; I shall not sit as a widow, neither shall I know the loss of children:

9 But <sup>n</sup> these two things shall come to thee in a moment in one day, the loss of children, and widowhood: they shall come upon thee in their perfection for the multitude of thy <sup>o</sup> sorceries, and for the great abundance of thine enchantments.

10 For thou hast <sup>p</sup> trusted in thy wickedness: thou hast said, None seeth me. Thy <sup>q</sup> wisdom and thy knowledge it hath perverted thee; and thou hast said in thine heart, I am, and none else besides me.

11 Therefore shall evil come upon thee; thou shalt not know <sup>r</sup> from whence it riseth: and mischief shall fall upon thee; thou shalt not be able <sup>s</sup> to put it off: and desolation shall come upon thee suddenly, which thou shalt not know.

12 Stand now with thy <sup>t</sup> enchantments, and with the multitude of thy sorceries, wherein thou hast laboured from thy youth; if so be thou shalt be able to profit, if so be thou mayest prevail.

13 Thou art wearied in the multitude of thy counsels. Let now the astrologers, the star-gazers, the monthly prognosticators, stand up and save thee from these things that shall come upon thee.

14 Behold they shall be as <sup>u</sup> stubble; the fire shall burn them; they shall not deliver themselves from the power of the flame: there shall not be <sup>v</sup> a coal to warm at, nor fire to sit before it.

15 Thus shall they be unto thee <sup>w</sup> with whom thou hast laboured, even thy merchants from thy youth: they shall wander every one to his quarter; none shall save thee.

1 Christ being sent to the Jews, complaineth of them :

2 And he hath made <sup>c</sup> my mouth like a sharp

4 Then I said, I have laboured <sup>g</sup> in vain, I yet shall I be <sup>j</sup> glorious in the eyes of the LORD, and my God shall be <sup>k</sup> my strength.

6 And he said, It is a <sup>m</sup> light thing that thou of Jacob, and to restore the preserved of Israel;

 I will also give thee for a light to the Gentiles, that thou mayest be my salvation unto the end have I helped <sup>s</sup> thee: and I will preserve thee,

10 They shall <sup>x</sup> not hunger nor thirst; neither shall the heat nor sun smite them; for he that hath mercy on them shall lead them, even by the springs of water shall he guide them.

11 And I will make all my mountains a way, and my highways shall be exalted.

12 Behold, these shall come <sup>y</sup> from far; and, lo, these from the north and from the west; and these from the land of <sup>z</sup> Sinim.

13 Sing, <sup>a</sup> O heavens; and be joyful, O earth; and break forth into singing, O mountains; for 6 Thou hast heard, see all this; and will ‡ not from this time, even <sup>h</sup> hidden things, and thou didst not know them.

7 They are <sup>i</sup> created now, and not from the beginning; even before the day when thou heardest them not; lest thou shouldest say, Behold, I knew them.

8 Yea, thou <sup>k</sup> heardest not; yea, thou knew-est not; yea, from that time that thine ear was not opened: for I knew that thou wouldest deal very treacherously, and wast called a <sup>l</sup> trans-

9 <sup>m</sup> For my name's sake will I defer mine an-

11 For <sup>o</sup> mine own sake, even for mine own sake, will I do it: for how should my name be polluted?
 and I will <sup>p</sup> not give my glory unto another.

12 Harken unto me, O Jacob and Israel, my <sup>q</sup> called; I am he: I am the <sup>r</sup> first, I also am the last.

13 Mine hand also hath laid the <sup>s</sup> foundation of the earth, and my right hand hath spanned the heavens: when I <sup>t</sup> call unto them, they <sup>u</sup> stand up together.

14 All ye, assemble yourselves, and hear;
 which <sup>x</sup> among them hath declared these things?
 The LORD hath <sup>y</sup> loved him; he will do his <sup>z</sup> pleasure on Babylon, and his arm shall be on the Chaldeans.

15 I, even I, have spoken; yea, I have called him; I have brought him, and he shall make his way <sup>a</sup> prosperous.

16 Come ye near unto me, hear ye this; I have not spoken in secret from the beginning; from <sup>b</sup> the time that it was, <sup>c</sup> there am I: and now the Lord God and his Spirit hath <sup>d</sup> sent me.

17 Thus saith the LORD, thy Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; I am the LORD thy God which teacheth thee to profit, which <sup>e</sup> leadeth thee by the way that thou shouldest go.

18 <sup>f</sup> O that thou hadst hearkened to my commandments! then had thy <sup>g</sup> peace been as a river, and thy righteousness as the waves of the sea;

19 Thy seed also had been as the sand, and the offspring of thy bowels like the gravel thereof; his name <sup>h</sup> should not have been cut off nor destroyed from before me.

20 <sup>i</sup> Go ye forth of Babylon, flee ye from the Chaldeans, with a voice of <sup>j</sup> singing declare ye, tell this, utter it even to the end of the earth; say ye,
 The LORD hath <sup>k</sup> redeemed his servant Jacob.

21 And they thirsted not when he led them through the deserts: he caused the waters to flow out of the <sup>l</sup> rock for them; he clave the rock also, and the waters gushed out.

22 There is <sup>m</sup> no peace, saith the LORD, unto 16 Behold, I have <sup>g</sup>graven thee upon the palms of my hands; thy <sup>h</sup>walls are continually before me.

17 Thy <sup>h</sup>children shall make haste; thy destroyers, and they that make thee waste, shall <sup>i</sup>go forth of thee.

18 <sup>k</sup>Lift up thine eyes round about, and behold: all these gather themselves together, and come to thee. As I live, saith the LORD, thou shalt surely <sup>l</sup>clothe thee with them all as with an ornament, and bind them on thee as a bride doeth.

19 For thy <sup>m</sup>waste and thy desolate places, and the land of thy destruction, shall even now be <sup>n</sup>too narrow by reason of the inhabitants, and they that swallowed thee up shall be <sup>o</sup>far away.

20 The children which thou shalt <sup>p</sup>have, after thou hast <sup>q</sup>lost the other, shall say again in thine ears, The place is too strait for me: give place for me that I may dwell.

21 Then shalt thou say in thine heart, Who hath <sup>r</sup>begotten me these, seeing I have lost my children, and am desolate, a captive, and removing to and fro? and who hath brought up these? Behold, I was left alone; these, where had they been?

22 Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will lift up mine hand to the <sup>s</sup>Gentiles; and set up my standard to the people: and they shall bring thy sons in their arms, and thy daughters shall be carried upon their shoulders.

23 And kings shall be thy <sup>t</sup>nursing-fathers, and their queens thy nursing-mothers: they shall bow down to thee with their face toward the earth, and <sup>u</sup>lick up the dust of thy feet; and thou shalt know that I am the LORD: for they shall not be ashamed that wait for me.

24 Shall the prey be taken from the mighty, or the lawful captive delivered?

25 But thus saith the LORD, Even the <sup>v</sup>captives of the mighty shall be taken away, and the prey of the terrible shall be delivered: for I will contend with him that contendeth with thee, and I will save thy children.

26 And I will feed them that oppress thee with their <sup>w</sup>own flesh; and they shall be drunken with their own blood, as with sweet wine: and all flesh shall <sup>x</sup>know that I the LORD am thy Saviour, and thy Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.

1 Christ sheweth that the dereliction of the Jews is not to be imputed to him, by his ability to save; 5 by his obedience in that work, 7 and by his confidence in that assistance. 10 An exhortation to trust in God, and not in ourselves.

THUS saith the LORD, Where is the <sup>a</sup>bill of your mother's divorcement, whom I have put away? or which of my <sup>b</sup>creditors is it to whom I have sold you? Behold, for your iniquities have ye sold yourselves, and for your transgressions is <sup>c</sup>your mother put away.

2 Wherefore, when <sup>d</sup>I came, was there <sup>e</sup>no man? when I called, was there none to answer? Is my hand <sup>f</sup>shortened at all, that it cannot redeem?

or have I no power to deliver? behold, at my rebuke I dry up the sea: I make the rivers a wilderness: their fish stinketh, because there is no water, and dieth for thirst.

3 I clothe the heavens with blackness, and I make sackcloth their covering.

4 The Lord God hath given me the <sup>g</sup>tongue <sup>h</sup>Col. 2, 9. of the learned, that I should know how to speak

6 I gave my back to the smiters, and my <sup>n</sup>cheeks to them that plucked off the hair: I <sup>o</sup>hid not my face from shame and spitting.

7 For the Lord God will <sup>p</sup>help me; therefore shall I not be confounded: therefore have I set my face like a flint, and I know that I shall <sup>q</sup>not be ashamed.

8 He is <sup>r</sup>near that justifieth me; who will contend with me? let us <sup>s</sup>stand together: who is <sup>t</sup>mine adversary? let him come near to me.

9 Behold, the Lord God will help me; who is <sup>u</sup>he that shall condemn me? lo, they all shall <sup>v</sup>wax old as a garment; the moth shall eat them up.

10 Who is among you that <sup>w</sup>feareth the LORD, that <sup>x</sup>obeyeth the voice of his servant, that <sup>y</sup>walketh <sup>z</sup>in darkness, and hath no light? let <sup>a</sup>him trust in the name of the LORD, and <sup>b</sup>stay upon his God.

11 Behold, all ye that <sup>c</sup>kindle a fire, that compass yourselves about with sparks; walk in the light of your fire, and in the sparks that ye have kindled. This shall ye have of mine hand, ye shall lie down <sup>d</sup>in sorrow.

6 Lift up your eyes to the <sup>a</sup> heavens, and look upon the earth beneath; for the heavens shall vanish away like smoke, and the earth shall wax old like a garment, and they that dwell therein shall die in like manner: but <sup>a</sup> my salvation shall be for ever, and my righteousness shall not be abolished.

7 Harken unto me, ye that know righteousness, the people in whose <sup>a</sup> heart is my law; fear ye not the <sup>p</sup> reproach of men, neither be ye afraid of their revilings.

8 For the <sup>a</sup> moth shall eat them up like a garment, and the <sup>r</sup> worm shall eat them like wool: but my righteousness shall be for ever, and my salvation from generation to generation.

9 <sup>a</sup> Awake, awake, <sup>t</sup> put on strength, O arm of the LORD; awake, as in the ancient days, in the generations of old. Art thou not it that hath cut Rahab, and wounded the <sup>u</sup> dragon?

10 Art thou not it which hath <sup>x</sup> dried the sea, the waters of the great deep; that hath made the depths of the sea a way for the ransomed to pass over?

11 Therefore the <sup>y</sup> redeemed of the LORD shall return, and come with singing unto Zion; and everlasting joy shall be upon their <sup>z</sup> head: they shall obtain gladness and joy; and sorrow and mourning shall flee away.

12 I, even I, am he that <sup>a</sup> comforteth you: who art thou, that thou shouldst be afraid of a man that shall die, and of the son of man which shall be made as <sup>b</sup> grass;

13 And forgettest the LORD thy Maker, that hath stretched forth the heavens, and laid the foundations of the earth; and hast feared continually every day, because of the fury of the oppressor, as if he were ready to destroy? and <sup>c</sup> where is the fury of the oppressor?

14 The captive exile hasteneth that he may be loosed, and that he should not die in the <sup>d</sup> pit, nor that his bread should fail.

15 But I am the LORD thy God, that <sup>e</sup> divided the sea, whose waves roared: The LORD of hosts is his name.

16 And I have <sup>f</sup> put my words in thy mouth, and have covered thee in the shadow of mine hand, that I may <sup>g</sup> plant the heavens, and lay the foundations of the earth, and say unto Zion, Thou art my people.

17 <sup>h</sup> Awake, awake, stand up, <sup>i</sup> O Jerusalem, which hast drunk at the hand of the LORD the cup of his fury: thou hast drunken the <sup>k</sup> dregs of the cup of trembling, and wrung them out.

18 There is none to <sup>l</sup> guide her among all the sons whom she hath brought forth; neither is there any that taketh her by the hand, of all the sons that she hath brought up.

19 <sup>m</sup> These two things are come unto thee; who shall be sorry for thee? desolation, and destruction, and the famine, and the sword: by whom shall I <sup>n</sup> comfort thee?

20 Thy sons have <sup>o</sup> fainted, they lie at the head of all the streets as a wild bull in a net: they are full of the <sup>p</sup> fury of the LORD, the rebuke of thy God.

21 Therefore, hear now this, thou afflicted, and drunken, but <sup>a</sup> not with wine:

22 Thus saith thy Lord, the LORD, and thy God that <sup>r</sup> pleadeth the cause of his people, Behold, I have taken <sup>s</sup> out of thine hand the cup of <sup>q</sup> trembling, even the dregs of the cup of my fury; thou shalt no more drink it again:

HO, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the <sup>a</sup> waters, and he that hath <sup>b</sup> no money; come ye, <sup>c</sup> buy and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money, and without price.

2 Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is <sup>d</sup> not bread, and your labour for that which satisfieth not? Harken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness.

3 Incline your ear, <sup>e</sup> and come unto me: hear, and your soul shall live; and I will make, an <sup>f</sup> everlasting covenant with you, even <sup>g</sup> the sure mercies of David.

4 Behold, I have given him for a <sup>h</sup> witness to the people, <sup>i</sup> a leader and commander to the people.

6 Seek ye the LORD <sup>k</sup> while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near.

10 For as the <sup>r</sup> rain cometh down, and the snow, from heaven, and returneth not thither, but <sup>s</sup> watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give <sup>t</sup> seed to the sower, and bread to the eater;

11 So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not <sup>u</sup> return unto me void; but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.

12 For ye shall <sup>v</sup> go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: <sup>w</sup> the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.

13 Instead of the <sup>x</sup> thorn shall come up the fir-tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle-tree: and it shall be to the LORD for <sup>y</sup> a name, and for an everlasting sign, that shall not be cut off.

1 The prophet exhorteth to sanctification: 3 He promiseth it shall be general without respect to persons: 9 He inveigheth against blind watchmen.

THUS saith the LORD, Keep ye <sup>a</sup> judgment, and do justice: for my salvation is near to come, and my <sup>b</sup> righteousness to be revealed.

2 Blessed is the man that <sup>c</sup> doeth this, and the son of man that layeth hold on it; that <sup>d</sup> keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and keepeth his hand from doing any evil.

3 Neither let the son of the <sup>e</sup> stranger, that hath joined himself to the LORD, speak, saying, The LORD hath utterly separated me from his people: neither let the eunuch say, Behold, I am <sup>f</sup> a dry tree.

4 For thus saith the LORD unto the <sup>g</sup> eunuchs that keep my sabbaths, and choose the things that <sup>h</sup> please me, and take hold of my covenant;

5 Even unto them will I give in mine <sup>i</sup> house, and within my walls, a place and a name <sup>j</sup> better than of sons and of daughters: I will give them an everlasting name, that shall not be cut off.

6 Also the sons of the stranger that <sup>k</sup> join themselves to the LORD, to serve him, and to love the name of the LORD, to be his servants, every one that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and <sup>l</sup> taketh hold of my covenant;

7 Even them will I bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in <sup>m</sup> my house of prayer; their <sup>n</sup> burnt-offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted upon mine altar: for mine house shall be called <sup>o</sup> an house of prayer for <sup>p</sup> all people.

8 The LORD God, which gathereth the outcasts of Israel, saith, Yet will I <sup>q</sup> gather others to him, besides those that are <sup>r</sup> gathered unto him.

9 All ye beasts of the field, come to <sup>s</sup> devour, yea, all ye beasts in the forest.

10 His watchmen are <sup>t</sup> blind; they are all <sup>u</sup> ignorant, they are all dumb dogs, they <sup>v</sup> cannot bark; sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber.

11 Yea, they are <sup>w</sup> greedy dogs which can never have enough, and they are shepherds that cannot understand; they all look to their own way, every one for his <sup>x</sup> gain from his quarter.

12 Come ye, say they, I will <sup>y</sup> fetch wine, and we will fill ourselves with strong drink; and <sup>z</sup> to-morrow shall be as to-day, and <sup>a</sup> much more abundant.

out the tongue? are ye not children of transgression, a seed of falsehood;

5 <sup>a</sup> Inflaming yourselves with idols under every green tree, <sup>b</sup> slaying the children in the valleys under the cliffs of the rocks?

6 Among the <sup>i</sup> smooth stones of the stream is thy portion; they, they <sup>are</sup> thy lot; even to them hast thou poured a drink-offering, thou hast offered a meat-offering. Should I receive <sup>k</sup> comfort in these?

7 Upon <sup>l</sup> a lofty and high mountain hast thou set thy bed: even thither wentest thou up to offer sacrifice.

8 Behind the doors also and the posts hast thou set up thy <sup>m</sup> remembrance; for thou hast discovered <sup>n</sup> thyself to another <sup>n</sup> than me, and art gone up: thou hast enlarged thy bed, and <sup>o</sup> made a covenant with them; thou lovedst their bed where thou <sup>p</sup> sawest it.

9 And thou wentest to the king with <sup>q</sup> ointment, and didst increase thy perfumes, and didst send thy messengers far off, and didst debase <sup>r</sup> thyself even unto hell.

10 Thou art <sup>s</sup> wearied in the greatness of thy way; yet saidst thou not, There is <sup>t</sup> no hope: thou hast found the life of thine hand; therefore thou wast not grieved.

11 And of whom hast thou been afraid or feared, that thou hast <sup>u</sup> lied, and hast not remembered me, nor laid <sup>v</sup> it to thy heart? have not I <sup>w</sup> held my peace even of old, and thou fearest me not?

12 I will declare thy <sup>x</sup> righteousness, and thy works; for they shall not <sup>y</sup> profit thee.

13 When thou <sup>z</sup> criest, let thy companies <sup>a</sup> deliver thee: but the wind shall carry them all away; vanity shall take <sup>b</sup> them: but he that putteth his trust <sup>c</sup> in me shall <sup>c</sup> possess the land, and shall inherit my holy mountain;

14 And shall say, Cast ye up, cast ye up, prepare the way, take up the stumbling-block out of the way of my people.

15 For thus saith the high and lofty One that <sup>d</sup> inhabiteth eternity, whose name is Holy; I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also <sup>e</sup> that is of a <sup>e</sup> contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones.

16 For I will not <sup>f</sup> contend for ever, neither will I be always wroth: for the spirit should <sup>g</sup> fail before me, and the souls <sup>h</sup> which I have made.

17 For the iniquity of his <sup>i</sup> covetousness was I wroth, and smote him: I hid me, and was wroth, and he <sup>j</sup> went on frowardly in the way of his heart.

18 I have <sup>k</sup> seen his ways, and will heal him: I will lead him also, and restore comforts unto him and to his <sup>l</sup> mourners.

19 I create the <sup>m</sup> fruit of the lips; Peace, peace to <sup>n</sup> him that is far off, and to <sup>n</sup> him that is near, saith the LORD; and I will heal him.

20 But the wicked <sup>o</sup> are like the <sup>o</sup> troubled sea, when it cannot rest, whose waters cast up mire and dirt.

21 There is <sup>p</sup> no peace, saith my God, to the wicked.

C H A P. LVIII.

1 The prophet, being sent to reprove hypocrisy, 3 expresseth a counterfeit fast and a true. 8 He declareth what promises are due unto godliness, 13 and to the keeping of the sabbath.

C R Y <sup>a</sup> aloud, spare not; lift up thy voice like <sup>a</sup> a trumpet, and shew my people their <sup>b</sup> transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins.

2 Yet they seek me daily, and delight to know my ways, as a nation that did righteousness, and forsook not the ordinance of their God: they ask of me the ordinances of justice; they take delight in approaching to God.

3 <sup>c</sup> Wherefore have we fasted, say they, and thou seest not? <sup>c</sup> wherefore have we afflicted our soul, and thou takest no knowledge? Behold, in the <sup>d</sup> day of your fast you find pleasure, and exact all your labours.

4 Behold, ye fast for <sup>e</sup> strife and debate, and to <sup>f</sup> smite with the fist of wickedness: ye shall not fast as <sup>g</sup> ye do this day, to make your voice to be heard on high.

5 <sup>h</sup> Is it such a fast that I have chosen? a day for a man to <sup>h</sup> afflict his soul? <sup>h</sup> is it to bow down his head as a bulrush, and to spread sackcloth and ashes <sup>i</sup> under him? wilt thou call this a fast, and an acceptable day to the LORD?

6 <sup>j</sup> Is not this the fast that I have chosen? <sup>j</sup> to loose the bands of wickedness, to undo the <sup>k</sup> heavy burdens, and to let the <sup>k</sup> oppressed go free, and that ye break every yoke?

7 <sup>l</sup> Is it not to <sup>l</sup> deal thy bread to the hungry, and that thou bring the poor that are <sup>m</sup> cast out to thy house? when thou seest the naked, that thou <sup>n</sup> cover him; and that thou hide not thyself from thine <sup>n</sup> own flesh?

8 Then shall thy <sup>o</sup> light break forth as the morning, and thine health shall spring forth speedily; and thy righteousness shall <sup>p</sup> go before thee: the glory of the LORD shall be thy rearward.

9 Then shalt thou <sup>q</sup> call, and the LORD shall <sup>q</sup> answer; thou shalt cry, and he shall say, Here I am. If thou take away from the midst of thee the yoke, the <sup>r</sup> putting forth of the finger, and <sup>r</sup> speaking vanity:

10 And if thou <sup>s</sup> draw out thy soul to the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted soul; then shall thy light rise in obscurity, and thy darkness <sup>t</sup> be as the noon-day:

11 And the LORD shall <sup>u</sup> guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in <sup>u</sup> drought, and make fat thy bones: and thou shalt be like a <sup>v</sup> watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters fail not.

12 And they that shall be <sup>w</sup> of thee shall build the old <sup>w</sup> waste places: thou shalt raise up the foundations of many generations; and thou shalt be called, The Repairer of the breach, The <sup>x</sup> Restorer of paths to dwell in.

13 If thou <sup>y</sup> turn away thy foot from the sabbath, from doing <sup>y</sup> thy pleasure on my holyday; and call the sabbath <sup>z</sup> a Delight, the Holy of the LORD, Honourable; and shalt honour him, not doing thine own ways, nor finding thine own pleasure, nor speaking <sup>z</sup> thine own words:

C H A P. LIX.

1 The damnable nature of sin. 3 The sins of the Jews. 9 Calamity is for sin. 16 Salvation is only of God. 20 The covenant of the Redeemer.

BEHOLD, the LORD's hand is <sup>a</sup>not shortened, that it cannot save; neither his ear heavy, that it cannot hear:

2 But your iniquities have <sup>b</sup>separated between you and your God, and your sins have <sup>c</sup>hid his face from you, that he will not hear.

3 For <sup>d</sup>your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity; your lips have spoken <sup>e</sup>lies, your tongue hath muttered perverseness.

4 <sup>f</sup>None calleth for justice, nor <sup>g</sup>any <sup>h</sup>pleadeth for truth: they trust in vanity, and speak lies; they <sup>i</sup>conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity.

5 They hatch <sup>j</sup>'cockatrice' eggs, and weave the <sup>k</sup>'spider's web': he that eateth of their eggs dieth, and that which is crushed breaketh out into a viper.

6 Their <sup>l</sup>'webs shall not become garments, neither shall they cover themselves with their works: their works are works of iniquity, and the act of violence is in their hands.

7 Their <sup>m</sup>'feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed innocent blood: their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; wasting and destruction are in their paths.

8 The way of peace they know not; and there is <sup>n</sup>'no judgment in their goings: they have made them <sup>o</sup>'crooked paths; whosoever goeth therein shall not know peace.

9 Therefore is <sup>p</sup>'judgment far from us, neither doth justice overtake us: we wait <sup>q</sup>'for light, but behold obscurity; for brightness, but we walk in darkness.

10 We <sup>r</sup>'grope for the wall like the blind, and we grope as if we had no eyes: we stumble at noon-day as in the night; we are in desolate places as dead men.

11 We <sup>s</sup>'roar all like bears, and mourn sore like doves: we look for judgment, but there is none; for salvation, but it is far off from us.

12 For our <sup>t</sup>'transgressions are multiplied <sup>u</sup>'before thee, and our sins testify against us: for our transgressions are <sup>x</sup>'with us; and as for our iniquities, we know them:

13 In transgressing and lying against the LORD, and departing away from our God, speaking oppression and revolt, <sup>y</sup>'conceiving and uttering from the <sup>z</sup>'heart words of falsehood.

14 And judgment is turned away backward, and justice standeth afar off: for truth is fallen in the street, and equity cannot enter.

15 Yea, truth <sup>a</sup>'faileth; and he that <sup>b</sup>'departeth from evil maketh himself a prey: and the LORD saw it, and it displeased him that there was no judgment.

16 And he saw that there was <sup>c</sup>'no man, and wondered that there was no intercessor; therefore <sup>d</sup>'his arm brought salvation unto him; and his righteousness, it sustained him.

17 For he <sup>e</sup>'put on righteousness as a breastplate, and an helmet of salvation upon his head; and he put on the garments of vengeance for clothing, and was clad with zeal as a cloak.

18 According to their <sup>f</sup>'deeds, accordingly he will repay, fury to <sup>g</sup>'his adversaries, recompence to his enemies; to the islands he will repay recompence.

19 So shall they fear the name of the LORD from the <sup>h</sup>'west, and his glory from the rising of the sun. When the enemy shall come in like <sup>i</sup>'a flood, the <sup>j</sup>'Spirit of the LORD shall lift up a standard against him.

20 And the <sup>k</sup>'Redeemer shall come to <sup>l</sup>'Zion, and unto them that <sup>m</sup>'turn from transgression in Jacob, saith the LORD.

21 As for me, this is my <sup>n</sup>'covenant with them, saith the LORD; My spirit that is upon thee, and <sup>o</sup>'my words which I have put in thy mouth, shall not depart out of <sup>p</sup>'thy mouth, nor out of the mouth of thy seed's seed, saith the LORD, from henceforth and for ever.

1 The glory of the church in the abundant access of the Gentiles, 15 and the great blessings after a short affliction.

ARISE, <sup>a</sup>'shine; for <sup>b</sup>'thy light is come, and the <sup>c</sup>'glory of the LORD is risen upon thee.

2 For, behold, the <sup>d</sup>'darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people: but the LORD shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee.

3 And the Gentiles shall come to <sup>e</sup>'thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising.

4 Lift up thine eyes round about, and see: all they gather themselves together, they come to thee: <sup>f</sup>'thy sons shall come from far, and thy daughters shall be <sup>g</sup>'nursed at thy side.

5 Then thou shalt see, and <sup>h</sup>'flow together, and thine heart shall <sup>i</sup>'fear, and be <sup>j</sup>'enlarged; because the abundance of the sea shall be converted unto thee, the <sup>k</sup>'forces of the Gentiles shall come unto thee.

6 The multitude of camels shall cover thee, the dromedaries of Midian and Ephah; all they from <sup>l</sup>'Sheba shall come: they shall bring <sup>m</sup>'gold and incense; and they shall shew forth the praises of the LORD.

7 All the <sup>n</sup>'flocks of Kedar shall be gathered together unto thee, the rams of Nebaioth shall <sup>o</sup>'minister unto thee: they shall come up with acceptance on mine altar, and I will glorify <sup>p</sup>'the house of my glory.

8 Who are these that fly as <sup>q</sup>'a cloud, and as the doves to their <sup>r</sup>'windows?

9 Surely the isles shall wait for me, and the ships of Tarshish first, to <sup>s</sup>'bring thy <sup>t</sup>'sons from far, their silver and their gold with them, unto <sup>u</sup>'the name of the LORD thy God, and to the Holy One of Israel, because he hath glorified thee.

¶ The BOOK of the Prophet JEREMIAH.

C H A P. I.

1 The time, 3 and the calling of Jeremiah. 11 His prophetic visions of an almond-rod, and a seething-pot. 15 His heavy message against Judah. 17 God encourageth him with his promise of assistance.

THE words of Jeremiah the son of <sup>b</sup> Hilki-ah, of the priests that were in <sup>a</sup> Anathoth, in the land of Benjamin:

2 To whom the word of the LORD <sup>d</sup> came in the days of <sup>e</sup> Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reign.

3 It came also in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, unto the || end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah the son of Josiah king of Judah, unto the carrying away of Jerusalem captive in the fifth month.

4 Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

5 Before I <sup>f</sup> formed thee in the belly <sup>g</sup> I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I <sup>h</sup> sanctified thee; and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations.

6 Then said I, <sup>i</sup> Ah, Lord God! behold, <sup>k</sup> I cannot speak; for I <sup>l</sup> am a <sup>m</sup> child.

7 But the LORD said unto me, Say not, I am a child: for thou shalt go to all that I shall <sup>n</sup> send thee, and <sup>o</sup> whatsoever I command thee thou shalt speak.

8 <sup>p</sup> Be not afraid of their faces: for <sup>q</sup> I am with thee to deliver thee, saith the LORD.

9 Then the LORD put forth his hand, and <sup>r</sup> touched my mouth: and the LORD said unto me, Behold, I have <sup>s</sup> put my words in thy mouth,

10 See, I have this day <sup>t</sup> set thee <sup>u</sup> over the nations, and over the kingdoms, to root out, and to pull down, and to destroy, and to throw down, to build, and to plant.

11 Moreover, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Jeremiah, what seest thou? And I said, I see a <sup>v</sup> rod of an <sup>w</sup> almond-tree.

12 Then said the LORD unto me, Thou hast <sup>x</sup> well seen: for I will <sup>y</sup> hasten my word to perform it.

13 And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying, What seest thou? And I said, I see a <sup>z</sup> seething-pot, and the face thereof <sup>a</sup> is toward the <sup>b</sup> north.

14 Then the LORD said unto me, Out of the north an <sup>c</sup> evil shall break forth upon all the inhabitants of the land.

15 For, lo, I will <sup>d</sup> call all the families of the kingdoms of the north, saith the LORD; and they shall come, and they shall <sup>e</sup> set every one his throne at the entering of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all the walls thereof round about, and against all the cities of Judah.

16 And I will utter my judgments <sup>f</sup> against them touching all their wickedness, <sup>g</sup> who have forsaken me, and have burnt incense unto other gods, and worshipped the works of their own hands.

17 Thou therefore <sup>h</sup> gird up thy loins, and arise, and speak unto them all that I command thee: be not dismayed at their faces, lest I <sup>i</sup> confound thee before them.

18 For, behold, I have made thee this day a <sup>j</sup> defended city, and an iron pillar, and a brazen wall, against the whole <sup>k</sup> land; against the kings of Judah, against the princes thereof, against the priests thereof, and against the people of the land.

19 And they shall <sup>l</sup> fight against thee, but they shall <sup>m</sup> not prevail against thee; for I am with thee, saith the LORD, to deliver thee.

C H A P. II.

1 God having shewed his former kindness, expostulateth with the Jews their causeless revolt, 9 beyond any example. 14 They are the causes of their own calamities. 20 The sins of Judah. 31 Her confidence is rejected.

MOREOVER, the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

2 Go, and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD, I remember <sup>a</sup> thee, the <sup>b</sup> kindness of thy youth, the <sup>c</sup> love of thine espousals, when thou wentest <sup>d</sup> after me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown.

3 Israel was <sup>e</sup> holiness unto the LORD, and the <sup>f</sup> first-fruits of his increase: all that <sup>g</sup> devour him shall offend; evil shall come upon them, saith the LORD.

4 Hear ye the word of the LORD, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel:

5 Thus saith the LORD, <sup>h</sup> What iniquity have your fathers found in me, that they are <sup>i</sup> gone far from me, and have walked after <sup>j</sup> vanity, and are become vain?

6 Neither <sup>k</sup> said they, Where is the LORD that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, that led us through the wilderness; through a land of deserts, and of pits; through a land of drought, and of the shadow of death; through a land that no man <sup>l</sup> passed through, and where no man dwelt?

7 And I brought you into a <sup>m</sup> plentiful country, to eat the fruit thereof, and the goodness thereof: but when ye entered, ye <sup>n</sup> defiled my land, and made mine heritage an abomination.

8 The <sup>o</sup> priests said not, Where is the LORD? and they that <sup>p</sup> handle the law <sup>q</sup> knew me not: the pastors also transgressed against me, and the prophets prophesied by Baal, and walked after things that do <sup>r</sup> not profit.

9 Wherefore I will yet <sup>s</sup> plead with you, saith the LORD, and with your children's children will I plead.

10 For pass over the <sup>t</sup> isles of Chittim, and see; and send unto <sup>u</sup> Kedar, and consider diligently, and see if there be such a thing:

11 Hath a nation <sup>v</sup> changed their gods, which <sup>w</sup> are yet <sup>x</sup> no gods? but my people have changed their <sup>y</sup> glory for that which doth not profit.

12 Be <sup>z</sup> astonished, O ye heavens, at this, and be horribly afraid, be ye very desolate, saith the LORD.

15.

13 For my people have committed two evils; they have forsaken me, the fountain of living waters, and hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water.

14 Is Israel a servant? is he a home-born slave? why is he spoiled?

15 The young lions roared upon him and yelled, and they made his land waste: his cities are burnt without inhabitant.

16 Also the children of Noph and Tahapanes have broken the crown of thy head.

17 Hast thou not procured this unto thyself, in that thou hast forsaken the Lord thy God, when he led thee by the way?

18 And now, what hast thou to do in the way of Egypt, to drink the waters of Sihor? or what hast thou to do in the way of Assyria, to drink the waters of the river?

19 Thine own wickedness shall correct thee, and thy backslidings shall reprove thee: know, therefore, and see, that it is an evil thing and bitter that thou hast forsaken the Lord thy God, and that my fear is not in thee, saith the Lord God of hosts.

20 For of old time I have broken thy yoke, and burst thy bands; and thou saidst, I will not transgress; when upon every high hill, and under every green tree, thou wanderest, playing the harlot.

21 Yet I had planted thee a noble vine, wholly a right seed: how then art thou turned into the degenerate plant of a strange vine unto me?

22 For though thou wash thee with nitre, and take thee much soap, yet thine iniquity is marked before me, saith the Lord God.

23 How canst thou say, I am not polluted, I have not gone after Baalim? See thy way in the valley, know what thou hast done: thou art a swift dromedary traversing her ways;

24 A wild ass used to the wilderness, that snuffeth up the wind at her pleasure; in her occasion who can turn her away? all they that seek her will not weary themselves; in her month they shall find her.

25 Withhold thy foot from being unshod, and thy throat from thirst: but thou saidst, There is no hope: no; for I have loved strangers, and after them will I go.

26 As the thief is ashamed when he is found, so is the house of Israel ashamed; they, their kings, their princes, and their priests, and their prophets, 27 Saying to a stock, Thou art my father; and to a stone, Thou hast brought me forth: for they have turned their back unto me, and not their face; but in the time of their trouble they will say, Arise, and save us.

28 But where are thy gods that thou hast made thee? let them arise, if they can save thee in the time of thy trouble: for according to the number of thy cities are thy gods, O Judah.

29 Wherefore will ye plead with me? ye all have transgressed against me, saith the Lord.

30 In vain have I smitten your children: they received no correction: your own sword hath devoured your prophets, like a destroying lion.

31 O generation, see ye the word of the Lord: Have I been a wilderness unto Israel? a land of darkness? Wherefore say my people, We are lords; we will come no more unto thee?

32 Can a maid forget her ornaments, or a bride her attire? yet my people have forgotten me days without number.

33 Why trimmest thou thy way to seek love? therefore hast thou also taught the wicked ones thy ways.

34 Also in thy skirts is found the blood of the souls of the poor innocents: I have not found it by secret search, but upon all these.

35 Yet thou sayest, Because I am innocent, surely his anger shall turn from me: behold I will plead with thee, because thou sayest, I have not sinned.

36 Why gaddest thou about so much to change thy way? thou also shalt be ashamed of Egypt, as thou wast ashamed of Assyria.

37 Yea, thou shalt go forth from him, and thine hands upon thine head: for the Lord hath rejected thy confidences, and thou shalt not prosper in them.

C H A P. III.

1 God's great mercy in Judah's vile whoredom. 8 Judah is worse than Israel. 12 The promises of the gospel to the penitent. 20 Israel reprov'd and called by God, maketh a solemn confession of their sins.

THEY say, If a man put away his wife, and she go from him, and become another man's, shall he return unto her again? shall not that land be greatly polluted: but thou hast played the harlot with many lovers; yet return again to me, saith the Lord.

2 Lift up thine eyes unto the high places, and see where thou hast not been alien with: in the ways hast thou sat for them, as the Arabian in the wilderness; and thou hast polluted the land with thy whoredoms, and with thy wickedness.

3 Therefore the showers have been withholden, and there hath been no latter rain; and thou hadst a whore's forehead, thou refusedst to be ashamed.

4 Wilt thou not from this time cry unto me, My father, thou art the guide of my youth?

5 Will he reserve his anger for ever? will he keep it to the end? Behold, thou hast spoken and done evil things as thou couldest.

6 The Lord said also unto me in the days of Josiah the king, Hast thou seen that which backsliding Israel hath done? she is gone up upon every high mountain, and under every green tree, and there hath played the harlot.

7 And I said, after she had done all these things, Turn thou unto me: but she returned not. And her treacherous sister Judah saw it.

8 And I saw, when for all the causes whereby backsliding Israel committed adultery, I had put her away, and given her a bill of divorce; yet yet her treacherous sister Judah<sup>a</sup> feared not, but went and played the harlot also.

9 And it came to pass through the<sup>a</sup> lightness of her whoredom, that she defiled the land, and committed adultery with<sup>y</sup> stones and with stocks.

10 And yet for all this her treacherous sister Judah hath not turned unto me with her whole heart, but<sup>a</sup> feignedly, saith the LORD.

11 And the LORD said unto me, The backsliding Israel hath justified† herself more than treacherous Judah.

12 Go, and proclaim these words toward the<sup>a</sup> north, and say, Return, thou backsliding Israel, saith the LORD, and I will not cause mine anger to fall upon you; for I am<sup>b</sup> merciful, saith the LORD, and I will not keep anger<sup>c</sup> for ever.

13 Only<sup>d</sup> acknowledge thine iniquity, that thou hast transgressed against the LORD thy God, and hast<sup>e</sup> scattered thy ways to the strangers under every green tree, and ye have not obeyed my voice, saith the LORD.

14 Turn, O backsliding children, saith the LORD; for I am<sup>f</sup> married unto you: and I will take you<sup>g</sup> one of a city, and two of a family, and I will bring you to Zion:

15 And I will give you<sup>h</sup> pastors according to mine heart, which shall<sup>i</sup> feed you with knowledge and understanding.

16 And it shall come to pass, when ye be<sup>k</sup> multiplied and increased in the land, in<sup>l</sup> those days, saith the LORD, they shall say no more, The<sup>m</sup> ark of the covenant of the LORD; neither shall it come to mind, neither shall they remember it, neither shall they visit<sup>n</sup> it, neither shall that be done any more.

17 At that time they shall call Jerusalem the<sup>n</sup> throne of the LORD; and<sup>o</sup> all the nations shall be gathered unto it, to the name of the LORD, to Jerusalem: neither shall they walk any more after the<sup>p</sup> imagination of their evil heart.

18 In those days the house of Judah shall walk<sup>q</sup> with the house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of the north to the land that I have given for an inheritance unto your fathers.

19 But I said, How shall I put thee among the children, and<sup>r</sup> give thee a pleasant land, a goodly heritage of the hosts of nations? And I said, Thou shalt call me, My father; and shalt not turn away from me.

20 Surely as a wife treacherously departeth from her† husband, so have ye dealt treacherously with me, O house of Israel, saith the LORD.

21 A<sup>t</sup> voice was heard upon the<sup>u</sup> high places, weeping and supplications of the children of Israel: for they have<sup>x</sup> perverted their way, and they have forgotten the LORD their God.

22<sup>y</sup> Return, ye backsliding children, and I will<sup>z</sup> heal your backslidings. Behold, we come unto thee; for thou art the LORD our God.

23 Truly in vain is salvation hoped for from the<sup>ch</sup> hills, and from the multitude of mountains: truly<sup>121</sup> in the LORD our God is the salvation of Israel.

24 For<sup>d</sup> shame hath devoured<sup>e</sup> the labour of our fathers from our youth; their flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters.

25<sup>f</sup> We lie down in our shame, and our confusion covereth us: for we have sinned against the LORD our God, we and our fathers, from our youth even unto this day, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God.

C H A P. IV.

1 God calleth Israel by his promise. 3 He exhorteth Judah to repentance by fearful judgments.

19 A grievous lamentation for the miseries of Judah.

I F thou wilt return, O Israel, saith the LORD, I return<sup>b</sup> unto me; and if thou wilt put away thine<sup>c</sup> abominations out of my sight, then shalt thou<sup>d</sup> not remove.

2 And thou shalt<sup>e</sup> swear, the LORD liveth, in truth, in judgment, and in righteousness; and the nations shall bless themselves in him, and in him shall they<sup>f</sup> glory.

3 For thus saith the LORD to the men of Judah and Jerusalem, Break up your fallow ground, and<sup>h</sup> sow not among thorns.

4<sup>i</sup> Circumcise yourselves to the LORD, and take away the foreskins of your heart, ye men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem; lest<sup>j</sup> my fury come forth like fire, and burn that none can quench<sup>k</sup> it, because of the evil of your doings.

5 Declare ye in Judah, and publish in Jerusalem; and say, Blow ye the trumpet in the land: cry, gather together, and say, Assemble yourselves, and let us go into the defenced cities.

6 Set up the standards toward Zion: † retire, stay not; for I will bring evil from the north, and a great destruction.

7<sup>m</sup> The lion is come up from his thicket, and the destroyer of the Gentiles is on his way; he is gone forth from his place to make thy land<sup>n</sup> desolate: and thy cities shall be laid waste without an inhabitant.

8 For this<sup>p</sup> gird you with sackcloth, lament and howl; for the fierce anger of the LORD is<sup>q</sup> not turned back from us.

9 And it shall come to pass at that day, saith the LORD, that the<sup>r</sup> heart of the king shall perish, and the heart of the princes; and the priests shall be astonished, and the prophets<sup>s</sup> shall wonder.

10 Then said I, Ah, Lord God! surely<sup>t</sup> thou hast greatly deceived this people and Jerusalem, saying, Ye shall have peace; whereas the sword reacheth unto the soul.

11 At that time shall it be said to this people and to Jerusalem, A dry wind of the high places in the wilderness toward the daughter of my people, not to fan, nor to<sup>u</sup> cleanse, 12 Even<sup>v</sup> a full wind from those places shall come unto me: now also will I<sup>w</sup> give sentence against them.

13 Behold, he shall<sup>x</sup> come up as clouds, and his chariots shall be as a whirlwind: his horses are<sup>y</sup> swifter than eagles. Wo unto us! for we are spoiled.

14 O Jerusalem, wash thine heart from wickedness, that thou mayest be saved: how long shall thy<sup>z</sup> vain thoughts lodge<sup>1</sup> within thee?

15 For a voice declareth <sup>a</sup>from Dan, and publisheth <sup>b</sup>affliction from mount Ephraim.

16 Make ye <sup>i</sup>mention to the nations: behold, publish against Jerusalem, that watchers come from a <sup>k</sup>far country, and give out their voice against the cities of Judah.

17 As <sup>i</sup>keepers of a field are they against her round about; because she hath been rebellious against me, saith the LORD.

18 Thy way and thy doings have <sup>m</sup>procured these things unto thee: this is thy wickedness, because it is <sup>a</sup>bitter, because it reacheth unto thine heart.

19 <sup>o</sup>My bowels, my bowels! I am pained at my very heart; my heart maketh a noise in me: I cannot hold my peace, because thou hast heard, O my soul, the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war.

20 Destruction <sup>p</sup>upon destruction is cried: for the whole land is spoiled: suddenly are my tents spoiled, and my curtains in a moment.

21 How long shall I see the standard, and hear the sound of the trumpet?

22 For my people is <sup>a</sup>foolish, they have not known me; they are sottish children, and they have none understanding: they are <sup>r</sup>wise to do evil, but to do good they have <sup>a</sup>no knowledge.

23 I beheld the earth, and, lo, it was <sup>t</sup>without form and void; and the heavens, and they had <sup>u</sup>no light.

24 I beheld the mountains, and, lo, they <sup>x</sup>trembled, and all the hills moved lightly.

25 I beheld, and, lo, there was no man, and all the <sup>y</sup>birds of the heavens were fled.

26 I beheld, and, lo, the fruitful place was a wilderness, and all the cities thereof were broken down at the <sup>z</sup>presence of the LORD, and by his fierce anger.

27 For thus hath the LORD said, The whole land shall be desolate; yet will I not make <sup>a</sup>a full end.

28 For this shall the earth <sup>b</sup>mourn, and the heavens above be black: because I have spoken it, I have purposed it, and will <sup>c</sup>not repent, neither will I turn back from it.

29 The whole city shall flee for the noise of the horsemen and bowmen; they shall go into <sup>d</sup>thickets, and climb up upon the rocks: every city shall be forsaken, and not a man dwell therein.

30 And when thou art spoiled, what wilt thou do? Though thou clothest thyself with crimson, though thou <sup>e</sup>deckest thee with ornaments of gold, though thou rentest thy face with painting, in vain shalt thou make thyself fair; thy <sup>f</sup>lovers will despise thee, they will seek thy life.

31 For I have heard a voice as <sup>g</sup>of a woman in travail, and the anguish as of her that bringeth forth her first child; the voice of the daughter of Zion, that bewaileth herself, that <sup>h</sup>spreadeth her hands, saying, Wo is me now! for my soul <sup>i</sup>is wearied because of <sup>i</sup>murderers.

C H A P. V.

1 The judgments of God upon the Jews for their perverseness, 7 for their adultery, 10 for their impiety, 19 for their contempt of God, 25 and for their great corruption in the civil state, 30 and ecclesiastical.

RUN ye to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now, and know, and seek in the broad places thereof, if ye can <sup>a</sup>find a man, if there be any that executeth judgment, that seeketh the truth; and I will <sup>b</sup>pardon it.

2 And though they <sup>c</sup>say, The LORD liveth, surely they swear <sup>d</sup>falsely.

3 O LORD, are not <sup>e</sup>thine eyes upon the truth? thou hast <sup>f</sup>stricken them, but they have not grieved; thou hast consumed them, but they have <sup>g</sup>refused to receive correction: they have made their faces harder than a <sup>h</sup>rock; they have refused to return.

4 Therefore I said, Surely these are poor; they are foolish: for they know not the <sup>i</sup>way of the LORD, nor the judgment of their God.

5 I will get me unto the <sup>k</sup>great men, and will speak unto them: for they have known the way of the LORD, and the judgment of their God: but <sup>l</sup>those have altogether broken the yoke, and burst the bonds.

6 Wherefore a lion out of the forest shall slay them, and a wolf of <sup>m</sup>the evenings shall spoil them, a <sup>n</sup>leopard shall watch over their cities: every one that goeth out thence shall be torn in pieces; because their transgressions are many, and their backslidings are increased.

7 How shall I pardon thee for this? thy children have forsaken me, and sworn by them that are <sup>o</sup>no gods: when I had <sup>p</sup>fed them to the full, they then committed <sup>q</sup>adultery, and assembled themselves by troops in the harlots' houses.

8 They were as <sup>r</sup>fed horses in the morning: every one neighed after his <sup>s</sup>neighbour's wife.

9 Shall I not visit for these things? saith the LORD: and shall not my soul be <sup>t</sup>avenged on such a nation as this?

10 Go ye up upon her <sup>u</sup>walls, and destroy; but make not a full end: take away her battlements; for they are <sup>x</sup>not the LORD's.

11 For the house of Israel and the house of Judah have <sup>y</sup>dealt very treacherously against me, saith the LORD.

12 They have <sup>z</sup>belied the LORD, and said, <sup>a</sup>It is not he, neither shall evil come upon us, neither shall we see sword nor famine;

13 And the prophets shall become <sup>b</sup>wind, and the word is <sup>c</sup>not in them: thus shall it be done unto them.

14 Wherefore thus saith the LORD God of hosts, Because ye speak this word, behold, I will make my words in thy mouth <sup>d</sup>fire, and this <sup>e</sup>people wood, and it shall devour them.

15 Lo, I will bring a nation upon you <sup>f</sup>from far, O house of Israel, saith the LORD: it is a mighty nation, it is an <sup>g</sup>ancient nation, a nation whose language thou knowest not, neither understandest what they say.

16 Their quiver is as an open sepulchre, they are all mighty men.

17 And they shall <sup>h</sup>eat up thine harvest, and thy bread, which thy sons and thy daughters should eat: they shall eat up thy flocks and thine

C H A P. VII.

1 Jeremiah is sent to call for true repentance, to prevent the Jews' captivity: 3 He rejecteth their vain confidence, 12 by the example of Shiloh: 17 He threatneth them for their idolatry: 21 He rejecteth the sacrifices of the disobedient: 29 He exhorteth to mourn for their abominations in Tophet, 32 and the judgments for the same.

THE <sup>a</sup> word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Stand in the <sup>b</sup> gate of the LORD's house, and proclaim there this word, and say, Hear the word of the LORD, all ye of Judah, that enter in at these gates to worship the LORD:

3 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, <sup>c</sup> Amend your ways and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place.

4 Trust you not in <sup>d</sup> lying words, saying, The temple of the LORD, The temple of the LORD, The temple of the LORD, are <sup>e</sup> these.

5 For if ye <sup>f</sup> thoroughly amend your ways and your doings; if you thoroughly execute judgment between a man and his neighbour;

6 If ye oppress not the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, and shed not <sup>g</sup> innocent blood in this place, neither walk after other gods to your hurt:

7 Then will I cause you to dwell in <sup>h</sup> this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers, for ever and ever.

8 Behold, ye trust in lying words, that <sup>i</sup> can not profit.

9 Will ye <sup>j</sup> steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense unto Baal, and walk after <sup>k</sup> other gods whom ye <sup>l</sup> know not;

10 And come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, We are <sup>m</sup> delivered to do all these abominations?

11 Is this house, which is <sup>n</sup> called by my name, become a <sup>o</sup> den of robbers in your eyes? Behold, even I have seen it, saith the LORD.

12 But go ye now unto my place, which was in Shiloh, where I set my <sup>p</sup> name <sup>q</sup> at the first, and <sup>r</sup> see what I did to it for the wickedness of my people Israel.

13 And now, because ye have done all these works, saith the LORD, and I spake unto you, <sup>s</sup> rising up early and speaking, but ye heard not; and <sup>t</sup> I called you, but ye answered not;

14 Therefore will I do unto this house, which is called by my name, wherein ye trust, and unto the place which I gave to you and to your fathers, as I have done to <sup>u</sup> Shiloh.

15 And I will cast you out of my sight, as I have cast out all your <sup>v</sup> brethren, even the whole seed of Ephraim.

16 Therefore <sup>w</sup> pray not thou for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them, neither make intercession to me: for I will not <sup>x</sup> hear thee.

17 Seest thou not what they do in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem?

18 The <sup>y</sup> children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead their dough, to make cakes to the <sup>z</sup> queen of heaven, and to <sup>a</sup> pour out drink-offerings unto other gods, that they may provoke me to anger.

19 Do they <sup>b</sup> provoke me to anger? saith the LORD: do they not provoke themselves, to the confusion of their own faces?

20 Therefore thus saith the LORD God, Behold, mine anger and my fury shall be poured out upon this place, <sup>c</sup> upon man, and upon beast, and upon the trees of the field, and upon the fruit of the ground; and it shall <sup>d</sup> burn, and shall not be quenched.

21 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; <sup>e</sup> Put your burnt-offerings unto your sacrifices, and eat flesh.

22 For I <sup>f</sup> spake not unto your fathers, nor commanded them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, concerning burnt-offerings or sacrifices:

23 But <sup>g</sup> this thing commanded I them, saying, <sup>h</sup> Obey my voice, and I will be your God, and ye shall be my people; and walk ye in <sup>i</sup> all the ways that I have commanded you, that it may be well unto you.

C H A P. VIII.

1 The calamity of the Jews both dead and alive: 4 He upbraideth their foolish and shameless impenitency: 13 He sheweth their grievous judgment, 18 and bewaileth their desperate estate.

AT that time, saith the LORD, they shall <sup>a</sup> bring out the bones of the kings of Judah, and the bones of his princes, and the bones of the priests, and the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, out of their graves:

2 And they shall spread them before the sun, and the moon, and all the host of heaven, whom they have loved, and whom they have served, and after whom they have walked, and whom they have sought, and whom they have <sup>b</sup> worshipped: they shall not be gathered, nor be buried; they shall be for <sup>c</sup> dung upon the face of the earth.

3 And <sup>d</sup> death shall be chosen rather than life by all the residue of them that remain of this evil family, which remain in all the places whither I have driven them, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 Moreover, thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD; Shall they fall, and not arise? shall he turn away, and not return?

5 Why then is this people of Jerusalem slid-den back by <sup>e</sup> a perpetual backsliding? <sup>f</sup> they hold fast deceit, they refuse to return.

6 I hearkened and heard, but they spake <sup>g</sup> not aright: no man repented him of his wickedness, saying, What have I done? every one turned to his course, <sup>h</sup> as the horse rusheth into the battle.

7 Yea, the <sup>i</sup> stork in the heaven knoweth her <sup>j</sup> appointed times; and the turtle, and the crane, and the swallow, observe the time of their coming: but my people <sup>k</sup> know not the judgment of the LORD.

8 How do ye say, We are wise, and <sup>m</sup> the law of the LORD is with us? Lo, certainly in vain made he it; the pen of the <sup>n</sup> scribes is in vain.

9 The wise men are <sup>o</sup> ashamed, they are dismayed and taken: lo, they have <sup>p</sup> rejected the word of the LORD; and <sup>q</sup> what wisdom is in them?

10 Therefore will I give <sup>r</sup> their wives unto others, and their fields to them that shall inherit them: for every one, from the least even unto the greatest, is given <sup>s</sup> to covetousness; from the prophet even unto the priest, every one dealeth falsely.

11 For they have <sup>t</sup> healed the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, <sup>u</sup> Peace, peace; when there is no peace.

12 Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they <sup>v</sup> blush: therefore shall they fall among them that fall: in the time of their visitation they shall be cast down, saith the LORD.

13 I will surely consume them, saith the LORD: there shall be <sup>y</sup> no grapes on the vine, nor figs on the fig-tree, and the leaf shall fade; and the things that I have given them shall pass away from them.

14 Why do we sit still? assemble yourselves, and let us enter into the defenced cities, and let us be <sup>z</sup> silent there; for the LORD our God hath put us to silence, and given us <sup>a</sup> waters of gall to drink, because we have sinned against the LORD.

15 We looked for <sup>b</sup> peace, but no good came; and for a time of health, and behold trouble!

16 The snorting of his horses was heard from <sup>c</sup> Dan; the whole land trembled at the sound of the <sup>d</sup> neighing of his strong ones; for they are come, and have devoured the land, and all that is in it; the city, and those that dwell therein.

17 For, behold, I will send serpents, <sup>e</sup> cock-atrices, among you, which will not be <sup>f</sup> charmed, and they shall bite you, saith the LORD.

19 Behold, the voice of the cry of the daughter of my people, because of them that dwell in a far country. Is not the LORD in Zion? is not her king in her? why have they provoked me to anger with their graven images, and with strange vanities?

20 The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved.

21 For the hurt of the daughter of my people am I hurt; I am black; astonishment hath taken hold on me.

22 Is there no balm in Gilead? is there no physician there? why then is not the health of the daughter of my people recovered?

C H A P. IX.

1 Jeremiah lamenteth the Jews for their manifold sins, 9 and for their judgment. 12 Disobedience is the cause of their bitter calamity: 17 He exhorteth to mourn for their destruction, 23 and to trust not in themselves, but in God: 25 He threateneth both Jews and Gentiles.

OH that my head were waters, and mine eyes a fountain of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people!

2 Oh that I had in the wilderness a lodging-place of wayfaring men, that I might leave my people, and go from them! for they be all adulterers, an assembly of treacherous men.

3 And they bend their tongue like their bow for lies; but they are not valiant for the truth upon the earth: for they proceed from evil to evil, and they know not me, saith the LORD.

4 Take ye heed every one of his neighbour, and trust ye not in any brother: for every brother will utterly supplant, and every neighbour will walk with slanders.

5 And they will deceive every one his neighbour, and will not speak the truth: they have taught their tongue to speak lies, and weary themselves to commit iniquity.

6 Thine habitation is in the midst of deceit; through deceit they refuse to know me, saith the LORD.

7 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will melt them, and try them; for how shall I do for the daughter of my people?

8 Their tongue is as an arrow shot out; it speaketh deceit: one speaketh peaceably to his neighbour with his mouth, but in heart he layeth his wait.

9 Shall I not visit them for these things? saith the LORD: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

10 For the mountains will I take up a weeping and wailing, and for the habitations of the wilderness a lamentation, because they are burnt up, so that none can pass through them; neither can men hear the voice of the cattle: both the fowl of the heavens and the beast are fled; they are gone.

11 And I will make Jerusalem heaps, and a den of dragons; and I will make the cities of Judah desolate, without an inhabitant.

12 Who is the wise man, that may understand this; and who is he to whom the mouth of the LORD hath spoken, that he may declare it, for what the land perisheth and is burnt up like a wilderness, that none passeth through?

13 And the LORD saith, Because they have forsaken my law which I set before them, and have not obeyed my voice, neither walked therein;

14 But have walked after the imagination of their own heart, and after Baalim, which their fathers taught them:

15 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will feed them, even this people, with wormwood, and give them water of gall to drink.

16 I will scatter them also among the heathen, whom neither they nor their fathers have known: and I will send a sword after them, till I have consumed them.

17 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Consider ye, and call for the mourning women, that they may come; and send for cunning women, that they may come:

18 And let them make haste, and take up a wailing for us, that our eyes may run down with tears, and our eyelids gush out with waters.

19 For a voice of wailing is heard out of Zion, How are we spoiled! we are greatly confounded, because we have forsaken the land, because our dwellings have cast us out.

20 Yet hear the word of the LORD, O ye women, and let your ear receive the word of his mouth, and teach your daughters wailing, and every one her neighbour lamentation:

21 For death is come up into our windows, and is entered into our palaces, to cut off the children from without, and the young men from the streets.

22 Speak, Thus saith the LORD, Even the carcases of men shall fall as dung upon the open field, and as the handful after the harvestman, and none shall gather them.

23 Thus saith the LORD, Let not the wise man glory in his wisdom, neither let the mighty man glory in his might, let not the rich man glory in his riches:

24 But let him that glorieth, glory in this, that he understandeth and knoweth me, that I am the LORD which exercise loving-kindness, judgment, and righteousness, in the earth: for in these things I delight, saith the LORD.

25 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will punish all them which are circumcised with the uncircumcised;

26 Egypt, and Judah, and Edom, and the children of Ammon, and Moab, and all that are in the utmost corners, that dwell in the wilderness: for all these nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel are uncircumcised in the heart.

1 The unequal comparison of God and idols. 17 The prophet exhorteth to flee from the calamity to come: 19 He lamenteth the spoil of the tabernacle by foolish pastors: 23 He maketh an humble supplication.

HEAR ye the word which <sup>a</sup> the LORD speaketh unto you, O house of Israel:

2 Thus saith the LORD, <sup>b</sup> Learn not the way of the heathen, and be not dismayed at the <sup>c</sup> signs of heaven; for the heathen are dismayed at them.

3 For the customs of the people are vain: for one <sup>d</sup> cutteth a tree out of the forest (the work of the hands of the workman) with the axe:

4 They <sup>e</sup> deck it with silver and with gold; they fasten it with nails and with hammers, that it move not.

5 They are upright as the palm-tree, but speak not; they must <sup>f</sup> needs be borne, because they cannot go. Be not afraid of them; for they cannot do evil, neither also is it in them to do good.

6 Forasmuch as there is <sup>g</sup> none like unto thee, O LORD; thou art great, and thy name is <sup>h</sup> great in might.

8 But they are altogether <sup>m</sup> brutish and foolish; the stock is <sup>n</sup> a doctrine of vanities.

9 Silver spread into plates is brought from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz, the work of the workman, and of the hands of the founder: blue and purple is their clothing; they are all the work of cunning men.

10 But the LORD is the <sup>o</sup> true God, he is the living God, and an <sup>p</sup> everlasting King; at his wrath the earth shall tremble, and the nations shall not be able to abide his indignation.

11 Thus shall ye say unto them, The gods that have not made the heavens and the earth, even they shall <sup>r</sup> perish from the earth, and from under these heavens.

12 He hath made the earth by his power, he hath <sup>s</sup> established the world by his wisdom, and hath stretched out <sup>t</sup> the heavens by his discretion. 13 When he <sup>u</sup> uttereth his voice, there is a multitude of <sup>x</sup> waters in the heavens, and he causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth; he maketh lightnings with rain, and bringeth forth the wind out of his treasures.

14 Every man is <sup>y</sup> brutish in his knowledge; every founder is confounded by the graven image: for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no <sup>z</sup> breath in them.

15 They are vanity, and the work of errors: in the time of their visitation they shall perish.

17 <sup>e</sup> Gather up thy wares out of the land, <sup>f</sup> O inhabitant of the fortress:

18 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, <sup>g</sup> I will sling out the inhabitants of the land at this once, and will distress them, that they may <sup>h</sup> find it so.

19 Wo is me for my hurt! my wound is grievous: but I said, Truly this is a grief, and I must <sup>i</sup> bear it.

20 My tabernacle is spoiled, and all my cords are broken: my children are gone forth of me, and they are not; there is none to stretch forth my tent any more, and to set up my curtains.

21 For the pastors are become <sup>j</sup> brutish, and have not sought the LORD: therefore they shall <sup>k</sup> not prosper, and all their flocks shall be scattered.

22 Behold, the noise of the bruit is come, and a great commotion out of the north country, to make the cities of Judah desolate, and a den of dragons.

23 O LORD, I know that the way of man <sup>l</sup> is not in himself: it is not in man that walketh to direct his steps.

24 O LORD, <sup>m</sup> correct me, but with <sup>n</sup> judgment; not in thine anger, lest thou bring me to nothing.

25 <sup>o</sup> Pour out thy fury upon the heathen that know thee not, and upon the families that call not on thy name: for they have eaten up Jacob, and <sup>p</sup> devoured him, and consumed him, and have made his habitation desolate.

1 Jeremiah proclaimeth God's covenant, 8 rebuketh the Jews' disobeying thereof, 11 prophesieth evils to come upon them, 18 and upon the men of Anathoth, for conspiring to kill Jeremiah.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 <sup>a</sup> Hear ye the words of this covenant, and speak unto the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem;

3 And say thou unto them, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, <sup>b</sup> Cursed be the man that <sup>c</sup> obeyeth not the words of this covenant,

4 Which I commanded <sup>d</sup> your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, from the <sup>e</sup> iron furnace, saying, Obey my voice, and do them, according to all which I command you: so shall ye be my people, and I will be your God;

5 That I may <sup>f</sup> perform the oath which I have sworn unto your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is this day. Then answered I, and said, <sup>g</sup> So be it, O LORD.

6 Then the LORD said unto me, Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, Hear ye the words of this covenant, and <sup>h</sup> do them.

7 For I earnestly protested unto your fathers, in the day that I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, even unto this day, <sup>i</sup> rising early and protesting, saying, Obey my voice.

8 Yet they obeyed not, nor inclined their ear, but walked every one in the <sup>j</sup> imagination of their evil heart: therefore I will bring upon them all the words of this covenant which I commanded them to do: but they did them not.

10 They are turned back to the iniquities <sup>1</sup> of their forefathers, which refused to hear my words; and they went <sup>m</sup> after other gods to serve them: the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant, which I made with their fathers.

11 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring <sup>a</sup> evil upon them; which they shall not be able to <sup>o</sup> escape; and though they shall cry unto me, I will <sup>p</sup> not hearken unto them.

12 Then shall the cities of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem, <sup>q</sup> go and cry unto the gods unto whom they offer incense: but they shall not save them at all in the time of their trouble.

13 For according to the <sup>r</sup> number of thy cities were thy gods, O Judah; and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem have ye set up altars to that <sup>s</sup> shameful thing, even altars to burn incense unto Baal.

14 Therefore <sup>t</sup> pray not thou for this people, neither lift up a cry or prayer for them: for I will not hear them in the time that they cry unto me for their trouble.

15 What hath my beloved <sup>u</sup> to do in mine house, seeing she hath wrought lewdness <sup>x</sup> with many, and the <sup>y</sup> holy flesh is passed from thee? when thou doest evil, then thou <sup>z</sup> rejoicest.

16 The LORD called thy name, <sup>a</sup> A green olive-tree, fair, and of goodly fruit; with the noise of a great tumult he hath kindled fire upon it, and the branches of it are broken.

17 For the LORD of hosts that <sup>b</sup> planted thee hath pronounced evil against thee, for the evil of the house of Israel, and of the house of Judah, which they have done against themselves, to provoke me to anger, in offering incense unto Baal.

18 And the LORD hath given me <sup>c</sup> knowledge of it, and I know it: then thou shewedst me their doings.

19 But I was like <sup>d</sup> a lamb, or an ox, that is brought to the slaughter; and I knew not that they had <sup>e</sup> devised devices against me, saying, Let us destroy the tree with the fruit thereof, and let us cut him off from the land of the living, that his name may be <sup>f</sup> no more remembered.

20 But, O LORD of hosts, that judgest righteously, that <sup>g</sup> triest the reins and the heart, let me see thy vengeance on them; for unto thee have I revealed <sup>h</sup> my cause.

22 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will punish them; the young men shall die by the sword, their sons and their daughters shall die by famine;

Behold, I will <sup>f</sup> pluck them out of their land, and pluck out the house of Judah from among them.

15 And it shall come to pass, after that I have plucked them out I will return, and have compassion on them, and will <sup>g</sup> bring again, every man to his heritage, and every man to his land.

16 And it shall come to pass, if they will diligently learn the ways of my people, to swear by my name, The LORD liveth; (as they <sup>h</sup> taught my people to swear by Baal;) then shall they <sup>i</sup> be built in the midst of my people.

17 But if they will <sup>k</sup> not obey, I will utterly pluck up and destroy that nation, saith the LORD.

1 In the type of a linen girdle hidden at Euphrates, God prefigureth the destruction of his people.

12 Under the parable of the bottles filled with wine, he foretelleth their drunkenness in misery.

15 He exhorteth to prevent their future judgments.

22 He sheweth their abominations are the cause thereof.

THUS saith the LORD unto me, Go and get thee a <sup>a</sup> linen girdle, and put it upon thy loins, and <sup>b</sup> put it not in water.

2 So I got a girdle, <sup>c</sup> according to the word of the LORD, and put it on my loins.

3 And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying,

4 Take the girdle that thou hast got, which is upon thy loins, and arise, go to <sup>d</sup> Euphrates, and hide it there in a hole of the rock.

5 <sup>e</sup> So I went, and hid it by Euphrates, as the LORD commanded me.

6 And it came to pass after many days, that the LORD said unto me, Arise, go to Euphrates, and take the girdle from thence, which I commanded thee to hide there.

7 Then I went to Euphrates, and digged, and took the girdle from the place where I had hid it; and, behold, the girdle was marred, it was <sup>f</sup> profitable for nothing.

8 Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

9 Thus saith the LORD, After this manner will I mar the <sup>g</sup> pride of Judah, and the great pride of Jerusalem.

10 This evil people, which refuse to hear my words, which walk in the imagination of their heart, and <sup>h</sup> walk after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, shall even be as this girdle, which is good for nothing.

11 For as the girdle cleaveth to the loins of a man, so have I caused to <sup>i</sup> cleave unto me the whole house of Israel, and the whole house of Judah, saith the LORD; that they might be unto me for <sup>k</sup> a people, and for a name, and for a praise, and for a glory: but they would not hear.

12 Therefore thou shalt speak unto them this word, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel. Every <sup>l</sup> bottle shall be filled with <sup>m</sup> wine; and they shall say unto thee, Do we not certainly <sup>n</sup> know that every bottle shall be filled with wine?

13 Then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, even the kings that sit upon David's throne, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, <sup>o</sup> with drunkenness.

14 And I will dash them <sup>p</sup> one against another, even the fathers and the sons together, saith the LORD; I will not pity, nor spare, nor have mercy, <sup>q</sup> but destroy them.

15 Hear ye, and give ear; be not <sup>r</sup> proud: for the LORD hath spoken.

16 <sup>s</sup> Give glory to the LORD your God, before he cause <sup>t</sup> darkness, and before your feet stumble upon the dark mountains, and while ye look for light, he turn it into the shadow of death, and make it gross darkness;

17 But if ye will not hear it, my soul shall <sup>u</sup> weep in secret places for your pride; and mine eyes shall weep sore, and run down with tears, because the LORD's flock is carried away captive.

18 <sup>v</sup> Say unto the king and to the queen, Humble yourselves; sit down; for your principalities shall come down, even the <sup>w</sup> crown of your glory.

19 The <sup>x</sup> cities of the south shall be shut up, and none shall open them; Judah shall be carried away captive all of it, it shall be wholly carried away captive.

20 Lift up your eyes, and behold them that come from the north; where <sup>y</sup> is the flock that was <sup>z</sup> given thee, thy beautiful flock!

21 What wilt thou say when he shall <sup>a</sup> punish thee? (for thou hast taught them to be captains, and as chief over thee;) shall not sorrows take thee, as a woman in travail?

22 And if thou say in thine heart, Wherefore come these things upon me? For the greatness of thine iniquity are thy <sup>b</sup> skirts discovered, and thy heels made bare.

23 Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots? then may ye also do good, that are accustomed to do evil.

24 Therefore will I <sup>c</sup> scatter them as the stubble that passeth away by the wind of the wilderness.

25 This is thy <sup>d</sup> lot, the portion of thy measures from me, saith the LORD; because thou hast forgotten me, and <sup>e</sup> trusted in falsehood.

26 Therefore will I discover thy skirts upon thy face, that thy shame may appear.

27 I have seen thine adulteries, and thy <sup>f</sup> neighings, the lewdness of thy whoredom, and thine abominations on the hills in the fields. Wo unto thee, O Jerusalem! wilt thou not be made clean? <sup>g</sup> when shall it once be?

3 And their nobles have sent their little ones to the waters: they came to the <sup>b</sup> pits, and found no water; they returned with the vessels empty; they were ashamed and confounded, and <sup>c</sup> covered their heads.

4 Because the ground is chapt, for there was <sup>d</sup> no rain in the earth, the <sup>e</sup> plowmen were ashamed, they covered their heads.

5 Yea, the hind also <sup>f</sup> calved in the field, and forsook it, because there was no grass.

6 And the wild asses did stand in the high places, they <sup>g</sup> snuffed up the wind like dragons; their <sup>h</sup> eyes did fail, because there was no grass.

7 <sup>i</sup> O LORD, though our iniquities testify against us, do thou it for thy <sup>k</sup> name's sake: for our backslidings are many; we have sinned against thee.

8 O the <sup>l</sup> Hope of Israel, the Saviour thereof in time of trouble, why shouldest thou be as a stranger in the land, and as a wayfaring man that turneth aside to tarry for <sup>m</sup> a night?

9 Why shouldest thou be as a man <sup>n</sup> astonished, as a mighty man that <sup>o</sup> cannot save? yet thou, O LORD, art in the <sup>p</sup> midst of us, and we are called by thy name; leave us not.

10 Thus saith the LORD unto this people, Thus have they <sup>q</sup> loved to wander, they have not refrained their feet; therefore the LORD doth not accept them: he will now <sup>r</sup> remember their iniquity, and visit their sins.

11 Then said the LORD unto me, <sup>s</sup> Pray now for this people for their good.

12 When they fast, I will <sup>t</sup> not hear their cry; and when they offer burnt-offering and an oblation, I will not accept them; but I will consume them by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence.

13 Then said I, Ah, LORD God! behold, <sup>u</sup> the prophets say unto them, Ye shall not see the sword, neither shall ye have famine; but I will give you assured peace in this place.

14 Then the LORD said unto me, The prophets prophesy <sup>v</sup> lies in my name; <sup>w</sup> I sent them not, neither have I commanded them, neither spake unto them: they prophesy unto you a false vision and divination, and a thing of nought, and the deceit of their heart.

15 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the prophets that prophesy in my name, and I sent them not, yet they say, Sword and famine shall not be in this land; <sup>x</sup> by sword and famine shall those prophets be consumed.

16 And the people to whom they prophesy shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem, because of the famine and the sword; and they shall have none to <sup>y</sup> bury them, them, their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters; for I will <sup>z</sup> pour their wickedness upon them.

17 Therefore thou shalt say this word unto them, <sup>aa</sup> Let mine eyes run down with tears night and day, and let them not cease: for the virgin daughter of my people is broken with a great breach, with a very grievous blow.

18 If I go forth into the <sup>ab</sup> field, then behold the slain with the sword! and if I enter into the city, then behold them that are sick with famine! yea, both the prophet and the priest go about into a land that they know not.

19 Hast thou utterly rejected <sup>ac</sup> Judah? hath thy soul loathed Zion? why hast thou smitten us, and there is <sup>ad</sup> no healing for us? we looked for peace, and there is no good; and for the time of healing, and behold trouble!

20 We acknowledge, O LORD, our wickedness, and the iniquity of our fathers; for we have <sup>ae</sup> sinned against thee.

21 Do not abhor us, for thy name's sake; do not disgrace the throne of thy glory: <sup>af</sup> remember, break not thy covenant with us.

22 Are there <sup>ag</sup> any among the vanities of the Gentiles that can cause rain? or can <sup>ah</sup> the heavens give showers? Art not thou he, O LORD our God: therefore we will <sup>ai</sup> wait upon thee; for thou hast made all these things.

C H A P. XVI.

1 The prophet, under the types of abstaining from marriage, from houses of mourning and feasting, foresheweth the utter ruin of the Jews, 10 because they were worse than their fathers: 14 Their return from captivity shall be stranger than their deliverance out of Egypt: 16 God will doubly recompense their idolatry.

THE word of the LORD came also unto me, saying,

2 Thou shalt <sup>a</sup> not take thee a wife, neither shalt thou have sons <sup>b</sup> nor daughters in this place.

3 For thus saith the LORD concerning the sons, and concerning the daughters that are born in this place, and concerning their mothers that bare them, and concerning their fathers that begat them in this land;

4 They shall die of grievous deaths: they shall not be lamented, neither shall they be buried; but they shall be as dung upon the face of the earth: and they shall be consumed by the sword, and by famine; and their <sup>c</sup> carcasses shall be meat for the fowls of heaven, and for the beasts of the earth.

5 For thus saith the LORD, Enter not into the house of mourning, neither go to lament nor bemoan them: for I have taken away my peace from this people, saith the LORD, even loving-kindness and mercies.

6 Both the great and the small shall die in this land: they shall not be buried, neither shall men lament for them, nor <sup>d</sup> cut themselves, nor make themselves bald for them:

7 Neither shall men <sup>e</sup> tear themselves for them in mourning, to comfort them for the dead; neither shall men give them the cup of consolation to <sup>f</sup> drink for their father or for their mother.

8 Thou shalt not also go into the <sup>g</sup> house of feasting, to sit with them to eat and to drink.

9 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will cause to cease out of this place <sup>h</sup> in your eyes, and in your days, the voice <sup>i</sup> of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride.

10 And it shall come to pass, when thou shalt shew this people all these words, and they shall say unto thee, <sup>j</sup> Wherefore hath the LORD pronounced all this great evil against us? or <sup>k</sup> what is our iniquity, or what is our sin, that we have committed against the LORD our God?

11 Then shalt thou say unto them, <sup>l</sup> Because your fathers have forsaken me, saith the LORD, and have walked after other gods, and have served them, and have worshipped them, and have forsaken me, and have not kept my law:

12 And ye have <sup>m</sup> done worse than your fathers; (for, behold, ye walk every one after the imagination of his evil heart, that they may <sup>n</sup> not hearken unto me;)

13 Therefore will I <sup>o</sup> cast you out of this land into a land that ye know not, neither ye nor your fathers; and there shall ye serve other gods day and night, where I will not <sup>p</sup> shew you favour.

14 <sup>q</sup> Therefore, behold, the <sup>r</sup> days come, saith the LORD, that it <sup>s</sup> shall no more be said, The LORD liveth that brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt;

16 As for me, I have not hastened from being a pastor to follow thee; neither have I desired the woful day, thou knowest: that which came out of my lips was right before thee.

17 Be not a terror unto me: thou art my hope in the day of evil.

18 Let them be confounded that persecute me, but let not me be confounded; let them be dismayed, but let not me be dismayed: bring upon them the day of evil, and destroy them with double destruction.

19 Thus said the LORD unto me, Go and stand in the gate of the children of the people, whereby the kings of Judah come in, and by the which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem;

20 And say unto them, Hear ye the word of the LORD, ye kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, that enter in by these gates:

21 Thus saith the LORD, Take heed to yourselves, and bear no burden on the sabbath-day, nor bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem;

22 Neither carry forth a burden out of your houses on the sabbath-day, neither do ye any work; but hallow ye the sabbath-day, as I commanded your fathers.

23 But they obeyed not, neither inclined their ear, but made their neck stiff, that they might not hear, nor receive instruction.

24 And it shall come to pass, if ye diligently hearken unto me, saith the LORD, to bring in no burden through the gates of this city on the sabbath-day, but hallow the sabbath-day, to do no work therein;

25 Then shall there enter into the gates of this city kings and princes sitting upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, they, and their princes, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and this city shall remain for ever.

26 And they shall come from the cities of Judah, and from the places about Jerusalem, and from the land of Benjamin, and from the plain, and from the mountains, and from the south, bringing burnt-offerings, and sacrifices, and meat-offerings, and incense, and bringing sacrifices of praise, unto the house of the LORD.

C H A P. XVIII.

1 Under the type of a potter is shewed God's absolute power in disposing of nations. 11 Judgments threatened to Judah for her strange revolt. 13 Jeremiah prayeth against his conspirators.

cir. 605.

THE word which came to Jeremiah from the Lord, saying,

2 Arise, and go down to the potter's house, and there will I cause thee to hear my words.

3 Then I went down to the potter's house, and behold, he wrought a work on the wheels.

4 And the vessel that he made of clay was marred in the hand of the potter; so he made it again another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make it.

5 Then the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

6 O house of Israel, cannot I do with you as this potter? saith the Lord. Behold, as the clay is in the potter's hand, so are ye in mine hand, O house of Israel.

7 At what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to pluck up, and to pull down, and to destroy it:

8 If that nation, against whom I have pronounced, turn from their evil, I will repent of the evil that I thought to do unto them.

9 And at what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to build, and to plant it:

10 If it do evil in my sight, that it obey not my voice, then I will repent of the good wherewith I said I would benefit them.

11 Now, therefore, go to, speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the Lord, Behold, I frame evil against you, and devise a device against you: return ye now every one from his evil way, and make your ways and your doings good.

12 And they said, There is no hope; but we will walk after our own devices, and we will every one do the imagination of his evil heart.

13 Therefore thus saith the Lord, Ask ye now among the heathen, who hath heard such things? the virgin of Israel hath done a very horrible thing.

14 Will a man leave the snow of Lebanon which cometh from the rock of the field? or shall the cold flowing waters that come from another place be forsaken?

15 Because my people hath forgotten me, they have burnt incense to vanity, and they have caused them to stumble in their ways from the ancient paths, to walk in paths in a way not cast up;

16 To make their land desolate, and a perpetual hissing: every one that passeth thereby shall be astonished, and wag his head.

17 I will scatter them as with an east wind before the enemy: I will shew them the back, and not the face, in the day of their calamity.

18 Then said they, Come, and let us devise devices against Jeremiah; for the law shall not perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet: come, and let us smite him with the tongue, and let us not give heed to any of his words.

19 Give heed to me, O Lord, and hearken to the voice of them that contend with me.

20 Shall evil be recompensed for good? for they have digged a pit for my soul. Remember that I stood before thee to speak good for them, and to turn away thy wrath from them.

21 Therefore deliver up their children to the famine, and pour out their blood by the force of the sword; and let their wives be bereaved of their children, and be widows; and let their men be put to death; let their young men be slain by the sword in battle.

22 Let a cry be heard from their houses, when thou shalt bring a troop suddenly upon them; for they have digged a pit to take me, and hid snares for my feet.

23 Yet, Lord, thou knowest all their counsel against me to slay me: forgive not their iniquity, neither blot out their sin from thy sight; but let them be overthrown before thee: deal thus with them in the time of thine anger.

Under the type of breaking a potter's vessel is fore-shewed the desolation of the Jews for their sins.

THUS saith the Lord, Go, and get a potter's earthen bottle, and take of the ancients of the people, and of the ancients of the priests,

2 And go forth unto the valley of the son of Hinnom, which is by the entry of the east gate, and proclaim there the words that I shall tell thee;

3 And say, Hear ye the word of the Lord, O kings of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem; Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, the which whosoever heareth, his ears shall tingle.

4 Because they have forsaken me, and have estranged this place, and have burnt incense in it unto other gods, whom neither they nor their fathers have known, nor the kings of Judah, and have filled this place with the blood of innocents;

5 They have built also the high places of Baal, to burn their sons with fire for burnt-offerings unto Baal, which I commanded not, nor spake it, neither came it into my mind:

6 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that this place shall no more be called Tophet, nor, The valley of the son of Hinnom, but, The valley of slaughter.

7 And I will make void the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem in this place; and I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies, and by the hands of them that seek their lives; and their carcasses will I give to be meat for the fowls

7 O LORD, thou hast deceived me, and I was <sup>m</sup>deceived; thou art <sup>n</sup>stronger than I, and hast prevailed: I am in <sup>o</sup>derision daily, every one mocketh me.

8 For since I spake, I cried out, I cried violence and spoil; because the word of the LORD was made a reproach unto me, and a derision daily.

9 Then I <sup>p</sup>said, I will not make mention of him, nor speak any more in his name: but his <sup>q</sup>word was in mine heart as <sup>q</sup>a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I was <sup>r</sup>weary with forbearing, and I could not stay.

2 ¶ Inquire, I pray thee, of the LORD for us; for Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon maketh war against us; if so be that the LORD will deal with us according to all his wondrous works, that he may go up from us.

3 Then said Jeremiah unto them, Thus shall ye say to Zedekiah,

4 Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, wherewith ye fight against the king of Babylon, and against the Chaldeans, which besiege you without the walls, and I will assemble them into the midst of this city.

5 And I myself will fight against you with an outstretched hand, and with a strong arm, even in anger, and in fury, and in great wrath.

6 And I will smite the inhabitants of this city, both man and beast: they shall die of a great pestilence.

7 And afterward, saith the LORD, I will deliver Zedekiah king of Judah, and his servants, and the people, and such as are left in this city from the pestilence, from the sword, and from the famine, into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those that seek their life: and he shall smite them with the edge of the sword; he shall not spare them, neither have pity, nor have mercy.

8 And unto this people thou shalt say, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I set before you the way of life, and the way of death.

9 He that abideth in this city shall die by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth out, and falleth to the Chaldeans that besiege you, he shall live, and his life shall be unto him for a prey.

10 For I have set my face against this city, for evil, and not for good, saith the LORD; it shall be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire.

11 And touching the house of the king of Judah, say, Hear ye the word of the LORD;

12 O house of David, thus saith the LORD, Execute judgment in the morning, and deliver him that is spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor, lest my fury go out like fire, and burn that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings.

13 Behold, I am against thee, O inhabitant of the valley, and rock of the plain, saith the LORD; which say, Who shall come down against us? or who shall enter into our habitation?

14 But I will punish you according to the fruit of your doings, saith the LORD: and I will kindle a fire in the forest thereof, and it shall devour all things round about it.

C H A P. XXII.

1 He exhorteth to repentance with promises and threats. 10 The judgment of Shallum, 13 of Jehoiaquim, 20 and of Coniah.

TITUS saith the LORD, Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and speak there this word,

2 And say, Hear the word of the LORD, O king of Judah, that sittest upon the throne of David, thou, and thy servants, and thy people that enter in by these gates;

3 Thus saith the LORD, Execute ye judgment and righteousness, and deliver the spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor: and do no wrong, do no violence to the stranger, the fatherless, nor the widow, neither shed innocent blood in this place.

4 For if ye do this thing indeed, then shall there enter in by the gates of this house kings, sitting upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, he, and his servants, and his people.

5 But if ye will not hear these words, I swear by myself, saith the LORD, that this house shall become a desolation.

6 For thus saith the LORD unto the king's house of Judah, Thou art Gilead unto me, and the head of Lebanon: yet surely I will make thee a wilderness, and cities which are not inhabited.

7 And I will prepare destroyers against thee, every one with his weapons; and they shall cut down thy choice cedars, and cast them into the fire.

8 And many nations shall pass by this city, and they shall say every man to his neighbour, Wherefore hath the LORD done thus unto this great city?

9 Then they shall answer, Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD their God, and worshipped other gods, and served them.

10 Weep ye not for the dead, neither bemoan him; but weep sore for him that goeth away: for he shall return no more, nor see his native country.

11 For thus saith the LORD touching Shallum the son of Josiah king of Judah, which reigned instead of Josiah his father, which went forth out of this place, He shall not return thither any more:

12 But he shall die in the place whither they have led him captive, and shall see this land no more.

13 Wo unto him that buildeth his house by unrighteousness, and his chambers by wrong; that useth his neighbour's service without wages, and giveth him not for his work;

14 That saith, I will build me a wide house, and large chambers, and cutteth him out windows; and it is ceiled with cedar, and painted with vermilion!

15 Shalt thou reign because thou closest thyself in cedar? Did not thy father eat and drink, and do judgment and justice, and then it was well with him?

16 He judged the cause of the poor and needy; then it was well with him: was not this to know me? saith the LORD.

17 But thine eyes and thine heart are not but for thy covetousness, and for to shed innocent blood, and for oppression, and for violence, to do it

18 Therefore thus saith the Lord concerning Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, They shall not lament for him, saying, Ah my brother! or, Ah sister! they shall not lament for him, saying, Ah lord! or, Ah his glory!

19 He shall be buried with the burial of an ass, drawn and cast forth beyond the gates of Jerusalem.

20 Go up to Lebanon, and cry; and lift up thy voice in Bashan, and cry from the passages: for all thy lovers are destroyed.

21 I spake unto thee in thy prosperity; but thou saidst, I will not hear: this hath been thy manner from thy youth, that thou obeyedst not my voice.

22 The wind shall eat up all thy pastures, and thy lovers shall go into captivity: surely then shalt thou be ashamed and confounded for all thy wickedness.

23 O inhabitant of Lebanon, that makest thy nest in the cedars, how gracious shalt thou be when pangs come upon thee, the pain as of a woman in travail!

24 As I live, saith the Lord, though Coniah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah were the signet upon my right hand, yet would I pluck thee thence;

25 And I will give thee into the hand of them that seek thy life, and into the hand of them whose face thou fearest, even into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of the Chaldeans.

26 And I will cast thee out, and thy mother that bare thee, into another country, where ye were not born; and there shall ye die.

27 But to the land whereunto they desire to return, thither shall they not return.

28 Is this man Coniah a despised broken idol? is he a vessel wherein is no pleasure? wherefore are they cast out, he and his seed, and are cast into a land which they know not?

29 O earth, earth, earth, hear the word of the Lord:

30 Thus saith the Lord, Write ye this man childless, a man that shall not prosper in his days: for no man of his seed shall prosper, sitting upon the throne of David, and ruling any more in Judah.

C H A P. XXIII.

1 He prophesieth a restoration of the scattered flock. 5 Christ shall rule and save them. 9 Against false prophets, 33 and mockers of the true prophets.

W O be unto the pastors that destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! saith the Lord.

2 Therefore thus saith the Lord God of Israel against the pastors that feed my people, Ye have scattered my flock, and driven them away, and have not visited them: behold, I will visit upon you the evil of your doings, saith the Lord.

3 And I will gather the remnant of my flock out of all countries whither I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds; and they shall be fruitful and increase.

4 And I will set up shepherds over them, which shall feed them; and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall they be lacking, saith the Lord.

5 Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth.

6 In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely; and this is his name whereby he shall be called, THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS.

7 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that they shall no more say, The Lord liveth, which brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt;

8 But, The Lord liveth, which brought up, and which led, the seed of the house of Israel out of the north country, and from all countries whither I had driven them; and they shall dwell in their own land.

9 Mine heart within me is broken because of the prophets; all my bones shake: I am like a drunken man, and like a man whom wine hath overcome, because of the Lord, and because of the words of his holiness.

10 For the land is full of adulterers; for because of swearing the land mourneth, the pleasant places of the wilderness are dried up, and their course is evil, and their force is not right.

11 For both prophet and priest are profane; yea, in my house have I found their wickedness, saith the Lord.

12 Wherefore their way shall be unto them as slippery ways in the darkness; they shall be driven on, and fall therein: for I will bring evil upon them, even the year of their visitation, saith the Lord.

13 And I have seen folly in the prophets of Samaria; they prophesied in Baal, and caused my people Israel to err.

14 I have seen also in the prophets of Jerusalem an horrible thing: they commit adultery, and walk in lies: they strengthen also the hands of evil-doers, that none doth return from his wickedness: they are all of them unto me as Sodom, and the inhabitants thereof as Gomorrah.

15 Therefore thus saith the Lord of hosts concerning the prophets, Behold, I will feed them with wormwood, and make them drink the water of gall: for from the prophets of Jerusalem is profaneness gone forth into all the land.

16 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, Harken not unto the words of the prophets that prophesy unto you; they make you vain: they speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of the Lord.

17 They say still unto them that despise me, The Lord hath said, Ye shall have peace; and they say unto every one that walketh after the imagination of his own heart, No evil shall come upon you.

18 For who hath <sup>1</sup> stood in the counsel of the LORD, and hath † perceived and heard his word? who hath marked his word, and heard it?

19 Behold, a whirlwind of the LORD is gone forth in fury, even a ‡ grievous whirlwind: it shall ‡ fall grievously upon the head of the wicked.

20 The anger of the LORD shall ° not return, until he have executed, and till he have performed, the thoughts of his heart: in the latter days ye shall ° consider it perfectly.

21 I have not ‡ sent these prophets, yet they ran: I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied.

22 But if they had stood † in my counsel, and had ° caused my people to hear my words, then they should have turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings.

23 Am I a God † at hand, saith the LORD, and not a God afar off?

24 Can any hide himself ° in secret places that I shall not see him? saith the LORD. Do not I ‡ fill heaven and earth? saith the LORD.

25 I have heard what the prophets said, that prophesy lies in my name, saying; I have † dreamed, I have dreamed.

26 ° How long shall this be in the heart of the prophets that prophesy lies? yea, they are prophets of the ° deceit of their own heart;

27 Which think ° to cause my people to forget my name by their dreams, which they tell every man to his neighbour, ° as their fathers have forgotten my name for Baal.

28 The prophet that hath a dream, † let him tell a dream; and he that hath my word, let him speak my word ° faithfully. What is the † chaff to the wheat? saith the LORD.

29 Is not my word like ° as a fire? saith the LORD; and like ° a hammer that † breaketh the rock in pieces?

30 Therefore, behold, I am ° against the prophets, saith the LORD, that † steal my word, every one from his neighbour.

31 Behold, I am against the prophets, saith the LORD, that use their tongues, and say, ‡ He saith.

32 Behold, I am against them that prophesy false dreams, saith the LORD, and do tell them, and cause my people to err by their lies, and by their ° lightness; yet I sent them not, nor commanded them: therefore they shall ° not profit this people at all, saith the LORD.

33 And when this people, or the prophet, or a priest, shall ask thee, ° saying, What is the ° burden of the LORD? thou shalt then say unto them, What burden? I will ° even forsake you, saith the LORD.

34 And as for the prophet, and the priest, and the people, that shall say, The burden of the LORD, I will even punish that man and his house.

35 Thus shall ye say ° every one to his neighbour, and every one to his brother, What hath the LORD answered? and, What hath the LORD spoken?

36 And the burden of the LORD shall ye † mention no more; for every man's word shall be ° his burden: for ye have perverted the words of the living God, of the LORD of hosts our God.

37 Thus shalt thou say to the ‡ prophet, What hath the LORD answered thee? and, What hath the LORD spoken?

38 But since ye say, The burden of the LORD; therefore thus saith the LORD, Because you say this word, The burden of the LORD, and I have sent unto you, saying, Ye shall not say, The burden of the LORD;

39 Therefore, behold, I, even I, will ° utterly forget you, and I will forsake you, and the city that I gave you and your fathers, and ‡ cast you out of my presence:

40 And I will bring an ° everlasting reproach upon you, and a perpetual shame, which shall not be forgotten.

C H A P. XXIV.

1 Under the type of good and bad figs, 4 he fore-sheweth the restoration of them that were in captivity, 8 and the desolation of Zedekiah and the rest.

THE LORD † shewed me, and, behold, two baskets of figs were set before the temple of the LORD, after that Nebuchadrezzar ° king of Babylon had carried away captive ° Jecooniah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, and the princes of Judah, with the carpenters and smiths, from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon.

2 † One basket had very good figs, even like the figs that are first ripe; and the other basket had very naughty figs, which could not be eaten, they were so bad.

3 Then said the LORD unto me, What seest thou, Jeremiah? And I said, Figs; the good figs, very good; and the evil, very evil, that cannot be eaten, they are so evil.

4 Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

5 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, Like these good figs, so will I † acknowledge them that are carried away captive of Judah; whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans ° for their good.

6 For † I will set mine eyes upon them for ° good, and I will ° bring them again to this land: and I will build them, and not pull them down; and I will plant them, and not pluck them up.

7 And † I will give them an ° heart to know me, that I am the LORD; and they shall be my people, and I will be their God: for they shall return unto me with their † whole heart.

8 And as the ‡ evil figs, which cannot be eaten, they are so evil; surely thus saith the LORD, So will I give Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his princes, and the residue of Jerusalem, that remain in this land, and them that ° dwell in the land of Egypt;

9 And I will deliver them to ° be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth for their hurt, to be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt and a curse, in all places whither I shall drive them.

C H A P. XXV.

1 Jeremiah reproveth the Jews' disobedience to the prophets, & foretelleth the seventy years' captivity, 12 and after that the destruction of Babylon. 15 Under the type of a cup of wine, he foresheweth the destruction of all nations. 34 The howling of the shepherds.

THE word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, that was the first year of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon;

2 The which Jeremiah the prophet spake unto all the people of Judah, and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying,

3 From the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, even unto this day, (that is the three and twentieth year,) the word of the LORD hath come unto me, and I have spoken unto you, rising early and speaking; but ye have not hearkened.

4 And the LORD hath sent unto you all his servants the prophets, rising early and sending them; but ye have not hearkened, nor inclined your ear to hear.

5 They said, Turn ye again now every one from his evil way, and from the evil of your doings, and dwell in the land that the LORD hath given unto you and to your fathers for ever and ever:

6 And go not after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, and provoke me not to anger with the works of your hands; and I will do you no hurt.

7 Yet ye have not hearkened unto me, saith the LORD; that ye might provoke me to anger with the works of your hands to your own hurt.

8 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Because ye have not heard my words,

9 Behold, I will send and take all the families of the north, saith the LORD, and Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon my servant, and will bring them against this land, and against the inhabitants thereof, and against all these nations round about, and will utterly destroy them, and make them an astonishment, and an hissing, and perpetual desolations.

10 Moreover, I will take from them the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, the sound of the millstones, and the light of the candle.

11 And this whole land shall be a desolation, and an astonishment; and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years.

12 And it shall come to pass, when seventy years are accomplished, that I will punish the king of Babylon, and that nation, saith the LORD, for their iniquity, and the land of the Chaldeans, and will make it perpetual desolations.

13 And I will bring upon that land all my words which I have pronounced against it, even all that is written in this book, which Jeremiah hath prophesied against all the nations.

14 For many nations and great kings shall serve themselves of them also: and I will recompense them according to their deeds, and according to the works of their own hands.

15 For thus saith the Lord God of Israel unto me, Take the wine-cup of this fury at my hand, and cause all the nations to whom I send thee to drink it.

16 And they shall drink, and be moved, and be mad, because of the sword that I will send among them.

17 Then took I the cup at the LORD's hand, and made all the nations to drink, unto whom the LORD had sent me:

18 To wit, Jerusalem, and the cities of Judah, and the kings thereof, and the princes thereof, to make them a desolation, an astonishment, an hissing, and a curse; (as it is this day;)

19 Pharaoh king of Egypt, and his servants, and his princes, and all his people;

20 And all the mingled people, and all the kings of the land of Uz, and all the kings of the land of the Philistines, and Ashkelon, and Azzah, and Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod,

21 Edom, and Moab, and the children of Ammon,

22 And all the kings of Tyrus, and all the kings of Zidon, and the kings of the isles which are beyond the sea,

23 Dedan, and Tema, and Buz, and all that are in the utmost corners,

24 And all the kings of Arabia, and all the kings of the mingled people that dwell in the desert,

25 And all the kings of Zimri, and all the kings of Elam, and all the kings of the Medes, 26 And all the kings of the north, far and near, one with another, and all the kingdoms of the world, which are upon the face of the earth: and the king of Sheshach shall drink after them.

27 Therefore thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Drink ye, and be drunken, and spue, and fall, and rise no more, because of the sword which I will send among you.

28 And it shall be, if they refuse to take the cup at thine hand to drink, then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Ye shall certainly drink.

29 For, lo, I begin to bring evil on the city which is called by my name, and should ye be utterly unpunished? Ye shall not be unpunished: for I will call for a sword upon all the inhabitants of the earth, saith the LORD of hosts.

6 Then will I make this house like Shiloh, and will make this city a curse to all the nations of the earth

7 So the priests, and the prophets, and all the people, heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD.

8 Now it came to pass, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak unto all the people, that the priests, and the prophets, and all the people, took him, saying, Thou shalt surely die.

9 Why hast thou prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying, This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate without an inhabitant ? And all the people were gathered against Jeremiah in the house of the LORD.

10 When the princes of Judah heard these things, then they came up from the king's house unto the house of the LORD, and sat down in the entry of the new gate of the LORD's house.

11 Then spake the priests and the prophets unto the princes, and to all the people, saying,
This man is worthy to die ; for he hath prophesied against this city, as ye have heard with your ears.

12 Then spake Jeremiah unto all the princes, and to all the people, saying, The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house, and against this city, all the words that ye have heard.

13 Therefore now amend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the LORD your God ; and the LORD will repent him of the evil that he hath pronounced against you.

14 As for me, behold, I am in your hand ; do with me as seemeth good and meet unto
you :

15 But know ye for certain, that, if ye put me to death, ye shall surely bring innocent blood upon yourselves, and upon this city, and upon the inhabitants thereof : for of a truth the LORD hath sent me unto you, to speak all these words in your ears.

16 Then said the princes and all the people unto the priests and to the prophets, This man is not worthy to die ; for he hath spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God.

17 Then rose up certain of the elders of the land, and spake to all the assembly of the people, saying,

18 Micah the Morasthite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and spake to all the people of Judah, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Zion shall be plowed like a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of a forest.

19 Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah put him at all to death ? did he not fear the LORD, and besought the LORD, and the LORD repented him of the evil which he had pronounced against them ? Thus might we procure great evil against our souls.

20 And there was also a man that prophesied in the name of the LORD, Urijah the son of Shemaiah

maiah of <sup>1</sup>Kirjath-jearim, who prophesied against this city, and against this land, according to all the words of Jeremiah:

21 And when Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty men, and all the princes, heard his words, the king sought to put him to death; but when Urijah heard it, he was afraid, and <sup>1</sup>fled, and went into Egypt;

22 And Jehoiakim the king <sup>1</sup>sent men into Egypt; namely, Elnathan the son of Achbor, and certain men with him into Egypt:

23 And they fetched forth Urijah out of Egypt; and brought him unto Jehoiakim the king, who <sup>m</sup>slew him with the sword, and cast his dead body into the graves of the common people.

24 Nevertheless, the hand <sup>a</sup>of Ahikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, that they should not give him into the hand of the people to put him to death.

C H A P. XXVII.

1 Under the type of bonds and yokes he prophesieth the subduing of the neighbouring kings unto Nebuchadnezzar: 8 He exhorteth them to yield, and not to believe the false prophets: 12 The like he doeth to Zedekiah: 19 He foretelleth the remnant of the vessels shall be carried to Babylon, and there continue until the day of visitation.

IN the beginning of the reign <sup>a</sup>of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, came this word unto Jeremiah from the Lord, saying,

2 Thus saith the Lord to me, Make thee <sup>b</sup>bonds and yokes, and put them upon thy neck,

3 And send them to the king of Edom, and to the king of Moab, and to the king of the Ammonites, and to the king of Tyrus, and to the king of Zidon, by the hand of the messengers which

4 And command them to say unto their masters, Thus saith the <sup>d</sup>Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, Thus shall ye say unto your masters;

5 I have made the <sup>e</sup>earth, the man and the beast that are upon the ground, by my great power, and by my out-stretched arm, and have <sup>f</sup>given it unto whom it <sup>g</sup>seemed meet unto me.

6 And now have I given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, <sup>h</sup>my servant; and the <sup>i</sup>beasts of the field have I given him also to serve him.

7 And all nations shall serve him, and his <sup>k</sup>son, and his <sup>l</sup>son's son, until the very <sup>m</sup>time of his land come; and then many nations and great kings shall <sup>n</sup>serve themselves of him.

8 And it shall come to pass, that the nation and kingdom which will not serve the same Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, and that will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation will I punish, saith the Lord, with the sword, and with the famine, and with the pestilence, until I have consumed them by his hand.

9 Therefore hearken not ye to your <sup>o</sup>prophets, nor to your diviners, nor to your dreamers, nor to your enchanters, nor to your sorcerers, which speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon:

10 For they prophesy <sup>p</sup>a lie unto you, to <sup>q</sup>remove you far from your land; and that I should drive you out, and ye should perish.

11 But the nations that bring their neck under <sup>r</sup>the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him, those will I let remain still in their own land, saith the Lord; and they shall till it, and dwell therein.

12 <sup>t</sup>I spake also to <sup>u</sup>Zedekiah king of Judah according to all these words, saying, Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live.

13 <sup>v</sup>Why will ye die, thou and thy people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, as the Lord hath spoken against the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon?

14 Therefore hearken not unto the words of the prophets that speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon: for they prophesy <sup>w</sup>a lie unto you.

15 For I have <sup>x</sup>not sent them, saith the Lord, yet they prophesy a lie in my name, that I <sup>y</sup>might drive you out, and that ye might perish, ye, and the prophets that prophesy unto you.

16 Also I spake to the priests, and to all this people, saying, Thus saith the Lord, Hearken not to the words of your prophets that prophesy unto you, saying, Behold, the <sup>z</sup>vessels of the Lord's house shall now shortly be brought again from Babylon: for they prophesy a lie unto you.

17 Hearken not unto them; serve the king of Babylon, and live: wherefore should this city be <sup>a</sup>laid waste?

18 But if they <sup>b</sup>be prophets, and if the word of the Lord be with them, let them now make <sup>c</sup>intercession to the Lord of hosts, that the vessels which are left in the house of the Lord, and in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem, go not to Babylon.

19 For thus saith the Lord of hosts concerning the <sup>d</sup>pillars, and concerning the sea, and concerning the bases, and concerning the residue of the vessels that remain in this city,

20 Which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took not, when he carried away captive <sup>e</sup>Jecooniah, the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, from Jerusalem to Babylon, and all the <sup>f</sup>nobles of Judah and Jerusalem;

21 Yea, thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning the vessels that <sup>g</sup>remain in the house of the Lord, and in the house of the king of Judah and of Jerusalem;

22 They shall be <sup>h</sup>carried to Babylon, and there shall they be until the day that I visit them, saith the Lord: then will I bring them up, and <sup>i</sup>restore them to this place.

C H A P. XXVIII.

1 Hananiah prophesieth falsely the return of the vessels and of Jecooniah. 5 Jeremiah, wishing it to be true, sheweth that the event will declare who are true prophets. 10 Hananiah breaketh Jeremiah's yoke. 12 Jeremiah telleth of an iron yoke, 15 and foretelleth Hananiah's death.

AND it came to pass the same year, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year, and in the fifth month, that Hananiah the son of Azur the prophet, which was of Gibeon, spake unto me in the house of the LORD, in the presence of the priests, and of all the people, saying,

2 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon.

3 Within two full years will I bring again into this place all the vessels of the LORD's house that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from this place, and carried them to Babylon:

4 And I will bring again to this place Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, with all the captives of Judah, that went into Babylon, saith the LORD: for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.

5 Then the prophet Jeremiah said unto the prophet Hananiah, in the presence of the priests, and in the presence of all the people that stood in the house of the LORD,

6 Even the prophet Jeremiah said, Amen: the LORD do so; the LORD perform thy words which thou hast prophesied, to bring again the vessels of the LORD's house, and all that is carried away captive, from Babylon into this place.

7 Nevertheless, hear thou now this word that I speak in thine ears, and in the ears of all the people;

8 The prophets that have been before me, and before thee of old, prophesied both against many countries, and against great kingdoms, of war, and of evil, and of pestilence.

9 The prophet which prophesieth of peace, when the word of the prophet shall come to pass, then shall the prophet be known that the LORD hath truly sent him.

10 Then Hananiah the prophet took the yoke from off the prophet Jeremiah's neck, and brake it.

11 And Hananiah spake in the presence of all the people, saying, Thus saith the LORD,

Even so will I break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon from the neck of all nations, within the space of two full years. And the prophet Jeremiah went his way.

12 ¶ Then the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah the prophet, (after that Hananiah the prophet had broken the yoke from off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah,) saying, 13 Go and tell Hananiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Thou hast broken the yokes of wood; but thou shalt make for them yokes of iron.

14 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, I have put a yoke of iron upon the neck of all these nations, that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and they shall serve him: and I have given him the beasts of the field also.

15 Then said the prophet Jeremiah unto Hananiah the prophet, Hear now, Hananiah,

The LORD hath not sent thee; but thou makest this people to trust in a lie.

16 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will cast thee from off the face of the earth: this year thou shalt die, because thou hast taught rebellion against the LORD.

17 So Hananiah the prophet died the same year, in the seventh month.

C H A P. XXIX.

1 Jeremiah sendeth a letter to the captives in Babylon, to be quiet there, 8 and not to believe the dreams of their prophets, 10 and that they shall return with grace after seventy years: 15 He foretelleth the destruction of the rest for their disobedience: 20 He sheweth the fearful end of Ahab and Zedekiah two lying prophets. 24 Shemaiah writeth a letter against Jeremiah. 30 Jeremiah readeth his doom.

NOW these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem unto the residue of the elders which were carried away captives, and to the priests, and to the prophets, and to all the people whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon,

2 (After that Jeconiah the king, and the queen, and the eunuchs, the princes of Judah and Jerusalem, and the carpenters, and the smiths, were departed from Jerusalem,)

3 By the hand of Elasah the son of Shaphan, and Gemariah the son of Hilkiah, (whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent unto Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon,) saying,

4 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, unto all that are carried away captives, whom I have caused to be carried away from Jerusalem unto Babylon,

5 Build ye houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them;

6 Take ye wives, and beget sons and daughters; and take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to husbands, that they may bear sons and daughters; that ye may be increased there, and not diminished.

7 And seek the peace of the city whither I have caused you to be carried away captives, and pray unto the LORD for it: for in the peace thereof shall ye have peace.

8 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Let not your prophets and your diviners, that be in the midst of you, deceive you, neither hearken to your dreams which ye cause to be dreamed.

9 For they prophesy falsely unto you in my name; I have not sent them, saith the LORD.

10 For thus saith the LORD, That after seventy years be accomplished at Babylon I will visit you, and perform my good word towards you, in causing you to return to this place.

11 For I know the thoughts that I think towards you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end.

12 Then shall ye call upon me, and ye shall go and pray unto me, and I will hearken unto you.

14 And I will be found of you, saith the LORD; and I will turn away your captivity, and I will gather you from all the nations, and from all the places whither I have driven you, saith the LORD; and I will <sup>v</sup> bring you again into the place whence I caused you to be carried away captive.

15 Because <sup>z</sup> ye have said, The LORD hath raised us up prophets in Babylon;

16 Know that thus saith the LORD of the king that sitteth upon the throne of David, and of all the people that dwelleth in this city, and of your brethren that are not gone forth with you into captivity;

17 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will send upon them the <sup>a</sup> sword, the famine, and the pestilence, and will make them like <sup>b</sup> vile figs, that cannot be eaten, they are so evil.

18 And I will persecute them with the sword, with the famine, and with the pestilence, and will deliver them † to be removed to all the kingdoms of the earth, to be <sup>c</sup> a curse, and an astonishment, and an hissing, and a reproach, among all the nations whither I have driven them:

19 Because they have not hearkened to my words, saith the LORD, which <sup>d</sup> I sent unto them by my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them; but ye would not hear, saith the LORD.

20 Hear ye, therefore, the word of the LORD, <sup>e</sup> all ye of the captivity, whom I have sent from Jerusalem to Babylon:

21 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, of <sup>f</sup> Ahab the son of Kolaiah, and of Zedekiah the son of Maaseiah, which prophesy a lie unto you in my name, Behold, I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and he shall <sup>g</sup> slay them before your eyes;

22 And of them shall be taken up <sup>h</sup> a curse by all the captivity of Judah which <sup>are</sup> in Babylon, saying, The LORD make thee <sup>i</sup> like Zedekiah, and like Ahab, whom the king of Babylon <sup>k</sup> roasted in the fire; -

23 Because they have committed <sup>l</sup> villany in Israel, and have committed adultery with their neighbours' wives, and have spoken lying words in my name, which I have not commanded them; even <sup>m</sup> I know, and <sup>am</sup> a witness, saith the LORD.

24 Thus shalt thou also speak to Shemaiah the || Nehelamite, saying,

27 Now, therefore, why hast thou not <sup>r</sup> re-proved Jeremiah of Anathoth, which <sup>a</sup> maketh himself a prophet to you?

28 For therefore <sup>t</sup> he sent unto us in Babylon, saying, (This captivity is long: build ye houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them.

29 And <sup>u</sup> Zephaniah the priest read this letter in the ears of Jeremiah the prophet.

30 Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying,

31 Send to all them of the captivity, saying, Thus saith the LORD concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite; Because that Shemaiah hath prophesied unto you, and <sup>x</sup> I sent him not, and he caused you to trust in <sup>y</sup> a lie;

32 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite, and his seed: he shall not have a man to dwell <sup>z</sup> among this people; neither shall <sup>a</sup> he behold the good that I will do for my people, saith the LORD; because he hath <sup>b</sup> taught rebellion against the LORD.

C H A P. XXX.

1 God sheweth Jeremiah the return of the Jews. 4 After their trouble they shall have deliverance. 10 He comforteth Jacob: 18 Their return shall be gracious. 23 Wrath shall fall on the wicked.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Thus speaketh the Lord God of Israel, saying, <sup>a</sup> Write thee all the words that I have spoken unto thee in a book.

3 For, lo, <sup>b</sup> the days come, saith the LORD, that I will <sup>c</sup> bring again the captivity of my people Israel and Judah, saith the LORD; and I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it.

4 And these are the words that the LORD spake concerning Israel, and concerning Judah.

5 For thus saith the LORD, We have heard a voice of <sup>d</sup> trembling, of fear, and <sup>e</sup> not of peace.

6 Ask ye now, and see whether a man doth <sup>f</sup> travail with child? wherefore do I see every man with <sup>his</sup> hands on his loins, as a woman in travail, and all faces are turned into paleness?

7 Alas! for that day is <sup>g</sup> great, so that <sup>h</sup> none is like it: it is even the <sup>i</sup> time of Jacob's trouble; but <sup>k</sup> he shall be saved out of it.

8 For it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD of hosts, that I will break his yoke from off thy neck, and will burst thy bonds, and strangers shall <sup>l</sup> no more serve themselves of him:

9 But they shall serve the LORD their God, and <sup>m</sup> David their king, whom I will <sup>n</sup> raise up unto them.

10 Therefore fear thou not, O my servant Jacob, saith the LORD; neither be dismayed, O Israel: for, lo, I will <sup>o</sup> save thee from afar, and thy seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and shall be <sup>p</sup> in rest and be quiet, and none shall make him afraid.

tions whither I have scattered thee, yet will I not make <sup>a</sup> a full end of thee; but I will correct thee <sup>r</sup> in measure, and will not leave thee altogether unpunished.

12 For thus saith the LORD, Thy <sup>a</sup> bruise is incurable, and thy wound is grievous.

13 There is <sup>t</sup> none to plead thy cause, that thou mayest be bound up: thou hast <sup>u</sup> no healing medicines.

14 All thy <sup>x</sup> lovers have forgotten thee; they seek thee not: for I have wounded thee with the wound of an <sup>y</sup> enemy, with the chastisement of <sup>z</sup> a cruel one, for the multitude of thine iniquity; because thy sins were increased.

15 Why <sup>a</sup> criest thou for thine affliction? thy sorrow is incurable for the <sup>b</sup> multitude of thine iniquity: because thy sins were increased I have done these things unto thee.

16 Therefore all they that <sup>c</sup> devour thee shall be devoured; and all thine adversaries, every one of them, shall go into captivity; and they that spoil thee shall be a spoil, and all that prey upon thee will I <sup>d</sup> give for a prey.

17 For I will restore health unto thee, and I will heal thee of thy wounds, saith the LORD; because they called thee <sup>e</sup> an Outcast, saying, <sup>f</sup> This is Zion, whom <sup>g</sup> no man seeketh after.

18 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, <sup>h</sup> I will bring again the captivity of Jacob's tents, and <sup>i</sup> have mercy on his dwelling-places; and the city shall be builded upon her own heap, and the palace shall remain after the manner thereof.

19 And out of them shall proceed <sup>k</sup> thanksgiving, and the voice of them that make merry: and I will multiply them, and they shall not be few; I will also glorify them, and they <sup>l</sup> shall not be small.

20 Their children also shall be <sup>m</sup> as aforesaid, and their congregation shall be established before me, and I will punish all that oppress them.

21 And their † nobles shall be of themselves, and their governor shall proceed from the midst of them; and I will cause him to draw near, and he shall <sup>n</sup> approach unto me: for who is this that <sup>o</sup> engaged his heart to approach unto me? saith the LORD.

22 And ye shall be <sup>p</sup> my people, and I will be your God.

23 Behold, the <sup>q</sup> whirlwind of the LORD goeth forth with fury, a continuing whirlwind; it shall fall with pain upon the head of the wicked.

24 The <sup>r</sup> fierce anger of the LORD shall not return, until he have done it, and until he have performed the intents of his heart: in the latter days ye shall consider it.

C H A P. XXXI.

1 The restoration of Israel: 10 The publication thereof. 15 Rachel mourning is comforted. 18 Ephraim repenting; is brought home again. 22 Christ is promised: 27 His care over the church: 31 His new covenant. 35 The stability, 38 and amplitude of the church.

At the same time, saith the LORD, will I be the God <sup>a</sup> of all the families of Israel, and they shall be my people.

2 Thus saith the LORD, The people <sup>a</sup> were left of the sword <sup>b</sup> in the wilderness; even Israel, when I went to cause him <sup>c</sup> to rest.

3 The LORD hath appeared of old <sup>d</sup> unto me, saying, Yea, I have <sup>e</sup> loved thee with <sup>f</sup> an everlasting love; therefore <sup>g</sup> with loving-kindness have I drawn thee.

4 Again I will <sup>h</sup> build thee, and thou shalt be built, O virgin of Israel: thou shalt again be adorned with thy <sup>i</sup> tabrets, and shalt go forth in the dances of them that make merry.

5 Thou shalt yet plant vines upon the mountains of Samaria: the planters shall <sup>k</sup> plant, and shall eat <sup>l</sup> them as common things.

6 For there shall be <sup>m</sup> a day, that the watchmen upon the mount Ephraim shall cry, Arise ye, and <sup>n</sup> let us go up to Zion unto the LORD our God.

7 For thus saith the LORD, <sup>o</sup> Sing with gladness for Jacob, and shout among the chief of the nations: publish ye, praise ye, and say, O LORD, save thy people, the remnant of Israel.

8 Behold, I will bring them from the north country, and gather them from the <sup>p</sup> coasts of the earth, and with them the <sup>q</sup> blind and the lame, the woman with child and her that travaileth with child together: a great company shall return thither.

9 They shall come with <sup>r</sup> weeping, and with <sup>s</sup> supplications will I lead them: I will cause them to walk by the rivers of waters in a straight way, wherein they shall <sup>t</sup> not stumble; for I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my first-born.

10 Hear the word of the LORD, O ye nations, and declare it in the isles afar off, and say, He that scattereth Israel will <sup>u</sup> gather him, and keep him, as a shepherd <sup>v</sup> doth his flock.

11 For the LORD hath <sup>w</sup> redeemed Jacob, and ransomed him from the hand of <sup>x</sup> him that was stronger than he.

12 Therefore they shall come and sing in the <sup>y</sup> height of Zion, and shall flow together to the <sup>z</sup> goodness of the LORD, for <sup>a</sup> wheat, and for wine, and for oil, and for the young of the flock, and of the herd: and their souls shall be as a watered garden; and they shall not sorrow any more at all.

13 Then shall the <sup>b</sup> virgin rejoice in the dance, both young men and old together: for I will turn their mourning into joy, and will comfort them, and make them rejoice from their <sup>c</sup> sorrow.

14 And I will <sup>d</sup> satiate the soul of the priests with fatness, and my people shall be satisfied with my goodness, saith the LORD.

15 Thus saith the LORD; A voice was heard in <sup>e</sup> Ramah, lamentation, and bitter weeping; Rachel weeping for her children, refused to be comforted for her children, <sup>f</sup> because they were not.

16 Thus saith the LORD, <sup>g</sup> Refrain thy voice from weeping, and thine eyes from tears: for thy work shall be <sup>h</sup> rewarded, saith the LORD; and they shall <sup>i</sup> come again from the land of the enemy.

17 And there is <sup>1</sup> hope in thine end, saith the LORD, that thy <sup>m</sup> children shall come again to their own border.

18 I have surely heard <sup>a</sup> Ephraim bemoaning himself thus; I thou hast <sup>a</sup> chastised me, and I was chastised, as a bullock unaccustomed to the yoke: turn thou me, and I shall be turned; for thou art the LORD my God.

19 Surely <sup>a</sup> after that I was turned, I repented; and after that I was <sup>a</sup> instructed, I smote upon my thigh: I was ashamed, yea, even confounded, because I did bear the reproach of my youth.

20 Is Ephraim my <sup>a</sup> dear son? is he a pleasant child? For since I spake against him, I do earnestly <sup>a</sup> remember him still; therefore my bowels are <sup>a</sup> troubled for him: I will surely <sup>a</sup> have mercy upon him, saith the LORD.

21 Set thee up <sup>a</sup> waymarks, make thee <sup>a</sup> high heaps: <sup>a</sup> set thine heart toward the highway, even the way which thou wentest: turn again, O virgin of Israel, turn again to these thy cities.

22 How long with thou go about, O thou backsliding daughter! for the LORD hath created a new thing in the earth, <sup>a</sup> A woman shall compass a man.

23 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, As yet they shall use this speech in the land of Judah, and in the cities thereof, when I shall bring again their captivity; The LORD <sup>a</sup> bless thee, <sup>a</sup> O habitation of justice, and <sup>a</sup> mountain of holiness.

24 And there shall <sup>a</sup> dwell in Judah itself, and in all the cities thereof together, husbandmen, and they that go forth with flocks.

25 For I have satiated the <sup>a</sup> weary soul, and I have replenished every sorrowful soul.

26 Upon this I <sup>a</sup> awaked, and beheld; and my sleep was sweet unto me.

27 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will sow the house of Israel, and the house of Judah, with the <sup>a</sup> seed of man, and with the seed of beast.

28 And it shall come to pass, that like as I have watched over them, to <sup>a</sup> pluck up, and to break down, and to throw down, and to destroy, and to afflict; so will I watch over them, to <sup>a</sup> build, and to plant, saith the LORD.

29 In those days they shall say no more, <sup>a</sup> The fathers have eaten a sour grape, and the children's teeth are set on edge.

30 But every one shall die <sup>a</sup> for his own iniquity: every man that eateth the sour grape, his teeth shall be set on edge.

31 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will make <sup>a</sup> a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah;

32 Not according <sup>a</sup> to the covenant that I made with their fathers, in the day that I took them by the hand, to bring them out of the land of Egypt; (which my covenant <sup>a</sup> they brake, although I was an husband unto them, saith the LORD;)

33 But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel; After those days, saith the LORD, <sup>a</sup> I will put my law in their inward parts, and <sup>a</sup> write it in their hearts; and will be their God, and they shall be my people.

34 And they shall teach no more every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the LORD: for they shall all <sup>a</sup> know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the LORD: for I will <sup>a</sup> forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more.

35 Thus saith the LORD, which <sup>a</sup> giveth the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, which <sup>a</sup> divideth the sea when the waves thereof roar; The LORD of hosts is his name:

36 If <sup>a</sup> those ordinances <sup>a</sup> depart from before me, saith the LORD, then the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before me for ever.

37 Thus saith the LORD, If heaven above can be <sup>a</sup> measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, I will also cast off <sup>a</sup> all the seed of Israel, <sup>a</sup> for all that they have done, saith the LORD.

38 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that the <sup>a</sup> city shall be built <sup>a</sup> to the LORD, from the tower of Hananeel unto the gate of the corner.

39 And the measuring-line shall yet go forth over against it upon the hill Gareb, and shall compass about to Goath.

40 And the whole valley of the dead bodies, and of the ashes, and all the fields, unto the brook of Kidron, unto the corner of the horse-gate towards the east, shall be <sup>a</sup> holy unto the LORD; it shall <sup>a</sup> not be plucked up, nor thrown down, any more for ever.

C H A P. XXXII.

1 Jeremiah being imprisoned by Zedekiah for his prophecy, 6 buyeth Hunameel's field. 13 Baruch must preserve the evidences, as tokens of the people's return. 16 Jeremiah in his prayer complaineth to God. 26 God confirmeth the captivity for their sins, 36 and promiseth a gracious return.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the <sup>a</sup> tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the <sup>b</sup> eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar.

2 For then the king of Babylon's army <sup>a</sup> besieged Jerusalem: and Jeremiah the prophet <sup>a</sup> was shut up in the court of the prison, which was in the king of Judah's house.

3 For Zedekiah king of Judah had shut him up, saying, <sup>a</sup> Wherefore dost thou prophesy, and say, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, <sup>a</sup> I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it;

4 And <sup>a</sup> Zedekiah king of Judah shall not escape out of the hand of the Chaldeans, but shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall <sup>a</sup> speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes shall behold his eyes;

5 And he shall lead Zedekiah to Babylon, and there shall he be <sup>a</sup> until I visit him, saith the LORD: though ye fight with the Chaldeans, ye shall <sup>a</sup> not prosper.

6 And Jeremiah said, The word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

7 Behold, Hanameel, the son of Shallum, thine uncle, shall come unto thee, saying, <sup>1</sup> Buy thee my field that is in Anathoth; for the <sup>m</sup> right of redemption is thine to buy it.

8 So Hanameel, mine uncle's son, came to me in the court of the prison, according to the word of the LORD, and said unto me, Buy my field, I pray thee, that is in <sup>n</sup> Anathoth, which is in the country of Benjamin: for the right of inheritance is thine, and the redemption is thine; buy it for thyself. <sup>o</sup> Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD.

9 And I bought the field of Hanameel, my uncle's son, that was in Anathoth, and <sup>p</sup> weighed him the money, even seventeen shekels of silver.

10 And I subscribed the evidence, and <sup>q</sup> sealed it, and took witnesses, and weighed him the money in the balances.

11 So I took the evidence of the purchase, both that which was sealed according <sup>r</sup> to the law and custom, and that which was open.

12 And I gave the evidence of the purchase unto <sup>s</sup> Baruch the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, in the sight of Hanameel mine uncle's son, and in the presence of the witnesses that subscribed the book of the purchase, before all the Jews that sat in the court of the prison.

13 And I charged Baruch before them, saying,

14 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Take these evidences, this evidence of the purchase, (both which is sealed,) and this evidence which is open, and put them in an earthen vessel, that they may continue many days:

15 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Houses, and fields, and vineyards, shall be <sup>t</sup> possessed again in this land.

16 Now when I had delivered the evidence of the purchase unto Baruch the son of Neriah,

<sup>u</sup> I prayed unto the LORD, saying,

17 Ah, Lord God! behold, thou hast made the heaven and the earth by thy great power and stretched-out arm, and there is <sup>x</sup> nothing too hard for thee:

18 Thou shewest <sup>y</sup> loving-kindness unto thousands, and recompensest the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them: The <sup>z</sup> Great, the Mighty God, the LORD of hosts, is his name.

19 <sup>a</sup> Great in counsel, and mighty <sup>b</sup> in work: (for thine <sup>c</sup> eyes are open upon all the ways of the sons of men; <sup>d</sup> to give every one according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings:)

20 Which hast set signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, even unto this day, and in Israel, and amongst other men; and hast made thee <sup>e</sup> a name, as at this day;

21 And hast <sup>f</sup> brought forth thy people Israel out of the land of Egypt, with <sup>g</sup> signs, and with wonders, and with a strong hand, and with a stretched-out arm, and with great terror;

22 And hast given them this land, which thou didst swear to their fathers to give them, <sup>h</sup> a land flowing with milk and honey;

23 And they came in, and possessed it; but they <sup>i</sup> obeyed not thy voice, neither walked in thy law: they have done nothing of all that thou commandedst them to do; therefore thou hast caused all this evil to come upon them.

24 Behold the mounts, they are come unto the city to take it; and the city <sup>j</sup> is given into the hand of the Chaldeans that fight against it, because of the sword, and of the famine, and of the pestilence: and what thou hast spoken <sup>k</sup> is come to pass; and, behold, thou seest it.

25 And thou hast said unto me, O Lord God, Buy thee the field for money, and take witnesses; for <sup>l</sup> the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.

26 Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying,

27 Behold, I <sup>m</sup> am the LORD, <sup>n</sup> the God of all flesh: is there <sup>o</sup> any thing too hard for me?

28 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, <sup>p</sup> I will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and he shall take it.

29 And the Chaldeans, that fight against this city, shall come and <sup>q</sup> set fire on this city, and burn it, with the houses <sup>r</sup> upon whose roofs they have offered incense unto Baal, and poured out drink-offerings unto other gods, to provoke me to anger.

30 For the children of Israel, and the children of Judah <sup>s</sup> have only done evil before me from their youth: for the children of Israel have only provoked me to anger with the work of their hands, saith the LORD.

31 For this city hath been to me as <sup>t</sup> a provocation of mine anger and of my fury, from the day that they built it, even unto this day, that I should remove it from before my face;

32 Because of all the evil of the children of Israel, and of the children of Judah, which they have done to provoke me to anger, <sup>u</sup> they, their kings, their princes, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

33 And they have turned unto me the back, and not the face: though I taught them, <sup>v</sup> rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not hearkened to receive instruction.

34 But they <sup>w</sup> set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to defile it.

35 And they <sup>x</sup> built the high places of Baal, which are in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire unto Molech, which I commanded them not, neither came it into my mind, that they should do this abomination, to cause Judah to sin.

36 And now therefore thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning this city, whereof <sup>y</sup> ye say, It shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence;

37 Behold, I will <sup>z</sup> gather them out of all countries whither I have driven them in mine anger, and in my fury, and in great wrath; and I will will bring them again unto this place, and I will cause them to dwell safely :

38 And they shall be <sup>d</sup> my people, and I will be their God :

39 And I will give them <sup>e</sup> one heart, and <sup>f</sup> one way, that they may fear me for ever, for the good of them, and of their children after them :

40 And I will make <sup>g</sup> an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from them to do them good ; but I will put my fear in their hearts, that they shall <sup>h</sup> not depart from me.

41 Yea, I will <sup>i</sup> rejoice over them to do them good, and I will plant them in this land † assuredly with my whole heart, and with my whole soul.

42 For thus saith the LORD, Like as I have brought all this great evil upon this people, so will I bring upon them all the good that I have promised them.

43 And fields shall be bought in this land, whereof ye say, It is <sup>k</sup> desolate without man or beast ; it is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.

44 Men shall buy fields for money, and subscribe evidences, and seal them, and take witnesses in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, and <sup>l</sup> in the cities of the mountains, and in the cities of the valley, and in the cities of the south : for I will cause their captivity to return, saith the LORD.

C H A P. XXXIII.

1 God promiseth to the captivity a gracious return, 9 a joyful state, 12 a settled government, 15 Christ the Branch of righteousness, 17 a continuance of kingdom and priesthood, 20 and a stability of a blessed seed.

MOREOVER, the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah the <sup>a</sup> second time, while he was yet shut up in the court of the prison, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, the <sup>b</sup> maker thereof, the LORD that formed it, to <sup>c</sup> establish it ; the LORD is his name ;

3 <sup>d</sup> Call unto me, and I will answer thee, and shew thee <sup>e</sup> great and mighty things, which thou knowest not.

4 For thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city, and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah, which are <sup>f</sup> thrown down by the mounts, and by the sword ;

5 <sup>g</sup> They come to fight with the Chaldeans, but it is to fill them with the dead bodies of men, whom <sup>h</sup> I have slain in mine anger, and in my fury, and for all whose wickedness I have hid my face from this city.

6 Behold, <sup>i</sup> I will bring it health and cure, and I will cure them, and will <sup>k</sup> reveal unto them the abundance of peace and truth.

7 And I will cause the captivity of Judah, and the captivity of <sup>l</sup> Israel, to return, and will <sup>m</sup> build them as at the first.

8 And I will <sup>n</sup> cleanse them from all their iniquity, whereby they have sinned against me ; and I will pardon all their iniquities, whereby they have sinned, and whereby they have transgressed against me.

9 And it shall be to me <sup>o</sup> a name of joy, a praise and an honour before all the nations of the earth, which shall hear all the good that I do unto them : and they shall <sup>p</sup> fear and tremble for all the goodness, and for all the prosperity, that I procure unto it.

10 Thus saith the LORD, Again there shall be heard in this place (which <sup>q</sup> ye say shall be desolate without man and without beast, even in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, that are desolate without man, and without inhabitant, and without beast,)

11 The <sup>r</sup> voice of joy, and the voice of gladness ; the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride ; the voice of them that shall say, <sup>s</sup> Praise the LORD of hosts : for the LORD is good ; for his mercy endureth for ever : and of them that shall bring the sacrifice of praise into the house of the LORD. For I will cause to return the captivity of the land, <sup>t</sup> as at the first, saith the LORD.

12 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Again in this place, which is desolate without man and without beast, and in all the cities thereof, shall be <sup>u</sup> a habitation of shepherds causing their flocks to lie down.

13 <sup>x</sup> In the cities of the mountains, in the cities of the vale, and in the cities of the south, and in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, shall the flocks pass again under the hands of him that <sup>y</sup> telleth them, saith the LORD.

14 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will <sup>z</sup> perform that good thing which I have promised unto the house of Israel, and to the house of Judah.

15 In those days, and at that time, will I cause the <sup>a</sup> Branch of righteousness to grow up unto David ; and he shall <sup>b</sup> execute judgment and righteousness in the land.

16 In those days shall Judah be saved, and Jerusalem shall dwell safely : and this is the name wherewith she shall be <sup>c</sup> called, <sup>d</sup> The LORD our righteousness.

17 For thus saith the LORD, <sup>e</sup> David shall never want a man to sit upon the throne of the house of Israel ;

18 Neither shall the priests the Levites want a man before me, <sup>f</sup> to offer burnt-offerings, and to kindle meat-offerings, and to do sacrifice continually.

19 And the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, saying,

20 Thus saith the LORD, If you can <sup>g</sup> break my covenant of the day, and my covenant of the night, and that there should not be day and night in their season ;

21 Then may also my covenant be broken with David my servant, that he should not have a son <sup>h</sup> to reign upon his throne ; and with the Levites the <sup>i</sup> priests, my ministers.

C H A P. XXXIV.

1 Jeremiah prophesieth the captivity of Zedekiah and the city. 8 The princes and the people having dismissed their bond-servants, contrary to the covenant of God, reassume them. 12 Jeremiah, for their disobedience, giveth them and Zedekiah into the hands of their enemies.

THE word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, (when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and all his army, and all the kingdoms of the earth of his dominion, and all the people, fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities thereof,) saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, Go, and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah, and tell him; Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire.

3 And thou shalt not escape out of his hand, but shalt surely be taken, and delivered into his hand; and thine eyes shall behold the eyes of the king of Babylon, and he shall speak with thee mouth to mouth, and thou shalt go to Babylon.

4 Yet hear the word of the LORD, O Zedekiah king of Judah; Thus saith the LORD of thee, Thou shalt not die by the sword;

5 But thou shalt die in peace: and with the burnings of thy fathers, the former kings which were before thee, so shall they burn odours for thee; and they will lament thee, saying, Ah, lord! for I have pronounced the word, saith the LORD.

6 Then Jeremiah the prophet spake all these words unto Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem,

7 When the king of Babylon's army fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of Judah that were left, against Lachish, and against Azekah: for these defenced cities remained of the cities of Judah.

8 This is the word that came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, after that the king Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people which were at Jerusalem, to proclaim liberty unto them;

9 That every man should let his man-servant, and every man his maid-servant, being an Hebrew or an Hebrewess, go free; that none should serve himself of them, to wit, of a Jew his brother.

10 Now, when all the princes, and all the people which had entered into the covenant, heard that every one should let his man-servant, and every one his maid-servant, go free, that none should serve themselves of them any more; then they obeyed, and let them go.

11 But afterwards they turned, and caused the servants, and the handmaids, whom they had let go free, to return, and brought them into subjection for servants and for handmaids.

12 Therefore the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

13 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondmen, saying,

14 At the end of seven years, let ye go every man his brother an Hebrew, which hath been sold unto thee; and, when he hath served thee six years, thou shalt let him go free from thee: but your fathers hearkened not unto me, neither inclined their ear.

15 And ye were now turned, and had done right in my sight, in proclaiming liberty every man to his neighbour: and ye had made a covenant before me in the house which is called by my name:

16 But ye turned, and polluted my name, and caused every man his servant, and every man his handmaid, whom ye had set at liberty at their pleasure, to return, and brought them into subjection, to be unto you for servants and for handmaids.

17 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Ye have not hearkened unto me, in proclaiming liberty every one to his brother, and every man to his neighbour: behold, I will proclaim a liberty for you, saith the LORD, to the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine; and I will make you to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth.

18 And I will give the men that have transgressed my covenant, which have not performed the words of the covenant which they had made before me, when they cut the calf in twain, and passed between the parts thereof,

19 The princes of Judah, and the princes of Jerusalem, the eunuchs, and the priests, and all the people of the land, which passed between the parts of the calf;

20 I will even give them into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life; and their dead bodies shall be for meat unto the fowls of the heaven, and to the beasts of the earth.

21 And Zedekiah king of Judah, and his princes, will I give into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life, and into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, which are gone up from you.

7 It may be they will <sup>b</sup> present their supplication before the LORD, and will <sup>i</sup> return every one from his evil way: for great is the anger and the fury that the LORD hath pronounced against this people.

8 And Baruch the son of Neriah did according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading in the book the words of the LORD in the LORD's house.

9 And it came to pass, in the fifth year of Jehoiaxim the son of Josiah king of Judah, in the ninth month, that they proclaimed <sup>k</sup> a fast before the LORD to all the people in Jerusalem, and to all the people that came from the cities of Judah unto Jerusalem.

10 Then read Baruch in the book the words of Jeremiah in the house of the LORD, in the <sup>l</sup> chamber of Gemariah the son of Shaphan <sup>m</sup> the scribe, in the <sup>n</sup> higher court, at the entry of the <sup>o</sup> new gate of the LORD's house, in the ears of all the people.

11 When Michaiah the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, had heard out of the book all the words of the LORD, 12 Then he went down into the king's house, into the <sup>p</sup> scribe's chamber, and, lo, all the princes sat there, even Elishama the scribe, and Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, and Elnathan the son of Achbor, and Gemariah the son of Shaphan, and Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the princes.

13 Then Michaiah <sup>q</sup> declared unto them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the book in the ears of the people.

14 Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, unto Baruch, saying, Take in thine hand the roll wherein thou hast read in the ears of the people, and come. So Baruch the son of Neriah <sup>r</sup> took the roll in his hand, and came unto them.

15 And they said unto him, Sit down now, and read it in our ears. So Baruch read <sup>s</sup> it in their ears.

16 Now it came to pass, when they had heard all the words, they were <sup>t</sup> afraid both one and other, and said unto Baruch, We will surely tell the king of all these words.

17 And they asked Baruch, saying, <sup>u</sup> Tell us now, How didst thou write all these words at his mouth?

18 Then Baruch answered them, He pronounced all these words unto me with his mouth, and I <sup>x</sup> wrote them with ink in the book.

19 Then said the princes unto Baruch, Go hide thee, <sup>y</sup> thou and Jeremiah, and let no man know where ye be.

20 And they went in to the king into the court, but they <sup>z</sup> laid up the roll in the chamber of Elishama the scribe, and told all the words in the ears of the king.

21 So the king sent Jehudi to fetch the roll; and he took it out of Elishama the scribe's chamber: and Jehudi read it in the ears of the king, and in the ears of all the princes which stood beside the king.

22 Now the king sat in the <sup>a</sup> winter-house, in the ninth month: and there was a fire on the hearth burning before him.

23 And it came to pass, that when Jehudi had read three or four leaves, he <sup>b</sup> cut it with the pen-knife, and cast it into the fire that was on the hearth, until all the roll was consumed in the fire that was on the hearth.

24 Yet they were not afraid, nor <sup>c</sup> rent their garments, neither the king, nor any of his servants that heard all these words.

25 Nevertheless, Elnathan, and Delaiah and Gemariah, had <sup>d</sup> made intercession to the king that he would not burn the roll; but he would not hear them.

26 But the king commanded Jerahmeel the son of Hammelech, and Seraiah the son of Azriel, and Shelemiah the son of Abdeel, <sup>e</sup> to take Baruch the scribe, and Jeremiah the prophet: but the LORD <sup>f</sup> hid them.

27 Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, (<sup>g</sup> after that the king had burnt the roll, and the words which Baruch wrote at the mouth of Jeremiah,) saying, 28 <sup>h</sup> Take thee again another roll, and write in it all the former words that were in the first roll, which Jehoiaxim the king of Judah hath burnt.

29 And thou shalt say to Jehoiaxim king of Judah, Thus saith the LORD, Thou hast burnt this roll, saying, <sup>i</sup> Why hast thou written therein, saying, The king of Babylon shall <sup>k</sup> certainly come and destroy this land, and shall cause to cease from thence man and beast?

30 Therefore thus saith the LORD of Jehoiaxim king of Judah, He shall have <sup>l</sup> none to sit upon the throne of David; and his dead body shall be cast out in the day to the heat, and in the night to the frost.

31 And I will <sup>m</sup> punish him, and his seed, and his servants, for their iniquity; and I will bring upon them, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and upon the men of Judah, all the evil that I have pronounced against them: but they hearkened not.

32 Then took Jeremiah another roll, and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah; who wrote therein, from the <sup>n</sup> mouth of Jeremiah, all the words of the book which Jehoiaxim king of Judah had burnt in the fire: and there were added besides unto them many like words.

of the LORD, which he spake by the prophet Jeremiah.

3 And Zedekiah the king sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, <sup>c</sup> Pray now unto the LORD our God for us.

4 Now Jeremiah came in and went out among the people; for they had not put him into prison.

5 Then <sup>d</sup> Pharaoh's army was come forth out of Egypt: and when the Chaldeans that besieged Jerusalem heard tidings of them, they <sup>e</sup> departed from Jerusalem.

6 Then came the word of the LORD unto the prophet Jeremiah, saying,

7 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, Thus shall ye say to the king of Judah, that <sup>f</sup> sent you unto me to inquire of me; Behold, Pharaoh's army, which is come forth to help you, shall <sup>g</sup> return to Egypt into their own land.

8 And the Chaldeans shall come again, and fight against this city, and <sup>h</sup> take it, and burn it with fire.

9 Thus saith the LORD, <sup>i</sup> Deceive not yourselves, saying, The Chaldeans shall surely depart from us: for they shall not depart.

10 For though ye had smitten the whole army of the Chaldeans that fight against you, and there remained but wounded men among them, <sup>k</sup> yet should they rise up every man in his tent, and burn this city with fire.

11 And it came to pass, that when the army of the Chaldeans was broken up from Jerusalem for fear of Pharaoh's army, 12 Then Jeremiah went forth out of Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin, to <sup>l</sup> separate himself thence in the midst of the people.

13 And when he was in the <sup>m</sup> gate of Benjamin, a captain of the ward was there, whose name was Irijah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah; and he took Jeremiah the prophet, saying, Thou <sup>n</sup>allest away to the Chaldeans.

14 Then said Jeremiah, It is <sup>o</sup> false; I fall not away to the Chaldeans. But he hearkened not to him: so Irijah took Jeremiah, and brought him to the princes.

15 Wherefore the princes <sup>p</sup> were wroth with Jeremiah, and <sup>q</sup> smote him, and put him in prison in the house of <sup>r</sup> Jonathan the scribe; for they had made that the prison.

16 When Jeremiah was entered into the <sup>s</sup> dungeon, and into the cabins, and Jeremiah had remained there many days;

17 Then Zedekiah the king sent, and <sup>t</sup> took him out; and the king asked him secretly in his house, and said, Is there <sup>u</sup> any word from the LORD? And Jeremiah said, There is: for, said he, thou shalt be <sup>v</sup> delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon.

18 Moreover, Jeremiah said unto king Zedekiah, <sup>w</sup> What have I offended against thee, or against thy servants, or against this people, that ye have put me in prison?

19 <sup>x</sup> Where are now your prophets which prophesied unto you, saying, The king of Babylon shall not come against you, nor against this land?

20 Therefore hear now, I pray thee, O my lord the king: let my supplication, I pray thee, be accepted before thee; that thou cause me not to return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there.

21 Then Zedekiah the king commanded that they should <sup>y</sup> commit Jeremiah into the court of the prison, and that they should give him daily <sup>z</sup> a piece of bread out of the bakers' street, until all the bread in the city were spent. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

C H A P. XXXVIII.

1 Jeremiah, by a false suggestion, is put into the dungeon of Malchiah, 7 Ebed-melech, by suit, getteth him some enlargement. 14 Upon secret conference he counselleth the king, by yielding to save his life. 24 By the king's instructions he concealeth the conference from the princes.

THEN Shephatiah the son of Mattan, and Gedaliah the son of Pashur, and Jucal the son of Shelemiah, and Pashur the son of Malchiah, heard <sup>a</sup> the words that Jeremiah had spoken <sup>b</sup> unto all the people, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, <sup>c</sup> He that remaineth in this city shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth forth to the Chaldeans shall live; for he shall have <sup>d</sup> his life for a prey, and shall live.

3 Thus saith the LORD, This city shall surely be <sup>e</sup> given into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, which shall take it.

4 Therefore the <sup>f</sup> princes said unto the king, We beseech thee, let this man be <sup>g</sup> put to death; for thus he <sup>h</sup> weakeneth the hands of the men of war that remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words unto them: for this man <sup>i</sup> seeketh not the welfare of this people, but the hurt.

5 Then Zedekiah the king said, Behold, he is in your hand: for the king is not <sup>k</sup> he that <sup>l</sup> can do any thing against you.

6 Then took they Jeremiah, and cast him into the <sup>m</sup> dungeon of Malchiah the son of Hammelech, that was in the court of the prison: and they let down Jeremiah with cords: And in the dungeon there was no water, but mire: so Jeremiah sunk in the mire.

7 Now when Ebed-melech the <sup>n</sup> Ethiopian, one of the eunuchs which was <sup>o</sup> in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon, (the king then sitting in the gate of Benjamin,)

8 Ebed-melech went forth out of the king's house, and <sup>p</sup> spake to the king, saying,

9 My lord the king, <sup>q</sup> these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon; and he is like to die for hunger in the place where he is; for there is no more bread in the city.

10 Then the king <sup>r</sup> commanded Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Take from hence thirty men with thee, and take up Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon, before he die.

11 So Ebed-melech took the men with him, and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took thence old cast clouts and old rotten rags, and let them down by cords into the dungeon to Jeremiah.

12 And Ebed-melech the Ethiopian said unto Jeremiah, Put now these old cast clouts and rotten rags <sup>a</sup> under thine arm-holes, under the cords. And Jeremiah did so.

13 So they drew up Jeremiah with cords, and took him up out of the dungeon: and Jeremiah remained in the court of the <sup>1</sup> prison.

14 Then Zedekiah the king sent, and <sup>a</sup> took Jeremiah the prophet unto him into the <sup>x</sup> third entry that is in the house of the LORD: and the king said unto Jeremiah, I will ask thee <sup>y</sup> a thing; <sup>z</sup> hide nothing from me.

15 Then Jeremiah said unto Zedekiah, If I declare it unto thee, wilt thou not surely <sup>a</sup> put me to death? and if I give thee counsel, wilt thou <sup>b</sup> not hearken unto me?

16 So the king sware secretly unto Jeremiah, saying, As the LORD liveth, that made us this soul, I will not put thee to death, neither will I give thee into the hand of these men that seek thy life.

17 Then said Jeremiah unto Zedekiah, Thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel, If thou wilt assuredly <sup>a</sup> go forth unto the king of Babylon's princes, then thy soul shall live, and this city shall not be burnt with fire; and thou shalt live, and thine house:

18 But if thou wilt not go forth to the king of Babylon's princes, then shall this city be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, and they shall burn it with fire, and thou shalt <sup>a</sup> not escape out of their hand.

19 And Zedekiah the king said unto Jeremiah, <sup>a</sup> I am afraid of the Jews that are fallen to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they mock me.

20 But Jeremiah said, They shall not deliver thee. Obey, I <sup>1</sup> beseech thee, the voice of the LORD, which I speak unto thee: so it shall be well unto thee, and thy soul shall live.

21 But if thou refuse to go forth, <sup>a</sup> this is the word that the LORD hath shewed me:

22 And, behold, all the <sup>b</sup> women that are left in the king of Judah's house shall be brought forth to the king of Babylon's princes: and those women shall say, Thy friends have set thee on, and have prevailed against thee: thy feet are sunk in the mire, and they are turned away back.

23 So they shall bring out all thy wives and thy <sup>1</sup> children to the Chaldeans; and thou shalt not escape out of their hand, but shalt be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon: and thou shalt cause this city to be burnt with fire.

24 Then said Zedekiah unto Jeremiah, Let no man know of these words, and thou shalt not die.

25 But if <sup>k</sup> the princes hear that I have talked with thee, and they come unto thee, and say unto thee, Declare unto us now what thou hast said unto the king, hide it not from us, and we will not put thee to death; also what the king said unto thee;

26 Then thou shalt say unto them, I <sup>1</sup> presented my supplication before the king, that he would not cause me to return to <sup>m</sup> Jonathan's house, to die there.

27 Then came all the princes unto Jeremiah, and asked him: and he told them <sup>a</sup> according to all these words that the king had commanded. So they left off speaking with him: for the matter was not perceived.

28 So Jeremiah <sup>a</sup> abode in the court of the prison until the day that Jerusalem was taken: and he was there when Jerusalem was taken.

I N the <sup>a</sup> ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, came Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon and all his army against Jerusalem, and they besieged it.

2 And in the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the <sup>b</sup> fourth month, the ninth day of the month, the <sup>c</sup> city was broken up.

3 And all the princes of the king of Babylon came in, and sat in <sup>d</sup> the middle gate, even Nergal-sharezer, Shamgar-nebo, Sarsechim, Rab-saris, Nergal-sharezer, Rab-mag, with all the residue of the princes of the king of Babylon.

C H A P. XL.

1 Jeremiah being set free by Nebuzar-adan, goeth to Gedaliah. 7 The dispersed Jews repair to him. 13 Johanan revealing Ishmael's conspiracy, is not believed.

THE word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, after that Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had let him go from Ramath, when he had taken him, being bound in chains among all that were carried away captive of Jerusalem and Judah, which were carried away captive unto Babylon.

2 And the captain of the guard took Jeremiah, and said unto him, The LORD thy God hath pronounced this evil upon this place.

3 Now the LORD hath brought it, and done according as he hath said: because ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed his voice, therefore this thing is come upon you.

4 And now, behold, I loose thee this day from the chains which were upon thine hand. If it seem good unto thee to come with me into Babylon, come, and I will look well unto thee; but if it seem ill unto thee to come with me into Babylon, forbear: behold, all the land is before thee: whither it seemeth good and convenient for thee to go, thither go.

5 Now, while he was not yet gone back, he said, Go back also to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon hath made governor over all the cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the people; or go wheresoever it seemeth convenient unto thee to go. So the captain of the guard gave him victuals and a reward, and let him go.

6 Then went Jeremiah unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, to Mizpah, and dwelt with him among the people that were left in the land.

7 ¶ Now when all the captains of the forces which were in the fields, even they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land, and had committed unto him men, and women, and children, and of the poor of the land, of them that were not carried away captive to Babylon;

8 Then they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, and the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah the son of a Maachathite, they and their men.

9 And Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, sware unto them, and to their men, saying, Fear not to serve the Chaldeans: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you.

10 As for me, behold, I will dwell at Mizpah, to serve the Chaldeans which will come unto us: but ye, gather ye wine, and summer-fruits, and oil, and put them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities that ye have taken.

11 Likewise, when all the Jews that were in Moab, and among the Ammonites, and in Edom, and that were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had set over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan:

12 Even all the Jews returned out of all places whither they were driven, and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah, unto Mizpah, and gathered wine and summer-fruits very much.

13 Moreover, Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were in the fields, came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, 14 And said unto him, Dost thou certainly know that Baalis the king of the Ammonites hath sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah to slay thee? But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam believed them not.

15 Then Johanan the son of Kareah spake to Gedaliah in Mizpah secretly, saying, Let me go, I pray thee, and I will slay Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no man shall know it: wherefore should he slay thee, that all the Jews which are gathered unto thee should be scattered, and the remnant in Judah perish?

16 But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said unto Johanan the son of Kareah, Thou shalt not do this thing; for thou speakest falsely of Ishmael.

T H E N all the captains of the forces, and <sup>a</sup>Johanan the son of Kareah, and Jezeaniah the son of Hoshaiah, and all the people, from the least even to the greatest, <sup>b</sup>came near,

2 And said unto Jeremiah the prophet, Let, we beseech thee, our supplication be accepted before thee, and <sup>c</sup>pray for us unto the LORD thy God, even for all this remnant; (for we are left but <sup>d</sup>a few of many, as thine eyes do behold us;)

AND it came to pass, that when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking unto all the people all the words of the LORD their God, for which the LORD their God had sent him to them, even all these words,

2 Then spake Azariah the son of Hoshaiiah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the <sup>a</sup> proud men, saying unto Jeremiah, Thou speakest <sup>b</sup> falsely: the LORD our God hath not sent thee to say, Go not into Egypt to sojourn there:

3 But <sup>c</sup> Baruch the son of Neriah setteth thee on against us, for to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that <sup>d</sup> they might put us to death, and carry us away captives into Babylon.

4 So Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, and all the people, <sup>e</sup> obeyed not the voice of the LORD, to <sup>f</sup> dwell in the land of Judah;

5 But <sup>g</sup> Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, took all the remnant of Judah, that were returned from all nations whither they had been driven, to dwell in the land of Judah;

7 So they came into the land of Egypt: for they obeyed not the voice of the LORD. Thus came they even to <sup>k</sup> Tahpanhes.

8 <sup>l</sup> Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying,

9 Take great stones in thine hand, and hide them in the clay in the brick-kiln, which <sup>m</sup> is at the entry of Pharaoh's house in Tahpanhes, in the sight of the men of Judah;

10 And say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will send and take Nebuchadrezzar the king of <sup>n</sup> Babylon my servant, and will <sup>o</sup> set his throne upon these stones that I have hid; and he shall spread his royal pavilion over them.

11 And when he cometh, he shall <sup>p</sup> smite the land of Egypt, and deliver <sup>q</sup> such as are for death, to death; and such as are for captivity, to captivity; and such as are for the sword, to the sword.

12 And I will kindle a fire in the <sup>r</sup> houses of the gods of Egypt; and he shall burn them, and carry them away captives; and he shall array himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd putteth on his garment; and he shall go forth from thence <sup>s</sup> in peace.

5 But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear to turn from their wickedness, to burn no incense unto other gods.

6 Wherefore <sup>1</sup> my fury and mine anger was poured forth, and was kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are wasted and desolate, <sup>2</sup> as at this day.

7 Therefore now thus saith the Lord, the God of hosts, the God of Israel, <sup>1</sup> Wherefore commit ye this great evil <sup>2</sup> against your souls, to cut off from you man and woman, child and suckling, out of Judah, to leave you none to remain;

8 In that ye provoke me unto wrath with the <sup>1</sup> works of your hands, burning incense unto other gods in the land of Egypt, whither ye be gone to dwell, that ye might cut yourselves off, and that ye might be <sup>2</sup> a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth?

9 Have ye forgotten the wickedness of your fathers, and the wickedness of the <sup>1</sup> kings of Judah, and the wickedness of their wives, and your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives, which they have committed in the land of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem?

10 They are not † humbled even unto this day, neither have they feared, <sup>2</sup> nor walked in my law, nor in my statutes, that I set before you, and before your fathers.

11 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will <sup>1</sup> set my face against you for evil, and to cut off all Judah, 12 And I will take the remnant of Judah, that have <sup>2</sup> set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, and they shall all be consumed, and fall in the land of Egypt; they shall even be consumed by the sword and by the famine: they shall die, from the least even unto the greatest, by the sword and by the famine; and they shall be <sup>3</sup> an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach.

13 For I will † punish them that dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence:

14 So that none of the remnant of Judah, which are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, † shall escape or remain, that they should return into the land of Judah, to the which they have a desire to return to dwell there; for none shall return but such as shall escape.

15 ¶ Then <sup>1</sup> all the men <sup>2</sup> which knew that their wives had burnt incense unto other gods, and all the women that stood by, a great multitude, even all the people that dwelt in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying,

16 As for the word which thou hast spoken unto us in the name of the Lord, <sup>3</sup> we will not hearken unto thee.

17 But we will certainly do whatsoever thing <sup>1</sup> goeth forth out of our own mouth, to burn incense unto the <sup>2</sup> queen of heaven, and to pour out drink-offerings unto her, as we have done, we, and <sup>3</sup> our fathers, our kings, and our princes, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem: for then had we plenty of <sup>4</sup> victuals, and were <sup>5</sup> well, and saw no evil.

18 But since we left off to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink-offerings unto her, we have <sup>6</sup> wanted all things, and have been consumed by the sword and by the famine.

19 And <sup>1</sup> when we burnt incense to the <sup>2</sup> queen of heaven, and poured out drink-offerings unto her, did we make her cakes to worship her, and pour out drink-offerings unto her <sup>3</sup> without our men?

20 ¶ Then Jeremiah said unto all the people, to the men, and to the women, and to all the people which had given him that answer, saying,

21 The incense that ye burnt in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, ye, and your fathers, your kings, and your princes, and the people of the land, did not the Lord <sup>4</sup> remember them, and came it not into his mind?

22 So that the Lord could no <sup>1</sup> longer bear, because of the evil of your doings, and because of the abominations which ye have committed; <sup>2</sup> therefore is your land a desolation, and an astonishment, and a curse, without an inhabitant, as at this day.

23 Because you have burnt incense, and because ye have sinned against the Lord, and have not obeyed the voice of the Lord, nor walked in his law, nor in his statutes, nor in his testimonies; therefore this evil is happened unto you, as at this day.

24 Moreover, Jeremiah said unto all the people, and to all the women, Hear the word of the Lord, all Judah that are in <sup>1</sup> the land of Egypt;

25 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, Ye and your wives have both <sup>2</sup> spoken with your mouths, and fulfilled with your hand, saying, We will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink-offerings unto her: ye will surely accomplish your vows, and surely <sup>3</sup> perform your vows.

26 Therefore hear ye the word of the Lord, all Judah that dwell in the land of Egypt; Behold, I have <sup>4</sup> sworn by my great name, saith the Lord, that <sup>5</sup> my name shall no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah, in all the land of Egypt, saying, The Lord God liveth.

27 Behold, I will <sup>1</sup> watch over them for evil, and not for good; and all the men of Judah that are in the land of Egypt shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine, until there be an end of them.

28 Yet <sup>2</sup> a small number that escape the sword shall return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah; and all the remnant of Judah, that are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall <sup>3</sup> know whose words shall stand, mine, or theirs.

29 And this shall be a sign unto you, saith the Lord, that I will punish you in this place, that

1 Baruch being dismayed, 4 Jeremiah instructeth and comforteth him.

THE word that Jeremiah the prophet spake unto Baruch the son of Neriah, when he had written these words in a book at the mouth of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, unto thee, O Baruch;

3 Thou didst say, Wo is me now! for the LORD hath added grief to my sorrow; I fainted in my sighing, and I find no rest.

4 Thus shalt thou say unto him, The LORD saith thus; Behold, that which I have built will I break down, and that which I have planted I will pluck up, even this whole land.

5 And seekest thou great things for thyself? seek them not: for, behold, I will bring evil upon all flesh, saith the LORD; but thy life will I give unto thee for a prey in all places whither thou goest.

1 Jeremiah prophesieth the overthrow of Pharaoh's army at Euphrates, 13 and the conquest of Egypt by Nebuchadrezzar. 27 He comforteth Jacob in their chastisement.

THE word of the LORD which came to Jeremiah the prophet against the Gentiles;

2 Against Egypt, against the army of Pharaoh-necho king of Egypt, which was by the river Euphrates in Carchemish, which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon smote in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah.

3 Order ye the buckler and shield, and draw near to battle.

4 Harness the horses; and get up, ye horsemen, and stand forth with your helmets; furbish the spears, and put on the brigandines.

5 Wherefore have I seen them dismayed and turned away back? and their mighty ones are beaten down, and are fled apace, and look not back: for fear was round about, saith the LORD.

6 Let not the swift flee away, nor the mighty man escape; they shall stumble, and fall toward the north by the river Euphrates.

7 Who is this that cometh up as a flood, whose waters are moved as the rivers?

8 Egypt riseth up like a flood, and his waters are moved like the rivers; and he saith, I will go up, and will cover the earth; I will destroy the city, and the inhabitants thereof.

9 Come up, ye horses; and rage, ye chariots; and let the mighty men come forth; the Ethiopians and the Libyans, that handle the shield; and the Lydians, that handle and bend the bow.

10 For this is the day of the Lord God of hosts, a day of vengeance, that he may avenge him of his adversaries: and the sword shall devour, and it shall be satiate and made drunk with their blood; for the Lord God of hosts hath a sacrifice in the north country by the river Euphrates.

11 Go up into Gilead and take balm, O virgin, the daughter of Egypt: in vain shalt thou use many medicines; for thou shalt not be cured.

12 The nations have heard of thy shame, and thy cry hath filled the land: for the mighty man hath stumbled against the mighty, and they are fallen both together.

13 The word that the Lord spake to Jeremiah the prophet, how Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon should come and smite the land of Egypt, 14 Declare ye in Egypt, and publish in Migdol, and publish in Noph, and in Tahpanhes: say ye, Stand fast, and prepare thee; for the sword shall devour round about thee.

15 Why are thy valiant men swept away? they stood not, because the Lord did drive them.

16 He made many to fall, yea, one fell upon another; and they said, Arise, and let us go again to our own people, and to the land of our nativity, from the oppressing sword.

17 They did cry there, Pharaoh king of Egypt is but a noise; he hath passed the time appointed.

18 As I live, saith the King, whose name is The Lord of hosts, Surely as Tabor is among the mountains, and as Carmel by the sea, so shall he come.

19 O thou daughter dwelling in Egypt, furnish thyself to go into captivity: for Noph shall be waste and desolate without an inhabitant.

20 Egypt is like a very fair heifer, but destruction cometh; it cometh out of the north.

21 Also her hired men are in the midst of her like fatted bullocks; for they also are turned back, and are fled away together: they did not stand, because the day of their calamity was come upon them, and the time of their visitation.

22 The voice thereof shall go like a serpent; for they shall march with an army, and come against her with axes, as hewers of wood.

23 They shall cut down her forest, saith the Lord, though it cannot be searched; because they are more than the grasshoppers, and are innumerable.

24 The daughter of Egypt shall be confounded; she shall be delivered into the hand of the people of the north.

25 The Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, saith, Behold, I will punish the multitude of No, and Pharaoh, and Egypt, with their gods, and their kings; even Pharaoh, and all them that trust in him:

26 And I will deliver them into the hand of those that seek their lives, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of his servants: and afterwards it shall be inhabited, as in the days of old, saith the Lord.

28 O ye that dwell in Moab, leave the cities, and dwell in the rock, and be like the dove that maketh her nest in the sides of the hole's mouth.

29 We have heard the pride of Moab, (he is exceeding proud,) his loftiness, and his arrogance, and his pride, and the haughtiness of his heart.

30 I know his wrath, saith the LORD: but it shall not be so; his lies shall not so effect it.

31 Therefore will I howl for Moab, and I will cry out for all Moab; mine heart shall mourn for the men of Kir-heres.

32 O vine of Sibmah, I will weep for thee with the weeping of Jazer; thy plants are gone over the sea, they reach even to the sea of Jazer: the spoiler is fallen upon thy summer-fruits, and upon thy vintage.

33 And joy and gladness is taken from the plentiful field, and from the land of Moab; and I have caused wine to fail from the wine-presses: none shall tread with shouting; their shouting shall be no shouting.

34 From the cry of Heshbon even unto Elealeh, and even unto Jahaz, have they uttered their voice, from Zoar even unto Horonaim, as an heifer of three years old; for the waters also of Nimrim shall be desolate.

35 Moreover, I will cause to cease in Moab, saith the LORD, him that offereth in the high places, and him that burneth incense to his gods.

36 Therefore mine heart shall sound for Moab like pipes, and mine heart shall sound like pipes for the men of Kir-heres: because the riches that he hath gotten is perished.

37 For every head shall be bald, and every beard clipt: upon all the hands shall be cuttings, and upon the loins sackcloth.

38 There shall be lamentation generally upon all the house-tops of Moab, and in the streets thereof: for I have broken Moab like a vessel wherein is no pleasure, saith the LORD.

39 They shall howl, saying, How is it broken down! how hath Moab turned the back with shame! so shall Moab be a derision and a dismaying to all them about him.

40 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, he shall fly as an eagle, and shall spread his wings over Moab.

41 Kerioth is taken, and the strong holds are surprised, and the mighty men's hearts in Moab at that day shall be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.

shall be taken in the snare: for I will bring upon it, even upon Moab, the year of their visitation, saith the LORD.

45 They that fled stood under the shadow of Heshbon, because of the force: but a fire shall come forth out of Heshbon, and a flame from the midst of Sihon, and shall devour the corner of Moab, and the crown of the head of the tumultuous ones.

46 Wo be unto thee, O Moab! the people of Chemosh perisheth: for thy sons are taken captives, and thy daughters captives.

47 Yet will I bring again the captivity of Moab in the latter days, saith the LORD. Thus far is the judgment of Moab.

CONCERNING the Ammonites, thus saith the LORD, Hath Israel no sons? hath he no heir? why then doth their king inherit Gad, and his people dwell in his cities?

2 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will cause an alarm of war to be heard in Rabbah of the Ammonites; and it shall be a desolate heap, and her daughters shall be burnt with fire: then shall Israel be heir unto them that were his heirs, saith the LORD.

3 Howl, O Heshbon; for Ai is spoiled: cry, ye daughters of Rabbah, gird ye with sackcloth; lament, and run to and fro by the hedges: for their king shall go into captivity, and his priests and his princes together.

4 Wherefore gloriest thou in the valleys, thy flowing valley, O backsliding daughter? that trusted in her treasures, saying, Who shall come unto me?

5 Behold, I will bring a fear upon thee, saith the Lord God of hosts, from all those that be about thee; and ye shall be driven out every man right forth; and none shall gather up him that wandereth.

q Ps. 22, 3, 4.
r Isa. 48, 20.
Rev. 18, 4.

5 They shall ask the way to Zion, with their faces thitherward, saying, Come, and let us join ourselves to the LORD in a perpetual covenant that shall not be forgotten.

6 My people hath been lost sheep; their shepherds have caused them to go astray, they have turned them away on the mountains: they have gone from mountain to hill, they have forgotten their resting place.

7 All that found them have devoured them; and their adversaries said, We offend not, because they have sinned against the LORD, the habitation of justice; even the LORD, the hope of their fathers.

8 Remove out of the midst of Babylon, and go forth out of the land of the Chaldeans, and be as the he-goats before the flocks.

9 For, lo, I will raise, and cause to come up against Babylon, an assembly of great nations from the north country: and they shall set themselves in array against her; from thence she shall be taken: their arrows shall be as of a mighty expert man; none shall return in vain.

10 And Chaldea shall be a spoil: all that spoil her shall be satisfied, saith the LORD.

11 Because ye were glad, because ye rejoiced, O ye destroyers of mine heritage; because ye are grown fat as the heifer at grass, and bellow as bulls;

12 Your mother shall be sore confounded; she that bare you shall be ashamed: behold, the hindermost of the nations shall be a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert.

13 Because of the wrath of the LORD it shall not be inhabited, but it shall be wholly desolate: every one that goeth by Babylon shall be astonished, and hiss at all her plagues.

14 Put yourselves in array against Babylon round about: all ye that bend the bow shoot at her, spare no arrows; for she hath sinned against the LORD.

15 Shout against her round about; she hath given her hand: her foundations are fallen, her walls are thrown down; for it is the vengeance of the LORD: take vengeance upon her; as she hath done, do unto her.

16 Cut off the sower from Babylon, and him that handleth the sickle in the time of harvest: for fear of the oppressing sword they shall turn every one to his people, and they shall flee every one to his own land.

17 Israel is a scattered sheep, the lions have driven him away; first the king of Assyria hath devoured him, and last this Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath broken his bones.

18 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land, as I have punished the king of Assyria.

19 And I will bring Israel again to his habitation, and he shall feed on Carmel and Bashan, and his soul shall be satisfied upon mount Ephraim and Gilead.

Before CHRIST 595.
20 In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, and there shall be none; and the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found: for I will pardon them whom I reserve.

21 Go up against the land of Merathaim, even against it, and against the inhabitants of Pekod: waste and utterly destroy after them, saith the LORD, and do according to all that I have commanded thee.

22 A sound of battle is in the land, and of great destruction.

23 How is the hammer of the whole earth cut asunder and broken! how is Babylon become a desolation among the nations!

24 I have laid a snare for thee, and thou art also taken, O Babylon, and thou wast not aware: thou art found, and also caught, because thou hast striven against the LORD.

25 The LORD hath opened his armoury, and hath brought forth the weapons of his indignation: for this is the work of the LORD God of hosts in the land of the Chaldeans.

26 Come against her from the utmost border, open her store-houses; cast her up as heaps, and destroy her utterly: let nothing of her be left.

27 Slay all her bullocks; let them go down to the slaughter: wo unto them! for their day is come, the time of their visitation.

28 The voice of them that flee and escape out of the land of Babylon, to declare in Zion the vengeance of the LORD our God, the vengeance of his temple.

29 Call together the archers against Babylon: all ye that bend the bow, camp against it round about: let none thereof escape: recompense her according to her work; according to all that she hath done do unto her: for she hath been proud against the LORD, against the Holy One of Israel.

30 Therefore shall her young men fall in the streets, and all her men of war shall be cut off in that day, saith the LORD.

31 Behold, I am against thee, O thou most proud, saith the LORD God of hosts: for thy day is come, the time that I will visit thee.

32 And the most proud shall stumble and fall, and none shall raise him up: and I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it shall devour all round about him.

33 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, The children of Israel and the children of Judah were oppressed together; and all that took them captives held them fast; they refused to let them go.

34 Their Redeemer is strong; The LORD of hosts is his name; he shall thoroughly plead their cause, that he may give rest to the land, and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon.

35 A sword is upon the Chaldeans, saith the LORD, and upon the inhabitants of Babylon, and upon her princes, and upon her wise men.

36 A sword is upon the liars; and they shall dote: a sword is upon her mighty men; and they shall be dismayed.

37 A sword is upon their horses, and upon their

THEIR chariots, and upon all the mingled people that are in the midst of her; and they shall become <sup>a</sup> as women: a sword is upon her treasures; and they shall be robbed.

38 <sup>a</sup> A drought is upon her waters; and they shall be dried up: for it is the land of graven images, and they are <sup>v</sup> mad upon their idols.

39 Therefore <sup>a</sup> the wild beasts of the desert, with the wild beasts of the islands, shall dwell there, and the owls shall dwell therein: and it shall be no more inhabited for ever; neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation.

40 As God overthrew <sup>a</sup> Sodom and Gomorrah, and the neighbour cities thereof, saith the LORD; so shall no man abide there, neither shall any son of man dwell therein.

41 Behold, a people shall come from the north, and a great nation, and many <sup>b</sup> kings shall be raised up from the coasts of the earth.

42 They shall hold the bow and the lance; they are <sup>c</sup> cruel, and will not shew mercy: their voice shall roar like the sea, and they shall ride upon horses, every one put in array, like a man to the battle, against thee, O daughter of Babylon.

43 The king of Babylon hath <sup>d</sup> heard the report of them, and his <sup>e</sup> hands waxed feeble; anguish took hold of him, and pangs as of a woman in travail.

44 Behold, <sup>f</sup> he shall come up like a lion from the <sup>g</sup> swelling of Jordan unto the habitation of the strong; but I will make them suddenly run away from her: and who is a chosen man, that I may appoint over her? for who is like me? and who will appoint me the time? and who is that shepherd that will stand before me?

45 Therefore hear ye the <sup>h</sup> counsel of the LORD that he hath taken against Babylon, and his purposes that he hath purposed against the land of the Chaldeans; Surely <sup>i</sup> the least of the flock shall draw them out; surely he shall make their habitation desolate with them.

46 At the <sup>j</sup> noise of the taking of Babylon <sup>k</sup> the earth is moved, and the cry is heard among the nations.

C H A P. LI.

1 The severe judgment of God against Babylon in revenge of Israel. 59 Jeremiah delivereth the book of this prophecy to Seraiah, to be cast into Euphrates, in token of the perpetual sinking of Babylon.

THUS saith the LORD, Behold, I will raise up against Babylon, and against them that dwell in the midst of them that rise up <sup>a</sup> against me, <sup>b</sup> a destroying wind;

2 And will send unto Babylon <sup>c</sup> fanners, that shall fan her, and shall <sup>d</sup> empty her land: for in the day of trouble they shall be against her round about.

3 Against him that bendeth let the archer bend his bow, and against him that lifteth himself up in his brigandine: and <sup>e</sup> spare ye not her young men: destroy ye utterly all her host.

4 Thus the slain shall fall in the land of the Chaldeans, and they that are thrust through in her streets.

5 For Israel hath not been forsaken, nor Judah of his God, of the LORD of hosts; though their land was <sup>f</sup> filled with sin against the Holy One of Israel.

6 <sup>g</sup> Flee out of the midst of Babylon, and deliver every man <sup>h</sup> his soul; be not cut off in her iniquity: for this is the <sup>i</sup> time of the LORD's vengeance; he will render unto her a recompence.

7 Babylon hath been <sup>k</sup> a golden cup in the LORD's hand, that <sup>l</sup> made all the earth drunken: the nations have drunken of her wine; therefore the nations are mad.

8 Babylon is <sup>m</sup> suddenly fallen and destroyed: <sup>n</sup> howl for her; take balm for her pain, if so be she may be healed.

9 <sup>o</sup> We would have healed Babylon, but she <sup>p</sup> is not healed: forsake her, and <sup>q</sup> let us go every one into his own country; for her judgment reacheth unto heaven, and is lifted up even to the skies.

10 The LORD hath <sup>r</sup> brought forth our righteousness: come, and let us <sup>s</sup> declare in Zion the work of the LORD our God.

11 Make bright the arrows, gather the shields: the LORD hath <sup>t</sup> raised up the spirit of the kings of the Medes: for his device is against Babylon, to destroy it; because it is the <sup>u</sup> vengeance of the LORD, the vengeance of his temple.

12 Set up the <sup>x</sup> standard upon the walls of Babylon, make the watch strong; set up the watchmen, prepare the ambushes: for the LORD hath both devised and done that which he spake against the inhabitants of Babylon.

13 O thou that dwellest upon many <sup>y</sup> waters, abundant in treasures, thine end is come, and the <sup>z</sup> measure of thy covetousness.

14 The LORD of hosts hath sworn by himself, saying, Surely I will fill thee with men as with <sup>a</sup> caterpillars; and they shall <sup>b</sup> lift up a shout against thee.

15 He hath <sup>c</sup> made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and hath stretched out the heaven by his understanding.

16 When he uttereth his voice, there is a multitude of waters in the heavens; and he causeth the <sup>d</sup> vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth: he maketh lightnings with rain, and bringeth forth the wind out of his treasures.

17 Every man is <sup>e</sup> brutish by his knowledge; every founder is confounded by the graven image: for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them.

18 They are vanity, the work of errors: in the time of their <sup>f</sup> visitation they shall perish.

19 <sup>g</sup> The Portion of Jacob is <sup>h</sup> not like them; for he is the former of all things; and Israel is the rod of his inheritance; The LORD of hosts is his name.

20 Thou art my <sup>i</sup> battle-axe and weapons of war: for with thee will I break in pieces the nations; and with thee will I destroy kingdoms;

21 And with thee will I break in pieces the horse and his rider; and with thee will I break in pieces the <sup>k</sup> chariot and his rider;

22 With thee also will I break in pieces man and woman; and with thee will I break in pieces old and young; and with thee will I break in pieces the young man and the maid;

23 I will also break in pieces with thee <sup>m</sup> the shepherd and his flock; and with thee will I break in pieces the husbandman and his yoke of oxen; and with thee will I break in pieces captains and rulers.

24 And I will render unto Babylon, and to all the inhabitants of Chaldea, all their evil that they have done <sup>n</sup> in Zion in your sight, saith the LORD.

25 Behold, I am against thee, O destroying <sup>o</sup> mountain, saith the LORD, which <sup>p</sup> destroyest all the earth; and I will stretch out mine hand upon thee, and roll thee down from the <sup>q</sup> rocks, and will make thee <sup>r</sup> a burnt mountain.

26 And they shall not take of thee <sup>s</sup> a stone for a corner, nor a stone for foundations; but thou shalt be desolate for ever, saith the LORD.

27 Set ye up a standard in the land, blow the trumpet among the nations, <sup>t</sup> prepare the nations against her, call together against her the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Ashchenaz; appoint a captain against her; cause her horses to come up as the rough caterpillars.

28 Prepare against her the nations, with the kings of the Medes, the captains thereof, and all the rulers thereof, and all the land of his dominion.

29 And the <sup>u</sup> land shall tremble and sorrow: for <sup>v</sup> every purpose of the LORD shall be performed against Babylon, to make the land of Babylon a desolation without an inhabitant.

30 The mighty men of Babylon have forborne to fight, they have remained in their holds: their <sup>y</sup> might hath failed; they became as women: they have burnt their dwelling-places; her <sup>z</sup> bars are broken.

31 <sup>a</sup> One post shall run to meet another, and one messenger to meet another, to shew the king of Babylon that his city is taken at one end, 32 And that the passages are stopped, and the <sup>b</sup> reeds they have burnt with fire, and the <sup>c</sup> men of war are affrighted.

33 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, The daughter of Babylon is like <sup>d</sup> a threshing-floor, it is time <sup>e</sup> to thresh her: yet a little while, and the time of her <sup>f</sup> harvest shall come.

34 Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon hath <sup>g</sup> devoured me, he hath crushed me, he hath made me an empty vessel, he hath swallowed me up like <sup>h</sup> a dragon, he hath filled his <sup>i</sup> belly with my delicates, he hath cast me out.

35 The <sup>j</sup> violence done to me and to my flesh be upon Babylon, shall the inhabitant of Zion say; and, <sup>k</sup> My blood upon the inhabitants of Chaldea, shall Jerusalem say.

36 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold,

<sup>l</sup> I will plead thy cause, and take vengeance for thee; and I will dry up her sea, and make <sup>m</sup> her springs dry, 37 And Babylon shall become <sup>n</sup> heaps, a dwelling-place for dragons, an astonishment, and an hissing without an inhabitant.

38 They shall <sup>o</sup> roar together like lions: they shall yell as lions' whelps.

39 In their heat I will make their feasts, and I will make them <sup>p</sup> drunken, that they may <sup>q</sup> rejoice, and sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith the LORD.

40 I will bring them down <sup>r</sup> like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with he-goats.

41 How is Sheshach taken! and how is the <sup>s</sup> praise of the whole earth surprised! how is Babylon become an astonishment among the nations!

42 The <sup>t</sup> sea is come up upon Babylon: she is covered with the multitude of the waves thereof.

43 Her cities are a desolation, a dry land, and a wilderness, a land wherein no man <sup>u</sup> dwelleth, neither doth any son of man pass thereby.

44 And I will punish Bel in Babylon; and I will bring forth out of his mouth that which he hath <sup>v</sup> swallowed up: and the nations shall not flow together any more unto him; yea, the wall of Babylon shall fall.

45 My people, <sup>w</sup> go ye out of the midst of her, and deliver ye every man his soul from the <sup>x</sup> fierce anger of the LORD.

46 And lest your heart faint, and ye fear for the rumour that shall be heard in the land: a rumour shall both come one year, and after that in <sup>y</sup> another year shall come a rumour, and violence in the land, <sup>z</sup> ruler against ruler.

47 Therefore, behold, the days come, that I will do judgment upon the graven images of Babylon: and her whole land shall be confounded, and all her slain shall fall in the midst of her.

48 Then the <sup>a</sup> heaven and the earth, and all that is therein, shall sing for Babylon: for the spoilers shall come <sup>b</sup> unto her from the north, saith the LORD.

49 As Babylon <sup>c</sup> hath caused the slain of Israel to fall, so at Babylon shall fall the slain of all the earth.

50 Ye that have <sup>d</sup> escaped the sword, go away, <sup>e</sup> stand not still: <sup>f</sup> remember the LORD afar off, and let Jerusalem come into your mind.

51 We are <sup>g</sup> confounded, because we have heard reproach: shame hath covered our faces; for <sup>h</sup> strangers are come into the sanctuaries of the LORD's house.

52 Wherefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will do judgment upon her graven images; and through all her land the wounded shall groan.

53 Though Babylon should <sup>i</sup> mount up to heaven, and though she should fortify the height of her strength, yet from me shall spoilers come unto her, saith the LORD.

55 Because the LORD hath spoiled Babylon, and destroyed out of her the great voice; when her waves do roar like great waters, a noise of their voice is uttered:

56 Because the spoiler is come upon her, even upon Babylon, and her mighty men are taken; every one of their bows is broken: for the LORD God of recompences shall surely require.

57 And I will make drunk her princes, and her wise men, her captains, and her rulers, and her mighty men: and they shall sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith the King, whose name is The LORD of hosts.

58 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, The broad walls of Babylon shall be utterly broken, and her high gates shall be burnt with fire; and the people shall labour in vain, and the folk in the fire, and they shall be weary.

59 ¶ The word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, when he went with Zedekiah the king of Judah into Babylon, in the fourth year of his reign. And this Seraiah was a quiet prince.

60 So Jeremiah wrote in a book all the evil that should come upon Babylon, even all these words that are written against Babylon.

61 And Jeremiah said to Seraiah, When thou comest to Babylon, and shalt see, and shalt read all these words, 62 Then shalt thou say, O LORD, thou hast spoken against this place, to cut it off, that none shall remain in it, neither man nor beast, but that it shall be desolate for ever.

63 And it shall be, when thou hast made an end of reading this book, that thou shalt bind a stone to it, and cast it into the midst of Euphrates:

64 And thou shalt say, Thus shall Babylon sink, and shall not rise from the evil that I will bring upon her, and they shall be weary. Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

C H A P. LIII.

1 Zedekiah rebelleth. 4 Jerusalem is besieged and taken. 8 Zedekiah's sons killed, and his own eyes put out. 12 Nebuzar-adan burneth and spoileth the city: 24 He carrieth away the captives. 31 Evil-merodach advanceth Jehoiachin.

ZEDEKIAH was one and twenty years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

2 And he did that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done.

3 For through the anger of the LORD it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, till he had cast them out from his presence, that Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

4 And it came to pass, in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and pitched against it, and built forts against it round about.

5 So the city was besieged unto the eleventh year of king Zedekiah.

6 And in the fourth month, in the ninth day of the month, the famine was sore in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land.

7 Then the city was broken up, and all the men of war fled, and went forth out of the city by night, by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden; (now the Chaldeans were by the city round about;) and they went by the way of the plain.

8 But the army of the Chaldeans pursued after the king, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered from him.

9 Then they took the king, and carried him up unto the king of Babylon to Riblah, in the land of Hamath; where he gave judgment upon him.

10 And the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes: he slew also all the princes of Judah in Riblah.

11 Then he put out the eyes of Zedekiah; and the king of Babylon bound him in chains, and carried him to Babylon, and put him in prison till the day of his death.

12 Now in the fifth month, in the tenth day of the month, (which was the nineteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon,) came Nebuzar-adan captain of the guard, which served the king of Babylon, into Jerusalem, 13 And burnt the house of the LORD, and the king's house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, and all the houses of the great men, burnt he with fire.

14 And all the army of the Chaldeans, that were with the captain of the guard, brake down all the walls of Jerusalem round about.

15 Then Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carried away captive certain of the poor of the people, and the residue of the people that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the multitude.

16 But Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard left certain of the poor of the land, for vine-dressers and for husbandmen.

17 Also the pillars of brass that were in the house of the LORD, and the bases, and the brasen sea that was in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans brake, and carried all the brass of them to Babylon.

18 The caldrons also, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the bowls, and the spoons, and all the vessels of brass, wherewith they ministered, took they away.

19 And the basins, and the fire-pans, and the bowls, and the caldrons, and the candlesticks, and the spoons, and the cups; that which was of gold in gold, and that which was of silver in silver, took the captain of the guard away.

20 The two pillars, one sea, and twelve brasen bulls that were under the bases, which king Solomon had made in the house of the

¶ The LAMENTATIONS of JEREMIAH.

CHAP. I.

1 The miserable estate of Jerusalem by reason of her sin: 1<sup>a</sup> She complaineth of her grief, 18 and confesseth her <sup>a</sup> judgment to be righteous.

HOW both the <sup>a</sup> city sit solitary that was full of people! how is she become as a widow! she that was great among the nations, and <sup>b</sup> princess among the provinces, how is she become <sup>c</sup> tributary!

2 She <sup>d</sup> weepeth sore in the night, and her tears are on her cheeks; among <sup>e</sup> all her lovers she hath none to comfort her: all her friends have dealt treacherously with her; they are become her enemies.

3 Judah <sup>f</sup> is gone into captivity, because of affliction, and because of great servitude; she <sup>g</sup> dwelleth among the heathen, she findeth no rest: all her persecutors overtook her between the <sup>h</sup> straits.

4 <sup>i</sup> The ways of Zion do mourn, because none come to the solemn feasts: all her gates are desolate; <sup>k</sup> her priests sigh, her virgins are afflicted, and she is in bitterness.

5 Her adversaries are the <sup>l</sup> chief, her enemies prosper; for the Lord hath afflicted her for the <sup>m</sup> multitude of her transgressions: her children are gone into captivity before the enemy.

6 And from the daughter of Zion <sup>n</sup> all her beauty is departed: her princes are become like harts that find <sup>o</sup> no pasture; and they are gone without strength before the pursuer.

7 Jerusalem remembered in the days of her affliction, and of her miseries, all her <sup>p</sup> pleasant things that she had in the days of old, when her people fell into the hand of the enemy, and none did help her: the adversaries saw her, and did <sup>q</sup> mock at her sabbaths.

8 Jerusalem hath <sup>r</sup> grievously sinned; therefore she is removed: all that honoured her despise her, because they have seen her <sup>s</sup> nakedness; yea, she sigheth, and turneth backward.

9 Her <sup>t</sup> filthiness is in her skirts; she <sup>u</sup> remembereth not her last end; therefore she came down wonderfully: she had no comforter. O LORD, behold my affliction, for the enemy hath <sup>x</sup> magnified himself.

10 The adversary hath spread out his hand upon all her pleasant things: for she hath seen that the <sup>y</sup> heathen entered into her sanctuary, whom thou didst command that they should <sup>z</sup> not enter into thy congregation.

11 All her people sigh, they seek <sup>a</sup> bread; they have given their pleasant things for meat to relieve the soul: see, O LORD, and consider; for I am become <sup>b</sup> vile.

12 Is it nothing to you, all ye that <sup>c</sup> pass by? behold, and see if there be any sorrow like unto my sorrow, which is done unto me, where-with the LORD hath afflicted me in the day of his fierce anger.

13 From <sup>d</sup> above hath he sent fire into my bones, and it prevaileth against them: he hath spread

2 The LORD hath swallowed up all the habitations of Jacob, and hath not pitied: he hath thrown down in his wrath the strong holds of the daughter of Judah; he hath brought them down to the ground: he hath polluted the kingdom, and the princes thereof.

d Mich. 3,

3 He hath cut off in his fierce anger all the horn of Israel; he hath drawn back his right hand from before the enemy, and he burned against Jacob like a flaming fire, which devour-eth round about.

h Ps. 44, 3.

4 He hath bent his bow like an enemy: he stood with his right hand as an adversary, and slew all that were pleasant to the eye in the tabernacle of the daughter of Zion: he poured out his fury like fire.

5 The LORD was as an enemy; he hath swallowed up Israel, he hath swallowed up all her palaces; he hath destroyed his strong holds, and hath increased in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation.

6 And he hath violently taken away his tabernacle, as if it were of a garden; he hath destroyed his places of the assembly: the LORD hath caused the solemn feasts and sabbaths to be forgotten in Zion, and hath despised, in the indignation of his anger, the king and the priest.

7 The LORD hath cast off his altar, he hath abhorred his sanctuary, he hath given up into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces; they have made a noise in the house of the LORD, as in the day of a solemn feast.

8 The LORD hath purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion; he hath stretched out a line, he hath not withdrawn his hand from destroying: therefore he made the rampart and the wall to lament; they languished together.

9 Her gates are sunk into the ground; he hath destroyed and broken her bars; her king and her princes are among the Gentiles: the law is no more; her prophets also find no vision from the LORD.

10 The elders of the daughter of Zion sit upon the ground, and keep silence: they have cast up dust upon their heads; they have girded themselves with sackcloth: the virgins of Jerusalem hang down their heads to the ground.

11 Mine eyes do fail with tears, my bowels are troubled, my liver is poured upon the earth, for the destruction of the daughter of my people; because the children and the sucklings swoon in the streets of the city.

12 They say to their mothers, Where is corn and wine? when they swooned as the wounded in the streets of the city, when their soul was poured out into their mothers' bosom.

13 What thing shall I take to witness for thee? what thing shall I liken to thee, O daughter of Jerusalem? what shall I equal to thee, that I may comfort thee, O virgin daughter of Zion? for thy breach is great like the sea; who can heal thee?

14 Thy prophets have seen vain and foolish things for thee; and they have not discovered thine iniquity, to turn-away thy captivity; but have seen for thee false burdens, and causes of banishment.

15 All that pass by clap their hands at thee; they hiss and wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying, Is this the city that men call The perfection of beauty, The joy of the whole earth?

16 All thine enemies have opened their mouth against thee: they hiss and gnash the teeth:

3 Surely against me is he turned; he turneth his hand against me all the day.

7 He hath <sup>g</sup>hedged me about, that I cannot get out: he hath made my chain heavy.

8 Also when I cry and shout, <sup>h</sup>he shutteth out my prayer.

9 He hath <sup>i</sup>inclosed my ways with hewn stone; he hath made my paths <sup>k</sup>crooked.

10 He was unto me as a <sup>l</sup>bear lying in wait, and as a lion in secret places.

11 He hath turned aside my ways, and <sup>m</sup>pull- ed me in pieces: he hath made me desolate.

12 He hath bent his bow, and set me as <sup>n</sup>a mark for the arrow.

13 He hath caused the <sup>o</sup>arrows of his quiver to enter into my reins.

14 I was <sup>p</sup>a derision to all my people, and their song all the day, 15 He hath filled me with bitterness, he hath made me <sup>a</sup>drunken with wormwood.

16 He hath also <sup>r</sup>broken my teeth with gravel-stones, he hath <sup>s</sup>covered me with ashes.

17 And thou hast removed my soul far off from <sup>t</sup>peace: I forgot prosperity.

18 And <sup>u</sup>I said, My strength and my hope is perished from the LORD:

19 Remembering mine affliction and my misery, the <sup>v</sup>wormwood and the gall.

20 My soul hath them still in remembrance, and is <sup>w</sup>humbled in me.

21 This I recall to my mind, therefore have <sup>x</sup>I hope.

22 It is of the LORD's mercies that we are <sup>y</sup>not consumed, because his compassions fail not.

23 They are new <sup>z</sup>every morning: great is thy faithfulness.

24 The LORD is <sup>a</sup>my portion, saith my soul; <sup>c</sup>Ps. 16, 5: therefore will I hope in him.

25 The LORD is good unto them that <sup>d</sup>wait <sup>d</sup>Ps. 40, 1. for him, to the soul that seeketh him.

26 It is good that a man should both hope <sup>e</sup>and <sup>e</sup>quietly wait for the salvation of the LORD. <sup>e</sup>Isa. 30, 18

27 It is good for a man that <sup>f</sup>he bear the yoke <sup>f</sup>Ps. 94, 12. in his youth.

28 He sitteth alone, and <sup>g</sup>keepeth silence, be- <sup>g</sup>Ps. 39, 9. cause he hath borne it upon him.

29 <sup>h</sup>He putteth his mouth in the dust, if so <sup>h</sup>Job 40, 4. be there may be hope.

30 He giveth his <sup>i</sup>cheek to him that smiteth <sup>i</sup>Isa. 50, 6. him: he is filled full with reproach.

31 For the LORD will <sup>k</sup>not cast off for ever: <sup>k</sup>Ps. 94, 14.

32 But though he cause grief, yet will he have <sup>l</sup>compassion according to the multitude of his <sup>l</sup>Micah 7, 9. mercies.

33 For he doth not afflict <sup>m</sup>willingly, nor <sup>m</sup>Hosea 11, 8. grieve the children of men.

34 To crush under his feet all the <sup>n</sup>prisoners <sup>n</sup>Zech. 1, 15. of the earth,

35 <sup>o</sup>To turn aside the right of a man before <sup>o</sup>Prov. 18, 5. the face of the Most High, 36 To subvert a man in his cause, the LORD <sup>p</sup>approveth not.

37 Who is he that <sup>q</sup>saith, and it cometh to pass, when the LORD commandeth it not? <sup>q</sup>John 19, 10, 11.

40 Let us <sup>t</sup>search and try our ways, and turn <sup>t</sup>Micah 7, 9. again to the LORD. <sup>t</sup>Zeph. 2, 1.

41 Let us lift up our heart with our hands <sup>x</sup>un- <sup>x</sup>Jer. 3, 23. to God in the heavens.

42 We have transgressed, and have <sup>y</sup>rebel- <sup>y</sup>Isa. 1, 2. led: thou hast not pardoned.

43 Thou hast <sup>z</sup>covered with anger, and per- <sup>z</sup>Ps. 88, 7. secuted us: thou hast slain, thou hast not pitied.

44 Thou hast covered thyself with a cloud, <sup>a</sup>verse 8: that our prayer should <sup>a</sup>not pass through.

45 Thou hast made us as the <sup>b</sup>offscouring and <sup>b</sup>1 Cor. 4, 13. refuse in the midst of the people.

1 Zion bewaileth her pitiful estate : 13 She confesseth her sins. 21 Edom is threatened. 22 Zion is comforted.

HOW is the gold become dim! how is the most fine gold changed! the stones of the sanctuary are <sup>a</sup> poured out in the top of every street.

2 The precious sons of Zion, comparable to fine gold, how are they esteemed <sup>b</sup> as earthen pitchers, the work of the hands of the potter!

3 Even the sea-monsters draw out the breast, they give suck to their <sup>c</sup> young ones: the daughter of my people is become cruel, like the ostriches in the wilderness.

4 The tongue of the sucking child cleaveth to the roof of his mouth for thirst; the young children <sup>d</sup> ask bread, and no man breaketh it unto them.

5 They that did feed delicately are desolate in the streets; they that were brought up in scarlet embrace <sup>e</sup> dunghills.

6 For the punishment of the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater <sup>f</sup> than the punishment of the sin of Sodom, that was overthrown as in a moment, and no hands stayed on her.

7 Her <sup>g</sup> Nazarites were purer than snow, they were whiter than milk, they were more ruddy in body than rubies, their polishing was of sapphire:

8 Their visage is <sup>h</sup> blacker than a coal; they are not known in the streets: their skin cleaveth to their bones; it is withered, it is become like a stick.

9 They that be slain with the sword are better than they that be slain with hunger: for these <sup>i</sup> pine away, <sup>k</sup> stricken through for want of the fruits of the field.

10 The hands of the <sup>l</sup> pitiful women have <sup>m</sup> sodden their own children; they were their meat in the destruction of the daughter of my people.

11 The LORD hath accomplished his fury; he hath <sup>n</sup> poured out his fierce anger, and hath <sup>o</sup> kindled a fire in Zion, and it hath devoured the foundations thereof.

12 The kings of the earth, and all the inhabitants of the world, would not have believed that the adversary and the enemy should have <sup>p</sup> entered into the gates of Jerusalem.

13 For the <sup>q</sup> sins of her prophets, and the iniquities of her priests, that have shed the <sup>r</sup> blood of the just in the midst of her,

14 They have wandered <sup>s</sup> as blind men in the streets, they have polluted themselves with blood, so that men could not touch their garments.

15 They cried unto them, <sup>t</sup> Depart ye; it is <sup>u</sup> unclean; depart, depart, touch not: when they fled away and wandered, <sup>v</sup> they said among the heathen, They shall no more sojourn there.

16 The anger of the LORD hath divided them; he will no more regard them: they <sup>x</sup> respected not the persons of the priests, they favoured not the elders.

17 As for us, our eyes as yet <sup>y</sup> failed for our vain help: in our <sup>z</sup> watching we have watched for a nation that could not save us.

18 They hunt our steps, that <sup>a</sup> we cannot go in our streets: our end is near, our days are fulfilled; for <sup>b</sup> our end is come.

19 Our persecutors are <sup>c</sup> swifter than the eagles of the heaven: they pursued us upon the mountains, they laid wait for us in the wilderness.

20 The <sup>d</sup> breath of our nostrils, the anointed of the LORD, was taken in their <sup>e</sup> pits, of whom we said, Under his shadow we shall live among the heathen.

21 ¶ <sup>f</sup> Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Edom, that dwellest in the land of Uz: the <sup>g</sup> cup also shall pass through unto thee; thou shalt be drunken, and shalt make thyself naked.

22 The punishment of thine iniquity is <sup>h</sup> accomplished, O daughter of Zion; he will no <sup>i</sup> more carry thee away into captivity: he will <sup>j</sup> visit thine iniquity, O daughter of Edom; he will discover thy sins.

¶ The Book of the Prophet EZEKIEL.

CHAP. I.

1 The time of Ezekiel's prophecy at Chebar: 4 His vision of four cherubims, 15 of the four wheels, 26 and of the glory of GOD.

cir. 505.

NOW it came to pass in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I was among the captives by the river of Chebar, that the <sup>a</sup> heavens were opened, and I saw <sup>b</sup> visions of God.

2 In the fifth day of the month, (which was the fifth year of king Jehoiachin's captivity,) <sup>c</sup>

3 The word of the LORD <sup>c</sup> came expressly unto Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the <sup>d</sup> Chaldeans, by the river Chebar; and the <sup>e</sup> hand of the LORD was there upon him.

4 And I <sup>f</sup> looked, and, behold, <sup>g</sup> a whirlwind came out of <sup>h</sup> the north, a great cloud, and a fire infolding itself, and a <sup>i</sup> brightness was about it, and out of the midst thereof, as the colour of amber, out of the midst of the fire:

5 Also out of the <sup>k</sup> midst thereof came the likeness of <sup>l</sup> four living creatures. And this was their appearance; they had the likeness of a man.

6 And every one had four faces, and every one had four <sup>m</sup> wings.

7 And their feet were <sup>n</sup> straight feet; and the sole of their feet was like the sole of a <sup>o</sup> calf's foot; and they sparkled like the colour of <sup>p</sup> burnished brass.

8 And they had the <sup>q</sup> hands of a man <sup>r</sup> under their wings, on their four sides; and they four had their faces and their wings.

9 Their wings were <sup>s</sup> joined one to another; they <sup>t</sup> turned not when they went; they went every one <sup>u</sup> straight forward.

10 As for the likeness of their faces, they four had the face of <sup>v</sup> a man, and the face of <sup>w</sup> a lion on the right side; and they four had the face of an <sup>x</sup> ox on the left side; they four also had the face of <sup>y</sup> an eagle.

11 Thus were their faces: and their wings were stretched upward; two wings of every one were joined one to another, and two covered their bodies.

12 And they went every one straight forward: whither the <sup>b</sup> spirit was to go, they went; and they turned not when they went.

13 As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like <sup>c</sup> burning coals of fire, and like the appearance of lamps: <sup>d</sup> it went up and down among the living creatures; and the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning.

14 And the living creatures <sup>e</sup> ran and <sup>f</sup> returned as the appearance of a flash of lightning.

15 Now, as I beheld the living creatures, behold, <sup>g</sup> one wheel upon the <sup>h</sup> earth by the living creatures, with his four faces.

16 The appearance <sup>i</sup> of the wheels and their work was like unto the colour of a beryl; and they four had one likeness: and their appearance and their work was as it were a wheel in the middle of a wheel.

17 When they went, they went upon their four sides; and they returned not when they went.

18 As for their rings, they were so <sup>k</sup> high, that they were dreadful; and their rings were <sup>l</sup> full of eyes round about them four.

19 And when the living creatures went, the wheels went <sup>m</sup> by them; and when the living creatures were lift up from the earth, the <sup>n</sup> wheels were lift up.

20 Whithersoever the spirit was to go, they went, thither was their spirit to go; and the wheels were lifted up over against them: for the spirit of the living creature <sup>o</sup> was in the wheels.

21 When those went, these went; and when those stood, these stood; and when those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up over against them: for <sup>p</sup> the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.

22 And the likeness of the <sup>a</sup> firmament upon the heads of the living creature was as the colour of <sup>a</sup> the terrible crystal, stretched forth over their heads above.

23 And under the firmament were their wings straight, the one toward the other : every one had two, which <sup>a</sup> covered on this side, and every one had two, which covered on that side, their bodies.

24 And when they went, I heard the noise of their wings, like the noise of <sup>a</sup> great waters, as the voice of <sup>a</sup> the Almighty, the voice of speech, as the noise of an host : when they stood, they let down their wings.

25 And there was <sup>a</sup> a voice from the firmament that was over their heads, when they stood, and had let down their wings.

26 And above the firmament that was over their heads was the likeness of a <sup>a</sup> throne, as the appearance of a sapphire-stone : and upon the likeness of the throne was the likeness as the appearance of a man above <sup>a</sup> upon it.

27 And I saw as the colour of amber, as the appearance of <sup>b</sup> fire round about within it ; from the appearance of his loins even upward, and from the appearance of his loins even downward, I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and it had <sup>c</sup> brightness round about.

28 As the appearance of the <sup>d</sup> bow that is in the cloud in the day of <sup>e</sup> rain, so was the appearance of the brightness round about. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the LORD. And when I saw it, <sup>f</sup> I fell upon my face, and I <sup>g</sup> heard a voice of one that spake.

1 Ezekiel's commission : 6 His instruction : 9 The roll of his heavy prophecy.

AND he said unto me, <sup>a</sup> Son of man, <sup>b</sup> stand upon thy feet, and I will speak unto thee.

2 And the spirit <sup>c</sup> entered into me <sup>d</sup> when he spake unto me, and <sup>e</sup> set me upon my feet, that I heard him that spake unto me.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, <sup>f</sup> I send thee to the children of Israel, to a rebellious <sup>g</sup> nation that hath rebelled against me : they and <sup>h</sup> their fathers have transgressed against me, even unto this very day.

4 For they are impudent children, and <sup>b</sup> stiff-hearted : I do send thee unto them ; and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God.

5 And they, <sup>i</sup> whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear ; (for they are a rebellious house,) yet <sup>k</sup> shall know that there hath been a prophet among them.

6 And thou, son of man, <sup>l</sup> be not afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though <sup>m</sup> briars and thorns be with thee, and thou dost dwell among scorpions : he not afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house.

7 And thou shalt speak <sup>n</sup> my words unto them, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear ; for they are <sup>o</sup> most rebellious.

8 But thou, son of man, hear what I say unto thee : Be not thou rebellious like that rebellious house : open thy mouth, <sup>p</sup> and eat that I give thee.

9 And when I looked, behold, an hand was sent unto me ; and, lo, a roll of a book was therein ;

10 And <sup>q</sup> he spread it before me : and it was written within and without ; and there was written therein <sup>r</sup> lamentations, and mourning, and wo.

C H A P. III.

1 Ezekiel eateth the roll. 4 God encourageth him. 15 God sheweth him the rule of prophecy. 22 God shutteth and openeth the prophet's mouth.

MOREOVER, he said unto me, Son of man, eat that thou findest : <sup>a</sup> eat this <sup>b</sup> roll, and go speak unto the house of Israel.

2 So I <sup>c</sup> opened my mouth, and he <sup>d</sup> caused me to eat that roll.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, cause <sup>e</sup> thy belly to eat, and <sup>f</sup> fill thy bowels with this roll that I give thee. Then did I <sup>g</sup> eat it ; and it was in my mouth <sup>h</sup> as honey for sweetness.

4 And he said unto me, Son of man, go, get thee unto the house of Israel, and speak with my words unto them.

5 For thou art not sent to a people of <sup>i</sup> a strange speech, and of an hard language, but to the house of Israel :

6 Not to many people of a strange speech, and of an hard language, whose words thou canst not understand : surely, had I sent thee to them, <sup>k</sup> they would have hearkened unto thee.

7 But the house of Israel will not hearken unto thee ; for they will not hearken <sup>l</sup> unto me : for all the house of Israel are <sup>m</sup> impudent and hard-hearted.

8 Behold, I have made thy <sup>n</sup> face strong against their faces, and thy forehead strong against their foreheads.

9 As an adamant, <sup>o</sup> harder than flint, have I made thy forehead : fear them not, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house.

10 Moreover, he said unto me, Son of man, <sup>p</sup> all my words that I shall speak unto thee receive in <sup>q</sup> thine heart, and hear with thine ears.

11 And go, get thee to them of the captivity, unto <sup>r</sup> thy people, and speak unto them, and tell them, Thus saith the Lord God, <sup>s</sup> whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear.

12 Then the <sup>t</sup> spirit took me up, and I heard behind me a voice of a great rushing, saying, Blessed be the <sup>u</sup> glory of the Lord from <sup>v</sup> his place.

13 I heard also the noise of the wings of the living creatures that touched one another, and the noise of the wheels over against them, and a noise of a <sup>w</sup> great rushing.

14 So the spirit lifted me up, and took me away, and I went <sup>x</sup> in bitterness, <sup>y</sup> in the heat of my spirit ; but the <sup>z</sup> hand of the Lord was strong upon me.

15 ¶ Then I came to them of the captivity at Tel-abib, that dwelt by <sup>a</sup> the river of Chebar,

Before CHRIST 595. and I sat where they sat, and remained there <sup>d</sup> astonished among them <sup>e</sup> seven days.

16 And it came to pass, <sup>f</sup> at the end of seven days, that <sup>g</sup> the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

17 Son of man, <sup>h</sup> I have made thee <sup>i</sup> a watchman unto the house of Israel: therefore hear the word <sup>k</sup> at my mouth, and give them <sup>l</sup> warning <sup>m</sup> from me.

18 When I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; and thou givest him not warning, nor speakest to warn the wicked from his wicked way, <sup>n</sup> to save his life; the same wicked man shall <sup>o</sup> die in his iniquity: but his <sup>p</sup> blood will I require at thine hand.

19 Yet if thou warn the wicked, and he turn not from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity: but thou hast delivered <sup>q</sup> thy soul.

20 Again, when <sup>r</sup> a righteous man doth turn from his <sup>s</sup> righteousness, and commit iniquity, and I lay <sup>t</sup> a stumbling-block before him, he shall die: because thou hast not given him warning, he shall die in his sin, and his righteousness which he hath done shall not be remembered; but his blood will I require at <sup>u</sup> thine hand.

21 Nevertheless, if thou warn the righteous man, that the righteous <sup>v</sup> sin not, and he doth not sin, he shall surely <sup>w</sup> live, because he is warned: also thou hast delivered thy soul.

22 ¶ And the <sup>x</sup> hand of the Lord was there upon me; and he said unto me, Arise, go forth into the plain, and I will <sup>y</sup> there talk with thee.

23 Then I arose, and went forth into the plain; and, behold, the <sup>z</sup> glory of the Lord stood there, as the glory which I saw by the river of Chebar: and I <sup>aa</sup> fell on my face.

24 Then the <sup>ab</sup> spirit entered into me, and set me upon my feet, and spake with me, and said unto me, Go, shut thyself within thine house.

25 But thou, O son of man, behold, <sup>ac</sup> they shall put bands upon thee, and shall <sup>ad</sup> bind thee with them, and thou shalt not go out among them:

26 And I will make thy tongue cleave to the roof of thy mouth, that thou shalt <sup>ae</sup> be dumb, and shalt not be to them <sup>af</sup> a reprover; for they are a rebellious house.

27 But when I speak with thee, I will <sup>ag</sup> open thy mouth, and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God, He that <sup>ah</sup> heareth, let him hear; and he that <sup>ai</sup> forbeareth, let him forbear: for they are a rebellious house.

1 Under the type of hair, is shewed the judgment of Jerusalem for their rebellion, <sup>bi</sup> 12 by famine, sword, and dispersion.

AND thou, son of man, take thee a sharp knife, take thee a barber's <sup>bj</sup> razor, and cause it to pass upon thine head, and upon thy beard; then then take thee balances to <sup>b</sup> weigh, and divide the hair.

2 Thou shalt <sup>c</sup> burn with fire a third part in the midst of the city, when the days of the siege are fulfilled; and thou shalt take a third part, and smite about it with a knife; and a third part thou shalt <sup>d</sup> scatter in the wind: and I will draw out a sword after them.

3 Thou shalt also take thereof <sup>e</sup> a few in number, and bind them in thy skirts.

4 Then take of them again, and cast them into the midst of the fire, and burn them in the fire; for thereof shall <sup>f</sup> a fire come forth into all the house of Israel.

5 Thus saith the Lord God, This <sup>is</sup> <sup>g</sup> Jerusalem: I <sup>h</sup> have set it in the midst of the nations and countries that are round about her.

6 And she hath <sup>i</sup> changed my judgments into wickedness <sup>k</sup> more than the nations, and my statutes more than the countries that are round about her; for they have refused my judgments and my statutes, they have not walked in them.

7 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Because ye <sup>l</sup> multiplied more than the nations that are round about you, and have not walked in my statutes, neither have kept my judgments, neither have done <sup>m</sup> according to the judgments of the nations that are round about you;

8 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold <sup>n</sup> I, even I, <sup>o</sup> am against thee, and will execute judgments in the midst of thee, in the sight of the nations.

9 And I will do in thee that which I have not <sup>p</sup> done, and whereunto I will not do any more the like; because of all thine abominations.

10 Therefore the fathers shall <sup>q</sup> eat the sons in the midst of thee, and the sons shall eat their fathers; and I will execute judgments in thee, and the <sup>r</sup> whole remnant of thee will I <sup>s</sup> scatter into all the winds.

11 Wherefore, as I live, saith the Lord God, Surely, because thou hast <sup>t</sup> defiled my sanctuary with all thy detestable things, and with all thine abominations, therefore will I also diminish thee; neither shall <sup>u</sup> mine eye spare, neither will I have any pity.

12 A third part of thee shall die with the <sup>v</sup> pestilence, and with <sup>w</sup> famine shall they be consumed in the midst of thee; and a third part shall fall by the <sup>x</sup> sword round about thee; and I will scatter a third part into all the winds; and I will draw out a sword after them.

13 Thus shall mine <sup>y</sup> anger be accomplished, and I will cause my fury to rest upon them, and I will be <sup>z</sup> comforted: and they shall <sup>a</sup> know that I the Lord have spoken it in my zeal, when I have accomplished my fury in them.

14 Moreover, I will make <sup>b</sup> thee waste, and <sup>c</sup> a reproach among the nations that are round about thee, in the sight of all that pass by.

15 So it shall be a reproach and a taunt, <sup>d</sup> an instruction and an astonishment, unto the nations that are round about thee, when I shall execute judgments in thee, in anger and in fury, and in <sup>e</sup> furious rebukes. I the Lord have spoken it.

16 When I shall send upon them the evil <sup>f</sup> arrows of famine, which shall be for <sup>g</sup> their destruction, and which I will send to destroy you: and I will increase the famine upon you, and will break your <sup>h</sup> staff of bread.

17 So will I send upon you famine, and <sup>i</sup> evil beasts, and they shall bereave thee; and pestilence and blood shall pass through thee; and I will bring the sword upon thee. I the Lord have spoken it.

CHAPTER VI.

1 The judgment of Israel for their idolatry. 8 A remnant shall be saved. 11 The faithful are exhorted to lament their calamities.

AND the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, <sup>a</sup> set thy face towards the <sup>b</sup> mountains of Israel, and-prophecy against them.

3 And say, Ye <sup>c</sup> mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord God; Thus saith the Lord God to the mountains and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, Behold I, <sup>d</sup> even I, will bring a sword upon you, and I will destroy your <sup>e</sup> high places;

4 And your altars shall be desolate, and your <sup>f</sup> images shall be broken; and I will cast down your slain men before your idols.

5 And I will lay the dead carcasses of the children of Israel before their idols; and I will <sup>g</sup> scatter your bones round about your altars.

6 In all your dwelling-places the cities shall be <sup>h</sup> laid waste, and the high places shall be desolate; that your altars may be laid waste and made desolate, and your idols may be broken and cease, and <sup>i</sup> your images may be cut down, and your works may be abolished.

7 And the slain shall <sup>j</sup> fall in the midst of you; and ye shall <sup>k</sup> know that I am the Lord.

8 Yet will I leave <sup>l</sup> a remnant, that ye may have some that shall escape the sword among the nations; when ye shall be scattered through the countries.

9 And they that escape of you shall remember me among the nations, whither they shall be carried captives, because I am <sup>m</sup> broken with their <sup>n</sup> whorish heart, which hath departed from me, and with their <sup>o</sup> eyes, which go a whoring after their idols: and they shall <sup>p</sup> loathe themselves for the evils which they have committed in all their abominations.

10 And they shall know that I am the Lord, and that I have <sup>q</sup> not said in vain that I would do this evil unto them.

11 Thus saith the Lord God, <sup>r</sup> Smite with thine hand, and <sup>s</sup> stamp with thy foot, and say, <sup>t</sup> Alas, for all the evil abominations of the house of Israel! for they shall fall by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence.

12 He that is far off shall die of the pestilence; and he that is near shall fall by the sword; and he that remaineth and is besieged shall die by the famine: thus will I accomplish my fury upon them.

13 Then shall ye know that I am the Lord, when their slain men shall be <sup>u</sup> among their idols

C H A P. VII.

1 The final desolation of Israel: 16 The mournful repentance of them that escape. 20 The enemies defile the sanctuary because of the Israelites' abominations. 23 Under the type of a chain is shewed their miserable captivity.

MOREOVER, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Also, thou son of man, thus saith the Lord God unto the land of Israel, An end, the end is come upon the four corners of the land.

3 Now is the end come upon thee, and I will send mine anger upon thee, and will judge thee according to thy ways, and will recompense upon thee all thine abominations.

4 And mine eye shall not spare thee, neither will I have pity: but I will recompense thy ways upon thee, and thine abominations shall be in the midst of thee; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

5 Thus saith the Lord God, An evil, an only evil, behold, is come.

6 An end is come, the end is come: it watcheth for thee; behold, it is come.

7 The morning is come unto thee, O thou that dwellest in the land: the time is come, the day of trouble is near, and not the sounding again of the mountains.

8 Now will I shortly pour out my fury upon thee, and accomplish mine anger upon thee; and I will judge thee according to thy ways, and will recompense thee for all thine abominations.

9 And mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: I will recompense thee according to thy ways, and thine abominations that are in the midst of thee; and ye shall know that I am the LORD that smiteth.

10 Behold the day, behold, it is come; the morning is gone forth; the rod hath blossomed; pride hath budded.

11 Violence is risen up into a rod of wickedness: none of them shall remain, nor of their multitude, nor of any of theirs; neither shall there be wailing for them.

12 The time is come, the day draweth near: let not the buyer rejoice, nor the seller mourn; for wrath is upon all the multitude thereof.

13 For the seller shall not return to that which is sold, although they were yet alive: for the vision is touching the whole multitude thereof, which shall not return; neither shall any strengthen himself in the iniquity of his life.

14 They have blown the trumpet, even to make all ready; but none goeth to the battle: for my wrath is upon all the multitude thereof.

15 The sword is without, and the pestilence and the famine within: he that is in the field shall die with the sword; and he that is in the city, famine and pestilence shall devour him.

16 But they that escape of them shall escape, and shall be on the mountains like doves of the valleys, all of them mourning, every one for his iniquity.

17 All hands shall be feeble, and all knees shall be weak as water.

18 They shall also gird themselves with sackcloth, and horror shall cover them; and shame shall be upon all faces, and baldness upon all their heads.

19 They shall cast their silver in the streets, and their gold shall be removed: their silver and their gold shall not be able to deliver them in the day of the wrath of the LORD: they shall not satisfy their souls, neither fill their bowels; because it is the stumbling-block of their iniquity.

20 As for the beauty of his ornament, he set it in majesty; but they made the images of their abominations, and of their detestable things therein: therefore have I set it far from them.

21 And I will give it into the hands of the strangers for a prey, and to the wicked of the earth for a spoil; and they shall pollute it.

22 My face will I turn also from them, and they shall pollute my secret place: for the robbers shall enter into it, and defile it.

23 Make a chain; for the land is full of bloody crimes, the city is full of violence.

24 Wherefore I will bring the worst of the heathen, and they shall possess their houses: I will also make the pomp of the strong to cease, and their holy places shall be defiled.

25 Destruction cometh; and they shall seek peace, and there shall be none.

26 Mischief shall come upon mischief, and rumour shall be upon rumour; then shall they seek a vision of the prophet: but the law shall perish from the priest, and counsel from the ancients.

27 The king shall mourn, and the prince shall be clothed with desolation, and the bands of the people of the land shall be troubled: I will do unto them after their way, and according to their deserts will I judge them; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

1 Ezekiel, in a vision of God at Jerusalem, 5 is shewed the image of jealousy, 7 the chambers of imagery, 13 the mourners for Tammuz, 15 the worshippers towards the sun. 18 God's wrath for their idolatry.

AND it came to pass in the sixth year, in the sixth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I sat in mine house, and the elders of Judah sat before me, that the hand of the Lord God fell there upon me.

2 Then I beheld, and, lo, a likeness as the appearance of fire: from the appearance of his loins, even downward, fire; and from his loins, even upward, as the appearance of brightness, as the colour of amber.

3 And he put forth the form of an hand, and took me by a lock of mine head, and the spirit lift me up * between the earth and the heaven, and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the inner gate that looketh toward the north, where was the seat of the <sup>h</sup> image of jealousy, which <sup>i</sup> provoketh to jealousy.

4 And, behold, the <sup>k</sup> glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the vision that I saw in the plain.

5 Then said he unto me, Son of man, <sup>m</sup> lift up thine eyes now the way towards the north. So I lift up mine eyes the way toward the north, and behold, northward at the gate of the altar, this image of jealousy in the entry.

6 He said, furthermore, unto me, Son of man, seest thou what they do? even the great abominations that the house of Israel committeth here, that <sup>n</sup> I should go far off from my sanctuary? But turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations.

7 And he brought me to the <sup>o</sup> door of the court; and when I looked, behold, <sup>p</sup> a hole in the wall.

8 Then said he unto me, Son of man, <sup>q</sup> dig now in the wall: and when I had digged in the wall, behold, a door.

9 And he said unto me, Go in, and behold the wicked abominations that they do here.

10 So I went in and saw; and, behold, every form of creeping things, and <sup>r</sup> abominable beasts, and all the † idols of the house of Israel, poured trayed upon the wall round about.

11 And there stood before them seventy men of the ancients of the house of Israel, and in the midst of them stood Jaazaniah the son <sup>s</sup> of Shaphan, with every man his censer in his hand; and a thick cloud of <sup>t</sup> incense went up.

12 Then said he unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen what the ancients of the house of Israel do in the <sup>u</sup> dark, every man in the chambers of his imagery? for they say, The LORD <sup>v</sup> seeth us not; the LORD hath <sup>y</sup> forsaken the earth.

13 He said also unto me, Turn thee yet again, and thou shalt <sup>z</sup> see greater abominations that they do.

14 Then he brought me to the door of the gate of the LORD's house which was towards the north; and, behold, there sat <sup>a</sup> women weeping for <sup>b</sup> Tammuz.

15 Then said he unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? Turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations than these.

16 And he brought me into the inner court of the LORD's house; and, behold, at the door of the temple of the LORD, <sup>c</sup> between the porch and the altar, were about <sup>d</sup> five and twenty men, with their <sup>e</sup> backs toward the temple of the LORD, and their faces towards the east; and they worshipped the <sup>f</sup> sun towards the east.

17 Then he said unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations which they commit <sup>g</sup> here? for they have <sup>h</sup> filled the land with violence, and have returned to provoke me to anger; and, lo, they put the branch <sup>i</sup> to their nose.

18 Therefore will I also deal <sup>k</sup> in fury: mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity; and though they <sup>l</sup> cry in mine ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them.

3 And the <sup>t</sup> glory of the God of Israel was gone up from the cherub, whereupon he was, to the <sup>u</sup> threshold of the house: and he called to the man clothed with linen, which had the writer's ink-horn by his side;

4 And the LORD said unto him, Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and set <sup>v</sup> a mark upon the foreheads of the men that <sup>w</sup> sigh, and that cry, for all the abominations that be done in the midst thereof.

5 And to the others he said in mine hearing, Go ye <sup>x</sup> after him through the city, and smite; let not your eye spare, neither have ye pity:

6 Slay utterly old and young, both maids, and little children, and women; but <sup>y</sup> come not near any man upon whom is the mark; and <sup>z</sup> begin at my sanctuary. Then they began at <sup>a</sup> the ancient men which were before the house.

7 And he said unto them, <sup>b</sup> Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain; go ye forth. And they went forth, and slew in the city.

8 And it came to pass, while they were slaying them, and I was left, that <sup>c</sup> I fell upon my face, and cried, and said, <sup>d</sup> Ah, Lord God! wilt thou destroy all the residue of Israel in thy pouring out of thy fury upon Jerusalem?

9 Then said he unto me, The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is <sup>e</sup> exceeding great, and the land is full of <sup>f</sup> blood, and the city full of <sup>g</sup> perverseness; for they say, The LORD hath forsaken the earth, and the LORD <sup>h</sup> seeth not.

10 And as for me also, mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity; but I will <sup>i</sup> recompense their way upon their head.

11 And, behold, the man clothed with linen, which had the ink-horn by his side, reported the matter, saying, I have <sup>j</sup> done as thou hast commanded me.

2 And he spake unto the man clothed with linen, and said, Go in between the wheels, even under the cherub, and fill thine hand with coals of fire from between the cherubims, and scatter them over the city. And he went in in my sight.

3 Now the cherubims stood on the right side of the house when the man went in; and the cloud filled the inner court.

4 Then the glory of the Lord went up from the cherub, and stood over the threshold of the house; and the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of the Lord's glory.

5 And the sound of the cherubims' wings was heard even to the outer court, as the voice of the Almighty God when he speaketh.

6 And it came to pass, that when he had commanded the man clothed with linen, saying, Take fire from between the wheels, from between the cherubims; then he went in, and stood beside the wheels.

7 And one cherub stretched forth his hand from between the cherubims unto the fire that was between the cherubims, and took thereof, and put it into the hands of him that was clothed with linen; who took it, and went out.

8 And there appeared in the cherubims the form of a man's hand under their wings.

9 And when I looked, behold, the four wheels by the cherubims, one wheel by one cherub, and another wheel by another cherub: and the appearance of the wheels was as the colour of a beryl-stone.

10 And as for their appearances, they four had one likeness, as if a wheel had been in the midst of a wheel.

11 When they went, they went upon their four sides; they turned not as they went, but to the place whither the head looked they followed it; they turned not as they went.

12 And their whole body, and their backs, and their hands, and their wings, and the wheels, were full of eyes round about, even the wheels, that they four had.

13 As for the wheels, it was cried unto them in my hearing, O wheel!

14 And every one had four faces: the first face was the face of a cherub, and the second face was the face of a man, and the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.

15 And the cherubims were lifted up. This is the living creature that I saw by the river of Chebar.

16 And when the cherubims went, the wheels went by them; and when the cherubims lift up their wings, to mount up from the earth, the same wheels also turned not from beside them.

17 When they stood, these stood; and when they were lifted up, these lift up themselves also: for the spirit of the living creature was in them.

20 This is the living creature that I saw under the God of Israel, by the river of Chebar; and I knew that they were the cherubims.

21 Every one had four faces apiece, and every one four wings; and the likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings.

executed my judgments, but have done <sup>a</sup> after the manners of the heathen that are round about you.

13 And it came to pass, when I <sup>v</sup> prophesied, that Pelatiah, the son of Benaiah, <sup>z</sup> died: then fell I <sup>a</sup> down upon my face, and cried with a loud voice, and said, Ah Lord God! wilt thou make a full end of the remnant of Israel?

14 <sup>b</sup> Again the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

15 Son of man, thy brethren, even thy brethren, the men of thy kindred, and all the house of Israel wholly, are they <sup>c</sup> unto whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have <sup>d</sup> said, <sup>e</sup> Get ye far from the Lord; unto <sup>e</sup> us is this land given in possession.

16 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord God, Although I have <sup>f</sup> cast them far off among the heathen, and although I have scattered them among the countries, yet will I be to them as <sup>g</sup> a little sanctuary in the countries where they shall come.

17 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord God, I will even <sup>h</sup> gather you from the people, and assemble you out of the countries where ye have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel.

18 And they shall come thither, and they shall <sup>i</sup> take away all the detestable things thereof, and all the abominations thereof, from thence.

19 And I will give them <sup>k</sup> one heart, and I will put a new spirit within you; and I will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them an heart of flesh;

20 That they may walk in my statutes, and keep mine ordinances, and <sup>l</sup> do them: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God.

21 But as for them <sup>m</sup> whose heart walketh after the heart of their detestable things and their abominations, I will recompense their way upon their own head, saith the Lord God.

22 Then did the cherubims lift up their wings, and the wheels beside them; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above.

23 And the <sup>n</sup> glory of the Lord went up from the midst of the city, and <sup>o</sup> stood upon the mountain which is on the east side of the city.

24 Afterwards the spirit took me up, and brought me in vision by the <sup>p</sup> Spirit of God into Chaldea, to them of the captivity: so the vision that I had seen went up from me.

25 Then I spake unto them of the captivity <sup>q</sup> all the things that the Lord had shewed me.

THE word of the Lord also came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, thou dwellest in the midst of <sup>a</sup> a rebellious house, which have eyes to see, and <sup>b</sup> see not; they have ears to hear, and hear not: for they are a rebellious house.

3 Therefore, thou son of man, prepare thee stuff for removing, and remove <sup>c</sup> by day in their sight; and thou shalt remove from thy place to another place in their sight: it may be they will consider, though they be a rebellious house.

4 Then shalt thou bring forth thy stuff by day in their sight, as stuff for removing: and thou shalt go forth <sup>d</sup> at even in their sight, as they that go forth into captivity.

5 <sup>e</sup> Dig thou through the wall in their sight, and carry out thereby.

6 In their sight shalt thou bear it upon thy shoulders, and carry it forth in the twilight: thou shalt <sup>f</sup> cover thy face, that thou see not the ground; for I have set thee <sup>g</sup> a sign unto the house of Israel.

7 And I <sup>h</sup> did so as I was commanded: I brought forth my stuff by day, as stuff for captivity, and in the even I digged through the wall <sup>i</sup> with mine hand; I brought it forth in the twilight, and I bare it upon my shoulder in their sight.

8 And in the morning came the word of the Lord unto me, saying,

9 Son of man, hath not the house of Israel, the rebellious house, said unto thee, <sup>k</sup> What doest thou?

10 Say thou unto them, Thus saith the Lord God, This <sup>l</sup> burden concerneth the <sup>m</sup> prince in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel that are among them.

11 Say, I am <sup>n</sup> your sign: like as I have done, so shall it be done unto them; they shall <sup>o</sup> remove, and go into captivity.

12 And the prince that is among them shall bear upon his shoulder in the twilight, and shall go forth; they shall dig through the wall to carry out thereby: he shall cover his face, that he see not the ground with his eyes.

13 My <sup>p</sup> net also will I spread upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare: and I will bring him to Babylon, to the land of the Chaldeans; yet shall <sup>q</sup> he not see it, though he shall die there.

14 And I will <sup>r</sup> scatter toward every wind all that are about him to help him, and all his bands; and I will draw out the sword after them.

15 And they shall <sup>s</sup> know that I am the Lord, when I shall scatter them among the nations, and disperse them in the countries.

16 But I will leave a few men of them from the sword, from the famine, and from the pestilence, that they may <sup>t</sup> declare all their abominations among the heathen whither they come; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

17 <sup>u</sup> Moreover, the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

18 Son of man, eat thy bread with quaking, and drink thy water with <sup>v</sup> trembling and with carefulness;

19 And say unto the people of the land, Thus saith the Lord God of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and of the land of Israel, They shall eat their bread with carefulness, and drink their water with astonishment, that her land may be <sup>w</sup> desolate from all that is therein, because of the violence of them that dwell therein.

23 Tell them therefore, Thus saith the Lord God, I will make this proverb to cease, and they shall no more use it as a proverb in Israel; but say unto them, The <sup>2</sup> days are at hand, and the effect of every vision.

C H A P. XIII.

1 The reproof of lying prophets, 10 and their untempered mortar. 17 Of prophetesses and their pillows.

AND the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel, that prophesy, and say thou unto them that prophesy <sup>a</sup> out of their own hearts, Hear ye the word of the Lord;

3 Thus saith the Lord God, <sup>b</sup> Wo unto the foolish prophets that follow their own spirit, and have seen <sup>c</sup> nothing.

4 O Israel, thy prophets are like the <sup>d</sup> foxes in the deserts.

5 Ye have not gone up into <sup>e</sup> the gaps, neither made up the hedge for the house of Israel, to stand in the <sup>f</sup> battle in the day of the Lord.

6 They have seen <sup>g</sup> vanity and lying divination, saying, The Lord saith; and the Lord hath not sent them: and they have made <sup>h</sup> others to hope that they would confirm the word.

7 Have ye not seen <sup>i</sup> a vain vision, and have ye not spoken a lying divination, whereas ye say, The Lord saith it; albeit I have not spoken?

8 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Because ye have spoken vanity, and seen lies, therefore, behold, <sup>k</sup> I am against you, <sup>l</sup> saith the Lord God.

9 And mine hand shall be upon the prophets that see vanity, and that divine lies: they shall not be in the assembly of my people, neither shall they be written in the <sup>m</sup> writing of the house of Israel, neither shall they <sup>n</sup> enter into the land of Israel; and ye shall know that I am the Lord God.

10 Because, <sup>o</sup> even because they have <sup>p</sup> seduced my people, saying, Peace, and there was no peace; and one built up a wall, and, lo, others daubed it with <sup>q</sup> untempered mortar.

11 Say unto them which daub it with untempered mortar, that it shall fall: there shall be an <sup>r</sup> overflowing shower; and ye, <sup>s</sup> O great hailstones, shall fall; and a stormy wind shall rend it.

12 Lo, when the wall is fallen, shall it not <sup>t</sup> be said unto you, Where is <sup>u</sup> the daubing wherewith ye have daubed it?

13 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, I will even rend it with a stormy wind in my fury; and there shall be an overflowing shower in mine anger, and great hailstones, in my fury, to consume it.

14 So will I break down the wall that ye have daubed with untempered mortar, and bring it down to the ground, so that the <sup>x</sup> foundation thereof shall be discovered, and it shall fall, and ye shall be consumed in the midst thereof: and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

15 Thus will I <sup>y</sup> accomplish my wrath upon the wall, and upon them that have daubed it with untempered mortar; and will say unto you, The wall is <sup>z</sup> no more, neither they that daubed it;

16 To wit, the prophets of Israel, which prophesy concerning Jerusalem, and which see visions of <sup>a</sup> peace for her, and there is no <sup>b</sup> peace, saith the Lord God.

17 ¶ Likewise, thou son of man, set thy face against the <sup>c</sup> daughters of thy people, which prophesy out of their own heart; and prophesy thou against them,

18 And say, Thus saith the Lord God, Wo to the women that sew <sup>d</sup> pillows to all arm-holes, and <sup>e</sup> make kerchiefs upon the head of every stature, to hunt souls! Will ye <sup>f</sup> hunt the souls of my people, and will ye save the souls alive that come unto you?

19 And will ye pollute me among my people for <sup>g</sup> handfuls of barley, and for pieces of bread, to slay the souls that should not die, and to save the souls alive that should not live, by your lying to my people <sup>h</sup> that hear your lies?

20 Wherefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I am against your pillows, wherewith ye there hunt the souls <sup>i</sup> to make them fly; and I will tear them from your arms, and will let the souls go, even the souls that ye hunt to make them fly.

21 Your kerchiefs also will I tear, and deliver my people out of your hand, and they shall be no more in your hand to be hunted; and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

22 Because with lies ye have made the heart of the righteous sad, whom I have not made sad; and <sup>j</sup> strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, by <sup>k</sup> promising him life;

23 Therefore ye shall see no more vanity, nor <sup>l</sup> divine divinations: for I will deliver my people out of your hand; and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

8 And I will make the land <sup>a</sup>desolate, because they have committed a trespass, saith the Lord God.

C H A P. XVI.

1 Under the similitude of a wretched infant, is shewed the natural state of Jerusalem. 6 God's extraordinary love towards her. 15 Her monstrous whoredom. 35 Her grievous judgment. 41 Her sin, matching her mother, and exceeding her sisters Sodom and Samaria, calleth for judgments. 60 Mercy is promised her in the end.

A GAIN the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, <sup>a</sup>cause Jerusalem to know her abominations,

3 And say, Thus saith the Lord God unto Jerusalem, Thy <sup>a</sup>birth and thy nativity is of the land of Canaan: thy father was an Amorite, and thy mother an Hittite.

4 And as for thy nativity, in the day thou wast <sup>a</sup>born, thy navel was not cut, neither wast thou washed in water to supple thee: thou wast not <sup>d</sup>salted at all, nor swaddled at all.

5 None eye pitied thee, to do any of these unto thee, to have compassion upon thee; but thou wast cast out in the open field, to the <sup>e</sup>loathing of thy person, in the day that thou wast born.

6 And when I passed by thee, and saw thee polluted in thine own <sup>f</sup>blood, I said unto thee, when thou wast in thy blood, Live; yea, I said unto thee, when thou wast in thy blood, <sup>g</sup>Live.

7 I have caused thee to <sup>h</sup>multiply as the bud of the field, and thou hast increased and waxen great, and thou art come to excellent ornaments: thy <sup>i</sup>breasts are fashioned, and thine hair is grown, whereas thou wast <sup>k</sup>naked and bare.

8 Now when I passed by thee, and looked upon thee, behold, thy time was the time of <sup>l</sup>love; and I spread my skirt over thee, and covered thy nakedness: yea, I swore unto thee, and entered into a covenant with thee, saith the Lord God, and thou becamest <sup>m</sup>mine.

9 Then <sup>n</sup>washed I thee with water; yea, I thoroughly washed away thy blood from thee, and I <sup>o</sup>anointed thee with oil.

10 I clothed thee also with <sup>p</sup>brodered work, and <sup>q</sup>shod thee with badgers' skin, and I girded thee about with fine linen, and I <sup>r</sup>covered thee with silk.

11 I decked thee also with ornaments, and I put bracelets upon thine hands, and <sup>s</sup>a chain on thy neck.

12 And I put a jewel on thy forehead, and ear-rings in thine ears, and <sup>t</sup>a beautiful crown upon thine head.

13 Thus wast thou <sup>u</sup>decked with gold and silver; and thy raiment was of fine linen, and silk, and brodered work: thou didst eat fine flour, and honey, and oil; and thou wast exceeding <sup>v</sup>beautiful, and thou didst prosper into a kingdom.

14 And thy <sup>w</sup>renown went forth among the heathen for thy beauty: for it was perfect through my comeliness, which <sup>x</sup>I had put upon thee, saith the Lord God.

15 <sup>y</sup>But thou didst trust in thine own beauty, and <sup>z</sup>playedst the harlot because of thy renown, and <sup>a</sup>pouredst out thy fornications on every one that passed by; his it was.

16 And of thy garments thou didst take, and deckedst thy <sup>b</sup>high places with divers colours, and playedst the harlot thereupon: the like things shall not come, neither shall it be so.

17 Thou hast also <sup>c</sup>taken thy fair jewels of my gold and of my silver, which I had given thee, and madest to thyself images of men, and didst commit whoredom with them;

18 And tookest thy brodered garments, and coveredst them: and thou hast set mine <sup>d</sup>oil and mine <sup>e</sup>incense before them.

19 My meat also which I gave thee, fine flour, and oil, and honey, <sup>f</sup>wherewith I fed thee, thou hast even set it before them for a sweet savour: and thus it was, saith the Lord God.

20 Moreover, thou hast taken thy sons and thy daughters, whom thou hast <sup>g</sup>borne unto me, and these hast thou <sup>h</sup>sacrificed unto them to be devoured. Is this of thy whoredoms a small matter, 21 That thou hast slain my children, and delivered them to cause them <sup>i</sup>to pass through the fire for them?

22 And in all thine abominations and thy whoredoms thou hast <sup>j</sup>not remembered the days of thy youth, when thou wast naked and bare, and wast polluted in thy blood.

23 And it came to pass, after all thy wickedness, (<sup>k</sup>wo, wo unto thee! saith the Lord God,) 24 That thou hast also built unto thee <sup>l</sup>an eminent place, and hast made thee an high place in every street.

25 Thou hast built thy high place at every <sup>m</sup>head of the way, and hast made <sup>n</sup>thy beauty to be abhorred, and hast opened thy feet to every one that passed by, and multiplied thy whoredoms.

26 Thou hast also committed fornication with the <sup>o</sup>Egyptians thy neighbours, great of flesh; and hast increased thy whoredoms, to provoke me to anger.

27 Behold, therefore, I have stretched out my hand over thee, and have diminished thine ordinary food, and delivered thee unto the will of them that hate thee, the daughters of the Philistines, which are <sup>p</sup>ashamed of thy <sup>q</sup>lewd way.

28 Thou hast played the whore also with the <sup>r</sup>Assyrians, because thou wast unsatiable; yea, thou hast played the harlot with them, and yet couldest not be satisfied.

29 Thou hast, moreover, multiplied thy fornication in the land of Canaan unto <sup>s</sup>Chaldea, and yet thou wast not satisfied herewith.

30 How <sup>t</sup>weak is thine heart, saith the Lord God, seeing thou doest all these things, the <sup>u</sup>work of an imperious whorish woman;

31 In that thou buildest thine eminent place in the head of every way, and makest thine high place in every street; and hast not been as an <sup>v</sup>harlot, in that thou scornest hire;

Isa. 1, 10.
32 But as a wife that committeth adultery, which taketh <sup>a</sup>strangers <sup>a</sup>instead of her husband!
33 They give gifts to all whores; but thou givest thy gifts to all <sup>b</sup>thy lovers, and hirest them, that they may come unto thee on every side for thy whoredom.
34 And the contrary is in thee from other women in thy whoredoms, whereas none followeth thee to commit whoredoms: and in that thou givest a reward, and no reward is given unto thee; therefore thou art contrary.
35 Wherefore, <sup>c</sup>O harlot, hear the word of the Lord:
36 Thus saith the Lord God, Because thy filthiness was poured out, and thy <sup>d</sup>nakedness discovered through thy whoredoms with thy lovers, and with all the idols of thy abominations, and by the blood of thy children, which thou didst give unto them:
37 Behold, therefore, I will <sup>e</sup>gather all thy lovers, with whom thou hast taken pleasure, and all them that thou hast loved, with all them that thou hast hated; I will even gather them round about against thee, and will discover thy nakedness <sup>f</sup>unto them, that they may see all thy nakedness.
38 And I will judge thee, <sup>g</sup>as women that break wedlock, and shed blood, are judged: and I will give thee blood in fury and <sup>h</sup>jealousy.
39 And I will also give thee into their hand, and they shall throw down thine <sup>i</sup>eminent place, and shall break down thy high places: they shall <sup>k</sup>strip thee also of thy clothes, and shall take thy fair jewels, and leave thee naked and bare.
40 They shall also bring up <sup>l</sup>a company against thee, and they <sup>m</sup>shall stone thee with stones, and thrust thee through with their swords.
41 And they shall <sup>n</sup>burn thine houses with fire, and execute judgments upon thee in the <sup>o</sup>sight of many women: and I will cause thee to cease from playing the harlot, and thou also shalt give no hire any more.
42 So will I make my fury towards thee <sup>p</sup>to rest, and my jealousy shall depart from thee, and I will <sup>q</sup>be quiet, and will be no more angry.
43 Because thou hast <sup>r</sup>not remembered the days of thy youth, but hast <sup>s</sup>fretted me in all these things; behold, therefore, I also will <sup>t</sup>recompense thy way upon thine head, saith the Lord God; and thou shalt not commit this lewdness above all thine abominations.
44 Behold, every one that useth proverbs shall use this proverb against thee, saying, As is the <sup>u</sup>mother, so is her daughter.
45 Thou art thy mother's daughter, that loatheth her husband and her children; and thou art the sister of thy sisters, which loathed their husbands and their children: your mother was an Hittite, and your father an Amorite.
46 And thine <sup>x</sup>elder sister is Samaria, she and her daughters that dwell at thy left hand: and thy younger sister, that dwelleth at thy right hand, is Sodom and her daughters.
47 Yet hast thou not walked after their ways, nor done after their abominations; but, as if that were <sup>y</sup>a very little thing, thou wast corrupted more than they in all thy ways.

48 As I live, saith the Lord God, Sodom thy sister hath not done, she nor her daughters, <sup>z</sup>as thou hast done, thou and thy daughters.
49 Behold, this was the iniquity of thy sister Sodom, <sup>a</sup>pride, fulness of bread, and abundance of idleness, was in her, and in her daughters, neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and needy.
50 And they were <sup>b</sup>haughty, and committed abomination before me: therefore I took them away as I saw good.
51 Neither hath <sup>c</sup>Samaria committed half of thy sins; but thou hast multiplied thine abominations more than they, and hast <sup>d</sup>justified thy sisters in all thine abominations which thou hast done.
